WHEREAS, The Rattlesnake Mining Company, a corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Illinois, executed its certain bonds pursuant to a resolution by its Board of Directors passed February 19th, 1884, said bonds being numbered from No. 1 to 100, both inclusive, all being dated March 1st, 1884, and each conditioned for the payment to John R. Walsh, trustee, of the principal sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500) on March 1st, 1889, with interest thereon at the rate of 6 per cent per annum, payable semi-annually on the first days of September and March in each year, which said interest is further secured to be paid by ten coupons of even date with said bonds, attached to each of said bonds, each of said coupons being for the sum of Fifty Dollars. And whereas, it was provided in said Deed of Trust that in case of default in payment of the said bonds or coupons, or any of them, or any part thereof, then and in such case, on the application of the legal holders of one-half in amount of the said bonds, then outstanding and unpaid, it should be lawful for the party of the second part, his heirs or assigns or successors in trust, to enter upon, possess, hold and enjoy said premises and property, and either with or without such entry, after having given thirty days' previous notice of said application, once upon each week for four successive weeks in a newspaper published in the county where said premises are situated, to sell said premises or any part thereof, and all the right and equity of redemption of the said party of the first part, his heirs or assigns or successors, at public vendue, upon any part of said premises or at such other place in said county of Cochise as should be designated in said notice, to the highest bidder for cash, at the time appointed in such advertisement, to adjourn the sale from time to time at his discretion, and upon the making of such sale, to execute and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers, a deed or deeds of conveyance in fee of the premises so sold. And

WHEREAS, It was provided in said Deed of Trust that in case of default in any of said payments of principal or interest, as aforesaid, then the whole of said principal sum of said bonds and the interest thereon to the time of such sale, should be and become a lien in favor of the party of the second part, upon the application of the legal holders of one-half of said bonds then outstanding and unpaid, said premises should be sold in like manner and with the same effect as if said indebtedness had matured. And

WHEREAS, Said bonds are now outstanding. And

WHEREAS, The Rattlesnake Mining Company has made default in the payment of the sum of Fifteen Dollars due as interest on each of said bonds on March 1st, 1885, and on September 1st, 1885, and secured to be paid by two of said coupons due at said dates respectively. And
