Quite a painful accident happened to Mrs. George Hadicke, one afternoon this week, when she was struck in the mouth with a tennis racket while playing tennis with a number of ladies. Fortunately no permanent injury was done although the impact against the teeth made an ugly cut in the lip.

It was with much regret that the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Houston heard of his resignation as office manager of the A. C. store, this week. Mr. Houston has accepted a promising position with the P. D. M. Company of Bisbee and will leave for that place on Nov. 1.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Johnson was the scene of an enjoyable birthday party on Saturday evening in honor of their son E. A. Johnson, his sister Mrs. Shoemaker assisting. Music, games and various amusements were the chief diversions of amusement in conclusion of which a bounteous lunch was served.

Considerable activity is evident around the general office of the P. D. M. Co., and the office of the P. D. M. Co. this week. As a result of the late vote of the people, the state law requires the paying of employees twice a month which necessitates a complete rearrangement of old systems, and many changes in the handling of the vast number of accounts are going on.

Among the many pretty social affairs of the season was the dancing party given by Miss Lucy Perdum in the auditorium of the school on last Friday evening. During the evening many clever ways of finding partners for dances were introduced by the hostess, which was greatly enjoyed by all present. Assisted by Mrs. A. L. Morenci was the objective point this week of many prominent men well known in copper mining circles, when they spent several days here on business. Among those present were: F. J. Strachen, consulting engineer; General Manager Calumet and Arizona, Warren, Arizona; H. K. Burch, Architect Miami; L. D. Ricketts, General Manager Detroit Copper Mining Company interests, Cananea, Mexico; and C. E. Mills, formerly at Morenci, General Superintendent of the Inspiration Copper Company, Miami.

John H. Saunders, Gordon Foster, Wm. Kent and Wash McLean, Jr., four young men of this camp must be credited with being "real" hunters and not fresside dreamers of the game. Several weeks ago the hunters left here pitched their camp along the Blue river, during which time they killed nine deer and a black bear. Although all had a hand in the deer killing credit must be given Mr. Kent for the killing of the bear. It took six shots to put the beast out of commission, and old Bruin started to run from Kent after the second shot. He followed him however and finally brought him down. The boys were loaded down with venison when they returned last Saturday, while Mr. Kent brought with him the bear skin also. Their many friends over camp were recipients of choice pieces of the game meat.

GILA VALLEY NEWS.

Items of Local Interest Culled from Graham County Exchanges.

The Sunday School Association of Graham County is to have a meeting and program at Safford Nov. 21.

Mrs. George H. Birdno and baby Josephine, returned Monday from a visit to the fair at Phoenix.

The Board of Supervisors was in regular monthly session on Monday and Wednesday of this week, disposing of a large amount of the ordinary business of the office.

Mr. and Mrs. Simms returned Sunday evening from Phoenix, where they had a most enjoyable time at the State fair.

Lorenzo Baroldy and wife arrived here last Sunday from New Mexico. Mrs. Baroldy is a daughter of Abraham Diaz.

An official of the postal department was through the valley this week seeing to it that all postal cards were read in the office.

The farmers of this vicinity are considering the feasibility of increasing the midsummer supply of irrigating water by pumping. It is generally believed that it would be a profitable investment.

Miss Jessie Birdno returned home Monday evening to spend the winter with her parents at the Solomon hotel. She has had a position as clerk in the drug and music store of her uncle, Frank Cluff, since last May. Miss Jessie has in the interval improved considerably in vocal music. Her voice has become noticeably stronger.

A. R. Lynch was here from Safford the early part of the week, and stated to the religious editor of the Bulletin that he may introduce a bill in the next Legislature making St. Patrick's day a sociable holiday next in decorum to the Fourth of July. Judge Lynch has under advisement a bill making the teaching of the Irish language compulsory in all the Indian schools of the State.

We understand that the Gila Valley Water company will soon be prepared to place pipes and convey water to Solomonville and to the farms along the way and above that point. This will doubtless be generally appreciated and patronized. Some one has suggested that the matter of the incorporation of this town may prove an obstacle. It is said by some who ought to know that it has never been discontinued. If this is the situation, all we need do is to resume. It would probably be necessary to get the Supervisors to appoint a council. There would seem to be no reason for levying taxes, there being very little improvements needed. There ought to be some authority here to keep stock off the streets and to check auto speeding in town. Some of them fly in and out a la Barney Oldfield. It is unsafe.
