

It is not pleasant, even in the most exciting political contest, however legitimate it may be, to exhibit to public scrutiny the misfeasance, malfeasance and nonfeasance of a public officer, and yet this is the proper method by which to gauge a candidate's fitness for further favors. We give, in another column, a bit of local history which we believe to be strictly true in every detail, concerning the official conduct of the present Probate Judge of Pinal county. We do not rejoice that his record is so vulnerable, but we grieve that the finger of scorn can be pointed at the acts of an official for whose selection the people themselves are alone responsible. A man may be readily excused for making an error of judgment once, but he is devoid of a proper mental balance if he repeats it with all the facts and consequences brought vividly to his attention. The love of equal and exact justice is one of the characteristic virtues of the hardy and industrious frontiersman, and while personal friendship may occasionally lead him to ignore the dictates of his calm judgment he is quick to resent a presumption upon his good nature by designing aspirants to public office who possess no essential qualifications therefor. Where official turpitude is shown clearly to exist, the heed of public condemnation should be forcibly set down squarely upon it regardless of all personal considerations. The dangers are too great and the risk is too apparent to be passively ignored as the article referred to plainly shows. We cannot look for absolute perfection in a candidate for office, for he is but human like ourselves, and his private faults and personal character are sacred possessions whose dominion no one has the right to invade; were these alone to be considered, our pen would be silent. His public acts are the concern of every individual within the jurisdiction in which his authority is exercised, and by them his fitness is judged. Upon this basis there can be no question of the duty of the electors of this county upon the day of election in the case of aspirants for Probate Judge. A change is an imperative public necessity and the reasons given for it are abundantly sufficient.

The duties imposed upon a grand jury have long been regarded as the proper functions of the several duly selected county officers, and that relic of antiquity is justly deemed a monument of the primitive and crude method formerly deemed essential in starting the machinery of the law by establishing a fair presumption of guilt before the offender was handed over to the mercies of authority. Under the present conditions the preliminary examination of a prisoner charged with crime, before Justice of the Peace, covers the identical functions of this ancient legacy, and although this fact is well recognized, the constitutional inhibition of its relegation to oblivion still encumbers the people with its unwise and useless burden. Their auxiliary duty of examining in the affairs of the county government, is also at least a mere perfunctory proceeding without compensating results. Their limited time and presumable want of familiarity with the intricate affairs of public offices necessarily confines their rating to a mere superficial glance at the methods and neatness of the record and such other generalities as may have been specially burnished for the occasion. The services of a simple expert accountant and experienced inspector, thoroughly performing, would be a far more fruitful corrector of any evils that may exist. But we suppose the system will remain in all its imperfection, venerated solely for its age, until a strong public sentiment eliminates it from our constitution.

Upon the advice of the Attorney General of Arizona, the board of supervisors of this county have modified the election call in respect to the number of supervisor to be elected in this county.

JOE T. BARTLESON, J. F. MAYHEW, W. Y. PRICE, W. Y. PRICE, DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

THE friends of Sheriff Fryer in all parts of the county express their confidence that he will poll a very handsome vote upon the day of election. He has proved himself a model officer and deserves the further consideration of the voters of Pinal county.

JUDGE THURMAN incidentally condemns the Mills, tariff bill by saying "the Senate tariff bill is a badly planned measure, and only aggravates the evil," and in another breath admits that "copies after the Mills' bill very largely."

PROFESSOR WIGGINS attributes the yellow fever epidemic to astronomical influences. The country now wants a theory to account for the prevalence of Professor Wiggins.

Congress has decided to adjourn on Saturday, October 20th, and the people will have a sign of relief when that day arrives.

THE HONORABLE W. W. PORTER, Justice of the Second Judicial District in and for the County of Pinal, Territory of Arizona.

The Grand Jury impaneled for the October term of the District Court of the Second Judicial District of the Territory of Arizona in and for the county of Pinal, begs leave to present the following report:

We have considered the various charges placed before us, and have found eight (8) indictments, and ignored three (3) bills, for lack of evidence.

Herewith we append the reports of our various committees, and call your particular attention to the report of the committee on road overseers, as it appeared to the Grand Jury that the affairs of Road District No. 1, have not been properly and conscientiously managed, the overseer having no regular books it was impossible for the Grand Jury to make a thorough investigation. We would also recommend that the County Jail be either removed to a better place, or a good strong iron railing be placed around the porch in front of the jail windows. The jail at present stands, it is an easy matter for any passer by to place firearms, etc., in the hands of the prisoners, thereby jeopardizing the life of the officers of the law and making the said County Jail insecure for the purpose for which said jail was intended.

We further recommend that a competent expert be employed to thoroughly investigate all county offices within the county of Pinal, said expert to report to the next Grand Jury or as soon as practicable.

Respectfully submitted, JOHN T. BARTLESON, Foreman. F. B. MALDONADO, Clerk.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE. We, the undersigned, your committee, appointed to investigate the Justice's docket of all Justices of the Peace for Pinal county, beg to report that after a careful examination of the respective dockets find that they are all neatly and properly kept and have no criticism to make as to the omissions, etc.

We, the committee appointed to examine the books of the County Recorder, find them kept in a neat and business-like manner.

We, the undersigned, the committee appointed to examine and report on the office of Sheriff, find everything pertaining to the office kept in good shape, and also find the books in said office to be correct. We find the jail kept in as cleanly a manner as possible, and we also recommend the removal of the jail to the center of the present court yard, as it is necessary for the safety of the prisoners. And action should be taken for the removal of said jail forthwith.

CHAS. HOLBORN, C. D. HENRY, F. E. MCCRARY, ROAD OVERSEER.

We, the undersigned, your committee, appointed to investigate the office of Road Overseers, hereby make the following recommendation: We find that they do not have quarterly settlements with the Board of Supervisors which have been accepted, but would recommend further investigation into the Road Overseer of Road District No. 1. We have endeavored to investigate thoroughly into the affairs of said District No. 1, but for lack of accounts (which the Overseer could not produce) it was impossible to do so.

JNO T. BARTLESON, J. F. MAYHEW, W. Y. PRICE, COUNTY TREASURER.

That the duties of the office by the present incumbent have been exemplarily performed, and that we have no criticisms to make on any omission, neglect or failure on his part.

CHAS. HOLBORN, C. D. HENRY, F. E. MCCRARY, THE Territorial Fair at Phenix will be held next week, commencing on Monday. It will probably prove the most successful exposition ever held in the Territory.

THE MONK BROTHERS HAVE SOLD 200 head of beef steers to SA MEIR, a Los Angeles butcher. The price paid was 24 cents per pound gross.

Captain J. M. Phillips was in town Thursday with his arm in a sling. On being asked for an explanation, he stated that the night before he attempted to shoot a skunk but instead of hitting the odorous cat put a forty-five bullet through his own hand. The wound is quite painful, but the Captain is possessed of an abundance of "grit," and yesterday joined the round-up.

We learn that Captain J. H. Tevis, of Teviston, has made arrangements with California parties to erect two ten-stamp mills, with concentrators, an endless wire-cable, and other machinery for transporting ore from the mines to the mill; the consideration being a half-interest in the Captain's Virginia group of mines (four in Teviston). The first mill is to be running before March 1st, and Captain Tevis is to be Superintendent of the mill, and the other mill will be put a small force of men to work on the mines, which will be largely increased when the first mill is erected. The Captain is one of Arizona's oldest pioneers, and we are glad to chronicle his good fortune.

W. L. George, on account of illness, has sent in his resignation to W. T. Doane, of San Luis, Mo., of the committee, as a candidate for the legislature. The committee will have to select a candidate in consequence.

Jim Cushmanberry, one of Arizona's well known pioneers, arrived here a few days ago. Mr. Cushmanberry was one of the first owners of the celebrated Vulture mine and also made a big "clean up" in this county; he is here for the purpose of examining some valuable mines of Yuma county and it is a safe thing to say that he will find just the kind of mining property he desires.

The trip taken by Messrs. Mellon, Whitmore and Powell to the Gulf of California seems to have agreed with the tourists; they are looking strong and happy. Captain Mellon found a splendid land locked harbor about forty miles from the mouth of the Colorado river which can be easily and safely reached by the steamer. The water is full of fish; the shore is one immense bank of shells and further up near the mesa plenty of deer and small game were seen. To the south of the bay is an immense salt marsh in which fat clams are found in abundance. The place selected for the landing place of the steamer is all that can be desired and after the first excursion the tourists predict that they will require additional steamers to convey visitors to the lovely Gulf of Cortez.

San Francisco has always been a satisfactory market for beef steers, and the southern tier has a man on the job. It has no refrigerating meat or canning establishments to speak of, and only aims to supply the local demand for meat, and such outlying points as can be reached within a few hours' time. There are no great stock yards, like eastern cities have, where buyers and sellers meet. As a rule each ranchman has a man on the road who visits the ranches and farms and buys the cattle before he leaves them. They are here held or shipped on order as needed. Cattle are universally bought at so much per pound net weight, figured on a shrinkage of one-half. Ranchmen with large herds sometimes visit the city in advance and sell their cattle, but no one thinks of shipping in train loads on the open markets and taking what buyers may offer. Such a course would be suicidal, for the reason that butchers are always supplied ahead by their country purchases, and there are no facilities for holding cattle in the city without heavy expense.—Hoof & Horn.

Captain Johnson, of the Mammoth, was expected to arrive last night with a large force of men to start the new intention of the new owners to commence operations at once with additional stamps.

Harry Barnhart, superintendent of the Scauple mines was in the city during the week and reports the ore continues in quantity and grade.

The Atlas copper mines will probably blow in their smelter this week. There are 500 tons of ore on the dump. Twenty men are now at work in the mines and the number will be doubled during the next twenty days.

The Bonanza mines at Quijotoa have increased the number of their miners. Ten stamps of the mill are running and the outlook for the camp is very bright.

The Sheriff of this county started in charge three prisoners sentenced to the penitentiary. L. W. We were surprised and shocked to learn that Monday afternoon last, Barry Matthews had seriously, possibly fatally stabbed Walter Darling in front of the restaurant. As we gathered it, Matthews sometime since, in payment of a long deferred board bill, had sold Darling among other things, a horse for $60. Darling agreed to take the horse, allow Matthews to use him whenever he chose, and if within six months, he wished it, to sell it back for $25. Recently Matthews took the horse back at the latter price. On Monday, Matthews being under the influence of liquor, was discussing the matter, and when Darling supposed the discussion over, Matthews called him a liar, stabbed him twice, once in the arm and once between the ribs, before he awakened to the situation. Matthews was arrested on charge of assault with intent to commit murder, and on giving bond in the sum of $10,000 was released. He is now in jail, but is expected to await the result of Darling's wounds.

NASAL VOICES, CATARRH AND FALSE TEETH.

A prominent English woman says the American women have high, shrill, nasal voices and false teeth.

American don't like the constant witting they get about their nasal twang, and yet it is a fact caused by a deposit of catarrhal difficulties.

That is more of a poser to the English. It is quite impossible to account for it except on the theory of deranged stomach action caused by imprudence in eating and by want of regular exercise.

Both conditions are unnatural. Catarrhal troubles everywhere prevail and end in cough and consumption, which are promoted by muzzling water, and by deranged stomach action. The condition is a modern one, one unknown to our ancestors who prevented the catarrh, cold, cough and consumption by abundant and regular use of water.

Warner's Log Cabin cough and consumption remedy and Log Cabin sarsaparilla, two old fashioned standard remedies handed by the name of the founders, and now exclusively put forth under the strongest guarantees of purity and efficacy by the world-famed makers of Warner's safe cure.

Warner's safe cure, used in the fall and winter seasons advance, together with an occasional use of Warner's Log Cabin rose cream, to strengthen and protect the nasal membranes gives a positive assurance of freedom, both from catarrh and those dreadful and inevitable consequences, pneumonia, lung troubles and consumption, which so generally and fatally prevail among our people.

Comrade Ed Fisher, of Salem, Henry Co., Iowa, served four years in the late war and contracted a disease called consumption by the doctors. His condition was so bad that he was told he would never recover. After using Warner's Log Cabin cough and consumption remedy, he says, under date of Jan. 10th, 1888: "I do not feel as if I had had so much suffering as I have had, and more, my cough does not bother me, and I do not have any more smothering spells." Warner's Log Cabin rose cream cured his wick of catarrh and she is "good and well" as usual.
