SAN ANTONIO.

One of the most interesting and enjoyable meetings of the Jewish Literary Club was held last Thursday night, August 3, 1911, at the Jewish Literary Club rooms, in the Redmen hall. Despite the warm weather, a large attendance of both members and friends were present. Mr. Leon L. Henry, the president, appointed committees to serve the ensuing term, July to January, 1912. For the purpose of getting more members into the club, the president has started a campaign for this purpose, appointing Mr. B. A. Wiederman and Mr. Israel Hahn as chairmen, they to appoint their own committees of four members to assist them. The two committees are composed of the following members: Mr. B. A. Wiederman, chairman; Miss

Mamie Sellinger, Mr. Henry Alterman, Mr. I. Nevelow, Miss Ray Wittels; Mr. Israel Hahn, chairman; Miss Nettie Sellinger, Mr. Wm. B. Weininger, Mr. Joe Brown, Miss Theresa Arbetter. The side bringing into the club the most members before December 1st, 1911, shall be entertained by the losing side. A great deal of enthusiasm is shown by the members, and many are predicting that the club will have a membership of two hundred by December, 1911. Rabbi Zielonka of El Paso, Texas, gave us an eloquent address on Judaism, which was greatly appreciated by all present. Miss Mamie Sellinger read some very interesting current events. A debate, the subject of which will be decided next week will be debated upon by Mr. Joe Brown and Miss Rogovin and Mr. Nevelow and Miss Elizabeth Weise. The debate will take place in October. The winning participants will receive a solid gold J. L. C. pin. The Jewish Literary Club will be incorporated under the state laws of Texas, and a charter will be taken out by the club some time this month. Active work on the building fund has already begun, with eight hundred dollars already subscribed by members only. * * * Miss Leah Sadovsky entertained the Mysterious Six Monday night, July 24th, at her home on North Centre street, complimentary to the members of the Inquisitive Six. Several games were played and refreshments were served throughout the evening. The members of the Mysterious Six are Misses Ray Wittels, Elizabeth Weise, Fay Ber-
