Mrs. C. E. Martin, a deaf mutfrom Dallas, Texas, and a newspaper woman of several years' experience, ecompanied by her husband arrived in Flagstaff last week and proceeded to canvass the town with a view of starting up another newspaper. This is the third instance of a similar nature that has been brought to our attention in the last few weeks. If newspaper It will prove a big adverlaurels will be heaped upon that much abased belividual, the poor down-trodden newspaper man-who hasn't sense enough to pound sand.

Word reached here Monday morning that Mrs. Dora Martin, wife of Then by shooting herself in the head. playing in the yard with her four-yearold boy, and went in and sat down at the supper table with her husband to ent. After remaining there a few minutes, she got up and went into another room, picked up a revolver and shot herself through the head. No cause can be attributed why the unfortunate woman should commit such an act. She had her trunk packed and was aiming to start Monday morning on a visit to friends and well liked by all. She leaves hu-band and a little boy four years old to mourn her untimely death.

Saturday evening quite a bunch of limbus had collected in the woodshed of one of the saloons here and were l'ackett, who makes this point his headquarters, entered the room from the saloon and strode through the ranks of the miniature Coxey army, shoving the "tourists" to the right and left in a manner that rankled in the peaceful hearts of the hobos. The latter expostalated with the "nigger" and requested him to step lighter. Tackett resented this and offered to whip any six of them. To frighten them into not accepting his challenge he struck the pine door resounding whack that splintered the panels in a dozen pieces. Que hobo braver than the rest, up and at him single handed and was getting much the better of the scrap when the colared fellow pulled out a large knife from his pocket and before his antago nist was aware had made two or thre swipes with it at his stomach, cutting quite a gash in his abdomen. Tackett nen. Tackett on seeing what he had done took to his heels and before anyone was aware and the unfortunate hobo beld as witness. Tackett was located yester day at Williams and will be be bere for trial.
