

LOCAL MISCELLANY.

From Monday's Daily. E. S. Adam and wife left yesterday for Tombstone. Bicycle riding is becoming the rage in Bisbee again. Del Lewis has gone to Tombstone to serve as grand juror. Ed Moore returned this morning from a short trip to Willcox. Passenger travel on the A. & S. E. is rather light at present. Col. W. C. Land arrived this morning from his ranch near Benson. Miss Myrtle Golly, of Benson, was a visitor on Saturday to our city. Job work of all kinds done at this office in an up-to-date manner. L. C. Shattuck, the brewer, received another carload of beer this morning. Otto Geisenhofer returned this morning from a short business trip to Benson. Quite a number of our cattlemen have been very ticklish during the past few days. The St. Johns Guild meets this evening at the residence of Mrs. J. L. Brown. John Duffy, T. Los Metz and D. Crockett left last night for Tombstone on their business. Miss Minnie Davis has returned to Bisbee, having completed her school term at Tres Amos. Harry Rafferty left last night for Tombstone where he goes as a witness before the grand jury. J. G. Pritchard left tonight for Tombstone as a witness before the grand jury which convened today. Jake Townbridge, the old Tombstone stage driver, passed through El Paso on Friday on his way east. Don't forget the entertainment and dance to be given by the Red Men on Thursday evening next. Bisbee has a ribbon famine. The patriot badges have used up the whole supply of red, white and blue ribbon. Mrs. Wm. Hughes and daughter, Miss Edna, returned from Tombstone this morning, where they have been visiting for some little time. Mrs. Geisenhofer and daughter, sister-in-law and niece of Otto Geisenhofer, of our city, arrived this morning and will remain here for some time. All sorts of rumors have been current on the streets since Saturday about Dewey, Sampson, etc., but none of them could be traced to a reliable source. A number of the members of Rathbone Lodge, K. of P., will leave tomorrow for Tucson to attend the annual convocation which meets in that city this week. Walter Douglass found himself to be the happy father of a bright looking boy when he arrived in town this morning. Mother and son are both doing well. Andy Hannerz left last night for his home in Xenia, Ohio, after several months' stay in our city. He will remain there for some time, but will return to Bisbee later. Miss Annie Yates, who underwent the operation of having her arm removed on Saturday, is doing nicely. Her arm was taken off about midway between the wrist and elbow. Mr. McBride will open a school here next Monday for foreigners who wish to learn the language and idioms of their adopted country. This is a good move. Mr. McBride is a sterling young man, and we predict much good will come of it. Ed Smith and Wm. Hogan, who left here as part of the Bisbee volunteers and we rejoiced on account of their eyesight, returned here Saturday. They report having had considerable trouble in getting transportation back and were delayed several days on account of it. Governor McCord yesterday received a dispatch from Captain McClintock stating that Colonel Wood had uttered the sentiment that the Arizona squad was the finest looking body of men he ever saw. Another dispatch from Col. Brodie said they expected to leave for Cuba next Saturday. From Tuesday's Daily. Mrs. Frank Abrams left last night on the outgoing train. Tom Vaughn left last night for Tombstone on court business. Dr. Green left last night for Tombstone as a witness before the grand jury. L. N. St. John, the well known shirt drummer, is paying our city a short visit. John Hess came in today from the El Cattleman's ranch after a load of supplies. George Spindle returned this morning from Tombstone where he went on court business. Today was payday for the Copper Queen company and the usual amount of money was paid out. Mrs. Jas. Hileman left yesterday for her old home in Indiana, where she will remain during the summer. The case of T. B. Johnston, charged with an attempt to kill George Spindle, was ignored by the grand jury. A dispatch to the Phoenix Herald last evening from Fort Sam Houston states that the two companies of Arizona cavalry had been divided into three companies. This promotes Alexander to a captaincy and G. B. Wilcox to be first lieutenant. The boys are now mounted and equipped. Miss Bertha Wittig has accepted a position in the postoffice during the absence of Miss Pritchard in the east. Edward Barker and Samuel Bowers returned this morning from Tombstone, where they have been on court duty. Miss Aurelia Sendrey left last night for Pearce where she goes to open a dancing school. She expects to return here later. There are no less than five brides which have arrived in Bisbee during the past month and in every case the young lady has come from an outside state. What is the matter with the Bisbee girls? We would like to know. The Prospector comes out again with glowing head lines telling about the defeat of the American navy off Porto Rico. These grape vine dispatches are enough to disgust any one, and must have originated in the vicinity of Walnut gulch, when the home guards went out to practice. Last Friday night at the Headquarters saloon at Wilcox a Mexican took upon himself to thrash the United States and thus save Spain the trouble. He loaded up with war whisky then armed himself with a long knife, and commenced yelling for Spain and hunting for Americans to kill. He soon found one. Officer Burt Alford appeared on the scene, and attempted to arrest the Mexican, who made a thrust at him, when the officer put a bullet through him, killing him. From Wednesday's Daily. Dr. Greene returned this morning from Tombstone. Edw. Land returned this morning from a professional visit to Tombstone. John P. Martin, president of the South Bisbee company, is expected here in the next few days. C. W. Blackburn left yesterday for Tombstone, where he has several cases before the district court. Davy Crockett returned this morning from Tombstone, where he was a witness before the grand jury. Frank Cox, the well-known Phoenix lawyer, came in on the train this morning on a short visit to our city. J. H. Norton, the territorial veterinarian, came in on the train this morning and will remain with us a day or two. J. C. Thatcher, Wells, Fargo & Co.'s well-known detective, arrived on the train this morning on a short business trip. A. McLeod is taking his annual vacation from the Queen store and will leave in a few days for a visit to his old home in Canada. Miss Alice Crable, one of the charming young ladies of Tombstone, arrived on the train this morning and will remain in our city for a few days. Leslie Allen, the cattle inspector, arrived this morning from Nogales and left for the line, where he will inspect several hundred head of cattle today. Tonkin Williams will leave in a few days for San Diego, California, on a short vacation trip. His mother will accompany him on his return home, having recovered from her recent illness. A disastrous fire occurred at Randburg last week which nearly swept out the town. The drug store of N. N. Miller, formerly of Tombstone, and Col. R. F. Halford's place were consumed by the flames, each suffering a total loss. Lee Ross, the well known carpenter, left today for Nacosari, where he goes to take charge of the bridge gang in making culverts and constructing bridges for the narrow gauge railroad which is being built by the Copper Queen company from the mines to the smelters, a distance of nine miles. A. Bauer, the butcher, has moved into his new shop in the Adam building, where he has one of the neatest and finest fitted up shops in the west. Mr. Bauer handles nothing but the choicest of meats of all kinds, and especially Phoenix fatted beef. His prices are reasonable, and once a customer always a customer. The first ice cream and strawberry festival of the season will be given at the Opera House on Saturday evening next. A short program of songs, recitations, etc., will be presented. The ladies of St. John's Episcopal Guild have taken particular pains to make this entertainment a grand success. The decorations will be far superior to any that has as yet been seen in Bisbee. Strawberries and sherbet will be served during the entire entertainment. The following program will be presented: "Flag Drill," by sixteen young ladies. Duet, by Miss N. Hughes and Mrs. Otto Von Kanel; "Klonkka;" Solo, by Miss Nellie Hughes; "Topsy Chorus;" "The House that Jack Built." L. F. Farley conducts a large mercantile business at Liberty Hill, Ga. He says: "One application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm relieved me of a severe pain in my back. I think it O. K." For lame back, rheumatism, neuralgia, swellings, sprains, bruises, burns and scalds no other liniment can approach Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It is intended especially for these diseases and is famous for its cures. For sale by J. S. Williams & Co., druggists.

Proceedings of District Court. Court convened at 10 a. m. May 9th, Judge G. R. Davis presiding. The grand jury was called as follows: W. F. Fowler, Cris Robinson, August Barron, Joe Davis, A. Ashman, E. S. Adam, Miguel Castaneda, R. W. Barr, Geo. Rafferty, F. E. Cadwell, Lewis Duval, H. S. Gray, A. V. Lewis, H. A. Morgan, Ed Barker, W. Hughes, C. L. Cummings, O. F. Ashburn, J. B. Lewis, Calbet Fountain, Joe Davis, P. B. Soto and H. A. Morgan. A special venire for 10 grand jurors was ordered forthwith. Territory vs. S. Donnelly, dismissed. Territory vs. J. R. Hall and Thomas Collins—libel; dismissed. Attorney Swain was appointed on empanelling grand jury to represent all prisoners. The special venire of ten grand jurors was submitted as follows: W. C. Miller, C. B. Landers, Ed Roberts, Frank Hare, W. C. Land, D. M. Hasler, L. A. Smith, Geo. Farrington, R. McCormick, M. D. Scribner. Jurymen Roberts, Miller, Robertson and Landers were instructed not to take part in the cases of Wm. Garvey, Hobbs and Noble Stanley, coming before the jury. The same order was made to prevent Chris Robertson and L. A. Smith from taking part in the Jas. Woods case, D. M. Hanlon in the J. F. Paul case, and W. C. Land in the Tom Johnson case. The grand jury, with Frank Hare as foreman, were instructed by the court and then retired for consideration of the various cases laid before them. Proceedings May 10th: The calendar was called and cases set as below. Those passed will be considered before adjournment. Gibbons vs. Blackburn—passed. Wills vs. Wills—continued. Bryant et al.—evidence heard and case continued to tomorrow to hear further testimony. Joseph Schwertner was admitted to citizenship. He Enlisted. A countryman of the Salt River valley who expressed a desire to enlist in the Arizona cavalry, was directed by a joker to a Salvation Army tent in Phoenix. The salvationists were singing a song when the farmer crowded up to their little circle. He waited patiently. Then one of the men made an address appealing for volunteers. The young farmer pushed into the circle, and, taking off his hat, he stuck out his hand to the uniformed man who was talking. "I want to enlist," said the farmer. Bang went the big bass drum and "hal-leujah!" shouted a sweet-faced little woman. "Another sinner saved; let us pray!" exclaimed the soldier who held the farmer's hand, as he knelt down on the asphalt pavement reverently. The farmer was thoroughly scared by this turn of affairs. Instead of kneeling he looked about him. The prayer had already started when he got his bearings. Seizing his valise, which he had dropped on the street when he too had propped up the soldier, he broke through the crowd, and amid the guffaws of a crowd of newboys, he started toward Mesa City. W. A. McBride will open on Monday, May 16, a school for foreigners desiring to read and write English, study arithmetic; or other branches of primary education. All persons wishing to join this class will please call any evening after May 9, between 7 and 8 o'clock, at his schoolroom on the second floor of the public school building. Hours will be arranged to accommodate men on different shifts. 9-2w Jacob Priashoff has opened up a first-class boot and shoe repair shop on the north side of Main street, where he will be pleased to do your work.
