

CULLINGS.

It's a cold day when a henpecked man is not in hot water.

A duck of a man generally makes a goose of a husband.

Some men will take more time to name a dog than others would spend in building a house.

Popular dogmas—the mothers of pug dogs. Preserved cur-rants—the sisters of the dogmas.

A cat in Kansas City has learned how to knit and darn socks. She generally works with a long yarn.

A New Jersey farmer has a tame mosquito that weighs six pounds. It is perfectly gentle and eats with the cats.

A rattlesnake recently bit a Texas cowboy on the foot. The snake died immediately of asphyxia but the cowboy lived a week.

Lightning bugs in parts of Texas are getting so mischievous that they sometimes set hay stacks on fire with their latter ends.

If a minister can't fill a church with his preaching, the next best thing he can do is to kiss some deacon's wife and get caught at it.

The dropping of water will cut a hole through granite, but the sum of human experience goes to show that kindness is wasted on a mule.

Every man is fond of striking the nail on the head; but when it happens to be his finger-nail, his enthusiasm becomes wild and incoherent.

An old goat in Mississippi recently ate two hundred green cucumbers, then broke into a drug store, butted the top off a bottle of castor oil and swallowed the contents.

A Chicago boy swallowed some needles about seven years ago, and now they are working out of his calves. That's nothing. We know an editor who swallowed some campaign lies when a boy, and they have been working out all over his paper for several years.

The price of real estate was under discussion at the club, when one gentleman remarked:

"Jones, old boy, I know where you can buy just the nicest little home, splendid cottage, grand fruit trees, and all that, for a song."

"Just my luck," said Jones, "I can't sing a note."

"Don't you think this bonnet is a little too young for me?" inquired Mrs. Shuttle of Job, as she was doing her final "prinking" at the glass before going out.

"Never mind if it is. You won't have worn it more than six weeks before it will be too old and you will want a new one."

"How are you, Joe? How's the folks?"

"I'm tolerably well, Bill, but my wife has lost her voice; she can't speak above a whisper."

"Let me congratulate you, Joe?"

"What for?"

"Because your wife can't speak above a whisper!"

"Oh, thunder! You ought to hear her whisper! She never stops a minute!"

"And so Todgers has failed, has he?"

"Yes, poor fellow, he's gone under!"

"Well, I've thought for some time he couldn't stand it much longer."

"He hasn't been extravagant has he?"

"Oh, no."

"Not much given to speculation, was he?"

"No, I think not; but I understand his wife has been trying for some time to clear off a church debt."

"Ah, I see; poor fellow!"

Professor (to first applicant)—Name and age, sir?

First student—Abner Bascom; age seventeen.

Professor (to second applicant)—And you, sir?

Second Student—Phineas Bascom; age seventeen.

Professor—Brothers?

S. S.—Yes, sir.

Professor—Twins?

S. S. (doubtfully)—Well, ye-es; twins on our father's side. We're from Salt Lake.

Professor—Oh, oh.
