

As sure to rise as the Sun

You can't always make everything "just so." Sometimes you will get in more shortening than usual; or make the batter a little thin; or it may not be convenient to put a cake in the oven the moment it is mixed; or your oven may not bake evenly and it is necessary to turn the pan around—none of these little uncertainties make the slightest difference in results if you use

K.G. BAKING POWDER

This modern, double-raise baking powder has unusual strength and is absolutely certain to raise your biscuits, cakes and pastry light and feathery. It generates an abundance of leavening gas both in the mixing bowl and in the oven. The raising is sustained until the dough is cooked through.

Housewives who use K.C. never have "bad luck" with their baking. Try K.C. of any brand. Your grocer will refund your money if you are not pleased in every way.

A Dull Life.

"I don't know how we'll get along without you, Nora."

"Thank you, ma'am."

"You've been with us a long time."

"Yes, ma'am. Nearly seven months."

"And you still refuse to tell us why you are leaving?"

"Well, ma'am, if you insist on knowing, it's because I can't stand the company here."

"The idea! Our house is frequented by the best people."

"It's not that, ma'am. I was speaking of my own company. Where I used to work most of my friends were chauffeurs, ma'am. The only man who has asked me to take a ride with him since I've been here was a vegetable pedler."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

IN SUCH PAIN WOMAN CRIED

Suffered Everything Until Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Florence, So. Dakota.—"I used to be very sick every month with bearing down pains and headache, and had a good deal of the time and very little appetite. The pains were so bad that I used to sit right down on the floor and cry, because it hurt me so and I could not do any work at those times. An old woman advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I got a bottle. I felt better the next month so I took three more bottles of it and got well so I could work all the time. I hope every woman who suffers like I did will try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. P. W. LANSING, Box 8, Allyn, Wash.

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

EXCURSION VESSEL UPSETS; 1000 DIE

Picnickers Poured Into River Few Feet From Shore.

MANY DEAD STILL REMAIN IN WATER

Local and Federal Authorities Busy Endeavoring to Fix Blame for Awful Steamer Disaster.

Chicago—A thousand persons lost their lives in the Chicago River Saturday by the capsizing of the excursion steamer Eastland, while warping from its wharf with more than 2400 employees of the Western Electric company and their relatives and friends on board, bound for a pleasure trip across Lake Michigan.

After ceaseless work all day and far into the night, the bodies of 842 victims of the catastrophe, most of them women and children, were collected from the temporary morgues and taken to the Second Regiment armory.

When these bodies had been tagged, Coroner Hoffman, taking into consideration estimates of bodies thought to be in the hold of the steamer lying on its side in the river and in the stream itself, said he had hopes that the total dead would not exceed 1000.

The Eastland, said by marine architects to have been top-heavy and ballasted in an uncertain manner, turned over inside of five minutes after it began to list, pouring its passengers into the river or imprisoning them in its submerged hull.

Every effort was made by thousands of persons on the river wharf to rescue the drowning men, women and children, but many drowned almost within grasp of the river bank.

Mothers went to death while their children were snatched to safety. Other children died in the arms of their parents, who were finally saved. Hundreds of girls, freed for a day from their tasks of making telephones and other electrical apparatus in the factory of the Western Electric company, dressed in their smartest white frocks, drowned miserably.

Chicago—Bodies of 809 persons killed in the capsizing of the steamer Eastland at its wharf in the Chicago river had been recovered Sunday night after 40 hours of searching by divers around the steel hull, still lying on its side, half-submerged, where it rolled Saturday while laden with 2408 excursionists.

The total dead as a result of the turning over of the ship still remains at approximately 1000, according to estimates made by Coroner Hoffman, whose reports indicated that probably 200 bodies still were held in the mud of the river by the superstructure of the overturned boat.

Chicago—"Who is to blame?" Chicago faces a task of fixing the responsibility for the Eastland calamity.

While divers are still groping on the river bed and in the hold of the Eastland for bodies of victims, while the morgues are filled with lamentations of bereaved and cemeteries are receiving harvest of death, all authorities having jurisdiction will open their investigations.

The Federal government, state, county and city will search for causes of the disaster. They will determine who was guilty of negligence and take steps for the punishment of those responsible.

"Who is to blame?" is the vital question to which the combined authorities will seek an answer.

The chief questions to be settled are: Was the Eastland overcrowded? If so, who is to blame? Was its water ballast out of adjustment? If so, who is to blame? Was the carrying capacity of the Eastland overrated by the inspectors of the Federal government? If so, who is to blame? Was the hull of the vessel modeled on lines giving the requisite stability? If not, who is to blame for granting it a permit?

Submarines Destroy Six.

London—The British steamer Firth, of 406 tons, of Aberdeen, was torpedoed Sunday by a submarine in the North Sea. Four of the crew were killed. The Grimby trawler Perseus was also destroyed by a mine. Her crew of 10 were killed. The French steamer Danse, bound from Liverpool for Archangel, Russia, was sunk off Cape Wrath, Scotland. The travelers Henry Charles, Kathleen, Acivity and Prosper were sent to the bottom in the North Sea. The crews of all the vessels were saved.

Red Cross Recalls Aides.

Washington, D. C.—American Red Cross doctors and nurses will be withdrawn from the European battlefields October 1 because of lack of funds to maintain them at their stations. It is possible that the two units in Belgium, where the greatest need exists, will be continued, but the other 14 detachments will return to the United States. The Serbian sanitary commission, supported by contributions, will go on as long as contributions are available, but the general fund in the United States will be exhausted by October 1.

Vegetables to Be Seized.

Vienna, via London—Confiscation of the 1915 vegetable crop, including peas, lentils and beans, has been ordered by the government, to prevent a repetition of the speculation and unscrupulously high prices that have prevailed throughout Austria.

All existing supplies of vegetables from the 1914 crop will be seized after August 1. The confiscated crop will be sold under state supervision.

Hot Weather Saves Hay Crop.

Albany, Or.—All danger of damage to the hay crop in this section has been averted by the recent hot weather. Had the rains continued, the injury would have been serious. The present hot weather not only prevents further damage, but will mitigate what loss was threatened by the rains. Farmers report that a few more warm days will put all of the wet hay in shape for baling and that practically no loss will result. The weather is also exactly what was needed to ripen grain. The harvest will be a little late.

Chehalis Cannery Begins Run.

Chehalis, Wash.—The Lewis County Cannery operating plant in Chehalis received its first consignment of fruit Thursday. It was a shipment of loganberries and raspberries from Matthew Smith, of Winlock. Other growers turned in enough fruit to make a good run to start. The association has just completed a fine new plant here, and it is intended to turn out fruit and vegetables from the Chehalis cannery which will rank with the best.

Big Salmon Shipments.

Astoria, Or.—Two thousand tons of canned salmon will be shipped from Astoria to New York by way of the Panama canal, it was announced here. The first consignment of 600 tons will go July 29. One thousand five hundred tons will be Columbia river salmon and the rest Alaska salmon.

First Apple Contracts Filled.

North Yakima, Wash.—The first apple contract filed this season with the Yakima county auditor calls for delivery of the crop of George Sharrow ranch, in the Lower Naches, to Fred Eberis and W. W. Scott. The prices vary from 65 to 80 cents, cash on delivery.

Sheep—Wethers, 4.75¢@5.50; ewes, 3.5¢@4.50; lambs, 2.5¢@3.75.

Tacoma—In a few days there will be an unusual scarcity of watermelons on the local market, according to some commission men. The growers are said to have miscalculated the melons in the fields and made big orders they could not fill. As a result dealers have canceled all orders for Southern melons and will await the arrival of melons from Fresno and Turlock. Reports from the northern sections say the melon crop is large and when once the commodity begins rolling in there will be plenty on hand.

Fancy green corn is moving out as never before on the local boards. The commodity is coming from Eastern Washington and is just the same as if it was grown in local fields, arriving here less than 24 hours after it has been picked. The corn is now moving at 25 cents a dozen, said to be a reasonable price at this time of the season.

Cherries are just about through. Lamberts and Bing are no longer on the market. What few cherries are to be had are of the Royal Ann and Late Duke varieties, going at 8 and 6 cents a pound, respectively.

It will not be long now before Malaga grapes begin arriving from the South. Already there are some Sweetwater grapes to be had at 22 a crate. They are small and good and the trade has taken to them instantly. Reports from the South say the crop of grapes this season is about the same as last year.

Eggs are firm and another rise would not be surprising.

Butter is the same, but if the hot weather continues a rise may be expected.

SENSE AND NONSENSE

Rain alarms are now made for people who wish to leave the windows of their homes open all night, yet fear that a rainstorm may come up in the night, and the drops blow in. The alarm is a little buzzer enclosed in a wooden box, which is to be placed on the window sill.

When rain blows in the first drops on the top of the box switch on an electric current from a battery in the box and the alarm begins to sound. At the same time a tiny electric light appears on the side of the box, so that any person who is awakened by the buzzer may quickly discover into which window the rain is blowing.

The simple idea that makes the inventor successful is illustrated by a new vest-pocket screwdriver capable of fitting screws of any size. It is nothing but a disk of metal about the size of a large coin. The edge of the disk is put into the slot of a screw like the blade of an ordinary screwdriver. One edge is thin, for small screws, and another is thick, with a graduated thickness between the two extremes for the purpose of having an edge that will fit any slot.

A hole in the middle of the disk gives a chance to slip in a nail or pocketknife, or anything else handy, to be used as a lever on tight screws.

Just before Christmas a darkly entered the post office at Thomasville, Georgia, which is a dry town in a dry state.

"Boss," he said to the clerk at the money-order window, "will you please, send me out an order for Jacksonville."

"For how much?" asked the clerk as he drew a blank to him and poised his pen.

"Ten dollars," said the man.

"Ten dollars," said the clerk, "my worm's not trying!"

Damon Runyon and Sid Mercer, New York sporting writers, were fishing in Great South Bay one Saturday afternoon in the autumn. Mercer caught fish regularly. Runyon had never a nibble. Finally he reeled in. "Come on, Sid; let's quit," he said.

"Why?" inquired Mercer. "It's an hour yet before dark."

"I think I might as well quit," said Runyon sadly; "my worm's not trying!"

The small son of a Washington official was asked by his mother what he intended to be when he became a man.

"I think I shall be a burglar," he replied.

"Why, Willie," his shocked mother protested, "that isn't nice."

"Oh, it will be all right," he assured his mother. "I shan't steal anything from you."

Catching flies with an electric motor has been proved to be entirely practicable, and such machines have now appeared on the market. The motor does not chase the flies round the room, but induces them to come near and then captures them.

The machine operates like a suction cleaner, a fan creating a strong suction. Round the pipe through which the air is sucked in, some sweets—

Taking Precautions.

A tray-ckeered youngster dressed in his best clothes entered the village postoffice and carefully laid a huge slice of food cake on the counter.

"With my sister the bride's commitments, and will you please eat as much as you can?" he said.

The postmistress smiled delightfully.

"How very kind of the bride to remember me," she cried. "Did she know of my weakness for wedding cake?"

"She did," answered the youngster, coldly, "and she thought she'd send you a bit of it this afternoon just to take the edge off your appetite before she posted any boxes off to her friends."—London Tit-Bits.
