CALOMEL DYNAMITES A SLUGGISH LIVER

Crashes Into Sour Bile, Making You Sick and You Lose a Day's Work.

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.

TO THE FELLOW WHO'LL TAKE MY PLACE WHEN I AM GONE.

Here is a toast that I want to drink to a fellow I'll never know—To the fellow who's going to take my place when it's time for me to go. I've wondered what kind of a chap he'll be and I've wished I could take his hand.

Just to whisper, "I wish you well, old man," in a way that he'd understand.

I'd like to give the cheering word that I've longed at times to hear; I'd like to give him the warm hand-clasp when never a friend seems near. I've learned my knowledge by sheer hard work, and I wish I could pass it on.

To the fellow who'll come to take my place some day when I am gone.

Will he see all the sad mistakes I've made and note all the battles lost? Will he ever guess of the tears they caused or the heartaches which they cost? Will he gaze through the failures and fruitless toil to the underlying plan.

And catch a glimpse of the real intent and the heart of the vanquished man?

I dare to hope he may pause some day as he toils as I have wrought. And gain some strength for his weary task from the battles which I have fought.

But I've only the task itself to leave with the cares for him to face. And never a cheering word may speak to the fellow who will take my place.

Then here's to your health, old chap; I drink as a bridegroom to his bride; I leave an unfinished task for you, but God knows how I tried. I've dreamed my dreams, as all men do, but never a one came true. And my prayer today is that all the dreams may be realized by you.

And we'll meet some day in the great unknown—out in the realm of space; You'll know my clasp as I take your hand and gaze in your tired face. Then all failures will be success in the light of the new-found dawn—So I'm drinkin' your health, old chap, who'll take my place when I am gone.

MONARCH MILL'S TENDER PASTOR USE OF HOUSE

Union, S. C., Aug. 3, 1913.
Editor Union Times,
Union, S. C.

Dear Bro. Rice:

Through the courtesy of Mr. Nicholson, the president, and Mr. Cottingham, the superintendent of the Monarch Cotton Mill, their company built a nice six room house just north of Mr. Louis Smith's store at Monarch and tendered same to the Mon Aetna Baptist church to be used for a pastor's home. The church gladly accepted their offer, and, therefore, I have moved from the J. C. Cudd house to this one. Come, see us.
