

OUR TOWN TATTLER.

A gentleman applied to Judge Layton a few days ago for a writ to have his wife committed to the insane asylum. The first indication he observed of her mind being unbalanced was her smiling at a dude. The Judge refused the writ, at the same time holding that any recognition of a dude betrayed a weak mind, but as the lady was fond of lap-dogs and pets it wasn't a clear case of insanity.

WANTED.—A heavy weight man, tall, mouse colored hair, with well established side whiskers to match, well educated, and submissive, is desirous of corresponding with a winsome widow of the same age and complexion with a view to matrimony. In answering this advertisement please state the amount of property and money that goes with the lady as no one need apply unless in position to support a husband. No use to exchange photographs—money preferred to beauty.

The finding of a dead man in one of our alleys the other morning was surrounded in mystery until after the coroner's inquest. Some believed he came to his death by drowning in one of our large water mains, while others believed he had belonged to a disappointed base ball team, and had taken his own life, but the mystery was solved when the coroner's jury returned the following verdict: "We the jury find that this man came to his death by inhaling too much of the odor of this alley."

The city is threatened with a $5,000 damage suit. It appears that Mrs. Nettle's husband was out the other night attending a lodge and her poodle dog had followed him. When they started for home her husband became bewildered, owing to the uneven grade of 23rd street, and wandered into the city jail and locked himself in, leaving the other little dog on the outside and the poodle caught cold. Mr. Nettles has been confined to his room every since with rheumatism, but his wife is making no kick as to him.

A case of mistaken identity came very near costing the fighting editor of this paper his entire estate of worldly possessions. It happened in this way: While he was out walking Sunday evening in the west part of town beyond the street car line, he was held up by a one-arm, one legged, unarmed foot pad, and caused to deliver up his wealth, the robber mistaking him for one of Flagstaff's millionaires. When the would-be-robber took an inventory of the haul, which consisted of a two months statement of an unpaid board bill, an expired railroad pass, a drink ticket and some smoking tobacco, he recognized the editor at once, apologized for the mistake, handed him back his belongings, and subscribed for SUNDAY DEMOCRAT, paying two years subscription in advance.

The city marshal subjected himself to censure last week for arresting a hobo for working half an hour. When he was brought before the police judge he wore a coal-dust look, while his eyes were red like he had been weeping over having to drink mean whiskey, and his clothes looked like they had never visited a laundry. The judge was puzzled. He knew it was against the feelings, by-laws and regulations of the hobo fraternity to work and in his varied experience as a judge he had never known this rule violated before. So after hearing all the testimony, he decided as it was the first offense and the only one on record he would discharge the prisoner, but if he ever offered to work again he would have him transported.

It is always gratifying to receive testimonials for Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy, and when the endorsement is from a physician is especially so. "There is no more satisfactory or effective remedy than Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy," writes Dr. R. E. Robey, physician and pharmacist, of Olney, Mo.; and as he has used the Remedy in his own family and sold it in his drug store for six years, he should certainly know. For sale by D. J. Brannen's drug store.

W. H. Hensley, representing the Pacific Coast Business Directory of San Francisco, is in the city.

Attorney T. S. Bunch of the law firm of Bunch & Jones will leave tomorrow to attend the St. Johns court.

Mrs. E. R. Ellinwood and her two children who have been visiting relatives and friends at Rock Creek, Ohio, for several weeks returned home this morning.

We are in receipt of letters of inquiry about mining properties for sale in this county. Here is a chance for men in the mining business to dispose of some of their mining claims.

All of our summer visitors are so well pleased with our unexcelled climate and the healthfulness of this section that they say they will return to Flagstaff next summer and induce their friends to come.

W. H. Brophy passed through Flagstaff last Friday enroute to San Diego from the East. Mr. Brophy is the able manager of the Copper Queen Co.'s store at Bisbee and is one of the leading citizens of Arizona.

A. Bliss, father of W. S. Bliss, one of the partners of the Dennis Lumber Co., at Walker, died at that place last Sunday. His remains were embalmed by Undertaker Edgar Whipple of our city, and shipped back to Wisconsin Tuesday.

We would like to know why the Teacher's Institute to be held in Flagstaff in next month should be a failure because the teachers of Maricopa county will probably not be in attendance as intimated by the Phoenix Republican.

Mrs. R. H. Cameron returned from Los Angeles, Cal., this morning where she had been to attend the funeral of her father, who died in that city last Monday. Mrs. Cameron has the deep sympathy of the entire community in her sad loss.

Owing to over-crowding and bad ventilation, the air of the schoolroom is often close and impure, and teachers and pupils frequently suffer from lung and throat troubles. To all such we would say, try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For coughs, colds, weak lungs and bronchial troubles no other remedy can compare with it. Says A. C. Freed, superintendent of schools, Prairie Depot, Ohio: "Having some knowledge of the efficacy of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, I have no hesitation in recommending it to all who suffer from coughs, lung troubles, etc." For sale at D. J. Brannen's drug store.

The Safford Milling Company have made an estimate of the grain raised in the Gila valley this year. They have the correct figures given in by every thrasher operated in the valley this year from Thomas to San Jose. When added up it is shown that there was 5,300,000 pounds of wheat and 2,600,000 pounds of barley grown in the valley this year. Wheat is now selling at $1.25 per cental and barley at $1. The revenue to the valley from items alone would be $95,250. The mills in the valley have already handled about 3,000,000 pounds of grain this year.—Graham County Bulletin.

Nervous Prostration

Could Not Sleep—Had No Appetite

Cured in Body and Mind by Hood's Sarsaparilla

"I suffered very much for a long time with nervous prostration. I had about given up all hopes of ever getting better when Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me and I believe it my duty to let other sufferers know the benefit I derived from it. I Could Not Sleep at night, was without appetite, and what little I did eat I was unable to keep on my stomach. After taking the first bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which seemed to do me some good, I tried a second and continued to feel better. I got up feeling Bright and Refreshed in the morning. I continued with the medicine and am cured, body and mind, can sleep well and feel better in every way. I gladly recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to others." J. EDWARD RUFFLE, 154 Madison Ave., Allegheny, Pa.
