Never Said It.

"I hear you have been saying you would take great delight in attending my funeral."

"I have never said anything of the kind."

"I think I should prefer to believe the man who told me."

"Very well; believe him, if you like; but I never said it. I should not think of permitting myself to be seen at your funeral."

More Than She Could Bear.

"They really fear she will become insane. You see, she found a diary kept before he married her."

"Oh, I see! And the awful revelations—"

"Revelations? No. It was in cipher, and she couldn't read a word of it."—Tit-Bits.

Experienced Opinion.

"What do you think of this universal peace proposition? Do you believe human beings will ever give up fighting with each other?"

"Of course, I don't believe it. Ain't I married?"

Handy Andy.

And these, according to the examination papers in one public school room, are what Andrew Carnegie is, was and did:

"Member of the president's cabinet."

"A British spy."

"Went to France to get help for the United States."

"First after dinner speaker in America."

"A steel magnet."

"Invented wireless telegraphy."

"General in the Spanish-American war."

"Head of the steel trust."—Everybody's Magazine.
