

gregation will hold its sixth annual ball. All are invited.

Saturday morning, October 23., the twin brothers, Abraham and Eli Eckert, were "Bar Mitzvah" at the Ahavath Shodom Synagogue, both being called up to the Torah, the former reciting the portion of the week. The next day at their residence a reception was tendered a very pleasant and jolly crowd of boys and girls. In the evening the representative Jewry of Fort Worth gathered at their residence. After everyone was entertained at the bounteously spread tables, the celebrants delivered short speeches, thanking their parents for all they had done for them in the past thirteen years and asking that they shall continue their kind attention accorded them in the past, while they accepted upon themselves the duties which fall to them by religious majority.

Several toasts were responded to by Rabbis Chas. Blumenthal and George Zepin, Rev. Keilin, Mr. Dan and Mr. M. Shanblum.

In honor of the occasion $75.00 was collected for the proposed Hebrew Institute, of which the father of the celebrants contributed $50.00 and Mr. M. Borschow $10.00.

The gathering proved to be a very pleasant one and will long be remembered by the Jewish community of Fort Worth.

WACO.

On Sunday night at the old Progress Club rooms the Zionists gave a very enjoyable dance for the purpose of raising a fund to purchase their own hall. The club rooms were prettily decorated and in one corner of the hall was the refreshment booth. Gibson's orchestra furnished their ever pleasing music which was enjoyed by a large crowd. A prize waltz was danced and won by Mr. Dave Davidson and Miss Evelyn Freedman. * * / The Ladies' Hebrew Aid Society gave a Kaffe Klatch Monday afternoon in the Progress Club rooms in honor of the 30th anniversary of the society.

JEWISH LITERARY SOCIETY

The most elaborate affair ever given in the way of a social by the Jewish Literary Society will take place Thursday, November 11th, in the hall of the society in the Mason building. Excellent music has been arranged for, and the rooms will be decorated in Carnival colors. During an intermission refreshments of various nature will be served. Owing to the great number of visitors who have already announced their visits to the different members of the society, the entertainment committee predicts a larger attendance than ever before. Those who were present at the last Succoth affair, will undoubtedly come to this affair. The grand march will start at 8:30 sharp.

THE MORRIS COTILLION.

The cotillion given by Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Morris at Concordia Club Tuesday evening to introduce their daughter, Miss Sadie, to society will long be remembered. The hall was handsomely decorated in pink and green and was ablaze with innumerable electric lights. The cotillion was led by Mr. Meyer Wagner with the honoree, Miss Morris. The favors were butterfly pins. Miss Lillie Nussbaum had the banquet hall in charge and more beautiful tables never were seen. Serving punch were Misses Raphael, Shram and Wolf. Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Morris to receive were Miss Wille Hutcheson, Mr. and Mrs. I. Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. I. Morris, Miss Fannie Levy of New York and Miss Emma Goldberg.
