Personal

Miss Rosa McCown is visiting Mrs. D. J. Chandler. Mr. H. C. Carson, of Charlotte, is visiting Mr. D. H. ... Mr. W. T. Perry, has been in the city since the first of the week. Miss Eva Hall, of Charlotte, is visiting Mrs. Archie China. Mr. M. G. Brytberg has returned to New York on business. The Rev. John Kershaw has gone on a visit of a few days to his father in Georgia. Miss Lizzie Strohecker and Etta Cathcart, of Charleston, are guests at Capt. E. Scott Cuttino's.

All schools were holiday tomorrow and all places of business will be closed. Real Estate No. 1 and 2, colored, left yesterday for Augusta to take part in the Farmers' tournament.

A letter from "J. E. D." of Pisgah with commendation on the proposed ballot reform came this morning.

The electric light was broken at the corner of Main and Liberty Streets Monday night and the city was without light for several hours. There will be no supper at the residence of Dr. G. B. Brown, Sumterville, on the evening of Friday, December 1st, to raise money for St. John's Church.

A negro named Jim Major, of the Providence neighborhood, has come to grief by buying seed cotton, and is now in jail awaiting trial on that charge.

A letter was received this morning from J. N. Phillips, dated at Springfield, Ga., at which place his party arrived last Saturday. The letter, which gives an account of each of the five days travel after leaving here, will appear next week.

Pinekey Smothers, who stole several bags of cotton from J. B. Aycock & Sons, last year, has been captured and is now in jail at St. Augustine, Fla. Sheriff Sanders left last night for St. Augustine, and when he returns he will bring Smothers with him.

The City Council has received a letter from Geo. John D. Kennedy, of Camden, accepting the invitation extended to him to deliver the oration on the occasion of the laying of the corner stone of the new City Hall, on December 27th. The occasion will be one long to be remembered.

A change of schedule on the Atlantic Coast Line goes into effect on Sunday. The early morning train leaves Columbia at 4.20 a. m., arriving here at 5.57 a. m. The night train leaves here at 3.28 p. m., arriving in Columbia at 10 p. m.

Arrangements were made for a test of the fire department on last Wednesday afternoon, and a false alarm called out the entire department which promptly assembled, at the old Jersey House which was supposed to be the scene of conflagration (the most unlikely place in town) Delgar Reel No. 3, threw the first stream.

Milch Cows sold cheap for cash or on installment weekly or monthly. Eugene Hogan. Another lot of fine Tennessee Reeves arrived yesterday for Eugene Hogan. Leave your orders with him for meat of all kinds.

I am now better prepared to furnish the public and my customers more meats of all kinds than ever before. Eugene Hogan.

Tournament. A tournament will be held at Mile Branch tomorrow at 12 o'clock. An entrance fee of $1 will be charged and three prizes will be awarded. The managers cordially invite all young men to ride.

The Ball To-Night. The Thanksgiving eve ball to-night has the promise of being one of the most important social events of the season. We hear of a number of ladies and gentlemen from the County and even beyond who propose to attend.

They Still use Razors. Last Saturday morning two colored women got into a row down on Ricker's Hundred and one cut the other's throat. The woman who was cut, procured medical attention and will recover. The weapon used was one of the old time razors.

Board of Stewards. Following is the board of stewards elected to serve the Methodist church next year: R. Purdy, J. D. Craig, F. A. Folsom, Geo. Masotte, W. B. Barnes, J. R. Phillips, L. W. Folsom, J. H. Dixon, A. B. Stucker, A. J. China, and Edgar Skinner.

Messrs. J. B. Carr, C. M. Hurst, Jr., and Dr. J. A. Kood were members of the old board and declined re-election.

Helping to Entertain Conference. Messrs. Ducker & Bultman present in this paper an attractive list of desirable goods which they have in store and to which they invite the attention of families generally. It will be seen that they make a very liberal proposition by way of helping all who will entertain one or more members of Conference, viz: In addition to quoting very close prices on everything, they will give a five per cent reduction on purchases for those who entertain at their homes.

Gamblers Arrested. For six months or more Dick Fraser, colored, who resides in that portion of this city lying beyond the A. C. L., and road known as Ricker Town, has been suspected of running a gambling dive. The crowd that daily and nightly collected at his place became a nuisance and he was warned about it, but as there was no direct evidence against him, he was not arrested until yesterday morning. Then, sufficient evidence having been secured, the place was raided and Fraser, George Elliott and three other negroes were arrested. There were eighteen in the house at the time, and all escaped but five. The others will be taken in charge by Chief Weeks and his assistants within the next few days unless they take leg bail and relieve the city of their presence.

Milch Cows sold cheap, by Eugene Hogan. All cows left me this week have my special attention. Eugene Hogan. If you want to buy a milch cow, go to Eugene Hogan and buy on the installment plan.

Highest cash price paid for Cotton seed, from sackfall to car load lots. Also, a few good milch cows for sale cheap, W. B. Borle.

Hymenal.

At the Baptist Church on to-morrow evening at half-past 8 o'clock, Mr. Frank W. Porter and Miss Katie Flowers will be united in marriage. No Cards.

Married.

Mr. H. W. King, of Hagood, and Miss Rena Boswell, of Camden, were married in Camden on last Tuesday, November 21st, by Rev. M. L. Carlisle. Mr. Morgan S. Cantey, of Georgia, formerly of Foreston, Clarendon county, and Miss Tyson Conyers, of Greenville, were married on the 22nd, and went to Atlanta to live. Mr. H. C. Huntley and Miss Orena Hughes were married on Tuesday morning Nov. 21st, in the Methodist Church at Abbeville. Rev. H. W. Bays officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Huntley arrived in Sumter, Wednesday, and will make this city their home.

Mr. R. D. Cuttino and Miss Belle Carson were married in the Presbyterian Church last evening, at 8 o'clock, Rev. E. H. Cuttino, of Florence county, father of the groom, assisted by Dr. N. W. Edwards, officiating. The church was filled to its utmost capacity by the friends of the contracting parties. The decorations of the church were unusually tasteful, especially the suspended bell of roses beneath which the bridal couple stood during the ceremony.

The Fourth Regiment Orchestra furnished the music to the accompaniment of which the bridal party entered and left the church, and the sweet strains were fitting heralds of the fair bridesmaids and fairer bride. The ushers, Messrs. J. H. DeChamps and W. Albert Parrott, S. Liles Miller and W. G. McCown entered the church first, in the left and right aisles respectively, followed by the attendants as follows:

Dr. H. M. Stuckey and Miss Lizzie Strohecker. Mr. Duke Carson and Miss Addie DeChamps. Mr. G. A. Lemmon and Miss Belle Sanders. Mr. J. N. Brand and Miss Lizzie Cuttino. Mr. Spann Vinson and Miss Rosa McCown. Mr. G. N. Marshall and Miss Etta Cathcart. Mr. S. J. Blackwell and Miss Eloise Wilson. Mr. Eliza Carson and Miss Beulah Cuttino. Mr. John T. Green, jr., and Miss Mattie Carson.

The groom and Mr. W. Robert Delgar, his best man, entered the left aisle, and the bride entered the right aisle leaning on the arm of her father, Capt. W. S. Carson. The couples entering the left aisle crossed to the right side of the altar, and those entering the right vice versa, thus forming a semi-circle facing the audience. In leaving the church the party filed out the left aisle. All the gentlemen wore full dress suits and white kids. The bridesmaids wore either white or canary colored satin gowns. The bride was attired in a rich gown of white satin, made en train.

From the church the bridal party repaired to the residence of Capt. Carson where an elegant supper was served, and the evening was passed in pleasure and in felicitations of the happy couple. Mr. and Mrs. Cuttino leave this evening for Charleston, where a week or more will be spent.

Mr. Cuttino is a member of the firm of Cuttino & Delgar, and is one of the promising young business men of the city. Mrs. Cuttino is the second daughter of Capt. E. Scott Carson, and has been, since her debut, one of the belles of Sumter society, by reason of her acknowledged beauty, and the many graces of mind and heart that she possesses.

From the Christian Advocate. (Nashville, Tenn.,) Nov. 16th, 1893. "On the afternoon of the 8th inst., Miss Ruth John, and Rev. J. Richardson Wood, B. D., were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's father in this city. It was a missionary wedding all around. The groom who is a son of the late Rev. F. Asberry Wood, and an honor graduate of the Biblical Department of Vanderbilt University, is under appointment to the 'Mexican Central Conference.'

The bride is the daughter of Dr. J. G. John, Senior Missionary Secretary. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Walter R. Lambush, who has made a noble record as a missionary in China and Japan, and whose father, grand father and great grand father were all missionaries.

Among the guests were Rev. George B. Winton of the Mexican Central Conference, and Dr. S. H. Wainwright of the Japan Conference. We send a thousand blessings after our young friends in their far off home at San Louis, Potosi, Mexico."

The mother of the groom was Miss Sue R. Logan of Sumter, who was a granddaughter of the late John Richardson. The father of the groom is also remembered in Sumter.

Deaths.

Mr. Robert M. Jones died at his home near Brogdons, this county, on Thursday last after a long illness, of paralysis. He was 56 years old, and until stricken several months ago with the disease which caused his death, was a vigorous and strong man. He was a gallant soldier in the late war, belonging to Claremont troop. He was a mason, a member of Claremont Lodge, No. 64, A. F. M. His remains were interred with Masonic honors in the family burying ground, near his home, on Friday afternoon, in the presence of a large gathering of his friends and neighbors. He was a good citizen and a man generally liked and respected.

Died on Thursday last, of diphtheria, Julius, the four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Broughton, of the Jordan neighborhood. Mr. Addison Tidwell, of the Providence neighborhood, died on last Thursday from the effects of injuries received by a bale of cotton falling on him at Col. W. D. Scarborough's gin. The accident happened about ten days before his death. An inquest was held over his body.

Religious.

Thanksgiving services will be held at Tirzah Church to-morrow at 11 o'clock a. m. Mr. E. M. Raynor will conduct the Y. M. C. A. prayer meeting on next Sunday afternoon.

The customary Thanksgiving services will be held in the Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning. Services will be conducted in the Church of the Holy Comforter to-morrow at 11 o'clock by Rev. J. S. Hartsell.

Dr. C. C. Brown will be absent next Sunday in attendance upon the Baptist State Convention. His pulpit will be filled by Rev. J. W. Kramer, of Kingstree.

The Rev. John Kershaw will conduct the services at the Episcopal Church next Sunday, hours of service 11 a. m., and 4.30 p. m. Sunday School 3.30 p. m.

Indian River Oranges $2.35 per box. Jenkins & Phelps. Chickens constantly on hand at Jenkins & Phelps. Grapes of all kinds, also Apples, Turnips, &c. Jenkins & Phelps.

Remove the malaria from your system, before going to the mountains, by drinking Glenn Springs Water. You can get it from W. R. Delgar, Jr.

Art is making great strides, or we could not present our readers with such a handsome Thanksgiving gift as the beautiful floral panel-picture which we announce in another column.

Fire.

Last Friday morning the barn and stables of Mrs. S. A. Brand were burned. The loss was considerable, there being no insurance upon the buildings or contents. Three bales of cotton, about two tons of hay and other articles which were stored in the barn were all lost. The fire was supposed to be of an incendiary origin.

The kitchen attached to the dwelling house of Mrs. Hannah Casick was discovered to be on fire last Friday about 12 o'clock. The alarm was sounded and in a very short time the fire department was on the scene and at work. The fire had gained considerable headway when discovered and it required prompt work to control it. The building was insured with A. White & Son to the full amount of damaged sustained.

Accidental Fire.

Mr. B. D. Mitchell, County Commissioner, who lives out of town about four miles east, had the misfortune to lose everything in the way of household goods by fire, on Saturday night last. The house, which belonged to his nephew, was insured, but the furniture was not. When awakened between 2 and 3 o'clock in the morning, Mr. Mitchell found the back part of the house falling in, and he and his family had time barely to escape from the burning structure. We learn that friends of Mr. Mitchell are subscribing to help him in his emergency, and the list may be seen at the office of Judge T. V. Walsh, in the Court House. Mr. Mitchell believed the fire to have been accidental, since he had no enemies that he knew of.

Annual Meeting of the Historical Society.

The Historical Society of the South Carolina Conference will meet in the Methodist Church on next Tuesday night at quarter to eight o'clock. Rev. R. N. Wells will preside and Rev. W. W. Wood will deliver the annual lecture. The Christian Advocate, of this week makes the following notice of the meeting:

"Through some misunderstanding, no announcement has yet been made of the annual meeting of the Historical Society of the South Carolina Conference. We are informed that the meeting will take place as usual on Tuesday night, Dec. 5th, in the Methodist Church at Sumter. The annual lecture will be delivered by Rev. W. W. Wood, and we are quite sure it will be of especial interest to the people of Sumter, as well as to the members of Conference. The exercises will be public, and we hope a large audience will be in attendance."

Too Many Candidates.

The Tillmanite members of the County Executive committee, eighteen in number held another caucus on last Thursday for the purpose of recommending to Gov. Tillman, for appointment, a successor to Col. Mellett on the board of County Commissioners. There were reported to be more than a dozen candidates, but the field finally narrowed down to Capt. Eli M. Cooper, who, it will be remembered, was defeated for the Senate in 1890 by Dr. Abbott, and again a candidate for the House in the campaign of 1892 and was defeated together with the whole Reform Legislative ticket, and Mr. W. E. Lemmon, who was a candidate for County Commissioner on the Reform ticket in 1892, when Col. Mellett was elected. The writer is informed that Capt. Cooper was supported by the ultra Administration wing of the Reform faction, but that owing to the two-thirds rule having been adopted it was impossible for the caucus to reach an agreement, and the meeting finally adjourned sine die and each wing has recommended its candidate for appointment.

News From St. Charles.

St. CHARLES, Nov. 28. Phillip of Macedonia required a page to cry aloud every morning in his ear, "Phillip thou art mortal." It is a sad duty to inform my old comrades that another brave and true soldier, in the person of Henry B. Smith, departed this life on Saturday night in the sixty-fifth year of his age. Mr. Smith leaves a wife and three daughters and seven noble sons.

While it has been a year of trial and sore disappointment to many of us, we must remember that the goodness and merciful kindness of our Creator endureth for ever. Our young and accommodating railroad agent has concluded not to marry till the opening of the next century. He would have us to think that he is very considerate, and prudent. The trouble is that he has to wait until his "chick" verges into womanhood.

My nephew, R. B. W., don't believe in procreation. He will make his movements along the turbid waters of the James next week, to ascertain the whereabouts of the Woods family. LA CORSE.

Southern Rye and Wheat Seed, Barley Seed and R. P. Oats at Ducker & Bultman's. Go to D. M. Campbell, opposite the post office, for choice Beef, Mutton and Pork. Also Fruit, Vegetables, &c.

The Watchman and Southerner and Cosmopolitan will be sent to any address for one year for $3.00 cash in advance. Have you ever seen the Cosmopolitan? Sample copies at this office.

Farmers and Gardeners, who are desirous of joining in making the South the most prosperous section of the Union, by developing the new agricultural industries, such as garden-seed growing, flower-hult, raising, growing sugar, &c. to develop which, we shall offer $50.00 in premiums, for the best sugar-producing beets grown must read the special articles on these and other agricultural pursuits which commence with the January number of the Progressive South, published at Richmond, Va. The price is only $1.00 per year.

To Subscribers. All subscribers to this paper should have already received or will receive within a few days statements of their accounts. A number have already made settlements, and we hope that others will respond promptly. The accounts are all in small sums and each one can be settled without material efforts on the part of those indebted to us. The large number of these accounts due makes the aggregate sum quite large and it is important that we make collections.

Ducker and Bultman Conference.

We are all glad to have this noble band of workers in our midst, but the very practical subject of "What is it going to cost me to entertain my allotment?" will protrude itself.

We have decided that we will help you to solve this question. Times are hard, and money is scarce.

We submit the following list of necessities and delicacies, on which, notwithstanding the fact, that they are at Rock Bottom Prices, we will give a discount of 5 per cent. to any one who is entertaining one or more delegates, at home, and who pays the Cash.

Remember, this unprecedented offer is only good for this special occasion.
