must start your child right. Don't think any piano will do. The pupil is influenced almost as much by the instrument as by the teacher.

Before You Buy

give our PIANOS an examination, and you will find the instrument you have been looking for.

MONTHLY PAYMENTS can be arranged and OLD PIANOS will be taken in exchange.

Harris, and sons, Masters Isadore and Raphael, after a three weeks' pleasant stay here, left on Sunday last for their home in Beaumont.

Mr. D. Rotman, who has been sick for several weeks past, has improved to such an extent as to be able to make the trip to Mineral Wells, where he will spend two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Raphael have joined their daughter, Mrs. U. Hirsch, at Denver, and will spend the remainder of the heated term there.

Max Snitzer of the Magnolia Paper Company left Monday for a six weeks' outing in Colorado. Mr. Snitzer will join his family, who are up there, and will be for a while the guest of I. Rothchilds of Greeley, Colo., known as the "potato king."

The many friends of Mr. Sig Scher will be pleased to know that he is getting along nicely after meeting with a painful injury in a runaway accident.

Misses Ola and Maud Goldberg entertained a few friends at high five last Wednesday evening, when a most enjoyable time was had by all present. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the game by Miss Bessie May Griffith and Miss Blanch Lee. Miss Bertha Goldstone won the lady's prize and Mr. Harry Silverman the gentleman's prize. Among those present were Misses Rachel Goldstone of Lufkin, Bertha Goldstone, Theresa Baernstein of Baton Rouge, La., Fannie Goldberg, Callie Steiner, Maud Goldberg, Ola Goldberg, Frieda Schwartz, Mrs. Chas. Lee, Mrs. A. Goldberg, Messrs. Max Baernstein, Raymond Jacobs, Frank Griffith, Ben Phelps, Harry Silverman, Chas. Lee, Leo Steiner, Jakes Gross and Otto Gross.

At the Cotton Carnival in Galveston our reporter found one of the prettiest exhibits the "Gold Medal Coffee" booth, the president of the company, Mr. I. Rosenberg, superintending the demonstrators, who served out the exhilarating beverage to the many visitors. All who partook pronounced "Gold Medal Coffee" the best ever and quite a number of visiting grocers placed handsome orders for this coffee, contingent upon having the exclusive sale of it in their respective towns.

Owing to the absence of Mrs. Willner from the city, the Ladies' Voluntary Relief Society will postpone their regular monthly meeting.

For rent: Nicely furnished room, private Jewish family. Phone Hadley 1291.
