The cowboys in Arizona are the cleverest in the world. Among other feats the last week the boys roped several foxes and brought one into town. Then a cowboy roped a musk-hog, a most ferocious creature, tied his mouth up and brought him into town across a saddle.

A regular meeting of the Young Men's Democratic Club of Bisbee, will be held at their Club rooms in Graham's Hall, this evening at 8.30 p. m. every member is requested to be present.

J. C. CALLAGHAN, President. C. F. NICHOLS, Secretary.

The people of Bisbee are informed that Mme. Elrado, the famous palmist and seer, will be here and can receive visitors until Wednesday night. On Thursday she leaves us. There are many of our people who have received from the talented lady information that will enable them to choose the most successful path in life to regulate their conduct and to avoid danger. It is a duty for all to visit her, and the time is short. Neglect not this opportunity.

Quite a crowd attended the club practice shoot, yesterday afternoon. The members present were chiefly new members and young, but some excellent shooting was done, and it was proved that the club is capable of putting in the field men who can uphold its honor against any club in the territory. The club will be compelled to move to some other locality near at hand as buildings will be erected near the traps. The careful handling of guns prevents accidents, and a gun, particularly when thought unloaded should never be pointed towards anyone. This is a rule among men who understand guns, and as it will be insisted upon at this club, accidents will be avoided.

Mr. Liggett, while driving to Naco last Saturday, lost the chickens he was taking down to that prosperous city for the people, a Sunday dinner. It was in vain that Mr. Liggett attempted to explain the matter. He was accused of presenting those chickens to a buxom widow in Bisbee, and that was just all about it. Today Mr. Liggett says that an honest man picked up the chickens and returned them to him, so he is taking them to Naco. That won't do. We are going to find out where he bought this fresh lot of chickens.

LAKE SUPERIOR

Rich Ore Struck on the 700-foot Level.

Drift in Ore—New Hoist Ordered—Extensive Shaft Will Soon be Built.

Rich ore has been struck on the 700-foot level of the Lake Superior and Western in the north drift. The ore is good and the drift is all in ore. Assays of a satisfactory nature have been made.

A new hoist has also been ordered of the latest pattern.

The shaft will be very extensive, in three compartments and about 74 by 30 feet. This will take an enormous amount of lumber.

The Lake Superior is one of the mines that will add to the fame of this region. It has all the prospects of a rich mine with inexhaustible ore bodies, and the development work is carried on with system and skill, and under the best management.

Methodist Church Fair.

On November 13, 14 and 15 the above fair will be held in the opera house. The object of the fair is to defray the cost of erecting the new Methodist church, which is going to be one of the ornaments of the town. Among the special attractions will be the voting contests for two magnificent dolls, the best that money could buy in the city of Los Angeles. Also one strictly first class Winchester rifle, take down, Lyman sight, 30-30 calibre, one of the latest on the market. One first class new saddle, fit for the range, Texas model. The contests begin today. Do not miss this opportunity to get a fine saddle or an extra fine rifle.

CARELESS WITH JEWELRY.

Many Women Leave Watches and Rings Around Where Thieves May Get Them.

A majority of women, though careful to a degree in other things, are notoriously careless about their watches and jewels. They lay them down wherever they chance to be when changing their garment, and not infrequently the valuables are carried off by a dishonest servant or guest. In other respects the feminine recklessness as to consequences is displayed. Of course, it doesn't injure a ring to put it on a cold marble slab at night nor to drop it occasionally to the brick pavement, but it does ruin the setting of the jewels to have a tight glove pulled over them; yet there's hardly a member of the sex, unless she wears so many finger ornaments that it's impossible to get a glove over them, who does not subject them to such severe treatment, and wonders and wonders when she loses a stone she values.

One young woman always ties her rings up in a corner of her handkerchief when she puts on her gloves, and then tucks her handkerchief up her sleeve, and she considered this a very good way until she lost the handkerchief with its contents of four the other day, when she began to realize she'd been a little thoughtless with her treasures.

It is said by the porters of sleeping cars and the matrons of various hotels, however, that fewer rings are left now on washstands than was the case a few years ago, and this is probably because a large proportion of womankind seems to have made it a rule to keep such ornaments in their mouths while they bathe their hands.

Only Two Methodist Papers Profitable.

It came out in the reports of the recent Methodist conference that only two of the 15 official journals of the church, published in different sections of the country under the common name of the Christian Advocate, had been conducted at a profit. The net loss on the others—$108,000 in four years—had been borne out of the profits of the publishing business known as the Book Concern.

Fall Millinery

HERE'S a pleasing exhibit of Fall Millinery now on view here. But a few days out of the packing boxes, but a few weeks on the way. They are as new as that. Some trimmed hats are carried in stock by the wholesale milliners—trimmed, perhaps, last season. Not so with these hats. They were all trimmed to our order, scarcely a month ago, and are the handiwork of New York's best milliners. They reflect the very newest millinery whims.

Among the assortment are all-black hats—always appropriate, but especially this season, when black is the predominant color. All dark, rich, autumn shades are represented.

The display is not unusually extensive. There's no prodigality of assortment to bewilder. It's not difficult to buy hats—just hats and hats. The display is unusually rich and choice, each lot an individual selection. The sooner you see the hats the more of them you'll see. Each day lessens the assortment.
