The "Old Maids' Convention" which was held in the school auditorium on Tuesday evening was a wonderful success. Each member of the cast showed decided talent. The electric transformers which was operated by "Professor Makeover" worked wonders. A neat sum was realized.

The Rev. W. I. Sinnott of Salters, Rev. W. R. Prichett of Indiantown, J. S. Evans, of New Zion and W. M. Rodgers, of Hemingway are named as commissioners to represent South Carolina at the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church which convenes today at St. Louis, Mo. The convention will last for ten days.

Mr. Brown, a venerable citizen of this place was painfully injured about the face last Thursday by the explosion of a gasoline tank. He is improving.

The meeting of the Margaret Gregg Chapter of the D. A. R. met on Thursday afternoon last, at the home of Mrs. Wm. W. Boddie, on Hampton street. At this meeting Miss Marian McFadden gave a most interesting report of the meeting of the Thirtieth Continental Congress D. A. R., which she attended in Washington, D. C. Miss McFadden then presented to the Chapter twelve volumes of Lineage books which she secured in Washington for the Chapter. Miss Lela Brockington then read the new state regents message. Mrs. Lillian Cain of St. Matthews is the new state regent, taking the place of Mrs. Elinor Duvall of Cheraw. After a short business meeting the hostess served a delightful salad course.

A brilliant social event was the reception on last Friday evening given for Misses Dolly McFadden and Laura Boyd, by Mrs. John Fulmore McFadden, at her home on Brooks street. Both these young ladies are members of the graduating class of the Kingstree High school, so the hostess carried out very effectively, the class colors of yellow and white in her decorations as well as refreshments. The entire lower floor was decorated with lovely cut flowers and potted plants; nasturtiums, daisies and roses being used. The electric lights were all shaded with yellow shades and a number of Japanese lanterns were used. The guests were met at the door by Misses Agnes Erckerman and Marian McFadden. Mrs. Marion F. Montgomery then escorted them into the drawing room where the receiving line; Mrs. John Fulmore McFadden, Misses Dolly McFadden and Laura Boyd stood. From the receiving line the guests went into the hall where Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Prosser served them with delicious punch. They were then taken into the dining room, where they were served brick ice cream, cake and mints, in yellow and white, by Misses Mary and Louise McCutcheon, and Margaret Allen. About one hundred guests enjoyed this lovely reception.

DOUBLE WEDDING SUNDAY
Messrs. Crawford and McGill Married to Misses Gamble and McCants.

Sunday afternoon Mr. H. C. Crawford and Mr. Thornton McGill were married to Miss Leora Gamble and Miss Madge McCants, respectively. The ceremony was to have taken place in the Methodist church, but the secret of the wedding party leaked out and before the appointed hour the church was well filled with uninvited guests. When this was learned the prospective brides and grooms went to the parsonage, next door to the church where Dr. Daniel performed the ceremony. The guests were left "waiting at the church" but they got out in time to send a shower of rice over the matrimonial celebrants. The brides are daughters of Mr. W. F. McCants, of this place; the groomsmen are local business men. After the ceremony the party left on a short bridal trip.

Meeting of Rome Book Club.
On Wednesday afternoon April 20, Mrs. G. E. Grier entertained the Rome Book Club at her home at Rhems.

With the president, Mrs. L. B. Johnson in the chair, the business was attended to before the literary program was rendered.

Roll call was answered by County Current Events. The members were entertained as well as instructed by hearing a paper prepared by Mrs. Bethel DuRant on "The County as a Unit of Government."

Mrs. G. K. Way, who had been called to the chair by the president, next asked for a "Study of the Map of Your County," by Mrs. L. B. Johnson. Mrs. Johnson talked without notes, using a soil map prepared by the Bureau of Soils of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The natural fertility of the soil was commended. The soil was characterized as Coxville Sandy loam. After the study was completed, Mrs. Johnson gave a historical sketch of the county which made the members feel more than ever proud to say they were from Georgetown.

The president then resumed her chair, and asked for a report from the State Federation. Mrs. G. K. Way gave this report. Plans for a public emeting to be held in June were outlined, at which time the district vice-president is to be with the club.

Miss Annie Wilson rendered a vocal solo, accompanied by Mrs. Rollins. Miss Emmie Snow was appointed to take orders for federation pins.

Know and believe in yourself and what others think won't disturb you.

Rent Does Not Buy a Nickle's Worth of Ownership!

AFTER FIVE, TEN OR FIFTEEN YEARS ABODE IN A RENTED HOUSE YOU HAVE PROBABLY PAID FAR IN EXCESS OF THE COST OF THE HOUSE—YET—ARE NO NEARER TO BEING OWNER THAN WHEN YOU STARTED! Bear these points in mind—then RESOLVE TO BE A HOME-OWNER—NOT A HOUSE RENTER. And we use the terms "home" and "house" advisedly, for a rented house is never quite a HOME.

As your own lumber dealers, we would take particular pleasure in helping you become a homeowner. We have many home designs for your selection and the materials necessary in its construction are now being sold at REASONABLE PRICES. STEP IN AND SEE US.
