Several representatives of the Carolina Saxon Motor Co., of Columbia, were in town recently demonstrating the beautiful S. B. Saxon car. Mr. John T. Hurst has accepted the agency for these popular cars and will keep roadsters and touring cars in stock.

Ruby is recovering from a fright that was, as they say up there, "sho' real." It seems that Master Farnell Crawley, son of Mr. J. W. Crawley had something that looked very much like infantile paralysis. The school stopped and it is said on good authority that everybody held his breath until the assistant State health officer arrived and pronounced it "choreal."

Mr. C. M. Funderburk has bought the furniture stock of Mr. B. C. Moore and has moved his grocery store into the premises formerly occupied by Mr. Moore. He will conduct a combination grocery and furniture store here and promises to carry a first-class line of goods in both departments.

The Marlboro County Boosters will be in Chesterfield on Tuesday, October 24th with several cars, a brass band, etc. A cordial invitation is extended to these live-wires to visit our city as often as they can. Especially do we invite them to return about Nov. 8, 9, 10 or 11th and see what old Chesterfield can do in the way of producing one of the very best county fairs in this State.

Chesterfield has her band. It hasn't played "Dixie" yet but the first step in that direction was taken last night, when Prof. Smyth Henderson, gave the members their first lesson. There are twenty-two members in all. W. R. Huneycutt is president and B. J. Douglass is secretary-treasurer. There is no reason why Chesterfield cannot have a good band and we believe a fine start has been made. There will be many times when this organization will need some encouragement in the form of funds and more funds, if continued progress is to be made, and it is believed that there will be plenty of this commodity in sight. It is pretty well realized that a good band, like a good ball team is an excellent advertisement for any town.

Mr. A. W. Hursey was in Columbia yesterday.

Miss Clarice Clark, of Angelus, S. C., spent the week-end visiting relatives and friends in town.

Sheriff D. P. Douglass attended the Sheriff's Convention at Anderson last week and is taking a short vacation before returning.

Miss Flora Bell Stegall has returned from Whitmire, S. C., where she has been visiting friends and relatives, and has resumed her work here as teacher in one of the primary grades of the Chesterfield High School.

Miss Maude Powell, rated as the world's greatest woman violinist, played in Columbia yesterday evening. Among those from Chesterfield to attend this recital were Mrs. D. H. Laney and Miss Annabell Brock, who accompanied Miss Brock's entire music class, consisting of the Misses Nell Melton, Lila Teal, Doris Laney, Maude Garland Welsh, Pearl Moore and Mary Bell Welsh.

Kill-Kare Club is the name of a new social organization with the expressed purpose of doing what its name implies—kill care. It is composed of many of Chesterfield's young people, who no doubt will be able to live up to their aim. Last Friday evening the meeting was held at the home of Miss Mary Pusser. Progressive conversation and other games were played. Delicious fruits and candies were served, and it is very probable that those who had cares were able to forget them—dead or alive—for the time, at least.

Your Opportunity

We wish to thank you one and all for your liberal patronage during the past season and invite you to inspect and compare the values we are offering.

'Tis true that all lines of merchandise are steadily advancing but it's equally true that our entire stock was bought before the present high price that "stare us in the face."

In fact, we are offering at least two-thirds of our stock for less than we can buy wholesale to-day and every item for less money than we will be able to buy it when our present stock is exhausted—therefore it behooves you to come in and select your needs for the coming season while our stock is complete and prices are lower than its possible for them to be later in the season.

Quite a contingent of Chesterfield's darktown denizens visited Cheraw last Tuesday evening and made themselves acquainted with their friends in Cheraw to such good purpose that the police of that orderly little city were compelled to send out S.O.S signals and call in all the help within a limited radius to quell the disturbance. Details are meagre. It is said that one gentleman who helps run one of the drugstores in Chesterfield made a very quick trip from Cheraw to Chesterfield presumably on foot, arriving at his place of business very much out of breath and bearing the imprint on his arm of the hand of a Cheraw policeman.

As in the little European scrap now in progress, innocent persons were somewhat inconvenienced, as one of our illustrious legal lights, not accustomed, it is said, to shining on Main street earlier than 10 a.m., or thereabouts, found it necessary to perambulate to his office at a much earlier hour and telephone to Cheraw, putting up a bond for one of the principals in this scrap, not that he was interested in this man's freedom, but there were others who were, chief among whom was the able cook employed in the home of the aforesaid legal lumiant. Company was coming to that house for dinner and the cook in question was going right straight to Cheraw, dinner or no dinner to secure the immediate release of "mu husband." He got him out.
