KANSAS CITY CONVENTION

The National Democratic Ticket Complete.

CONTEST FOR VICE PRESIDENT

National Committee Organizes With Senator Jones as Chairman.

KANSAS CITY, July 7.—The democratic national ticket was completed today by the nomination of Adlai E. Stevenson for vice president.

The nomination was made on the first ballot, state after state joining in a wild scramble to record their support of the winning candidate. It was not accompanied by any such frantic demonstration of approval as had marked the proceedings at previous stages, although the result followed a spirited and, at times, highly dramatic contest between the advocates of Stevenson, Towne, Hill and lesser candidates. The distinct triumph of the day in popular demonstration was that accorded to Senator Hill and this spontaneity and its wild enthusiasm was one of the most notable features the convention has produced. It was accompanied, too, by a remarkable scene when Hill earnestly protested to his friends against being placed in nomination and then, finding his protest in vain, when he strove to the platform and in tones which left no doubt of their sincerity, earnestly besought the convention not to make him a nominee.

On the call for nominations Alabama yielded to Minnesota and the latter state presented its young champion of silver republicanism and democracy, Charles A. Towne. The mention of his name was the signal for a flattering demonstration in his honor, men and women joining in the outburst. For ten minutes the demonstration to Towne lasted with varying degrees of intensity.

Meantime attention was being directed to an excited group massed in front of the New York section, with Hill as the vortex of a struggling throng of delegates. They pressed forward from all quarters of the hall urging him to permit his name to be placed before the convention.

Hill protested vigorously. Judge Van Wyck said he could not refuse. Mr. Murphy and Mr. Croker pleaded with him to obey the will of the convention and accept. Delaware yielded her place to New York. At this Senator Grady pushed through the densely aisles up to the platform. There was a hush throughout the hall to hear what word New York had to offer.

"In behalf of the united democracy of New York," shouted Grady, "I present as a candidate for vice-president the name of David Bennett Hill." The effect was electrical and a tidal wave of enthusiastic approval swept over the convention. Delegates stood on their chairs and waved frantically, not in a few scattered groups, but in solid phalanxes. When the demonstration subsided, Grady completed his speech placing Hill before the convention. But as he stepped from the platform, the man who had just been placed in nomination took his place. Senator Hill looked out sternly, even savagely on the shouting thousands. When he could be heard he made due acknowledgment for the honor done him. "I cannot, I must not be the nominee of this convention," he declared with explosive emphasis. He was frequently interrupted with enthusiastic shouts of approval, but when he left the platform, the delegates were firmly convinced from his words and manner that he was sincerely desirous of having his name withheld. It is probable this alone prevented his nomination by acclamation then and there for the tempestuous spirit manifested showed that the convention was on the point of being carried off its feet.

It was soon apparent now that Hill was out of the race, that Stevenson was a strong favorite. State after state seconded his nomination.

Maryland brought forward Governor John Walter Smith; Washington naming James Hamilton Lewis; North Carolina nominating Colonel Julian Carr, and Ohio presenting the name of A. W. Patrick. The vote was followed with interest for when Alabama announced three for Stevenson and 19 for Hill, it looked as though a close and exciting contest was to occur. But it was soon evident that Stevenson had a strong lead. At the close of call he had 5594 votes, which, however, was not enough to nominate, the requisite number being 624. Hill had received 200 votes and Towne 894. But before the announcement of the result was made a strong-lunged delegate from Tennessee stood on his chair and announced: "Tennessee changes her 24 votes from Hill to Stevenson."

That started the tide irresistibly toward Stevenson.

From every quarter of the hall came demands for recognition. Alabama changed for Stevenson, California did the same. North Carolina changed from Carr to Stevenson. That ended it. Stevenson's nomination was assured, although for some time longer the various states continued to record their changes from Towne and other candidates to Stevenson. In the end the nomination was made unanimous. Its announcement was cheered with enthusiastic approval and again the greatest enthusiasm prevailed and standards were borne around the building in honor of the party nominee.

ARRANGEMENTS MADE.

W. C. Whitney Buys Famous Backman Stock Farm.

NEW YORK, July 7.—Before W. C. Whitney, ex-secretary of the Navy sailed for Europe he concluded all arrangements whereby he secured possession of the famous Backman stock farm at Stony Ford, near Middleton, N. Y. He had been negotiating for the place for a year and a half but could not close the deal until recently. He will take possession of the place at once and have all his brood mares and stallions shipped there from Kentucky. Backman's Stony Ford farm is a famous place, it was there that Green Mountain Maid and Electioneer first opened their eyes.

FIRE UNDER CONTROL.

The Official Estimate of Loss Shows Great Amount.

NEW YORK, July 7.—The fire at the Standard Oil Company's works was practically under control tonight and will probably burn itself out by tomorrow morning. Official estimate of damage is $2,400,000.

FIRE AT M'CABE.

The Camp Has Been Almost Entirely Wiped Out.

PRESCOTT, July 6.—Fire this morning destroyed the greater portion of the mining camp of McCabe. The only business houses left in the place are C. W. French and George Flammer's stores and the Cabinet saloon. Loss is $7,000.

In One Round Only.

NEW YORK, July 7.—Peter Maher knocked out Steve O'Donnell in the first round tonight.

The fight took place at the Broadway Athletic club and, as was expected, O'Donnell was finished in jig time. O'Donnell was all but out in the first round when the referee stopped the fight and gave the decision to Maher. This is Maher's third victory over O'Donnell in one round.

Training in Earnest.

NEW YORK, July 7.—That Terry McGovern is unwilling to take any chances in training for his match with Frank Earn, July 16th is shown by the fact that he has made arrangements with Geo. McFadden as his sparring partner. McGovern is working at Johnson's road house and is doing all his work with the complete understanding that his fight will be the hardest he has ever had.

America Wins.

STAMFORD BRIDGE, Eng., July 7.—American Athletes won the international championship by overwhelming their English competitors. So far they have won seven of the twelve events. The British have won four and one event is yet to be decided.

Robert Huston Dead.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—A dispatch from Manila today, announces the death of Captain Robert Huston, of the 4th regiment by typhoid fever at Manila yesterday afternoon.

THE CHINESE SITUATION

Details of Further Horrors Arrive.

THOUSANDS ARE SLAUGHTERED

Japan Will Have Free Hand to Apply Military Force to Subdue China.

LONDON, July 7.—5.30 a. m.—The Russian government announces that it will give Japan a free hand to apply military force in China.

The details of further horrors in Peking are gathered by the correspondents at Shanghai from Chinese sources, especially of the slaughter in Chinese territory of thousands of native Christians, so that the capital reeks with carnage. The ruthless thirst for blood is spreading in all of the northern provinces and wherever there are native Christians the scenes enacted in the capital are reproduced in miniature. From these provinces nothing further comes regarding the legation forces, except the repetition that they are all dead. A proclamation issued by Li Hung Chang directs that persons starting an uprising shall be at once beheaded and that those spreading false rumors shall be severely punished. This latter phrase, in Chinese sense, means slow strangulation by means of a wooden collar. Wholesale executions are expected to follow these proclamations.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—Preparations are on foot to have the Summer, which is scheduled to sail on the 15th, take a portion of the Fifteenth Infantry to Nagasaki, and presumably back there to China. An order has been issued directing that no more of the recruits at the Presidio be assigned to Manila regiments.

SHANGHAI, July 7.—Japan has decided to send twenty thousand troops to China immediately. The British consul informed all ministers and foreigners at Peking were massacred. Legation burned and frightful atrocities practiced.

LONDON, July 7.—A dispatch from Taku transmits the last message received from Mr. Conger, the American Minister at Peking, which is undated. It says: "We are besieged. The last provisions are becoming exhausted and the situation is desperate. Relief force should advance and give notice by signal."

WASHINGTON, July 7.—Gen. Otis was summoned to Washington and held a long consultation with the war department this morning. The result was that three more regiments will be sent immediately from the Philippines to China.

SHANGHAI, July 7.—The mission hospital at the foreign colony of Mukden was burned and the inmates massacred.

YOKOHAMA, July 7.—The government has decided to dispatch 10,000 troops to China forthwith.

SHANGHAI, July 7.—The British consul here assures your correspondent officially that all ministers and foreigners in Peking have been massacred. The Russo-Chinese bank has received a telegram from Chee Foo confirming the report of the burning of the British Legation together with all occupants.

LONDON, July 7.—At the office of the Chinese inspector of maritime customs in Shanghai it is stated that the courier who left Peking July 3rd, reports that at that time two of the legations were holding out. The Chinese troops had lost two thousand killed and wounded including many Boxer Leaders.

The Boxers are said to have stormed the British legation and turned it into a shambale. Then, according to the Shanghai correspondent, followed the outraging of the women and scenes of torture. The only ray of hope is in the fact that the accounts of what has transpired in the Chinese capital are traceable to no authoritative source. The latest news from Peking that is at all reliable is nine days old. On June 27, through conditions that were then desperate, the British, French and German legations were still standing, and the Chinese attacks upon them had not been successful. Anything may have happened since then, however, and if the foreigners have not been murdered already there is ample time for the Chinese to consummate the work between now and the unknown but distant date when relief will reach Peking.

As suggested in these dispatches yesterday, Tien Tsin bids fair to become a second Peking. The 12,000 troops there are fighting an overwhelming Chinese army, and are completely cut off from the coast.

Until a great army can be mobilized at Teku the reinforcements now dribbling in are apparently to be dissipated in relieving relief forces. The gravity of the situation increases daily and is accentuated by the inadequate provisions of the powers in the present emergency.

A delayed dispatch from Chee Foo says that the Mission hospital at Mukden had been burned and the native Christians massacred. It is reported that in an attack on the Methodist mission at Tsin Hua the native girl converts had been carried into captivity by the Boxers.

SOCIAL AMBITION.

The Goulds Will Erect Mansion to Rival Cornelius Vanderbilt's.

NEW YORK, July 7.—It is stated on excellent authority that Mrs. George Gould who went to Newport does so with a view of buying land for a mansion that may rival even the marble palace of Cornelius Vanderbilt. The George Goulds ever since they were taken up by Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish and others of the fashionable set have cast longing eyes toward this haven. Many desirable sites are to be had, and as George is ever anxious to forward the social ambitions of his wife no one there will be surprised to learn of her paying a million or so alone for the ground.

HYDROPHOBIA KILLS.

Three Out of Four Children Bitten by a Mad Dog.

CHICAGO, July 7.—Little Eddie Wood of Denver, Colorado, died last night at St. Joseph's hospital. This is the third death among four children who were bitten by a mad dog at Colorado Spring, May 26. Edwin Wood, father of the child, brought him to Chicago to take the Pasteur cure. Willie Haven, the sole survivor of the four children who were bitten, is still free from signs of danger, and Dr. Lagorio is hopeful of saving him.

THE PASSENGER

An Accident to Coal Car Delays Today's Train.

As the passenger train was leaving Benson this morning, a car of coal got off the track and tore up about thirty feet of the road. The car was so badly wrecked that it was found necessary to unload it, and the track has had to be repaired, so the train will consequently be late in arriving at Bisbee.

AT NACOSARI.

The New Machinery About Ready for Work.

At Nacosari great activity prevails. The Motezuma's new concentrator is now nearly completed, and the smelter plant is now approaching completion. The company's gas plant and the powerful new gas engines are complete and are ready for duty.

It is safe to assume that under the able management and supervision of Dr. L. D. Ricketts, the entire plant will be producing copper bullion at an early date.

AT PILARES.

The Long Tunnel Will Soon be Completed.

The railway from Nacosari to Pilares runs for several miles through the open country, and then enters the tunnel now being built to the Pilares property.

That tunnel when completed will be over a mile in length. There is in fact only 1500 feet intervening before the terminus is reached.

This important work when accomplished will enable communication to be carried on between the two properties and will facilitate the opening up of new ground and the shipment of ore.

For the Cananeas.

Joseph Schwartz, the local tinsmith, today, shipped two 5000 gallon water tanks to the Cananeas. The Greene Consolidated Copper company are the purchasers of the tanks, which will be placed in position as soon as they arrive at the mine.

Clark, the Senator's son. The delegation was taken to Bryan's house in trolley cars. Col. Bryan arose, dressed and came down to the front porch and made his first speech.

THE SILVER REPUBLICANS.

Bryan and Stevenson Are Both Endorsed by Committee.

KANSAS CITY, July 7.—After a long and exciting debate, during which it looked several times as if Charles A. Towne would be nominated for vice-president in spite of his protest against such action, the national convention of the silver republican party adjourned sine die without making nomination, the whole matter being referred to the national committee with power to act. W. J. Bryan was made the unanimous choice of the convention for president.

KANSAS CITY, July 7.—The national committee of the silver republicans organized by electing D. C. Tillotson of Kansas City, chairman, and General R. S. Corser, of Minnesota, secretary and treasurer.

The national committee of the silver republicans decided to endorse Stevenson.
