SAM J. NICHOLLS REFUTES CHARGES

(Political Advertisement)
House of Representatives U. S. Committee on Military Affairs Washington, D. C. August 21, 1916.
Business Manager, Union Times, Union, S. C.
My dear Sir:
I am enclosing you copies of letters which I have received from Hon. Claude Kitchen, Democratic leader of the House; also letter from John L. Burnett, Chairman of the Immigration Committee, and from Hon. Fred L. Blackmon, one of the ranking members of the Committee on Postoffice and Post Roads. These letters were written to me without my request, but it gives the people of my District some idea as to the work I am doing here for them. Please publish same as advertisement and send me bill. Also publish this letter.
Yours very truly,
Sam J. Nicholls.

TESTIMONIALS
As to How Congressman Nicholls Stands in Washington From Other Members of the Democratic Party.
Committee on Ways and Means House of Representatives Washington, D. C. August 16, 1916.
Hon. Sam J. Nicholls, House of Representatives.
My dear Nicholls:
I want to take this opportunity of thanking you and expressing my personal appreciation, as well as that of the Democratic organization, for your constant remaining at your post here, and for the wise, diligent and patriotic performance of every duty entrusted to you. I am confident that the people of your District will not let your cause suffer because you have remained here until the completion of the big constructive program of the Administration and the Democratic Congress, of which you have been a most helpful and efficient supporter. With assurances of my best wishes and highest esteem, I beg to remain Sincerely your friend, (Signed) Claude Kitchen.

Committee on Immigration House of Representatives Washington, D. C. August 8, 1916.
Hon. Sam J. Nicholls, House of Representatives.
Dear Mr. Nicholls:
I write to say that I have not entirely given up hope of the passage of the Burnett Immigration Bill through the Senate at this session, and to ask you to keep a watch out for the same if it should be passed in that body and come back to the House for action on the Senate Amendments. I know the earnestness and zeal with which you have always championed this Bill, and the fact that I have relied on you whenever the battle has been on for the bill causes me to invoke your continued active aid if the Bill should reach the House again towards the close of the session. It may be of purpose of the enemies of the Bill to try to get it through the Senate and before the House when its friends are not on their guard, and in that way either defeat its passage or postpone it until the next session. The bill has had no more loyal supporter than yourself, and I, therefore, write you as one of our trusted lieutenants in securing this much needed legislation. With best wishes, I am,
Your friend truly
(Signed) John L. Burnett.

Committee on Postoffice & Post Roads House of Representatives, U. S. Washington, D. C. August 7th, 1916.
Hon. Sam J. Nicholls, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.
Dear Sam:
I want to thank you in behalf of the citizenship of Alabama and the South generally for the splendid work you did on the Military Committee toward securing relief for our flood sufferers. There are a number of points in the South where there is great distress, and I know of no one who was more active to relieve this unfortunate situation than yourself. Your splendid work in this matter is due largely to your personal popularity with the members of the Committee, and the House of Representatives. During the six years that I have been a member of the House of Representatives who has made more personal friends and accomplished more than you have?
Sincerely your friend,
(Signed) Fred L. Blackmon.

"THE VALIANTS OF VIRGINIA"

EDISONIA GETS FAMOUS NOVEL IN PICTURES NEXT FRIDAY

What would you do if you had cause to believe that the man you dearly loved and had promised to wed, had killed the man your mother had loved years before and whose memory your mother cherished. Shirley Danridge took the only course left to an only daughter. She sacrificed her love on the altar of loyalty. And yet, in the end—

Such is the story told in Hallie Erminie Rives' famous novel, "The Valiants of Virginia," a romance of the fragrant Southland dealing with the passionate love of a man for a woman, which has been pictured in a Selig Red Seal play in five acts, presenting Kathryn Williams, film-land's most popular and versatile star.
"The Valiants of Virginia" will be seen at the Edisona on next Friday, September 1st.

as the beginning of a regular submarine merchant service between the United State and Germany which would be able to defy the British blockade. It was announced that she would be followed shortly by the Bremen, a sister ship.
The Deutschland left Baltimore on a return journey on August 2 with a cargo of rubber and metal and passed out the Virginia capes on the night of August 2.
