MAKES TELLING ATTACK ON TWO OPPONENTS.

Points to Their Failure—Declares Colonel Has Been Found "Incompetent" As President—Responsible for Present Evil.

Indianapolis, Oct. 3.—For the first time during the national campaign Gov. Woodrow Wilson tonight directed an extended attack on the administrations of President Taft and former President Roosevelt. The governor charged that Col. Roosevelt, as president had been found "incompetent." Mr. Taft, he said had on the other hand failed to alter the policies inaugurated under President Roosevelt's administration when trusts and monopoly grew up on a scale never before dreamed of.

In the picturesque illumination of the base ball park the governor saw spread before him tonight for several hundred feet in the bleachers and on the field an immense throng.

The governor launched immediately into his attack on his two opponents. It was the first time he mentioned them by name at any length.

"What I want to call your attention to," said the governor, "is that the new third party has not drawn to itself the full strength or even all of the principal leaders of the insurgent Republicans because this circumstance appeals to every man who thinks the present situation over; the very things that we are protesting against, the very conditions under the two leaders of the two branches of the present Republican party because it is true that these conditions are just as much created under Mr. Roosevelt as they have been created under Mr. Taft.

"There was growth during his administration of the great monopolies which we call trusts, upon a scale never before dreamed of and upon a greater scale than has been characteristic of the administration of his successor.

"Some time ago during the campaign which preceded the two Republican political conventions you remember that there was a very interesting campaign between Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt and everything that anybody could say against Mr. Taft, Mr. Roosevelt said and everything anybody could say against Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Taft said and the Democrats were inclined to believe both of them, for the truth was that Mr. Taft was merely the successor of Mr. Roosevelt in the prosecution of policies which Mr. Taft did not alter and merely sought to confirm and establish.

"You have therefore this extraordinary spectacle, of two branches of the Republican party, both of them led by men clearly responsible for the very conditions which we are seeking to alter. And the reason that some of the insurgent Republicans are not following Mr. Roosevelt, the reason that men like Mr. La Follette, for example, are not following Mr. Roosevelt, is that they already have tested Mr. Roosevelt when he was president and have found that he was not willing to co-operate with them along any line that would be effective in the checking of the evils of which we complain.

"So that the leader of the very movement which is proposed for our emancipation is a man who has been tried in this very matter, and not found either willing or competent to accomplish the objects that we now seek. In order to confirm my view of the matter, you have only to read Mr. La Follette's biography. There, in detail, it is told how Mr. La Follette and others like him carried proposals to the then president, Mr. Roosevelt, which would have made this campaign inconceivable, and after he had, feeling his first generous impulse, consented to co-operate with them, he subsequently drew back and refused to co-operate with them, under what influence I don't care to conjecture, because it is not my duty, and it would be very distasteful to me to call in question the motives of this gentleman.

"To my mind, it is a choice between Tweedle-dum and Tweedle-dee to choose between the leader of the one branch of the Republican party and the leader of the other branch of the Republican party, because what the whole country knows to be true, these gentlemen deny. The whole country knows that special privilege has sprung up in this land. The whole country knows, except these gentlemen, that it has been due chiefly to the protective tariff."

Unknown Has Plied Assassin's Trade Diligently in Tampa During Past Two Weeks.

Tampa, Fla., Oct. 3.—Viola Danford, a white woman, was fatally shot in the back tonight as she sat in her residence at 11 o'clock.

This is the seventh woman shot by an unknown assassin in the last two weeks. A week ago Mrs. Juan Rodriguez was killed supposedly by the same person. She was a white woman. Five of those who have been wounded or killed by the unknown are negro women. A pistol duel two nights ago between a policeman and an unknown negro following the shooting of a negro woman resulted in the doubling of the police in the district, where the negro has been shooting. The Danford woman is not expected to live until morning.

TRAINS AT STANDSTILL.

CREW FRIGHTENED AWAY FROM TRAIN AT DEARING ON GEORGIA ROAD.

Number of Shots Heard but When Authorities Arrive, They Find No Victims—Fourteen Trains at Camack.

Augusta, Ga., Oct. 4.—At 1.15, eastern time, the general offices of the Georgia railroad announced that they have abandoned hopes of getting passenger train No. 28 out of the siding at Dearing. The conductor and flagman, they admit, have not been seen or heard of since the shooting, but Sheriff Clary has not found any one wounded.

At Camack 14 trains are tied up, one of them a branch line passenger, the others freight trains. Crews of these trains are camped at Camack, except so many as could get hotel accommodations, and are going to remain ready to take charge of and move the trains if an order comes directing a truce in the fight after Dr. Neill arrives here.

A long distance telephone message from Thompson gave the news that Sheriff Harry Clary and Deputy Wall were en route to Dearing, eight miles distant, where the passenger train was derailed. The call for Sheriff Clary carried the information that the train was blocked by derailment of the engine and that the entire crew, except the engineer, was taken off and made to take to the woods.

Considerable shooting was heard following the derailment.

Officials at the general offices of the railroad at first denied that the train had been derailed, and explained that the switch was set for the siding, on which there is a derailing switch at south end, the light turned showing the clear way and the train was run into the siding. The conductor attempted to set the switch in the right direction after the train had been stopped and was fired on a number of times.

He succeeded in getting into the station and called up the sheriff at Thompson. The train, the officials say, is still in the siding waiting for the arrival of the sheriff and his posse.

Columbia, Oct. 4.—It is understood here that the parole of J. Stobo Young, former secretary of the Seminole Securities Company, who was serving a sentence of one year in the State penitentiary, has been extended by the governor from October 1 to December 1. Officials at the penitentiary said today that, while no official order had as yet been issued, that it was understood that an extension of time had been allowed, Young was convicted at the same time with John Y. Garlington.

YOUNG COUPLE UNDAUNTED.

Tales of Martial Sorrows of No Effect and They are Married.

Chicago, Oct. 2.—In the hope that hearing stories of wrecked homes might change their decision to be married so young, Judge John W. Mills took his son, William, 19 years old, and Nora Farrell, 17, the boy's sweetheart into Judge Newcomer's court yesterday to hear the sobs and woes resulting from hasty marriage. The stories failed to have any effect.

"These stories don't scare me if they don't you," Billy said to his sweetheart, "I don't want to wait," replied Nora.

Young Mills interrupted the hearing of an abandonment suit long enough to interview Judge Newcomer. The judge smiled and the ceremony followed.

If you want to contribute directly to the occurrence of capillary bronchitis and pneumonia use cough medicines that contain codeine, morphine, heroin and other sedatives when you have a cough or cold. LEVER GOES TO MARYLAND

Will Speak for Democratic Congressman Seeking Re-election.

Washington, Oct. 3.—On his way to Maryland, where he will make a number of speeches during the latter part of this week in aid of Congressman David J. Lewis, of the 6th district, Representative A. F. Lever, of the 7th South Carolina district, stopped in Washington today to take up with the Postmaster General the question of installing city delivery in the following South Carolina towns: Batesburg, Leesville, Lexington, Bishopville, Branchville, St. Matthews, and Mayesville. All of these towns are in Mr. Lever's district. One or two of them will probably be selected by the Postmaster General for free delivery.

Next Saturday night, Mr. Lever will leave Maryland for Ohio to campaign for a week under the direction of the Democratic national committee, and after that he will speak also in Kansas, Oklahoma and Missouri, chiefly to agricultural audiences.

Questioned as to the national outlook, Mr. Lever expressed the opinion that the election of Governor Wilson is practically assured, and that Col. Roosevelt has been losing ground during the past month. Mr. Lever believes that the former President will run third in the race.

AVIATOR'S LIFE CRUSHED OUT.

Walsh in Fatal 2,000-Foot Fall Before Crowd of Fifty Thousand.

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 3.—With 5,000 persons watching him at the Inter-State Fair grounds this afternoon, Charles F. Walsh, while making a spiral descent in a biplane, fell 2,000 feet to instant death about a quarter of a mile outside the fair grounds. Practically every bone in his body was broken, and his face and body were badly cut.

Walsh had been giving exhibitions at the fair all week, and today for the first time was doing fancy stunts in the air with the machine. He was very high today, probably 5,000 feet, as he began his descent. He was making the spiral descent with the front of the machine when he lost control. Walsh could plainly be seen struggling to regain his balance, but without avail. The machine then began its fatal descent to the earth and the large number of spectators realized that the aviator's death was imminent.

MORGAN FINANCED TEDDY.

DENIES ATTACHING STRINGS TO HIS CONTRIBUTIONS.

Admits Helping Republican Committee to Extent of $180,000 in 1904.

Washington, Oct. 3.—J. Pierpont Morgan told the senate campaign contributions committee today that while he had contributed $180,000 to the last Republican presidential campaign funds, the gifts were made "without expectation of return."

After saying he had contributed $150,000 to the fund of 1904 and $30,000 to the fund of 1908, Mr. Morgan turned to the committee and explained earnestly:

"I want it distinctly understood that J. P. Morgan & Co. never made a single subscription to any election with any promise or expectation of anything in return in any way shape or manner and we never made it without we deemed it advantageous for the improvement of the people. We never had a communication from any candidate. We never had an application from any candidate for money and anything that we did or that was done under my suggestion—and we were all in harmony—was that it was necessary for the good of the country and the business of the people. There was never a commitment of any expectation of any return and we never got any return, either, from anybody."

This statement came after a series of questions by Senator Pomerene as to whether New York financiers had conferred and ascertained the attitude of various candidates towards business before making contributions. Mr. Morgan repeatedly denied there was any "concerted action" among New York business interests in support of the Republican candidate in 1904.

Mr. Morgan said that after making his original contribution of $100,000 in 1904 he was importuned to give another $50,000, which he did. This, he said, he understood was part of the so-called Harriman fund and was turned over to B. B. Odell, Jr., for use by the New York State committee.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of the members of the company, and a number of people from the city were also witnesses. Thursday night as the final curtain went down on the play the newly weds were showered with rice from the wings of the stage, an interesting climax to the play.

RAILWAY DISPUTE SETTLED.

Agreement Reached After Many Conferences.—Provides for Wage Increase.

Washington, Oct. 3.—A settlement of the protracted wage and working conditions controversy between the Southeastern railroads and their employees was reached late today. The men, by the agreement signed, will receive an average advance in wages of approximately 10 per cent.

The rules and working conditions on each of the roads remain substantially unchanged. Approximately 13,000 employees, including 3,000 negroes, are affected. They are conductors, brakemen, baggagemen, flagmen and yardmen. Trackmen and shopmen are not involved. The agreement means to the roads an increase in fixed charges for operating expenses of approximately $1,300,000 a year. As an offset to this, assurance is given that there will be no strike of the men and that the working conditions now agreed upon are fairly satisfactory to the operatives and to the railroads.

After several weeks of futile effort it was decided that the controversy should be referred to the mediators designated by the Erdman act—Presiding Judge Martin A. Knapp of the commerce court and Dr. Charles P. Neill, commissioner of labor. For ten days the mediators have conferred daily with both sides, wrestling with one of the most obstinate controversies in the history of such negotiations. For more than a week it appeared impossible for the mediators to bring the opposing sides to anything approaching an agreement.

Finally, a day or two ago, what substantially amounted to an ultimatum was made, looking to a settlement of the controversy on the basis reached by the officials of the Chesapeake & Ohio, Norfolk & Western and Virginian railway with their men at Norfolk.

COTERIE OF ACTS SUPERIOR.

With Howe's Great London Circus.

As the seasons come and go, and the people depart from the circus tent, they may be heard to give expression to their amazement by saying: "Well, what won't they do next?" The question is invariably answered when the Great London Shows come the next time.

The many features with the Great London Circus this year are creating great attention, from the fact that there are so many new and truly wonderful acts offered. Among the coterie are the marvelous Eddy Family, acrobats extraordinary; the startling Jackson troupe; the Riding Walllets; the wonderful Marie McPhail; Flora Perigina, and a score of other premier acts together with hundreds of arenic performers.

"Not a Lawyer."

A formula is going the rounds of "a few points in Woodrow Wilson's favor," and the first of those cited is that "He is not a lawyer." Governor Wilson is a graduate of a law school and holds the degree of B. D. conferred at his graduation. He was a practicing attorney in Atlanta for a time, and it was his original purpose to make the law his life's career. Later he changed his course, returned to scholarly pursuits, and became a great educator and the head of one of the most distinguished universities of America. Later still he came into active and practical political life, and in that career he is upward and onward bound and is almost certain to reach the pinnacle and establish a new record for success in American politics. If he has any profession at present it is the profession of politics, just as two years ago he was engaged in the profession of teaching and as at the beginning of his career he was engaged in the profession of the law. All of these are honorable and useful professions, and Governor Wilson has adorned them all. In the law he was not so conspicuous as he has been in the other activities of his career, nor did he rise to fame as a practitioner, but it is not a reflection on his ability to say of a man who has engaged in practice as an attorney that "he is not a lawyer."

And why should it be considered creditable in any degree to Governor Wilson that "he is not a lawyer," or conversely, why should it be any discredit to him if he were? The law is a great profession and an honorable one, and a knowledge of the principles of law is certainly no handicap to a man who is to administer a great public office. It is a curious turn of mind that holds a lawyer disqualified for the Presidency.—Charleston Post.
