I believe in a high standard of efficiency for both our school system and the teacher, and if elected, make every effort to merit your support.—A. E. Bailey.

PERSONAL SKETCH

A. E. Bailey was born near Brownwood, Texas, April 1, 1885. He was reared on the farm, and has thereby acquired all the sturdy, reliable habits that farm life can give. He was educated at Howard Payne College, at Brownwood. After finishing his educational course, he moved to New Mexico near Pearl, where he is engaged in ranching in a small way and taught five very successful terms of school.

... through which provides that homesteaders may secure six months' absence from their claims without having to make the time up after required five years of residence has passed. This, together with his assistance in raising the oil restriction, and his excellent work in securing statehood, should win many friends for him in this section of the country.—Pecos Valley News

NO MORE CREDIT

On Sept. 15th, we are going to adopt a Cash System, and do no more Credit business, and trust our friends and customers, will agree with us in this Change of System. By selling for Cash, we will be able to buy and pay cash for our goods, getting the discount, which means that we will be able to sell for less. the cheaper we can buy goods, the cheaper we can sell them. The old saying that "a dollar saved is a dollar made," is a true one, and is exactly what we want to impress upon your minds, Call and inspect our line, and remember that after Sept. 15th we will book no more goods, but will sell you Dry Goods, Grocers, and Grain, cheaper than you ever bought on the South Plains.

Soliciting a portion of your trade,
We remain, Yours for good goods, At right prices.
