

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is a purely closed condition, the result is total deafness. It can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be restored for ever. Nine cases out of ten are cured by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

A Unique Pipe.
A novel pipe for transmitting hydraulic pressure is in use at the Victoria bridge, near the mouth of the River Dee, England. As described in the Engineering News, it consists of a solid drawn lead pipe, covered with close coils of copper wire, and is used for conveying water at 750 pounds per square inch pressure from one side of the river to the other to operate the machinery of a span of the swing bridge. At first a copper pipe one and a half inches in diameter, jointed with screwed unions, was used, but the scouring action of the tide washed out the bed of the river, left the pipe unsupported in two places and caused it to leak. The new pipe made of lead, wrapped with copper wire, is more flexible than the old one, and it is expected it will work more satisfactorily.

THE NATIONAL FINANCES.

Statements of Treasury Operations For the Month of November.

PUBLIC DEBT SHOWS A DECREASE.

The Receipts, Exclusive of $18,194,618 From the Union Pacific Sale, Were $25,168,987, and the Disbursements $23,261,470, Leaving a Deficit of $8,092,433—The Amount of Coinage.

WASHINGTON, D. C. (Special).—The December statement of the public debt shows that at the close of business, November 30, 1897, the public debt less cash in the Treasury, amounted to $1,003,235,465, a decrease since October 31 of $11,338,125. This decrease is accounted for by an increase in the cash due to the deposit of an installment of the proceeds of the sale of the Government's interest in the Union Pacific Railroad. But for this transaction, the cash in the Treasury would have been $771,450 less than last month.

The debt is recapitulated as follows: Interest bearing debt, $847,985,620; debt on which interest has ceased since maturity, $1,331,250; debt bearing no interest, $581,193,125; total, $1,229,809,025. This amount, however, does not include $579,929,933 in certificates and Treasury notes outstanding, which are offset by an equal amount of cash in the Treasury.

The cash in the Treasury is classified as follows: Gold, $194,089,260; silver, $507,636,332; paper, $105,758,151; bonds, disbursing officers' balances, &c., $83,807,231; total, $840,490,974, against which there are demand liabilities amounting to $625,745,516, leaving the net cash balance $214,745,458.

The comparative statement of the Government receipts and expenditures shows that the total receipts for the month of November, 1897, were $43,363,605, of which $18,194,618 were received from the reorganization committee of the Union Pacific Railroad, making the ordinary receipts for the month $25,168,987. The total expenditures for November were $27,071,553, of which $4,449,338 were cash in the Union Pacific sinking fund appropriation from which it had been originally drawn for investment. Hence the month's disbursements include this sum. The ordinary receipts for the month, therefore, were $25,168,987, and the ordinary disbursements $23,261,470, leaving a deficit of $8,092,433.

RACE RIOTS IN BOHEMIA.

Troops Engaged With Czech Mobs in the German Quarter of Prague.

Prague, Bohemia, was overrun by mobs of angry Czechs all day, bent on exterminating the German element in the city. Fierce attacks were made on the German schools, cafes and other institutions by crowds of boiling Czechs, armed with crowbars, clubs and firearms. The disturbance almost amounted to a rebellion. More than eighty Germans were injured, and at least 200 arrests were made. The Chief of Police, who aided the rioters, has been suspended. It was finally necessary to order out troops, which were placed in virtual control of every street in the city. Many encounters occurred between the soldiers and rioters, and in the firing which followed several rioters were killed and dozens injured.

In the afternoon the riots increased. The synagogue windows were smashed, and the windows of the houses of Hebrews displaying German trade signs in several streets of the Hebrew quarter. The streets were held by twelve battalions of infantry and a squadron of Hussars. All traffic was suspended and the shops and business houses were closed.

In spite of the military a large Czech mob made a descent in the evening upon the German quarters and plundered houses and shops in several streets. The furniture of a well-known German cafe was piled upon the street and set on fire. Thousands of Czechish miners streamed into Prague from the surrounding villages to assist the rioters. The scientific instruments in the German university and high school have been destroyed, and valuable archives preserved for a long time at the Kinsky palace have been burned.

JUSTICE FIELD RETIRES.

Mr. Harlan Now Senior Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.

Justice Field's retirement from the Supreme Court, of which he gave official notice to the President last April, took place in Washington, Wednesday. There were no formalities. The Justice was not present in the courtroom, and as he had not sat with the court since the opening day of the term, the proceedings did not differ in any respect from those of ordinary days. Justice Harlan, who now becomes the senior Associate, will change his seat from the left to the right side of the Chief Justice, taking the seat vacated by Mr. Field, and Justice Gray will become Chief Justice Fuller's neighbor on the left. All other Justices will move up one chair nearer the Chief.

SYOP THE WASTAGE.

An Expert Tells How Agricultural Resources May Be Increased.

The wonderful loss to farmers brought about by the neglect to properly utilize the resources and to employ knowledge that is considered indispensable in other kinds of business is one of the causes of depression in agriculture. This is more particularly the case in the South than elsewhere, although much has been done within the past few years to check this loss. The Southern people are just beginning to appreciate the advantages of employing their other resources than those of cotton production. In the past the South has been too largely dependent upon the colored man and the mule. The result has been, and will continue to be, so long as they practice a one-crop system, that they will be subject to periods of discouraging depression. In other words, where the farmer put all of his eggs in one basket and meets with some accident he is confronted by the loss of his entire source of support until nature has time to produce another crop. Should it fail a second and third time the poor farmer is left in a desperate way. In the South the wonderful resources for feeding the North upon early vegetables have not been utilized as they can be. There has been and will continue to be a large wastage of products upon the farm, most particularly in the failure to properly utilize cotton seed and its products.

Where favorable terms with the cotton seed oil mills can be made it is well enough to sell the excess of cotton seed and either exchange it or buy cotton seed meal. The intelligent farmer, with the aid of the experiment station or the officers of the agricultural college of his State, can readily figure out whether it is more profitable to sell and buy or to keep and feed or use as a fertilizer. If the farmer keeps his cotton seed he should at once provide for feeding it to stock. Cheap sheds can be constructed to properly protect the cattle from the cold rains which are so trying on stock in the winter, and the manure carefully preserved in a shed will give the farmer a double profit. In fact, I might say a treble profit. For in this way, by preserving his manure in the form of a compost heap and mixing with it from time to time some potash and a moderate supply of phosphate, he would save the profit charged by dealers in fertilizers and secure to himself the profit of the cotton seed as a fertilizer and as a feed stuff. Besides this he would be able to utilize the hay which is produced in great quantities upon the Southern farms and only needs to be harvested and fed in order to make it profitable.

The use of kainit in a compost heap cannot be too highly recommended, as it preserves to the farmer his valuable nitrogen and serves as a preventive of waste upon the farm. The addition of the acid phosphate makes a complete manure that is highly satisfactory for all kinds of crops and on almost all kinds of soil. We advise every farmer to do some close figuring and see if he can afford to sell his cotton seed at ten dollars a ton or exchange it for 725 pounds of cotton seed meal. It will be one of the most profitable rainy days' work he ever did if he will calculate all of profits and losses and carefully study how he could save several dollars per ton by feeding stock and preparing his fertilizers at home. He may find that he is selling his birthright for a mess of pottage when he parts with his cotton seed at prevailing rates. He may find that he can save largely by producing more fertilizers upon the farm and by buying simply the potash salts and the acid phosphate necessary to properly utilize his present wastes.

Stop the wastes upon the farm. Utilize its products in an economic manner. Prevent loss to live stock and fertilizers by exposure to the weather and cold drenching rains. Avoid injudicious sales of valuable farm products and the purchase of fertilizers that should be saved upon the farm. Where fertilizers are bought let them be supplemented to those produced upon the farm, and purchase those ingredients necessary to perfect the fertilizer products of the farm. Avoid wastage of labor by cultivating unprofitable lands and see that all cultivated land is well fertilized.

Ex-Director West Virginia Experiment Station.

THOUSANDS OF LIVES LOST.

Property Worth Millions Destroyed in Typhoon-Swept Philippines.
The typhoon which swept over the Philippine Islands on October 6 was the cause of one of the worst disasters reported from the Southern Ocean in many years. Thousands of lives were lost, among those who perished being many Europeans, and the damage to property was something appalling.

The difficulty of getting news from the islands is great at any time, and owing to the remoteness of some of the provinces visited by the hurricane full details of the storm did not reach Hong-kong until the first of November. Several towns were swept or blown away. Fully 400 Europeans were drowned, and it is estimated that 6000 natives perished.

The hurricane struck the island at the Bay of Santa Paula, in the Province of Samar. It devastated the entire southern portion of the island, and cut off communication with the rest of the world for two days.

On the 12th the hurricane reached Leyte and struck the capital of Tacloban with great fury. In less than half an hour the town was a mass of ruins. The natives were panic-stricken, and tried to make their way to clear ground. Four hundred of them were buried beneath the debris of wrecked buildings, and 125 corpses of Europeans were recovered when the native authorities instituted a search for the dead.

Reports from the southern coast were received, which claimed that a score of small trading vessels and two Sydney traders were blown ashore and the crew drowned. The sea at Samar swept inland nearly a mile, destroying property valued at several million dollars and causing a great number of deaths among the natives.

Parenthood.
Children bind husband and wife more closely than the wedding ceremony itself. One-half of married misery is due to the growing physical weakness of women, which makes child-bearing a dreaded burden and prevents those close relations between husband and wife without which happiness cannot exist. How important then is it that the woman be brought to an perfect condition of health, of which she is capable, so that she can give to her offspring, not her abundance of life and spirits. Dr. Simmons Squaw Vine Wine will do this; it will purify her blood, tone up her nervous system and give her courage and assurance of safety to go through the ordeal of childbirth.

Dimness of Vision.
In cases of weak and imperfect vision, the causes of disease should, if possible, be correctly ascertained, so that they may be as far as possible obviated and guarded against. Where the trouble is functional and arises from some constitutional derangement or debility, such as torpid bowels or inactive kidneys, producing a morbid condition in the organism, constitutional treatment with Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine will produce the happiest results. When caused by prolonged nursing, excessive sexual indulgence, abuse of stimulants, the excessive use of the eyes on too bright or too minute objects, too much sleep or other circumstances which produce derangement of blood in the head, Dr. Simmons Squaw Vine Wine quickly cures.
