

The Jewish South.

DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF JUDAISM.

VOL. I.

RICHMOND, VA., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1893.

No. 9.

THE TIE THAT BINDS.

MARRIAGE THIS WEEK OF FOUR RICHMOND PEOPLE.

Mr. Straus and Miss Baumgarten.—Mr. Binswanger and Miss Whitlock.—Mr. Frank and Miss Block.

In Washington, Sunday evening, Typographical Hall was thronged with a goodly company to witness the marriage of Miss Mamie Baumgarten, of that city, and Mr. A. E. Straus, of Richmond. The hall was elaborately decked with palms and growing plants, mingled with cut flowers, in honor of the occasion. Rabbi Rosenzweig officiated. The ceremony was a most impressive one, and the arrangements were conducted after the most orthodox rule. The bride, a petite brunette, entered escorted by her father and mother, between whom she walked in her bridal robes of white brocade, elaborately trimmed with lace. Her long tulle veil was caught with sprays of orange blossoms. A handsome diamond pendant, the gift of the groom, was worn at the throat, and her bouquet was of bridal roses.

She was preceded by her sister, Miss Carrie Baumgarten, as maid of honor, in a gown of cream-white brocaded satin, and her flowers were white roses. She was escorted by the best man, Mr. William Baumgarten. The groom entered with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. S. Heller, and awaited his bride at the silken canopy, which was erected at the far end of the hall. This canopy was formed of white silk, embroidered in gold. Mr. Milton Straus, of Richmond, and Leopold Baumgarten, brother of the bride, acted as ushers. Mrs. Baumgarten wore a handsome toilet of black faille, with ornaments of pearls and rubies.

A banquet followed at the hall, attended by the assembled company. The setting of the bountifully spread board was beautified with a profusion of white blossoms. Many elegant presents were received. Among the list was a check for five thousand dollars, the gift of the bride's brother, who sailed from Mexico on Wednesday for England, where he controls extensive interest in silver mines.

Among those who went on to attend the ceremony were Messrs. Milton and Julius Straus, of Richmond.

BINSWANGER—WHITLOCK.

There was a very pretty marriage at Beth Ahaba synagogue last Tuesday night when Miss Rebecca Whitlock became the wife of Mr. Harry S. Binswanger. The edifice was handsomely decorated, and was crowded with friends of the contracting couple. The ceremony was impressively performed by Rabbi E. N. Calisch. Mr. Morris H. Asher was best man. The ushers were Messrs. Alfred S. Kraker, Milton E. Marcuse, Moses I. Binswanger, Samuel Eichel, Ralph Cohen, Seymour A. Straus, Henry Abram, A. D. Whitlock, Abram Whitlock, and Samuel Harburger.

There was a handsome reception after the marriage, at the home of the bride's parents. At this only the relatives of the newly-married pair were present.

The bridal couple left on the Chesapeake and Ohio train the same night for Chicago and other points.

Mr. and Mrs. Binswanger need no introduction to our Richmond readers. To those out of town it should be stated that they are respectively the son and daughter of Messrs. Samuel Binswanger and Herman Whitlock, than whom there are no more respected or substantial citizens.

FRANK—BLOCK.

The full-dress wedding of Mr. Max Frank, of New York, and Miss Sadie Block, of this city, which took place in the Grand-Lodge room of the Masonic Temple, Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, was a most recherche affair. The draperies and floral decorations which adorned the hall were of a very tasteful and elaborate order, and the scene presented as the bridal cortege entered the room was a most beautiful one.

Rabbi E. N. Calisch officiated, and Mr. Sigmond Wetzler, of New York, acted as best man. The ushers were Messrs. Phil. Frank, Fred. Block, Morris Asher, Moses Levy, E. H. Gunst, Phil. Schloss, Milton Marcuse, and B. Somers, of New York.

Little Misses Rosa and Lillie Block, the younger sisters of the bride, were the only lady attendants. The ushers were the first to enter the hall. They were followed by the little misses, preceding the bride, who walked to the altar in company with her father. The groom, who came last, was accompanied by his best man.

The bride, who has an exceptionally graceful figure, and is moreover a handsome brunette, was becomingly attired in a beautiful gown of Duchesse satin and real lace, with diamond ornaments.

After the ceremony a magnificent reception was tendered the attendants and friends of the newly-wedded pair. After some time had been spent in bestowing the usual attentions upon the bride and groom, a splendid supper was served by Moesta. Among the guests present were Mrs. B. Frank and Miss Minnie Frank, of New York, mother and sister of the groom; Mr. S. P. Frank and Miss Jennie Frank, of Albany, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Block, of Gordonsville; Messrs. Jacob and Benjamin Gundersheimer, of Baltimore; Miss Bertie Kaufman, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Block, parents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. M. Hessberg, Mr. and Mrs. I. Lichtenstein, Mrs. C. Lichtenstein, Mr. and Mrs. E. Bottigheimer, Mr. and Mrs. A. Cohen, Mr. and Mrs. Jo. Kirsh, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kirsh, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kirsh, Mr. and Mrs. Meyer Kirsh, Mr. and Mrs. H. Gunst, Mr. and Mrs. Abram Gunst, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Straus, Dr. and Mrs. Davis, Mr. W. R. McComb, Rabbi and Mrs. Calisch, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weil, Mr. Gus. Oestreicher, and Misses Minnie Gunst, Rosa May, Blanche Binswanger, Celia Felheimer, Hortense Bottigheimer, Florence Bottigheimer, Rosa Lichtenstein, Minnie Hessberg, Minnie Block, and Rachael Kirsh.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hecht, of San Francisco, the cousins of the bride, who were to have attended the wedding, telegraphed that they had been detained on the road by sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank will reside in New York, but before going to their future home they will spend ten days at the World's Fair, after which they will visit Detroit, Niagara, Buffalo, Syracuse, and Albany.

Mr. Frank is a popular young business man of New York, and is a member of the firm of B. Frank & Sons, of that city.

Senator and Mrs. Wm. Lovenstein, will celebrate the thirtieth anniversary of their marriage on Tuesday evening, 24th inst. They will be pleased to receive their friends at their residence, 1002 E. Clay Street, from 8.30 to 11 P. M.

Miss Eisfeld, of Burlington, Iowa, is visiting her sister, Mrs. I. I. Strause.

Mrs. Feldenheimer, of Baltimore, a former resident of Richmond, is on a visit to her old home, and is the guest of Mrs. J. B. Angle.

Paradise Lodge, I. O. B. F., meets Sunday night, and the amendment to the by-laws looking to an increase of dues will positively be disposed of.

A new post has lately been created in France, that of Inspector General of Public Instruction (Literature) for the Colonies. It has been confided to a coreligionist, M. Wahl, Professor of History at the Lycee, Condorcet, Paris.

At Homes.

After November 1st., Mrs. I. I. Strause will be at home on the first and third Tuesday evenings of the month, and Mrs. L. L. Strause, on the second and fourth Tuesdays.

All Photographs are bound to be likenesses. The camera never lies. Artistic taste is the secret of a "good likeness." Try Davis 827 East Broad street and then draw your own conclusions.

A sufferer for years gratefully acknowledges the great benefit he received by taking Dr. David's Cough Syrup for Asthma and Bronchitis, of long standing. If you suffer, take it and be cured. Only 25 cents everywhere.