PROCLAMATION OF ELECTION.

Whereas, Under an act of the legislative assembly of the territory, entitled "Elections," and approved March 3, 1887, it is provided that there shall be held throughout the territory, upon the Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1898, and every two years thereafter, an election for members of the legislative assembly and such other officers as may be required by law;

And whereas, It is further provided in said act that at least thirty days before each general election the governor must issue an election proclamation, under the great seal of the territory, and transmit copies thereof to the clerks of the boards of supervisors of the counties in which such elections are to be held; such proclamation to contain a statement of the time of the election and the offices to be filled, and the offer of a reward in the form prescribed by said act;

Now, therefore, I, Nathan O. Murphy, governor of Arizona, in pursuance of the duty enjoined upon me, do hereby order a general election to be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1898, and the offices to be held at each election I do hereby designate to be as follows, to-wit:

One delegate to the fifty-seventh congress of the United States.

Twelve members of the council of the legislative assembly of Arizona, and twenty-four members of the house of representatives of the legislative assembly of Arizona, apportioned agreeably to existing laws as follows:

Apache county, one member of the council and one member of the house of representatives; Coconino county, one member of the council and one member of the house of representatives; Cochise county, one member of the council and three members of the house of representatives; Gila county, one member of the council and one member of the house of representatives; Graham county, one member of the council and two members of the house of representatives; Maricopa county, one member of the council and four members of the house of representatives; Mohave county, one member of the council
and one member of the house of representatives; Navajo county, one member of the council and one member of the house of representatives; Pima county, one member of the council jointly with the county of Santa Cruz and three members of the house of representatives; Pinal county, one member of the council and two members of the house of representatives; Santa Cruz county, one member of the council jointly with the county of Pima, as aforesaid, and one member of the house of representatives; Yavapai county, one member of the council and three members of the house of representatives; Yuma county, one member of the
representatives.

And there shall be elected in each county of the territory, one probate judge, one district attorney, one sheriff, one treasurer, one recorder, one surveyor, two members of the board of supervisors, and in the county of Santa Cruz there shall be elected three members of the board of supervisors, and in each county of the first class and each county of second class one assessor shall be elected; also in the several precincts of each county one justice of the peace and one constable shall be elected, and in such precincts as are entitled to two justices of the peace and two constables that number shall be elected.
There shall also be elected in each county of the first class one county school superintendent.

And I do hereby offer a reward of fifty dollars for the arrest and conviction of any and every person violating any part of the provisions of Title V, Part 1 of the Penal Code.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the territory to be hereunto affixed. Done at Phenix, the capital, this 25th day of September, A. D. 1898.
[SEAL] N. O. MURPHY,
By the Governor: C. H. AKBES, Secretary of the Territory of Arizona.

OUR CANDIDATES.

Below we give a brief sketch of Republican candidates. We believe they are as good men and as capable men as can be found in the county to fill the offices they are selected for:

COLEN CAMPBELL.

Colen Campbell, candidate for Councilman of Navajo county, is a Canadian by birth. He came to the United States when twenty years of age, and has been a resident of the West since that time. He went to Dakota in 1876 and removed to Arizona in 1879 and has been a resident of this section ever since. In 1883 he formed a partnership with Frank Hart under the name of Hart & Campbell and entered into the sheep raising business, and the firm continued in business until Mr.
Hart's death in 1898. In 1899 Messrs. Perkins and Rand purchased the interest of the Hart estate, the business now being conducted under the firm name of Campbell, Perkins & Rand. This firm is one of the leading stock companies of Navajo county. Mr. Campbell's business interests are a sufficient guarantee that the interests of Navajo county are his interests. You will not miss it by voting for Mr. Campbell.

BURTON C. MOSSMAN.

Republican candidate for Assemblyman for Navajo county is a native of Illinois, came to New Mexico in 1882 and removed to Arizona in 1893.
He came to Navajo county in 1898 and has been a resident of this county since that time, and as superintendent of the Aztec Land and Cattle Co., has demonstrated that he is a good citizen and resident of Northern Arizona. Although Mr.
Mossman has been, and is now connected with the cattle industry, he has at all times been favorably disposed toward the sheep interests and has assisted that industry at times when such assistance was of material value to them as is known by many of the sheep raisers of Navajo county.

Mr. Mossman, if elected Assemblyman, will fulfill his duties with credit to himself and honor to the county that elects him.

F. W. NELSON.

Republican candidate for district attorney for Navajo county, was born in Manchester, New Hampshire, and came to New Mexico in 1883; and to Apache county, Arizona, in February, 1884, locating near Springerville. He resided in that section until 1895 when he moved to Winslow, at which place he has since resided. Was admitted to practice law at Holbrook in December, 1895; was the first county recorder of Navajo county, and was instrumental in getting the county of Navajo created.

Mr. Nelson has held public office in both this and Apache county with credit to himself and honesty to the interests of the county he served.
He is quite extensively interested in property and business in this county and the interests of the county will be carefully looked after in the District Attorney's office if he is elected.
We doubt if there is a man in the territory who is more familiar with the affairs of this county than F. W.
Nelson.

H. J. BARGMAN.

Republican candidate for Sheriff for Navajo county, entered upon life's journey in California in 1860, came to Arizona in 1873, and has lived on the frontier all his life. The life of a frontiersman has made him familiar with the haunts and habits of lawless characters. Mr. Bargman is a man who can adopt himself to all circumstances, and the occupations he has pursued for a livelihood has made him acquainted with all tricks and by roads in the country.
He served two years as a deputy in Apache county, under W. R.
Campbell, now of Winslow, and was considered the best field man in his employ; served four years as under sheriff for F. J. Wattron, the present sheriff of this county, and has made a first-class record for himself. Joe has never been called a coward, and his judgment has always been the best.

Nearly everybody in Navajo county knows Joe Bargman. They all have respect for him; his honesty and ability cannot be questioned, and it behooves the voters of this county to elect a man to the important office of sheriff who has been tried and not found wanting. See that your X is opposite the name of H. J. Bargman, for sheriff.

F. M. ZUCK.

Republican candidate for Treasurer of Navajo county, needs no introduction to the people of this county.
He was born in Pennsylvania, his parents moving to Iowa when he was a small boy, when that state was a much newer country than Arizona is today, which makes him a typical western man of the self-made class.
He came to Apache county in 1881, on the first passenger train from Albuquerque to Winslow, when he went into the employ of the railroad company, at which he continued for nearly two years, mostly in the track service. He settled in Holbrook in 1882 and built the first 2 story house erected by a private individual on this line of railroad and has proven himself to be an all around man, ready to do any necessary thing from a section hand to maid of all work around a country hotel. He has been in the hotel business most of his time since locating in this county; has served a number of terms as Justice of the Peace and was the first Probate Judge of Navajo county, and shows clearly an eminent fitness for official business.

His early training in a general store, which he entered at the age of nine years fitted him for employment as a traveling salesman and began this work when about nineteen years old continuing in this business for nearly twenty years.
When the call to arms came for the defense of our glorious Union he was one of the first men in his county to place his name upon the roll of volunteers, from which he was discharged after nearly two years service, physically disabled from which he suffers to this day.

Mr. Zuck is a man who has always displayed a spirit of public enterprise in the improvement of the county regardless of locality and has shown his faith in the county by his efforts to develop its latent resources and advance its interests.
For this reason he was the first man to urge the division of Apache county and spent considerable time and money to that end.

He has always shown a liberal spirit to all men, a firm believer that the chief foundation stone of this government is the exercise of liberty of freedom in the exercise of religious and political opinions, according to the dictates of his own conscience.

The voters of Navajo county will

GOV. MURPHY

Held an interesting meeting at the Courthouse Thursday evening.

THE HALL WAS WELL FILLED WITH AN INTERESTED LOT OF PEOPLE, AND ALL SEEMED

To have made up their minds that N.
O. Murphy should be our next representative in Congress.

In a clear, honest and business-like manner Gov. Murphy talked of the issues of the campaign most interesting to the voters of Arizona.
He explained the reasons why we

H. J. BARGMAN.

make no mistake in electing Judge Zuck to the office of County Treasurer, for his competency is beyond doubt and his integrity above reproach.

SMITH D. ROGERS.

Republican candidate for Recorder, comes from one of the oldest families of New England. He traces his genealogy back to John Rogers, who was burned at the stake in England. His father was in the Mexican war and marched through Arizona and California under Col.
Cooke in 1846.

Mr. Rogers was born in Utah, moved to Arizona late in the year 1878 and located at Snowflake in January, 1879 where he has resided continuously ever since. While unassuming, he has no superior as an honest and industrious citizen, and no man has labored harder to build up and develop a new county.
He is straightforward and conscientious in all his acts and is honored and respected by all who have the good fortune to be acquainted with him. He has always discharged his duty to every public trust faithfully and punctually, and if elected Recorder would fill the office to the entire satisfaction of all.

J. S. WOODFORD.

Republican candidate for Probate Judge, is a graduate of the Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, having left that institution with high honors in 1873. He commenced the practice of medicine in Millville, N. J., where he was city physician for three years. He then moved to California where for eight years he held the position of surgeon for the Black Diamond Coal Mining Co.
He has been a resident of Navajo county for nearly seven years and has been very successful in all his undertakings. If he is a successful candidate for Judge he will do all in his power to fulfill the responsibilities of the office. He is honest, diligent, and capable of filling a position of this kind, and if elected will do so with the best of his ability.

L. E. DIVELBESS.

Republican candidate for Supervisor, was born in Steuben county, Ind., in the year 1851. In 1870 he moved to Kansas, and in 1875 to California. In 1884 he came to Arizona. In 1896 he was elected supervisor of Navajo county, and has held the office ever since. He has been a trustworthy officer, has done his duty without fear or favor, and as near as we can learn has given universal satisfaction. He is our present postmaster, and is giving the public good service.
A vote for Mr. Divelbess means a vote for the good of Navajo county.

J. H. WILLIS.

visor, traces his ancestors back to the landing of the Pilgrim Fathers. His grandfather served in the revolutionary wars of 1812 and Mexican, 1846. His father was a pioneer of the west, having located in Utah in 1847 and took part in the Indian wars and troubles of those early times. The subject of this sketch was born in Iron county, Utah, in 1858, attended the public schools until 18 years of age, when he took a course in the Academy at Beaver City, Utah; was married in 1878, settled to Arizona in 1879 and moved to Snowflake.

In 1894 Mr. Willis was elected supervisor of Apache county, and when the county was divided was appointed by the Governor supervisor of Navajo county, and in 1896 was elected to succeed himself.
The nomination came to him unsought, but if elected he promises to fulfill the duties of the office to the best of his ability.

Do you take the Argus? Why not?

should have statehood and how to get it in a way that anyone could understand. There is no doubt with Arizona's wealth and natural advantages that statehood is the proper thing for us. Just as soon as we are admitted into the union a large amount of capital will pour in to develop our mining resources, furnish ways and means for irrigating our arid lands, and the population will double in a short time.
This means a benefit to everybody.
The quickest way to get statehood is to elect a Republican delegate to congress, and there is no man in Arizona who could do more to this end than Gov. Murphy.

The Governor explained his actions in showing up some fraudulent mining schemes; the bond business and the anti-blacklisting bill in a plain, honest way which convinced the people that he did right at the time, as the results have been exactly as he predicted.

The Governor's special, accompanied by a number of local politicians, pulled out for Winslow about noon Friday, where a large demonstration was held. The blacklisting bill was thoroughly renovated at this meeting, and the Governor vindicated himself entirely of any wrongdoing in the matter.

The meetings in Navajo county were very successful, and expect to see N. O. Murphy come out with a large majority on Nov. 6.

E. S. Clark, of Flagstaff, was one of the speakers at the Winslow meeting last night. Mr. Clark is a good campaigner.

In every city and town in Arizona where Gov. Murphy has addressed the people, he has lifted the veil of calumny and misrepresentation, dispelled the clouds of doubt and prejudice and won the united support of thousands of voters through the open, frank, manly and intelligent discussions of the present campaign.
Reckless charges have been easily shown to be without foundation and the political atmosphere has been cleared as never before in the political history of the Territory.
The great crowds of people who gather to hear him find comfort in his irresistible logic and are inspired with new hopes for the future state of Arizona and the wonderful commercial industrial activity that will follow. Never were the people—the miners, the stockmen, the farmers and the wage earners—more deeply interested in the result of a political campaign.

They are personally interested, for their future welfare depends wholly upon it, and after all, one's political sentiments are influenced largely by considerations of local or individual character. To attain certain cherished ends in public affairs strong partisans sometimes set aside their political principles and their action is a justifiable expedient in the accomplishment of those results.
Many who have formerly supported the Democratic ticket will cast their votes for Murphy this year on the question of statehood.

"I wish to express my thanks to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for having put on the market such a wonderful medicine," says W. W. Massingill of Beaumont, Tex.
There are many thousands of mothers whose children have been saved from attacks of dysentery and cholera infantum who must also feel thankful. It is for sale by F. J.
Wattron, druggist.

Why experiment on yourself with remedies of doubtful utility when you can get Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which has stood the test of time? Twenty-five years' sale and use have proven that remedy to be prompt and certain cure for colds.
It will cure a cold in a day if taken as soon as the cold has been contracted and before it has settled in the system. Sold by F. J. Wattron, druggist.

Job Printing, done in first-class style, at this office.

Dr. W. H. Lewis, Lawrenceville, Va., writes, "I am using Kodol Dyspepsia Cure in my practice among Severe cases of indigestion and find it an admirable remedy." Many hundreds of physicians depend upon the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure in stomach troubles. It digests what you eat, and allows you to eat all the food you need, provided you do not overload your stomach. Gives instant relief and permanent cure.

Estate of Thomas Adair, deceased.
Notice is hereby given by the undersigned, Moroni Adair, administrator of the estate of Thomas Adair, deceased, to the creditors of and all persons having claims against said deceased, to exhibit them, with the necessary vouchers, within four months after the first publication of this notice to the said Moroni Adair, administrator, at his residence, at Pinetop, Navajo county, Arizona, the same being the place for the transaction of the business of said estate, in said county of Navajo.

MORONI ADAIR,
Administrator of the estate of Thomas Adair, deceased.
Dated Pinetop, Arizona, this 15th day of September, 1900.

During the winter of 1897 Mr.
James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, Clay county, W. Va., struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him accordingly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whisky in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by F. J. Wat-tron, druggist.
