Ladies, Gentlemen and Fellow-Citizens

Your presence is cordially requested in our store, also in our display room at the Fair. A souvenir will be in store for you, provided you cut out this little advertisement and bring it along with you.

You will read this, won't you?

Service is not measured by dollars and cents—not altogether; neither is quality. Experience cuts a large figure—Experience and Honesty of purpose, coupled with a pride to win—to win the good opinion of all customers and to hold it.

We have tried to give you, our customers, the advantages of our six years experience and we intend to continue doing so.

Remember this: Efficiency, Experience, Originality, Quality and Service are the principles that govern the conduct of our business and these will enable you to keep doing business at the old stand.
