

The St. Johns Herald.

VOLUME XIV.

ST. JOHNS, APACHE COUNTY, ARIZONA TERRITORY, SATURDAY, APRIL 16, 1898.

NUMBER 29

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

Albuquerque, N. M.,

United States Depository.

Authorized Capital.....$500,000

Paid in Capital.....100,000

Surplus.....50,000

TRANSACTS A GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS.

J. S. Reynolds.....President
M. W. Flournoy.....Vice President
A. A. Keen.....Cashier
F. McKee.....Assistant Cashier

Directors—A. A. Grant, A. A. Keen, M. W. Flournoy, J. S. Reynolds, F. McKee.
Depository of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe and Santa Fe Pacific railroads.

Capital, $100,000.

The Bank of Commerce,

In ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.,

DEALS IN FOREIGN EXCHANGE AND ISSUES LETTERS OF CREDIT.
Solicits Accounts and Offers to Depositors Every Facility Consistent with Profitable Banking.

DIRECTORS:

M. S. O'NEAL, President. J. C. BALDRIDGE, Lumber. W. C. LEONARD, Capitalist.
R. P. HUSTER, Vice President. A. EISEMANN, Eisenmann Bros., Wool.
W. B. STRICKLER, Cashier. Blackwell & Co., Grocers.
H. J. DMEESON, Asst. Cashier. W. A. MAXWELL, Wholesale Druggist.

Depository for Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway.

BECKER BROS.,

GENERAL MERCHANDISE,

Springerville, Ariz.,

Keep constantly on hand a large and well selected stock of

Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Boots and Shoes.

And everything usually found in a First-Class Establishment. Any article not stock will be furnished on special order and on short notice.

CITY Blacksmith Shop

MARINUS CHRISTENSEN.

HORSE-SHOEING, Wagon Repairing.

And GENERAL BLACKSMITHING, done promptly and in a workmanlike manner.
I will give special attention to ranch work.
My shop is located about one hundred yards directly north from C. M. & M. I.

St. Johns, Ariz.

Mrs. A. J. DAVIS, The Leading Millinery Store.

St. Johns, Ariz.

Ladies' Misses' and Children's Hats and Caps constantly on hand.
Hats trimmed to order.
Call on or write to 101 Main Street on op ed.

SILVER THE ISSUE IN 1900.

Money the Pricing Instrument.

Civilization and Progress Have Kept Step With Money Supply in All Ages.

The Money Question discussed in the light of experience and history.

The Silver Knight—Watchman.

The Leading Bimetallic Paper of America.

E. S. Senator, W. M. STEWART, Editor.

A correct account of the doings of Congress given each week.

A weekly paper for the home and abro-side. All the important happenings of the week, condensed, in news columns.

A large circulation in every State and Territory.

Subscription Price, $1 Per Year.
Send for sample; agents wanted.

Published weekly by the Silver Knight Publishing Co.,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

YOU CAN PATENT

anything you invent or improve; also get CAVEAT TRADE-MARK, COPYRIGHT or DESIGN PROTECTION. Send model, sketch or photo. for free examination and advice.

BOOK ON PATENTS FREE. No attorney's fees.

C. A. SNOW & CO.,
Patent Lawyers, WASHINGTON, D. C.

Everybody Says So.

Cascarets Cathartic, the most wonderful medical discovery of the age, pleasant and refreshing to the taste, act gently and positively on kidneys, liver and bowels, clearing the entire system, dispel colds, cure headache, fever, habitual constipation and biliousness. Please buy and try a box of C. C. C. today; 10, 25, 50 cents. Sold and guaranteed to cure by all druggists.

ST. JOHNS HERALD.

Published every Saturday

J. T. LESUEUR.....Proprietor

WALTER G. SCOTT.....Editor

Entered in the Postoffice at St. Johns as second class matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

One year.....$2.50

Six months.....$1.50

Three months.....$1.00

One persistent office seeker, ventured into the White House the other day, so the story goes, and received this well-merited reply from the president: "The man who feels that he cannot wait for a postoffice appointment at a time like this does not deserve the place and will not get it."

When Lincoln's first call for 75,000 volunteers was made there was some speculation as to where so many men were to come from. But the problem was not long unsolved. Before the war ended the smallest state in the union had furnished almost as many. Already there is apprehension in some quarters that, in the event of a war with Spain, the supply of soldiers will largely exceed the demand, and Congressman Marsh of Illinois has this early taken occasion to call the attention of the president to the prior right of the regularly organized state militia to be called into service. The incident is characteristically American and not lacking in encouraging suggestiveness.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

The War at Hand—Failure of
the Bondholders.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, April 4, 1898.

Vengeance is at hand. There is to be no more dilly-dallying with lying Spanish diplomats. Uncle Sam is going to take Spain across his knee and give it the thrashing it has so long deserved at our hands, and the cowardly and dastardly massacre of our sailors and the destruction of our battleship is to be avenged. Even Mr. McKinley is now convinced that Spain has been playing him diplomatically for no other purpose than to gain time. Mr. McKinley acknowledged his failure to secure the independence of Cuba by diplomacy, and now it is the turn of congress, which this week will either declare war against Spain or adopt legislation that will be equivalent to a declaration of war. A last frantic attempt is being made by the bondholding element to muzzle congress, but there is no possibility of its succeeding. Congress knows that the end of the patience of the people of the country who place national honor and patriotism above the stock ticker of Wall Street has been reached and that the time of action is at hand, and it will act; and its action will mean war, which the country is now in a position to fight to a victorious end in short order, if it only has Spain to contend with, and is determined to win regardless of what it has to contend with.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

The War at Hand—Failure of
the Bondholders.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, April 4, 1898.

Vengeance is at hand. There is to be no more dilly-dallying with lying Spanish diplomats. Uncle Sam is going to take Spain across his knee and give it
the thrashing it has so long deserved at
our hands, and the cowardly and dastardly
massacre of our sailors and the destruction of our battleship is to be
avenged. Even Mr. McKinley is now
convinced that Spain has been playing
him diplomatically for no other purpose
than to gain time. Mr. McKinley acknowledged his failure to secure the independence of Cuba by diplomacy, and
now it is the turn of congress, which
this week will either declare war against
Spain or adopt legislation that will be
equivalent to a declaration of war. A
last frantic attempt is being made by
the bondholding element to muzzle congress, but there is no possibility of its
succeeding. Congress knows that the end of the patience of the people of the
country who place national honor and
patriotism above the stock ticker of
Wall Street has been reached and that
the time of action is at hand, and it will
act; and its action will mean war, which
the country is now in a position to fight
to a victorious end in short order, if it
only has Spain to contend with, and is
determined to win regardless of what it
has to contend with.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

The War at Hand—Failure of
the Bondholders.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, April 4, 1898.

Vengeance is at hand. There is to be
no more dilly-dallying with lying Spanish diplomats. Uncle Sam is going to
take Spain across his knee and give it
the thrashing it has so long deserved at
our hands, and the cowardly and dastardly
massacre of our sailors and the destruction of our battleship is to be
avenged. Even Mr. McKinley is now
convinced that Spain has been playing
him diplomatically for no other purpose
than to gain time. Mr. McKinley acknowledged his failure to secure the independence of Cuba by diplomacy, and
now it is the turn of congress, which
this week will either declare war against
Spain or adopt legislation that will be
equivalent to a declaration of war. A
last frantic attempt is being made by
the bondholding element to muzzle congress, but there is no possibility of its
succeeding. Congress knows that the end of the patience of the people of the
country who place national honor and
patriotism above the stock ticker of
Wall Street has been reached and that
the time of action is at hand, and it will
act; and its action will mean war, which
the country is now in a position to fight
to a victorious end in short order, if it
only has Spain to contend with, and is
determined to win regardless of what it
has to contend with.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

The War at Hand—Failure of
the Bondholders.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, April 4, 1898.

Vengeance is at hand. There is to be no more dilly-dallying with lying Spanish diplomats. Uncle Sam is going to take Spain across his knee and give it
the thrashing it has so long deserved at
our hands, and the cowardly and dastardly
massacre of our sailors and the destruction of our battleship is to be
avenged. Even Mr. McKinley is now
convinced that Spain has been playing
him diplomatically for no other purpose
than to gain time. Mr. McKinley acknowledged his failure to secure the independence of Cuba by diplomacy, and
now it is the turn of congress, which
this week will either declare war against
Spain or adopt legislation that will be
equivalent to a declaration of war. A
last frantic attempt is being made by
the bondholding element to muzzle congress, but there is no possibility of its
succeeding. Congress knows that the end of the patience of the people of the
country who place national honor and
patriotism above the stock ticker of
Wall Street has been reached and that
the time of action is at hand, and it will
act; and its action will mean war, which
the country is now in a position to fight
to a victorious end in short order, if it
only has Spain to contend with, and is
determined to win regardless of what it
has to contend with.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

The War at Hand—Failure of
the Bondholders.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, April 4, 1898.

Vengeance is at hand. There is to be no more dilly-dallying with lying Spanish diplomats. Uncle Sam is going to take Spain across his knee and give it
the thrashing it has so long deserved at
our hands, and the cowardly and dastardly
massacre of our sailors and the destruction of our battleship is to be
avenged. Even Mr. McKinley is now
convinced that Spain has been playing
him diplomatically for no other purpose
than to gain time. Mr. McKinley acknowledged his failure to secure the independence of Cuba by diplomacy, and
now it is the turn of congress, which
this week will either declare war against
Spain or adopt legislation that will be
equivalent to a declaration of war. A
last frantic attempt is being made by
the bondholding element to muzzle congress, but there is no possibility of its
succeeding. Congress knows that the end of the patience of the people of the
country who place national honor and
patriotism above the stock ticker of
Wall Street has been reached and that
the time of action is at hand, and it will
act; and its action will mean war, which
the country is now in a position to fight
to a victorious end in short order, if it
only has Spain to contend with, and is
determined to win regardless of what it
has to contend with.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

The War at Hand—Failure of
the Bondholders.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, April 4, 1898.

Vengeance is at hand. There is to be no more dilly-dallying with lying Spanish diplomats. Uncle Sam is going to take Spain across his knee and give it
the thrashing it has so long deserved at
our hands, and the cowardly and dastardly
massacre of our sailors and the destruction of our battleship is to be
avenged. Even Mr. McKinley is now
convinced that Spain has been playing
him diplomatically for no other purpose
than to gain time. Mr. McKinley acknowledged his failure to secure the independence of Cuba by diplomacy, and
now it is the turn of congress, which
this week will either declare war against
Spain or adopt legislation that will be
equivalent to a declaration of war. A
last frantic attempt is being made by
the bondholding element to muzzle congress, but there is no possibility of its
succeeding. Congress knows that the end of the patience of the people of the
country who place national honor and
patriotism above the stock ticker of
Wall Street has been reached and that
the time of action is at hand, and it will
act; and its action will mean war, which
the country is now in a position to fight
to a victorious end in short order, if it
only has Spain to contend with, and is
determined to win regardless of what it
has to contend with.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

The War at Hand—Failure of
the Bondholders.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, April 4, 1898.

Vengeance is at hand. There is to be no more dilly-dallying with lying Spanish diplomats. Uncle Sam is going to take Spain across his knee and give it
the thrashing it has so long deserved at
our hands, and the cowardly and dastardly
massacre of our sailors and the destruction of our battleship is to be
avenged. Even Mr. McKinley is now
convinced that Spain has been playing
him diplomatically for no other purpose
than to gain time. Mr. McKinley acknowledged his failure to secure the independence of Cuba by diplomacy, and
now it is the turn of congress, which
this week will either declare war against
Spain or adopt legislation that will be
equivalent to a declaration of war. A
last frantic attempt is being made by
the bondholding element to muzzle congress, but there is no possibility of its
succeeding. Congress knows that the end of the patience of the people of the
country who place national honor and
patriotism above the stock ticker of
Wall Street has been reached and that
the time of action is at hand, and it will
act; and its action will mean war, which
the country is now in a position to fight
to a victorious end in short order, if it
only has Spain to contend with, and is
determined to win regardless of what it
has to contend with.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

The War at Hand—Failure of
the Bondholders.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, April 4, 1898.

Vengeance is at hand. There is to be no more dilly-dallying with lying Spanish diplomats. Uncle Sam is going to take Spain across his knee and give it
the thrashing it has so long deserved at
our hands, and the cowardly and dastardly
massacre of our sailors and the destruction of our battleship is to be
avenged. Even Mr. McKinley is now
convinced that Spain has been playing
him diplomatically for no other purpose
than to gain time. Mr. McKinley acknowledged his failure to secure the independence of Cuba by diplomacy, and
now it is the turn of congress, which
this week will either declare war against
Spain or adopt legislation that will be
equivalent to a declaration of war. A
last frantic attempt is being made by
the bondholding element to muzzle congress, but there is no possibility of its
succeeding. Congress knows that the end of the patience of the people of the
country who place national honor and
patriotism above the stock ticker of
Wall Street has been reached and that
the time of action is at hand, and it will
act; and its action will mean war, which
the country is now in a position to fight
to a victorious end in short order, if it
only has Spain to contend with, and is
determined to win regardless of what it
has to contend with.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

The War at Hand—Failure of
the Bondholders.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, April 4, 1898.

Vengeance is at hand. There is to be no more dilly-dallying with lying Spanish diplomats. Uncle Sam is going to take Spain across his knee and give it
the thrashing it has so long deserved at
our hands, and the cowardly and dastardly
massacre of our sailors and the destruction of our battleship is to be
avenged. Even Mr. McKinley is now
convinced that Spain has been playing
him diplomatically for no other purpose
than to gain time. Mr. McKinley acknowledged his failure to secure the independence of Cuba by diplomacy, and
now it is the turn of congress, which
this week will either declare war against
Spain or adopt legislation that will be
equivalent to a declaration of war. A
last frantic attempt is being made by
the bondholding element to muzzle congress, but there is no possibility of its
succeeding. Congress knows that the end of the patience of the people of the
country who place national honor and
patriotism above the stock ticker of
Wall Street has been reached and that
the time of action is at hand, and it will
act; and its action will mean war, which
the country is now in a position to fight
to a victorious end in short order, if it
only has Spain to contend with, and is
determined to win regardless of what it
has to contend with.

WAR IS CERTAIN.

Proceedings in the Senate—Many Resolutions Are Offered in Both Houses.

The Navy Ready for Business—Reception of General Lee—
The Message.

Letter From Gen. Gomez.

New York, April 11.—A letter from General Gomez, received here, says the Cubans will refuse to accept an armistice, but will fight till the last insurgible drop.

Preparing Resolutions

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 11.—Many senators and congressmen were busily engaged to-night preparing resolutions to be offered to-morrow. The sessions in both houses promise to be sensational.

What the British Say.

LONDON, April 11.—A London paper, commenting on the president's message, says: "The general opinion is that he is owned by Wall Street, and he would, if possible, saddle a big Cuban and Spanish debt upon his country in order that speculators might prosper." All the London journals, with few exceptions, believe that congress will in no wise accede to his request that he be empowered to use the American army and navy to stop hostilities.

A Great Disappointment.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 11.—There is great disappointment in congress over the president's message. The republicans are dissatisfied, and the democrats are howling mad. There was no meeting of the Foreign Relations committee to-day, but they are likely to make a report to-morrow. Congressional sentiment is very strongly opposed to allowing matters to rest in the president's discretion, as he recommends. The administration and its friends are trying hard to hold the republicans in line.

The Message.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 11.—President McKinley, in his message delivered to-day, asks congress to empower him to take necessary measures to terminate hostilities in Cuba. The message reviews at length the entire question. The consensus of opinion made by members of congress generally is that it will take the matter into its own hands and drive the Spanish from the island.

The consular reports show a terrible condition of affairs prevailing in Cuba.

Consul General Lee is being rushed to the capital on a special train, with all possible speed. The towns along the route made rousing demonstrations.

The senate Foreign Relations committee this afternoon and evening considered the message, and may report to-morrow in executive session.

It is reported here to-night that the United States consul has left Manila,
Philippine Islands.

Having a Tough Time.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 12.—The republicans are having a hard time getting together in caucus and conference, and they are not agreeing. Cuba's cause has been much strengthened by Consul General Lee's appearance here.

The senate, especially is inclined to break away from the president.

Reception of General Lee.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 12.—Consul Lee was given a rousing reception on his arrival here this afternoon. He testified before the Senate Foreign Relations committee. This committee will report resolutions to-day.

The president's message not proposing to grant the insurgents independence as the cause of a hot day in the senate, and many fierce resolutions were introduced, but tabled.

The president may send another message in the next two days, giving new facts in regard to the duration of the armistice and other facts in connection with the Spanish-American controversy that were not in his previous message. It is stated that these facts would probably change the whole situation, and would call for immediate action by congress. It is believed that General Lee communicated the facts to the president this afternoon that are necessary for him to communicate to congress at once.

The cabinet decided to-day not to interrupt diplomatic relations with Spain.

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 12.—The senate galleries were well filled when the senate met to-day. The naval appropriation bill was reported and placed on the calendar.

Lindsay (Dem.) of Kentucky, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, first, That the contemplated military operations against the Spanish armies in Cuba should be carried on in concert with the military forces under command of General Maximo Gomez, such concert should be secured through arrangements between this government and the Cuban revolutionary authorities; provided, they shall concede to congress the right of the United States army all military operations and direct all military operations.

Second, That all such military operations should be carried on to secure a stable and independent republican form of government, and the president of the United States be empowered, or directed, if necessary, to use the land and

WAR IS CERTAIN.

Proceedings in the Senate—Many
Resolutions Are Offered in Both Houses.

The Navy Ready for Business—Reception of General Lee—
The Message.

Letter From Gen. Gomez.

New York, April 11.—A letter from General Gomez, received here, says the Cubans will refuse to accept an armistice, but will fight till the last insur-

gible drop.

Preparing Resolutions

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 11.—Many
senators and congressmen were busily
engaged to-night preparing resolutions
to be offered to-morrow. The sessions
in both houses promise to be sensational.

What the British Say.

LONDON, April 11.—A London paper,
commenting on the president's message, says: "The general opinion is
that he is owned by Wall Street, and he
would, if possible, saddle a big Cuban
and Spanish debt upon his country in order that speculators might prosper." All
the London journals, with few exceptions, believe that congress will in

no wise accede to his request that he
be empowered to use the American
army and navy to stop hostilities.

A Great Disappointment.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 11.—There
is great disappointment in congress
over the president's message. The republicans are dissatisfied, and the democrats are howling mad. There was no
meeting of the Foreign Relations committee to-day, but they are likely to
make a report to-morrow. Congressional sentiment is very strongly opposed to allowing matters to rest in the

president's discretion, as he recommends. The administration and its friends are trying hard to hold the republicans in line.

The Message.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 11.—President McKinley, in his message delivered to-day, asks congress to empower
him to take necessary measures to terminate hostilities in Cuba. The message reviews at length the entire question. The consensus of opinion made
by members of congress generally is
that it will take the matter into its
own hands and drive the Spanish from
the island.

The consular reports show a terrible
condition of affairs prevailing in Cuba.

Consul General Lee is being rushed
to the capital on a special train, with all
possible speed. The towns along the route made rousing demonstrations.

The senate Foreign Relations committee this afternoon and evening considered the message, and may report
to-morrow in executive session.

It is reported here to-night that the United States consul has left Manila,
Philippine Islands.

Having a Tough Time.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 12.—The
republicans are having a hard time getting together in caucus and conference,
and they are not agreeing. Cuba's
cause has been much strengthened by Consul General Lee's appearance here.

The senate, especially is inclined to
break away from the president.

Reception of General Lee.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 12.—Consul Lee was given a rousing reception
on his arrival here this afternoon. He testified before the Senate Foreign Relations committee. This committee will report resolutions to-day.

The president's message not proposing to grant the insurgents independence as the cause of a hot day in the sen