EVERYBODY IN RICHMOND

Who can, is going to the World's Fair. Of course they are, and what is more, all of them who desire to make a quick, comfortable trip are going by the CHESAPEAKE & OHIO route. There are several through trains daily over this line, but the best is the one leaving Richmond at 2 P. M. This arrives at Chicago the next afternoon at 5 o'clock, the passengers thus being out only one night. Among the advantages of this route, in addition to fast time, are through Sleeping and Dining Cars, with use of Parlor Car.

The Division Passenger Agent, Mr. John D. Potts, 809 east Main, will cheerfully give any information relating to the trip.
