

THE SPARTAN

WEDNESDAY, Jan 8, 1896.

Subscription Rates.

Table with 2 columns: Subscription type and Price. Includes rates for one year in advance, six months, and advance price out of county.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Are you in arrears? Do not wait for the editor to call on you. Call at the office and get a statement of your indebtedness.

Before the first of October about 500 accounts will be placed in the hands of an active collector.

Look out for him. The SPARTAN $1.00 a year in advance in the county; $1.20 outside.

Galbraith and Company are getting in their goods.

A. G. Floyd has moved his stock of goods to the building next to the Bee Hive.

The graded schools opened again Monday. It is probable that all the classes will be crowded.

The recent rains have increased the water power and the cotton mills are humming all right.

The general opinion of farmers is that wheat and oats were not killed by the recent cold weather.

W. C. Cannon is ready for the farmers with a fine assortment of plows and plowstocks. Call and get your supply.

W. J. Wall, a son of Walker Wall, returned from California before the holidays. For the last year he was in railroad work.

It is time to look after the garden. First make it chicken and rabbit proof. After these freezes plow as deep as you can two or three times, or spade it.

If you are in need of first-class commercial fertilizers call at the SPARTAN office. Both the Acid phosphate and Soluble will be ready to deliver the 15th to 20th instant.

The Dunbar Brothers are hustling these days. Their pure Florida Syrup is very fine. Then they have carriages, wagons and buggies and all sorts of groceries. Call and see them.

This being leap year the editor of the SPARTAN is open to a proposition from any lady who wishes to subscribe, or raise a club for the SPARTAN. Let such report in person or by letter.

We will begin a most interesting serial story by Julian Hawthorne the 22nd instant. It will run through several papers. Subscribe at once, if you wish to read a story by one of America's leading authors.

To the great delight of his neighbors Dick Henson who was arrested some time ago for stealing carpenters' tools was examined by Judge Kirby Saturday and sent up for trial. Dick has been accused of many things unbecoming a gentleman.

Rev. W. H. Waters married the following persons:

Near Woodruff Sam Campbell and Miss Minnie Heaton Dec. 19. At Rockford Eddie Sellers and Miss Alta Morrow Dec. 20. Near Woodruff, Mat Lanford and Miss Nannie Page Dec. 20.

Wood's descriptive catalogue of high grade garden and field seeds has been received. It contains much information as to lawn and field grasses, flowers, the vegetable garden and field crops. The seeds from this house are first class. We have tried them for two years and know that they are good. Address T. W. Wood & Sons, Richmond Va.

Prof. G. B. Toole, principal of the Woodruff High School, began the work of the New Year Monday. He is assisted by Miss Lula Brown, of Troy, S. C. The school is on up grade. They will soon have a brick school house which will be a great improvement on the rickety old affair they now occupy. Prof. Toole is doing good work which is appreciated by his patrons.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

There was an old time crowd in last Monday to attend the public sales and swap news and horses.

Rev. W. P. Smith, married J. F. Cline of Blacksburg and Miss Mamie Haines, December 1st, 1895, near Ardella.

The special attention of land buyers is called to the advertisement of J. Watkins Lee who has a valuable farm in the suburbs of the city.

Mrs. Coffield died at the residence of her son Joseph Coffield, Goshen Hill, last week, aged 85. She was the mother of Mr. George Coffield of this city.

Mrs. Mattie Baber, second daughter of John T. Cleary of the Spartan Mill, died December 25, 1895. She was buried at the family cemetery near Gaffney where her kindred rest.

We suggest to the young ladies that they avail themselves of their privilege this year, for the next leap year will not come until 1904. If they fall this year that will be a long time to wait.

Cotton has not advanced much since the first day of the year. There is little brought to market. The price for middling here is 7.50. New York futures for March were 8.01 to 8.03 Monday. The spot market was 8.33.

See the changed schedule of the Piedmont Air Line in this issue. The extra train from Columbia to Asheville was put on Monday. That carries the mail and reaches Spartanburg about 10 a. m. Returning it passes here between ten and eleven at night.

Silas Johnson, a colored farmer, who went through the civil war, was looking after his farming tools Saturday and making arrangements for his Acid phosphate. He says he wants to begin in time and keep a little ahead of his work. That is the way to move. He who makes a good showing of work in January will come out all right in gathering time.

The public sales attracted a large crowd Monday. The Sartor property on Main street was sold to J. K. Jennings for $1600. The Burroughs land near Glenn Springs, 14 acres, was sold for $400.00. Various small tracts remote from railroads were sold at $3.60 to $7.00 an acre. F. E. Chapman sold the Benson Mill property near Wellford for about $4500. It brought $5000 more than it did sixteen years ago when Randolph Turner bought it.

Capt. W. G. Britton returned last week from Henderson county, N. C., where he spent four weeks waiting on his brother. With a devotion and tenderness characteristic of him, he ministered day and night to his last living brother. One by one they have passed away until the Captain only is left. His father was one of the leading men of Henderson county in its early history. For many years he represented his state in the Senate and it was through his efforts that Henderson county was formed.

Hood's Calendar for 1896 is out and it is greatly admired. Many pronounce it "the handsomest yet." It consists of the head of a beautiful young woman in an oval panel with a stylish gold frame. The background and pad are printed in harmonious brown tints. The remarkable growth of the editions of Hood's Calendar from one million copies a few years ago to over thirteen millions for 1896 is only paralleled by the wonderful advance in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which is now the only true blood purifier prominently in the public eye.

During December there were many, cold, frosty mornings, but winter did not seem to be in earnest until last Friday. About noon, the thermometer being 50 to 55, the wind began to blow across from Tryon as though it meant business. It capered and whizzed and rattled sash and blinds and the mercury dropped at the rate of 5 degrees an hour for several hours. From 3 p. m. Friday until 7 a. m. Saturday there was a fall from 50 to 16 degrees. All day Saturday it was below the freezing point Sunday it was a few degrees warmer. Prof. DuPre's thermometer registered 12 Saturday night.

Rev. L. C. Ezell united the following couples in marriage:

On Dec. 18th 1895, at the house of the bride's mother, Cross Keys, S. C., Mr. H. Murphy Bailey and Miss Willie E. Burnett.

On Dec. 23d 1895, near Abner's Creek, at the home of the bride's father, Mr. John H. Wood and Miss M. Eliza Wilson.

At Woodruff, S. C., Dec. 26th 1895, Mr. L. W. Davis and Miss Florence A. Thomas, of Enoree, S. C.

At same place, Dec. 29th 1895 Mr. W. F. Davis, of Georgia, and Miss F. A. Davis of Enoree, S. C.

When Jenness Miller was attending the Atlanta Exposition, she made an address in the Woman's Congress that was full of humor, common sense and practical suggestions. She instructed women how to dress for comfort, health and beauty. All who heard her were charmed with the address. A sample copy of the Jenness Miller Monthly for January has been received. The illustrations are very fine. Then there are over 50 pages of reading matter treating of a great variety of subjects relating to literature, women, education, correct style of dressing, books and writers, children and various other subjects. We commend this monthly to wide awake women who wish to keep up with current events. The price is only $1.00 a year. While we are not an agent for this admirable publication, we will order it for any of our subscribers because we know they will be delighted with it. Address Jenness Miller Monthly Ill, Fifth Avenue, New York.

As Auditor L. P. Epton, and his clerk, Ed. Brockman, were returning to town from their assessing appointment, Saturday afternoon, their horse became frightened at the smoke of a passing engine, or at something else, near the railroad crossing on the Howard Gap road two miles above town. Mr. Brockman jumped from the buggy without receiving any serious injury. His face and nose were scratched considerably. Mr. Epton in his efforts to check the horse was thrown violently over the dashboard and his head struck the vehicle or ground rendering him unconscious for about an hour. Several doctors soon were on hand and after he recovered he was brought to his home. Where he fell and lay for some time he bled considerably. The greatest injury seemed to be in the head. About ten years ago Mr. Epton lost his arm in a thrasher. One year ago, the first of January, his brother-in-law, Thomas, was killed by his horse running away, as he was coming to town to start out to assist in assessing property. Last Summer Charlie Epton had his arm broken by an unruly horse. It looks as if some fatality, in connection with horses, attended the family. Sunday Mr. Epton was apparently improving, with the appearance of recovery.

That Joyful Feeling.

With the exhilarating sense of renewed health and strength and internal cleanliness which follows the use of Syrup of Figs, is unknown to the few who have not progressed beyond the old time medicines and the cheap substitutes sometimes offered but never accepted by the well informed.

When most needed it is not unusual for your family physician to be away from home. Such was the experience of Mr. J. Y. Schenck, Editor of the Caddo, Ind. Ter., Banner, when his little girl, two years of age was threatened with a severe attack of croup. He says: "My wife insisted that I go for the doctor, but as our family physician was out of town I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which relieved her immediately. I will not be without it in the future." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all druggists.

The Mount Lebanon Bakers have recently perfected an ingenious cure for dyspepsia. Their Digestive Cordial Consists of a food already digested and a digester of foods happily combined.

The importance of this invention will be appreciated when we realize what a proportion of the community are victims of some form of stomach trouble. Thousands of pale, thin people have little inclination to eat, and what they do eat causes them pain and distress.

This Digestive Cordial of the Shakers corrects any stomach derangement at once. It makes thin people plump. Every one will be greatly interested to read the little book which has been placed in the hands of druggists for free distribution.

What is Laxol? Nothing but Castor Oil made as palatable as honey. Children like it.

Another's Crime.

The foremost American novelist recently won a $10,000 prize for the best serial novel in a competition which was open to all and in which many famous writers participated. The story was submitted anonymously and it was not known till the prize was awarded that Mr. Julian Hawthorne was its author. This tends to confirm the opinion long entertained by Mr. Hawthorne's admirers that his great popularity is due to the merit of his works and not to family or literary friendships.

The SPARTAN, will begin the publication of "Another's Crime," a very thrilling detective story by Mr. Hawthorne. It is equal in power and intense feeling to his ten-thousand dollar story. Subscribe at once for the story will begin Jan 23 and run two to three months. Any person getting up a club of ten at one dollar in advance, will get an extra copy. Now is the time to get a first-class paper for a little work.

Poor soil.

and exhausted fields which were once productive can again be made profitably fertile by a proper rotation of crops and by the intelligent use of fertilizers containing high percentages of Potash.

Strikingly profitable results have been obtained by following this plan.

Our pamphlets are not advertising circulars booming special fertilizers, but are practical works, containing latest researches on the subject of fertilization, and are really helpful to farmers. They are sent free for the asking.

The Columbia Calendar.

The Columbia Pad Calendar for 1896 has made its appearance, representing the eleventh annual issue, and handy and convenient as it has been heretofore, the new issue certainly surpasses any of its predecessors. The eye catching illustrations, the sparkling thoughts contributed by Columbia riders everywhere; for such a host of friends has the Calendar acquired that it has become a customary practice for wheelmen all over the country to jot down their best thoughts and inspirations after being subjected to the exhilarating influence of a Columbia ride, and to send them in to brighten its pages. In addition to these pleasing features the month's phases are indicated for the benefit of those who wish to know the best time for night riding. The many dainty sketches that embellish its pages render it indeed a work of art. Owing to the unusual demand last year a much larger edition has been issued for 1896. The Calendar can be obtained for five 2 cent stamps, by addressing the Calendar Department of the Pope Manufacturing Company at Hartford, Conn.
