

Poetical.
UNDAY MORNING IN BED.
When the thirteenth week is over,
Wooden limbs that ask for ease;
So grim task is then before you,
No one but yourself to please.
How delicious, then the feeling
That dawns through the drowsy head,
Of a rust unbroke, unsummoned,
Sunday morning in the bed.
And such fancies throng around you,
Half asleep and half awake,
Dim defined, yet all so pleasant—
Fancies like the dawn, opaque,
Waking dreams of love and fortune,
Brighter far than can be said,
Give a foretaste of elysium,
Sunday morning in the bed.
And the early sounds contrasting,
Add still more to the repose;
Praise who will the early riser,
Sweet r stills the morning doze.
Labor, bustle, care all banished,
And the only sound you hear,
Is the breaking of a rough clamor,
Rousing from the Sunday's bed.
Fishes sing of early morning,
Headshakes, the dawn, opaque,
Rings repeat, industry's harvest,
In the morning's early air—
Well, in week's days let it admit it;
Think how soon one's life is sped,
Let poor mortal joy, unheeded,
Sunday mornings in the bed.

With and Humor.
— Josh Billings says: "One of the funniest scenes I ever saw was two old maid waiting on one side and two old maid waiting on the other."
— In a "time novel" recently published, the hero made to climb one hundred and fifty feet up a tree. "How is that for high?"
— "I will preach from that portion of the scripture this evening," said a colored minister, "where the 'poor Paul' plants his 'pistle at de 'phestians.'"
— The Jews have a proverb, "that he who brings not his son up to some employment makes him a thief." The Turks say, "An idle man is the devil's playboy."
— A Texas negro on being arrested for polygamy, said: "Why, I hasn't got but four men and yet, and the law openly 'lows de colored man fifteen'!"
— Missouri has a pupil in the primary department of a public school 107 years old. He is a colored youth, and dies because the other children won't play tag with him.
— Southern negroes, when they get a new pair of pants, are in the most intense agony of mind. They are ripped up the leg so they can hear it 'flog' when they walk.
— A girl at Olympia Washington Territory, threw some blasting powder in the fire-place supposing it to be coal. They had to send eighteen miles for lumber for the coffin. It was so scarce there.
— A Cincinnati judge has decided that a bit of law is better to a wife sufficient ground for a divorce. How is it when the wife does the blowing? There is a friend of ours wants us to find out for him,—he thinks he's got a case.
— "Come Bob, how much have you cleared by your speculation?" said a friend to his companion.
— "Cleared?" answered Bob with a frown, "why, I cleared my pockets!"
— A negro parson in the West preaching against the love of money, concluded his sermon by saying: "And finally brethren, you can judge what God thinks of money by the class of people he gives it to."
— All Over Town.—"Jane," said a waiter to a friend.
— "What's all over town?"
— "Mud!"
— Miss Jane's eyes dropped—and so did her waterfall!
— At Sydney, Ohio, a young woman went into a store and asked for "fine imitation purses," the first she saw was out of them, but had some mighty good cat-gut fiddle strings. She faints, and had to be carried out on a revenue stamp. Such is life.
— A Newark man is getting very suspicious because his wife has several times lately asked him why he didn't apply for work at the nitro-glycerine factory which has exploded twice lately? He wants a divorce.
— Love is like a hunter, who cares not for the game when once caught, which he may have pursued with the most intense and breathless eagerness, save is stronger in pursuit, friendship in possession.
— A jilted swain spitefully says: "Eve did not know as much as her daughters of the present day. Had they been in her place, instead of being deceived, they would have deceived the devil."
— Don't be too anxious to solve a conundrum. We know a man who got two black eyes in endeavoring to find out the difference between a man and a woman fighting in the street.
— A darkey gives the following reason why the colored race is superior to the white race:
— "All men are made of clay, and like the merchantsman pipe, are more valuable when highly colored."
— A celebrated preacher, in a sermon on the duty of wives, said: "I see in this congregation a woman who has been guilty of disobedience to her husband, and in order to point her out I will fling my Bible at her head." He flung the book, and every wife's head was instantly ducked.
— At Fort Wayne, Indiana, when women begin to run around the street bareheaded, people know that spring has come, generally. Talking about a short foot, an Indiana woman that can't show a foot thirteen inches long is hooted out of society.
— The Texas magistrate who postponed a case for two weeks, in order to find out whether the State was in or out of the Union, was one of your careful kind. In the meantime the citizens hung the horse thief that was going to be tried, because they hadn't a jail.
— A slight misunderstanding, at a temperance meeting a number of ladies who desired to throw their influence on the right side, came up to sign the pledge when a son of Erin exclaimed: "Be gorra! who would think so many fine looking Yankee women drunk!"
— A young married couple in Wisconsin town lately began house-keeping the first purchases of the head of the family at the village grocery were: five cents' worth of soda, five cents' worth of salt, two cents' worth of pepper, one cent's worth of chewing gum, twelve cents' worth of soap. The wife announced to twenty-five cents, which was paid by the young Benedict; and as he left the store he remarked to the clerk that "keeping house is cheaper than boarding!"

Professor R. S. NEWTON, M. D.,
Professor and President of the Faculty, late "Professor Theory and Practice" of Medicine, Cincinnati, &c.
One of the most eminent medical men of this age—well known as the author of the following standard medical works: "Diseases of Children," "Newton's Sympy Surgery," &c. In December number of American Medical Review—Page 278, says:
"Among the more recent efforts to introduce popularity, some of the new remedies due to J. J. Lawrence, M. D., of Norfolk, Va., which is lauded to the profession and the public in any desired quantity. We recently examined his Laboratory, and became fully satisfied that all his work is done in the best manner, by the most approved processes, and from the best materials giving as a result a medicine meeting the confidence of the Physicians and the public."
Koskoo Cures Scrofula in its Worst Forms.
From A. W. MILLS, a prominent and well known merchant of Norfolk, Va.
No. 11 Main St., Norfolk, Va., Sept. 15, 1889.
DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: Your Koskoo has worked a great benefit on my family, since childhood. She lost thirty six pieces from her ankle, several from her arm, her sides were ulcerated in several parts of the body. Whilst in this condition she commenced taking your Koskoo—It acted like a charm on her; under its use the ulcers gradually healed, and her general health greatly improved. I certainly saved her much suffering, and perhaps her life. I regard Koskoo as a specific for all scrofulous affections. You are a great benefactor to the world, from which she suffered greatly. She is now in better health than she has for many years.
With the highest regards,
I am gratefully yours,
R. C. TILLERY, M. D.
Koskoo is endorsed by the best physicians everywhere. Read the following from Dr. Tillery, a successful practitioner of many years standing in the Old North State.
Rocky Mount, Edgecombe Co.,
September 10, 1889.
DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: I have used your Koskoo in my practice with the most successful results. I find it to be a powerful Liver Laxative, and a most valuable remedy in all cases of the Liver, Scrofulous Syphilis, and Nervous Affections. It is a most valuable medicine, and in fact, in almost every variety of Chronic Disease its use is indicated. Hoping you may meet with the same success you deserve as a manufacturer of reliable medicines, I am, sir, with much respect,
