Important Notice to the Ladies!

We have always heretofore during our Great Sweeping Sales, which we hold twice yearly, and which are known to be the Greatest and Biggest offerings ever pulled off in Union; giving besides these great bargains many handsome presents to the ladies. So this time we propose to give to each of the first Fifty ladies present one dozen (12 spools) assorted numbers J. & P. Coats Thread. All we ask that you be here at the opening Saturday Morning at 8 o'clock sharp, rain or shine. You don't have to necessarily make a single purchase in order to get one dozen spools of thread free, but be here when the doors open. Tell your friends about the man that saves you money.

R. A. JONES, The Busy Bee.

Rain or Shine! The Battle is on. For 13 days it will rage and a real genuine bargain history in Union will date from the minute our doors are open for this great sale. You know the quality of our stock and when we tell you that prices are to be cut, believe it. Don't be fooled or misled. Look for the name—R. A. JONES, THE BUSY BEE—and be here the first day.

STATEMENT BY MR. JONES

In a business conducted as we conduct this business, drastic measures are sometimes necessary. We are frank in making this statement that we want to raise cash. We intend to get this cash out of the merchandise we have on hand. To get this cash at once we are willing to sacrifice our profit and in some cases even part of the cost for 13 days. We pride ourselves on a clean, active stock—this is one reason we dare not take any chance on carrying over winter stocks. We're going to sell them right now. Our loss means a big saving to you. This is the whole story in a few words.

Cordially yours,

R. A. JONES.
