

Our Washington correspondent, writing under date of the 6th inst., states that on Monday last our Senator, the Hon. A. P. Butler, presented, in the U. S. Senate, the Memorial of the Chamber of Commerce of this city, praying for the erection of a light house in this harbor. Our correspondent has no doubt, he says, that Congress, at the present Session, will make liberal appropriations for the improvement of rivers and harbors, and that the deepening of the channel in this harbor will doubtless be provided for. He also states that great sensation had been produced in Washington by the news that Austria had assumed an attitude unfriendly to Great Britain. He thinks that the rumor is, perhaps, only in anticipation of what will occur.—Charleston Courier.

PORK PACKING.—Mr. Joseph Ramsey's Slaughter establishment—situated about one mile out of town—is now in successful operation, and the well fed porkers are yielding their last accounts at the rate of 100 to 150 per day. Mr. Ramsey does up the killing and packing business in a style quite a la Cincinnati. He will slaughter this season at least 3000 hogs. It is interesting to witness the process of transformation from the perfect Swine to neatly prepared Bacon. There is science in all things, it is said.—Charleston Advertiser.

THE BALTIMORE CONVENTION.—The National Democratic Committee which met in Washington last week, has determined to hold the Democratic National Convention in this city, on the first Tuesday in June next, for the nomination of candidates for President and Vice President of the United States. The number of delegates from each State is not to exceed the number of Presidential electors to which it is entitled. It appears that at the meeting of the committee, which determined these matters, all the States of the Union were represented except South Carolina. The chairman (B. F. Hallett, of Mass.) announced the receipt of a letter from Gen. James M. Commander, the member of the committee for South Carolina, regretting that he should be unable to attend the meeting of the National Committee, and authorizing the chairman to vote for the second Monday in June as the time, and Baltimore as the place, for the assembling of the convention, with the hope that the deliberations of the committee might be harmonious. So General Commander, we presume, will again represent South Carolina in the National Democratic Convention.—South Carolinian.

SAVANNAH, Jan. 11.
The steamer Magnolia, Capt. McNulty, exploded her boiler at St. Simons Island, on Friday afternoon. Capt. McNulty, Thomas Condy, and eleven hands were killed. All the passengers were saved. John Austin, the engineer, of New-York and ten others were injured. The whole of the forward part of the boat was blown out, and she sunk in ten minutes after the explosion.

SPEAKING WELL OF OTHERS.—If the disposition to speak well of others were universally prevalent, the world would become a comparative paradise. The opposite disposition is the Pandora box which, when opened, fills every house and every neighborhood with pain and sorrow. How many enmities and heart-burnings flow from this source! Envy, jealousy, and the malignant spirit of evil, when they find vent by the lips, go forth on their mission like foul fiends, to blast the reputation and peace of others. Every one has his imperfections, and the conduct of the best: there will be occasionally faults, which might seem to justify animadversion. It is a good rule however, when there is occasion for fault finding to do it privately to the erring one. This may prove salutary. It is a proof of interest in the individual, which will be generally taken kindly, if the manner of doing it is not offensive. The common and unchristian rule, on the contrary is to proclaim the failing of others to all but themselves. This is unchristian and shows a despicable heart.

A KNAVE ABROAD.—A fellow, pretending to be deaf and dumb, has been hoaxing our honest villagers of late, rather successfully. We confess ourselves to have been fairly taken in, but we do not mind it at all, as several shrewd judges of human nature have been equally duped. The rascal was certainly an admirable actor of the part he had undertaken, as proved by the very general gulling of our community. Several there are, however, who ever that they knew all the time he would prove to be an impostor. "Did't I tell you so?" said an old lady, when her spouse announced the circumstance of the cow's eating up the grindstone. There is apt to be one in every family who always knew that things were going to happen after they had happened. On the evening of the Dumb Knight's detection, he was well blackened and partly shaven by our boys, and then turned loose upon the wide world. Look out for the scamp. We dislike to have to state that the man was a printer by trade.

The names given by this vagrant are, first, Roberts; secondly, Whipple; thirdly, Bobbet; which last he affirms is his real name. He is about 5 feet 10 inches in height, and has an exceedingly vacant and stupid expression of countenance. Thinking that he may endeavor to practice upon the sympathies of other neighboring communities, we have thought it but right to give him this prominent notice.—Edgefield Advertiser.

SQUIER would respectfully announce to the citizens of Camden and its vicinity, that he has fitted up a sky and side Light, which is acknowledged by all artists to be far superior, as it softens the light, and perfects the eye, thereby rendering it perfectly easy for persons with weak eyes to sit for a miniature.
Mr. S.'s skill in the art needs no comment—Persons at all acceptal are requested to call and satisfy themselves by ocular demonstration.
A fine assortment of Medallions and fancy Cases, Likenesses of children taken in a few seconds, warranted to be perfect.
