THE FIRST THANKSGIVING

By T. C. Harbaugh

Long ago the Pilgrim Fathers in the forests cold and gray, With the tempests roaring 'round them, Kept the first Thanksgiving Day; Near their homes the war-whoop sounded, But they heeded not the cry, As they knelt with prayer and anthem 'Neath the dark and stormy sky.

Fleeting far from foul oppression, Unto Freedom's land they came, Where they raised their holy altars, Burning with a sacred flame, And they taught their gentle children, 'Mid the dashing of the spray, To loving keep and beautiful, Every year, Thanksgiving Day.

In the dim aisles of the forest, Where the oaks their branches spread, The wild deer and the panther, Heard the words the Pilgrims said; And the hymns that floated skyward Echoed sweetly far away, Till the dusk, descending softly, Crowned the first Thanksgiving Day.

They were stern, those grand old Pilgrims, Men who harked to Freedom's call, And amid the snows of Plymouth Kept the Day beloved by all; In the bleak New England woodlands, Lit by Autumn's fleeting ray, To Columbia's chosen children, There they gave Thanksgiving Day.

We hold it sweet and holy still, From where the pine trees grow To where the golden orange swings In lands devoid of snow; From the rocks of proud Atlantic, Where the tempest flings its spray, To the sun-kissed, mild Pacific Millions keep Thanksgiving Day.

Blessings on the Pilgrim Fathers! They who sought a home afar, And builded them an altar In the beams of Freedom's star; Let their memories be sacred, Though their graves are far away, For the legacy they left us Is our first Thanksgiving Day.

WHO SAID TURKEY?

A Thanksgiving (Re) Treat.

First Thanksgiving Service.

So far as is known, one of the first "Harvest Thanksgiving Services" ever held in modern times was that provided for in an official document, entitled "Form of Prayer and Thanksgiving to Almighty God, to be used in all churches and chapels in England and Wales and in the town of Bethwick-on-Tweed on Sunday, the 17th day of October, 1897, being the day appointed for a general Thanksgiving to Almighty God for the late Abundant Harvest, by Her Majesty's Special Command." With the exception of one in November, 1769, in gratitude for various successes on sea and land, including the capture of Quebec, and for "an uncommonly plentiful Harvest," this was probably the first service of the kind held in modern times.

Cadeness of Song.

As the custom is among certain Swiss herdsmen on the Alpine slopes, as the sun goes down for each to call to the one above him, through his horn, "Traise ye the Lord," so across the land, through its valleys and over its plains and up its mountainsides, evermore ought to ring the note of praise for the deities of another world, the deities of our own world.

SCORE UP ONE FOR JONES

Sarcastic Comment Will Be Appreciated by Those Who Favor Old-Time Methods of Travel.

Down in the crimson clover zone there were two farmers named Jones and Smith, respectively. Jones was old-fashioned and stuck to old-fashioned ways, but Smith, who was more modern, bought a fine new automobile. One day he was proudly exhibiting to some friends when Jones came along. "Um," remarked Jones, as he thoughtfully sized up the handsome machine. "What's that thing there on the side?" "That's a spare rim and a tire," answered the proud Smith. "We always carry an extra one in case one of the wheels goes wrong."

"Yes," as I allus said," was the disdainful response of Jones. "I've druv homes fer nigh on 50 years, and I never had to carry a spare leg for one o' them yet."—Philadelphia Press.

Handy. "I've started a ten-cent box for Christmas dear!" said the better half. "You won't forget it, will you?" "Me forget it?" replied the other fraction. "Why, how can you say such a thing? Of course I won't forget it." And he didn't. The very next day he showed four times out of the box to meet a deficiency in his car-fare allowance.

THAT IS, something is wrong with baby, but we can't tell just what it is. All mothers recognize the term by the lassitude, weakness, loss of appetite, inclination to sleep, heavy breathing, and lack of interest shown by baby. These are the symptoms of sickness. It may be fever, congestion, worms, croup, diphtheria, or scarlatina. Do not lose a minute. Give the child Castoria. It will start the digestive organs into operation, open the pores of the skin, carry off the foetid matter, and drive away the threatened sickness.

HIS SILENCE A COMPLIMENT

Too Many Men Are Apt to Make the Mistake That is Recorded of This Husband.

The coffee was weak, the bread underdone, and the fowl tough, or at least he said so. His wife's long patience gave way.

"John Henry," said she, "I've tried faithfully to cook to suit you for twelve years long. No one in the town has better-cooked food, yet you are always finding fault. Why can't you praise me once in a while, I'd like to know?"

He looked up in astonishment. "Well, if you ain't the most unreasonable woman I ever saw," he ejaculated. "Why, many and many is the time I've sat down to a meal and never said a word about it. Anybody would know there wasn't any fault to be found, or I'd 'a' found it, and yet you want a better compliment than that! That's just like a woman—they can't tell a compliment when they get one!"

Bugs.

"Tact (his new)!" exclaimed Mrs. Gabb as she looked up from her newspaper. "Isn't what awful?" demanded Mr. Gabb.

"Why here's a woman who complains that the insane asylum is filled with bugs," replied Mrs. Gabb. "Well," groined Mr. Gabb, "what's the blame place for, anyway?"

Money Saved.

"Ever make any money in the stock market?" "No, but I've saved a lot by not playing it."
