MANNING'S PROMPTNESS PROBABLY SAVED NEGRO.

Governor Promises Quick Trial and Pickens County Crowd Dispersed.

Columbia, Nov. 29.—Prompt action on the part of Governor Manning in promising to order a special term of court to try the case probably saved a lynching in Pickens county this morning, for the crowd of men who had assembled with the declared intention of dealing out summary justice to Pete Hamilton a negro, alleged to have attempted assault on a white woman, dispersed when assured that the governor would order a special term of court to try the case. Sheriff Roark, of Pickens county, got hold of the negro and got him out of the way, and is thought to be on his way here to the penitentiary with the prisoner.

Long distance telephone reports from the scene stated that this morning a crowd of determined white men gathered at Easley, in Pickens county, with the declaration of getting a negro who was said to have attempted assault on a prominent white woman there last Saturday night. Citizens of Easley pleaded with the crowd to allow the law to take its course, according to the information, and finally this the crowd agreed to do on the condition that a special term of court be ordered immediately by Governor Manning. The Easley citizen who was trying to quiet the crowd telephoned the governor and he promptly agreed to call the special term of court. This being communicated to the crowd they dispersed.

Meanwhile a long distance telephone message from Pickens stated that Sheriff Roark, of that county, had secured the negro and was taking him to a place of safety.

Columbia, Nov. 29.—Pete Hamilton, a negro, charged with attempted criminal assault, was brought to the penitentiary tonight at 10:20 o'clock by Sheriff Roark, of Pickens. The crime is alleged to have been committed at Easley, in Pickens county.

"We just outwitted the crowd and rushed the negro to Columbia," said the sheriff.

JONESVILLE

Jonesville, Nov. 30.—Our people are enjoying clear, crisp weather, fine for killing hogs and rounding up the crop for the year.

A daughter of Mr. John Garner, who died yesterday at his home near Lockhart Junction, was buried Monday at Gilead. Miss Garner was 37 years of age. She had not been well for many years. Rev. Lewis M. Rice conducted the funeral services at the grave.

Mr. D. L. McLaughlin of Jonesville, on Lanes avenue, has purchased the home of Mr. F. G. Austell lives and known as the T. L. Hames place. Mr. McLaughlin has also purchased the store house of D. B. Freejin on Paolet street. This means that Mr. McLaughlin will move to Jonesville.

Mrs. Hattie McWhirter, of our town, was elected president of the State chapter of the D. A. R.'s at Aiken at their last session there. Mrs. McWhirter has taken great interest in the work of the U. D. C.'s, both in her local chapter and the State chapter, hence her promotion to the high office and now her local chapter is planning to give her a grand reception in the near future, which will no doubt be a brilliant occasion.

We get Rev. Mr. Justus back to our charge for the next conference year, which gives general satisfaction to his flock.

I spent Thanksgiving Day with Mrs. Bank Harris, down on Brown's creek, and partook of a sumptuous dinner with about 30 other invited guests. I went to the place where my father and mother were married in November, 1833, the same night the stars fell, and then I went to the spot where I was born. There are no houses at either one of these place now, but the very ground is dear to me and it seems like holy ground to me. I thought of the touching lines of some of the old-time songs, such as "Way Down Upon the Sewanee River," "Take Me Home to the Place Where I first Saw the Light" and "Backward, Turn Backward, O Time in Your Flight," and others.

Mrs. Martha Mitchell and daughter, Amy, of Atlanta, have been visiting Mrs. L. J. Fowler but have returned home.

Miss Cleo Dobson spent Thanksgiving with her parents in Gaffney.

Miss Annie Miller spent Thanksgiving in Rock Hill.

Miss Sarah Black visited her aunt, Mrs. Barron, in Union and Miss Byrtle Bennett visited her parents at Cannon's Camp Ground.

THESE TIRED SOUTHERNERS.

Effective Refutation of a Familiar Slander.

A radical newspaper writer in the course of a periodic attack in a New York newspaper on a great business institution of the South allows himself to speak of "The South, where men and women and children are 'tired.'" We think of Washington, the Virginian, as renowned for his adventurous youth as for the sustained vigor of his maturity.

It was the Virginia legislature that lit the torch of national independence. It was a Virginian, who by his daring cavalry exploits in the Revolution won the name of "Light Horse Harry" Lee.

South Carolina, Marion and Sumter, substitute of almost all things exalted and courage, checked Tarleton's invasion by what a historian calls "an irregular, harrassing warfare that for daring and dash, ingenuity of plans, pertinacity of purpose and general effectiveness, is without a parallel in the war."

For 32 of the first 36 years after the organization of the United States government, the presidency was held by natives of Virginia—Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe—all men of the South.

That Southerner, Andrew Jackson, who followed them, was never suspected, either before, or during his eight years in the presidency, of being "tired." The successful defense of New Orleans was ascribed more than to any other cause, to Jackson's "almost frenzied energy."

"Davey" Crockett, the tireless explorer and dauntless soldier, and DeCatur, the conqueror of the Barbary pirates, were Southerners.

Taylor, the driving force of the Mexican war, with his victories of Palo Alto, Monterey and Buena Vista—the last named against odds of four to one—was a Southerner.

In the War Between the States, the vigor, energy, enterprise and resourcefulness of the Southern men were as remarkable as their courage. It needs only to mention Robert E. Lee and "Stonewall" Jackson. Tennessee gave also to the Union cause the Nelson of modern American history, David Farragut.

Even now we have in the White House a Southerner, who held the Sixty-third congress in continuous session from March 4 to October 24, through a blistering Washington summer, when he was to all appearance, the only person not "tired."

Of Southern activity in the pursuits of peace, we need no other testimony than the tremendous energy that has recovered from the utter wasting of the Civil war—lands devastated, houses destroyed or dilapidated, farms in decay, the men who might have been killed or crippled—out of the desolation, somehow, the men of the South have built up wealth and prosperity again.

One is indeed ignorant who supposes that Southerners are not active or vigorous. In fact, the Southern people seem to be rather conspicuous for the very activity and vigor in which their critic assumes them to be lacking.—Exchange.

R. E. Henderson, No 1 Louise St., Union, says: "I caught cold on my kidneys and it brought on backache. Often when I stooped over, pain caught me in the small of my back and I had to brace myself in order to straighten up. My kidneys acted too freely and the secretions burned like red hot coals. There was also a great deal of sediment deposited in the secretions. After I had suffered a month, a friend suggested Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box. The first few doses relieved me and one box cured me. The cure has been permanent."

Parents Should Know
This Splendid Remedy

Simple Laxative Compound Helps to Correct Constipation in Children.

With all children there are times when the bowels fail to act naturally and it becomes necessary for the parents to administer a remedy. Cathartics and purgatives should never be used as these agents afford only temporary relief while their violent action shocks the system unduly. Mrs. Eva F. Gaff, 517 10th St., Washington, D. C., says that her little girl, Marie, had been subject to constipation, and that she found Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin the best remedy because of its mildness, and now always keeps a bottle of it in the house.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a compound of simple laxative herbs, free from opiates or narcotic drugs of any kind, and is an ideal remedy for children because of its mild action and positive effect. Its use tends to and restore normal regularity, strengthen the impaired bowel action and restore normal regularity.

It is important that parents should know of a dependable remedy with no unpleasant after effects, griping or strain. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin costs only fifty cents a bottle and can be procured at any drug store. To obtain a trial bottle, free of charge, write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 454 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.—Adv.

WINTHROP WANTS $100,000.

Columbia, Nov. 29.—Winthrop college will ask the general assembly at its session in January for an extra appropriation of $100,000 for the purpose of building a new dormitory. The request will be made for $50,000 for next winter and $50,000 the following year. The decision to ask for this extra appropriation was reached by the board of trustees at its meeting in Rock Hill the other night and was occasioned by the pressure for more room at Winthrop coming from all parts of the State. Over 600 applicants for admission were turned away this year because of the lack of room and the Winthrop trustees have decided to ask the legislature for funds for another dormitory.

The present enrollment at Winthrop is considerably over 900.

This was the principal action taken by the board of trustees at their meeting. The annual report to the general assembly was gotten in shape. Col. D. W. McLaurin, who attended the meeting of the board, said this morning that the principal other business, which they transacted, was of a routine nature.

Has Faith In Remedy

Mrs. H. S. Carison of Wakefield, Nebr., testifies to the relief she experienced from the use of Fruitola and Traxo:

"I used Fruitola and Traxo with very good results, having passed almost a cupful of gall-stones with the first bottle. My skin is clear now, and I have a good appetite. I have lots of faith in Fruitola and Traxo."

Fruitola is a powerful lubricant for the intestinal organs, softening the hardened particles that cause so much suffering and expelling the congested waste in an easy, natural manner. A single dose is usually sufficient to clearly indicate its efficacy. Traxo is a splendid tonic-alterative that acts on the liver and kidneys, stimulates the flow of gastric juices to aid digestion and removes bile from the general circulation.

For the convenience of the public, arrangements have been made to supply Fruitola and Traxo through representative druggists. In Union they can be obtained at Milhous Drug Co.—Adv.
