PROCLAMATION OF ELECTION.

TERMINITY OF ARIZONA,
Executive Department.

Whereas, Under an act of the legislative assembly of the territory, entitled "Elections," and approved March 8, 1897, it is provided that there shall be held throughout the territory, upon the Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1898, and every two years thereafter, an election for members of the legislative assembly and such other officers as may be required by law;

And whereas, It is further provided in said act that at least thirty days before each general election the governor must issue an election proclamation, under the great seal of the territory, and transmit copies thereof to the clerks of the boards of supervisors of the counties in which such elections are to be held; such proclamation to contain a statement of the time of the election and the offices to be filled, and the offer of a reward in the form prescribed by said act;

Now, therefore, I, Nathan O. Murphy, governor of Arizona, in pursuance of the duty enjoined upon me, do hereby order a general election to be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1898, and the offices to be held at such election, I do hereby designate to be as follows, to-wit:

One delegate to the fifty-seventh congress of the United States.

Twelve members of the council of the legislative assembly of Arizona, and twenty-four members of the house of representatives of the legislative assembly of Arizona, apportioned agreeably to existing laws as follows:

Apache county, one member of the council and one member of the house of representatives; Coconino county, one member of the council and one member of the house of representatives; Cochise county, one member of the council and three members of the house of representatives; Gila county, one member of the council and one member of the house of representatives; Graham county, one member of the council and two members of the house of representatives; Maricopa county, one member of the council and four members of the house of representatives; Mohave county, one member of the council
and one member of the house of representatives; Navajo county, one member of the council and one member of the house of representatives; Pima county, one member of the council jointly with the county of Santa Cruz and three members of the house of representatives; Pinal county, one member of the council and two members of the house of representatives; Santa Cruz county, one member of the council jointly with the county of Pima, as aforesaid, and one member of the house of representatives; Yavapai county, one member of the council and three members of the house of representatives; Yuma county, one member of the council and one member of the house of representatives.

And the elect shall be elected in each county of the territory, one probate judge, one district attorney, one sheriff, one treasurer, one recorder, one surveyor, two members of the board of supervisors, and in the county of Santa Cruz there shall be elected three members of the board of supervisors, and in each county of the first class and each county of second class one assessor shall be elected; also in the several precincts of each county one justice of the peace, and one constable shall be elected, and in such precincts as are entitled to two justices of the peace and two constables that number shall be elected.
There shall also be elected in each county of the first class one county school superintendent.

And I do hereby offer a reward of fifty dollars for the arrest and conviction of any and every person violating any part of the provisions of Title IV, Part I of the Penal Code.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the territory to be hereunto affixed. Done at Phoenix, the capital, this 27th day of September, A. D. 1898.

N. O. MURPHY.

Allen T. Bird, of the Benson Press, has this to say of the gentleman: In Governor N. O. Murphy, the candidate for delegate to congress, there is presented a gentleman who has served the people long and well in several high public stations. As secretary of the territory, in the Harrison administration; as governor two terms, under both Harrison and McKinley; as delegate to congress during the Cleveland administration, the gentleman has filled the full measure of public service in the most creditable and effective manner. As governor he has given Arizona two clean cut, honorable honest and businesslike administrations which will go into history as the best and most capable Arizona has ever had. As delegate in congress he was constant and vigilant in attention of the wishes and interests of his constituents. As delegate again in the term for which he will be elected in November, he will bring to the discharge of his duties a broader experience, a wider acquaintance with the public men of the nation and a more thorough information of the wants and needs of his constituents.

But beyond all these considerations is the inestimable boon of statehood, now in sight, which should be an inducement for every voter to cast his ballot for Governor Murphy. By bringing Arizona into harmony with national administration now, an enabling act and speedy administration is assured this winter. No other candidate now in the field can accomplish that much desired result with ease more great than Governor Murphy.

ONLY about sixty per cent of those who have paid their poll tax have registered. It is not the poll tax law but simply negligence on the part of the voters. We urge all voters to get their names on the register before Oct. 16, as that is the last day.

H. J. BARGEMAN has been a very efficient deputy sheriff, and is thoroughly conversant with the business of the sheriff's office; a gentleman in every respect, and is the logical candidate for the office of sheriff and ought to be elected by a large majority.

THE Republicans should not be over-confident this year. There is much work to be done between now and election, and should remember that our friends, the enemy, are hustling night and day. Republicans were over-confident in '92, and you remember the result of that election?

Pay Your Poll Tax, Then Register.

As we understand it the new law in regard to having poll tax receipt before name can be placed on the great register does not effect the old law which says you must pay the tax. As long as the tax has to be paid anyway it should make very little difference whether paid now or later on, except that if paid now you have a chance to vote, and no man can afford to lose his vote.

The next and most important thing is to register. Those who are now in possession of their receipts should not fail to register at once, as Oct. 16 will be the last day.

How any sane man who desires the gold standard to be maintained can support Bryan surpasses comprehension. Is it not better that the Filipinos should lose the "Republic"—which they do not understand, any way—than that the American people should be plunged into bankruptcy and dishonor? For that is what Bryan's election means.

The usual thing is happening in China, where common soldiers are confessing that they committed this, that and the other murder. All those confessions must be taken with a grain of salt. It is notorious that any rich murderer there has no difficulty in hiring a substitute who will suffer death for him.

Jim Corbett is coming back to sue for libel the papers that accused him of running off with an actress.
He is likely to get damages or jay-gamed, we don't know which just yet.

It is ten thousand pities that the coal strike should have occurred just now, whatever the rights and wrongs of that struggle may be.
The United States was just getting itself settled in the coal markets of Europe and the chances were that if unimpeded for a few months more, it would have made its position so good that it could not have been forced out of it. But the strike, if prolonged, will end all efforts to capture foreign coal markets for stomach troubles. It digests what not overload your stomach. Gives instant relief and permanent cure.

Dated Pinetop, Arizona, this 19th day of September, 1900.

During the winter of 1897 Mr.
James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, Clay county, W. Va., struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whisky in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by F. J. Wat-
