There is nothing in town like these

Kirschbaum Suits

They were made for us by the celebrated KIRSCHBAUM shops with the express purpose of enabling us to offer more in value, in fabric, in trimmings, in workmanship, in finish than the average suit made in the average way could ever hope to equal—or even to approach.

These suits were not made merely to sell at $12.50 and 15.00 but to outsell anything else obtainable at that price.

So diverse, so tempting is the array of Garments we have assembled at this popular figure that our pen abandons hope of doing justice to them—and we content ourselves with saying that no matter what Color, Pattern, Weight, Weave or Model you may prefer, it is here.

Ralston Shoes and Oxfords for Men in all Leathers at $4.50 the pair.

Farnum Shoes for Men at $3.50 the pair.
Craddock-Terry Shoes from $2.00 to $3.50 the pair.
Hoge-Montgomery Shoes for all the family. Guaranteed Solid Leather.

Ladies Dress Shoes at $1.50 to $4.00 the pair.
Misses and Children Shoes from 50¢ to $1.50 the pair.

Overalls at the same old price $1.00 long as they last.
Hats from $1.00 to $5.00 in all new blocks.
Buster-Brown Hose for ladies from 25¢ to $1. the pair.
Intwoven Toe and Heel Socks for men.
Trunks, Hand Bags and Suit Cases at all prices.

We are headquarters for Everything and Up-to-Date. Call in to see us when in town.

Very truly yours

Short Items of Local Interest

All school books and supplies at Chesterfield Drug Co. Strictly cash.

Bagging and ties are the highest in price they have been in years.

Superintendent Coker, of the Chesterfield High School, will occupy one of the Perkins houses on Green St.

Mr. G. K. Laney killed a large rattlesnake on his lawn Saturday. The snake had nine rattles and a button.

The date of the Mt. Croghan Community Fair has been changed from November 2d to November 3d. This change was made in order to secure Dr. D. W. Daniel, of Clemson College, as a speaker. Dr. Daniel will speak on "Community Co-operation." He is a speaker of unusual ability and the Fair Association is to be congratulated on securing him.

A committee of ladies of the Ruby Methodist Church realized a tidy sum Friday night from the sale of ice-cream. The leading member of the committee was Mrs. Smith Oliver, to whom the success of the venture was largely attributed.

The members of the Oakland Baptist church are placing the material on the lot recently acquired for the purpose of building a church to cost not less than $2,000. This church is located in an especially fine farming section and has a membership composed of some of our best men and women.

Ernest, the 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. K. Pittman, who live three miles from town on the Chesterfield road, was gored by a young bull Sunday afternoon and painfully injured. The animal's horn cut a gash in the little fellow's leg that required twelve stitches to close.—Morven Sentinel.

Miss Lennie Pittman holds the record so far for the largest tomato raised by tomato club girls in Chesterfield County and sent to this office. We received last week a beautiful specimen grown in her one-tenth acre patch. This tomato weighed one and one-half pounds and measured 19 inches in circumference, beating Miss Clara Watson's effort by a few ounces and inches.

Positively no credit on school books at the Chesterfield Drug Co.

N. C., this season, is visiting his many friends in town.

Miss Mary Walsh entertained delightfully at cards Friday night. After cards, lime sherbet and lady fingers were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Wethersby, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Robert Gardner, have left for their home in Williston.

Misses Lealla and Athalene Gaskin have returned home after spending some time with relatives in Marshville and Wadesboro, N. C.

The Rev. and Mrs. T. B. Owen, who accompanied by little Eva Broadway, have been visiting here for some days, returned to their home at Mars Bluff last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jackson returned to-day to their home in High Point, N. C., after a visit to Mrs. B. C. Moore. Mrs. Jackson is most pleasantly remembered as Miss Celeste Huntley.

Misses Oto and Roxie Douglass arrived yesterday for a few days' visit with their brother, Mr. C. C. Douglass. The latter part of the week they leave for Clinton, where they enter college.

Positively no credit on school books at the Chesterfield Drug Co.

ROUTE 1

The farmers for some time past have been taking advantage of the fine weather to pull fodder and talk politics.

Mr. and Mrs. West Adams were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Please Gaddy last Sunday.

Mr. N. M. Johnson, of Middendorf, was in this community last week and talking politics.

Mr. A. C. Rivers and Mr. Davis Perkins visited at Mr. J. T. Davis' last Sunday.

Mr. Rob Smith, of near Shiloh, was in this community last week.

Miss Elma Davis spent the weekend with Miss Iris May Davis, of near Maysville.

Miss Annie Myres visited Misses Nellie and Arie Davis Sunday.

Mrs. W. M. Davis visited her daughter, Mrs. Cleo Outlaw at Middendorf.

Mrs. Sara Davis, of Chesterfield, visited her brother, Mr. Daniel Boatright, Sunday.

Everything needed by the pupil for school work at the Chesterfield Drug Co.

BETHESDA

The meeting is in progress this week at Bethesda, conducted by the Rev. J. W. Quick. Rev. Harrison is not with him as was expected. We have heard that he is going home to rest for a while.

Mr. M. D. Roscoe was quite surprised Sunday after service was dismissed when his attention was called to the fact that one of his hens was on the church ground and two eggs in his buggy, being about three and one half miles from home. Long ways to follow her nest, wasn't it?

We have begun picking cotton today and are getting a fancy price for it.

There was a forest fire on G. W. Boan's place last Monday, caused by his burning a place to build a tenant house. His loss was a part of his material and some of his woods burnt.

We hope R. F. D. 4 is done his fodder by this time, for it is so hot. I'd rather pull fodder than to pick cotton.

The writer heard the candidates shoot their big guns Saturday for the last time this year and we did enjoy it fine.

Mrs. G. W. Boan visited in Shiloh section Saturday to see the sick.

Mrs. M. J. Cross was the guest of Mrs. Mary E. Boan Sunday.

Please don't ask for credit when purchasing school books at the Chesterfield Drug Co.
