L. Zeckendorf & Co. have a new representative on the road in the person of Mr. I. Lowenstein, who is genial and gentlemanly and seems to be up to his business. He was here this week and created a favorable impression among our merchants.

Mrs. Mabel Kimball to-day accompanies her brother's remains to San Diego, Cal., where they will be buried in the family vault. Mrs. Cassidy's mother, Mrs. Maxwell, and brother, James Maxwell, of El Paso, will remain with her and the children for a time. Mr. Maxwell came up on yesterday's stage.

Deaths of H. D. Cassidy.

It is a sad duty the TRIBUNE is called upon to perform this week in recording the death of Harry D. Cassidy, District Attorney elect of this county, which occurred at his home in Florence on Wednesday evening, December 7, 1898, at 10:30 o'clock. A little more than three years ago Mr. Cassidy cast his lot among us, coming highly recommended from Los Angeles to this more genial climate on account of his health, being a victim of that dread disease consumption. When barely eligible on account of residence he was elected to office, and filled the position ably and honestly, and so well were the people satisfied with him that they re-elected him. It was during his last canvass of the county that he contracted a cold, and for the past six weeks he has been confined to the bed from which he was destined never to rise, and he passed away peacefully, surrounded by loving wife, children, sister and sympathizing friends. All that the best medical skill could do to prolong his life was done, but without avail. Mr. Cassidy was born in Denver, Colorado, in 1862, and consequently was 36 years of age. He grew up to manhood in that city, and was there admitted to the bar, afterward going to San Diego and Los Angeles. Among his associates he had an enviable reputation for legal acumen, and above all he was an honest, upright man, a loving husband and kind father. Besides his near-broken wife he leaves four children, three boys and one girl, who are not yet old enough to realize their great loss. All have the most sincere sympathy of the entire community.

Funeral services will be held at the family residence this morning at 9 o'clock, after which the remains will be taken to San Diego, Cal., for burial. Deaver papers are requested to copy this notice.

Mrs. Nick White has four nicely furnished rooms for rent at her residence one block west of the TRIBUNE office. Everything new, neat and clean. Rooms will be rented by the day, week or month. Terms reasonable. o8-3m

A United States prisoner suffering with consumption was received at the Territorial prison from San Quentin last Saturday. Yuma is now the official health resort for all criminal wards of the government. —Yuma Sentinel.

The following teachers were examined this week, and each received a second grade certificate: John R. Hamble, Jr., Arizona; Miss Kris Guerrero, Ramirez district; Miss Veronica Power and Miss Mary C. Nelson, Mammoth. They passed very creditable examinations.

The Hoe-mans Stationery company Tucson, carries the largest and most complete stock of books, stationery, etc., in the Territory. Under the management of Mr. Paul Heermans, the well known newspaper correspondent, it has become a very popular institution throughout Arizona. Mail orders promptly answered to.

Ex-marshal W. K. Meade was in Kingman the past ten days. Mr. Meade is just returned from the Yukon country and is enthusiastic in praise of its richness. He says that next year will see the rich diggings near Dawson worked out and then the country on the American side of the line will receive the attention of the miners on the upper Yukon. A strip of country 1800 miles in length and 200 miles in width along the Yukon in gold bearing. Mr. Meade is investigating several mining propositions in Mohave county. —Mohave Miner.

Something for the New Year. The world-renowned success of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and their continued popularity for near half a century as a stomachic, is scarcely more wonderful than the welcome that greets Hostetter's Almacas. The medical treatise is published by the Hostetter Company, Pittsburgh, Pa., under their own immediate supervision, employing sixty hands in that department. The issue of same for 1899 will be over eleven millions, printed in nine languages. Refer to a copy of it for valuable and interesting reading concerning health, and numerous testimonials as to the efficacy of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The Almacas for 1899 can be obtained, free of cost, from druggists and general country dealers in all parts of the country.

Arrangements Between United States and Spain Brought to an End.

PARIS, Dec. 6.—The peace negotiation in Paris is practically an accomplished fact, today's session disposing of the essential features of the treaty which will be embodied in the following eight articles:

1. The customary preface of treaties in the nature of an expression of amity and of hope for perpetual peace.
 2. The relinquishment by Spain of her sovereignty over Cuba.
 3. The withdrawal of Spanish troops.
 4. The relinquishment by Spain of her sovereignty over Porto Rico.
 5. Spain's cession of the Philippines.
 6. The withdrawal of the Spanish troops there.
 7. The payment by the United States of $20,000,000 for the Philippines.
 8. Provision for "open door" commercial policy in the Philippines.
- A rough draft of the treaty covers these proposals. So completely are the details of the evacuation of the Philippines stated that the commission such as arranged for Spanish withdrawal from the West Indies will be unnecessary. Among the questions not yet settled, however, are coaling stations and religious freedom in the Carolines, the Spanish commission not having replied to the American offer. Spanish soldiers electing to remain in the colonies may do so, but it is more a matter of economy for the Americans to return the others as they must be fed as long as they are kept and Spain is unable to bear the expense of repatriation. Also the Americans have rejected Spain's request for free shipping for ten years in Cuba and Porto Rico waters, they having given the Spanish commissioners such poor consolation as the latter may derive from permission to re-apply when diplomatic relations have been renewed for shipping concessions under the reciprocity scheme of the Dingley law for which Senator Dupuy Delome was negotiating in Washington when the war broke out.

There are still under discussion eight secondary subjects which the Spanish commissioners broached last week, including the status of patents and copyrights. The Americans today handed to Senor Montero Rios a reply covering these questions.

John W. Mackay, the proprietor of the Grand Reef mine, located in Cochise county, this week paid a visit to his valuable properties accompanied by a number of prominent mining men from New York. Mr. Mackay and his party were accompanied by Wilcox by Superintendent Epeas Randolph of the Southern Pacific. Mr. Mackay and his companions left Wilcox with General Manager Payne of the Grand Reef mine, and remained but a short time. It would not be surprising if Mr. Mackay's visit should lead to the creation of a reduction plant. All who are familiar with the Grand Reef are convinced that it is a great mine and will soon be worked with profit. —[Republican.]
