DEEP SNOW COVERS THE WEST

White Blanket Two Feet Thick
Shrouds Country From Mississippi to Mountains

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Snow up to two feet deep today covered the country between the Mississippi river and Sierra Nevada mountains, and from Canada to northern Texas low temperatures prevailed throughout the area. Slight snow falls occurred in northern Illinois and Indiana and as far east as Toledo, and word came that snow fell in Los Angeles, and there were two inches of snow at the aviation field near Riverside, California.

DANCE AT HAGOOD

Enjoyable Social Event of the Thanksgiving Holiday

Hagood, Nov. 28.—One of the most enjoyable events of the season was the delightful dance given by the young men on Thanksgiving eve in company with the college set and visitors. Myer's Hall was attractively decorated with autumn leaves, chrysanthemums, garlands of yellow and black crepe and a border of vines. About twenty couples participated in general dancing until the "wee sma" hours, and many visitors were present for the occasion. Spirited music was furnished throughout the evening by Faulk's Orchestra, and there was much mirth and merriment from the first strains of the grand march until the last note of Home Sweet Home had died away. Delightful refreshments were served during the intermission. The following couples attended:

Miss Susie Kirk with Mr. Emmett Emanuel; Miss Sarah Sanders with Mr. Sidney Couturier; Miss Rebecca McCabe with Mr. David Lenoir; Miss Mary Kirk with Mr. Leland Myers; Miss Laura DeSaussure with Mr. St. Pierre Lenoir; Miss Winnifred Lee with Mr. Lenoir Sanders; Miss Myra Logan with Mr. Richard Kealafor; Miss Ida Sanders with Mr. Henry Patterson; Miss June Kowle with Mr. Eugene Lenoir; Miss Margaret Hannah with Mr. Gordon Sims; Miss Helen Byrnes with Mr. Frank Patterson; Miss Elizabeth Horton with Mr. Henry Logan; Miss Ruth Pearson with Mr. James Huger; Stags: Messrs. Percy Myers, Robert Moody, Sprunt Sanders, Hopkins Sanders, Henry Harlee, Chas. Sanders, Jr., Richard McKay, Dudley Sanders, Drayton Sanders and Jay Patterson. Chaperones: Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Sanders, Col. and Mrs. J. L. Jackson, Dr. and Mrs. M. S. Kirk, Mayor A. H. Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Lenoir and Mr. and Mrs. Burton Holmes.

A dainty luncheon was given Monday by Mrs. Chas. W. Sanders in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Meade of Miami, Fla. Yellow and white chrysanthemums were used for the centerpiece on the table and the yellow and white color scheme was carried out in all minor details. Souvenirs of the occasion were presented to each guest.

Prof. J. B. Jackson, a member of the faculty of the University of South Carolina, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jackson.

Miss Ida Sanders of Winthrop College and Chas. W. Sanders, Jr., are home for the Thanksgiving festivities. Miss Sanders has as her guest Miss Myra Logan of Charlotte, N. C.

Miss Winnifred Lee of Raleigh, N. C., is spending the Thanksgiving with Misses Mary and Susie Kirk.

LeNoir Sanders of Columbia came over for the dance Wednesday evening and is spending Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Sanders.

Misses June Kowle and Helen Byrnes are home from Converse College, Spartanburg.

Miss Elizabeth Horton of Brenau College is the charming guest of Miss Margaret Hannah, and was one of the delightful visitors at the dance given on Wednesday evening.

Germany Has to Meet More Demands.

Berlin, Oct. 20.—Germany is fairly dazed by the demands and requirements of the Entente military and naval commissions for the housing of their supervisory forces, which, according to the peace treaty, may have their headquarters at the seat of the German government, and place sub-commissions at any desired point in Germany.

The Entente has given notice that it will send a chief commission to Berlin, and ten sub-commissions to other points. It demands, from Berlin, hotel accommodations comprising 500 rooms, housing for 300 non-commissioned officers and men, and garage facilities for 60 automobiles. These are the requirements for the army and naval forces.

For the air forces the Entente wants 200 rooms in a hotel, 100 office rooms, housing for 450 persons, and garage space for 60 automobiles. The figures look large to Germans for guests at all the big hotels even now are happy to be able to creep into a bathroom and snatch some sleep.

The Council of States has decided that the money agreed upon to furnish quarters for the Entente mission, 5,000,000 marks, was not enough. It is, however, rooms, hotels, dwellings, more than money, which is worrying the government.

The government has made a beginning by announcing that it will confiscate one hotel which has 185 rooms, and use the building in Wilhelmstrasse, now the headquarters of a press division, for office space.

Another hotel has been confiscated for the air division. That, however, leaves a big gap between what can be supplied and what is demanded.

The government may perhaps heed the many suggestions made recently for using various former royal and princely castles, which would relieve the strain on the already overstrained Berlin hotel.

MEXICANS PLAYING WITH FIRE

Officials and Newspapers of Mexico City Do Not Seem to Realize Gravity of Situation

Mexico City, Nov. 28 (By the Associated Press).—That American diplomacy has acted hastily and without complete knowledge of the facts is the consensus of the editorial opinion of the newspapers in Mexico City today in dealing with the situation existing between the United States and Mexico as a result of the arrest of William O. Jenkins, the American consular agent at Puebla. The Mexican government's reply to the demand of the United States for the release of Mr. Jenkins is characterized as a prudent and energetic expression of public sentiment.

The Excelsior, affects to see in the American note something akin to Austria's demand on Serbia, and lays great stress on the part it expects the Mexican question to play in the next United States presidential campaign. This journal does not see the possibility of immediate intervention in Mexico by the United States.

El Universal criticizes what it terms the sharpness of the American note and says: "Diplomacy must never be irritated." This newspaper expresses hope that the Jenkins case will be "adjudged with a clear mind." El Demócrata, which is always pro-government, finds in the Mexican note "able defense of our sovereignty" and argues that the United States is without legal right to demand the release of Mr. Jenkins.

El Monitor Republicano, organ of the followers of General Obregon, says American diplomacy "has fallen down lamentably in the Jenkins case" and finds the demands of the United States a direct contradiction of President Wilson's statement that strong nations should not impose on weak nations. It declares that despite our faults and imperfections Mexico has constitutional and judicial order within the republic.

The organ of Gen. Pablo Gonzales, former commander of the Carranza forces in the capital, Mexico Nuevo, says of the Jenkins case that it is a delicate matter, but easy of solution when the true facts are known by the United States.

El Teraldo de Mexico voices the sentiment, which is expressed by all the newspapers that, although, the Mexican government has answered the United States "energetically," but without petulance, it is hoped there will be no further complications.

All the editorials today are free from rancor. In them there is much speculation as to what the United States will do next. Hilario Medina, under secretary for foreign affairs, told the newspapers that he considered the situation "serious but not grave."

El Herald today publishes a dispatch from Puebla which says that the rebels Juan Ubarra and Fortino A. Ayaquaca, members of the band which abducted Mr. Jenkins, have voluntarily surrendered in order that they may tell the truth of the affair.

Mr. Jenkins remains in the penitentiary at Puebla. His friends say that he is being treated with every consideration, receiving dozens of visitors daily and conducting his business affairs from an office set up in the prison.

Vienna Is Deluged With Beggars.

Vienna, Oct. 15.—This place is suffering from a daily increasing pest of beggars. While a few are crippled soldiers by far the greater part of the swarms that haunt the thoroughfares are civilians, men, women and children of all ages, from tiny barefooted ragged tots to old men and old women. Women with babies in arms and others clutching at their skirts, little girls and little boys of school age and old persons parade the sidewalks in the hotel and cafe districts and pass in steady streams through the restaurants and cafes. Some are licensed, but they are few. The Viennese beggar while persistent is never abusive when refused.

Mrs. E. B. Elam, 316 W. Liberty

St., Sumter, says: "About six years ago I had quite a bit of kidney trouble and I felt pretty bad. Headaches bothered me so that I could hardly stand up and dizzy spells annoyed me so, I thought I would fall over many times. My nerves were all unstrung and I would jump from the least fright. My kidneys acted very irregularly and I knew they were in bad shape. Finally, I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and started taking them. I must say, Doan's positively cured me of all kidney trouble, and I haven't been bothered since."
