MEMORIAL MENTION.

See notice elsewhere of a fine improved farm for sale, close to town.

Florence Lodge No. 4, A. O. U. W. will meet at their hall to-night at 7:30 sharp.

Commodore W. P. Blair was in town this week from his ranch near Dripping Springs.

Mr. A. Hittinger visited Florence, Final and Silver King this week, in a business way.

Mr. M. W. Harter, the amalgamator at the Noon, came down Thursday for a short visit.

The Board of Supervisors will meet next Monday to canvass the returns of the late election.

Uncle Sam wants to purchase 160 cavalry horses for the department. See notice elsewhere.

Mr. Gus, a member of the Francisco dramatic society, interested in this week.

Benjamin went to Phoenix to attend the Presbyterian conference.

Miss Ella and Miss May Sablin were in town Saturday evening.

Messrs. Jas. Carr and James Finley Harshaw, arrived Thursday and went to Butte to look at a smelter they intend purchasing.

Judge W. H. Benson was in town this week, looking up a house for his family. He will remove to this place before the first of January.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Hickey came up from Tucson Tuesday to attend the funeral of the late David R. Foreman, who was Mrs. Hickey's father.

Mr. John A. Marshall and wife came down from Final last Saturday to attend the wedding of Mr. E. E. Moden and Miss Lulu Drais on Sunday.

The culvert at Mr. Allan's well on the Casa Grande road was repaired this week and its wings were extended sufficiently to prevent any future wash-outs.

Mr. John Knight, of Silver King, was in town this week. He does not arrange to place his children at school in that place but will take them east.

Mr. Smith Turner has forty acres of his land lying immediately south of the Western Addition, laid out into town lots. Mr. A. T. Colton did the surveying.

Parties wanting piano tuning done or repairs made to musical instruments can have them promptly attended to by leaving their orders at the drug store. A competent tuner will arrive in a few days.

Mr. A. Reduell, the well known piano dealer and tuner, will be in Florence to-morrow and will remain four days on his regular semi-annual trip. He is now permanently located at Phoenix, where he owns a handsome place and his family resides.

The bets made on the national election results are all being paid over to the lucky winners. Some of the losers cannot yet understand why matters took such an unexpected turn, but the inevitable fact stares them boldly in the face and they are forced to give up the question.

A peach tree in Mr. John Miller's garden got a little out of its reckoning, probably on account of the election, and several days ago it put on a brilliant covering of blossoms. Now Mr. Miller is a staunch democrat, else it might be supposed that the tree was exhibiting over the republican victory. The zeal of the tree is worthy of greater commendation than its discretion.

On Wednesday evening, November 28th—Thanksgiving Eve—Florence Lodge No. 4, A. O. U. W., will give a grand ball at the Court House for the purpose of raising funds to purchase an organ for their lodge room. The committee in charge of the arrangements are perfecting details that promise to make it one of the most enjoyable social events of the season.

Edward Bourneill completed the canal and on Monday morning the water was turned on. The canal is a fine piece of work and will be a great benefit to the southwest of the canal.

The signal light, situated in the corner of the block, is a fine piece of work and will be a great benefit to the southwest of the canal.

When the snows are in the mountains and the polar winds are bringing the polar fogs to the doors of the dwellers back in the states, here in Arizona the flowers are still in bloom and an air of springtime is observable everywhere.

A few days ago Mr. J. Remy brought a handsome bouquet of bright flowers into the Express office and the brilliant and fragrant roses were almost like hot-house flowers. Arizona may have its warm summers, but its winter climate has no equal anywhere in the habitable globe.

Sneak thieves have appeared in town quite recently and they appropriate anything that possesses a value. A few nights ago a lot of joints were taken from the lumber at Mr. Sater's new store building, and on Wednesday night a lot of lumber was taken from Mr. Henry's new house in the Western Addition. Tuesday night three chairs and some lamps were stolen from the court house, the former belonging to the Lodge of A. O. U. W. If the perpetrators of these petty offenses are apprehended they ought to be given a very brief opportunity to leave town or abide by the severe consequences.

ENTERTAINMENT.

The Literary and Social Entertainment given by the A. O. U. W.

The literary and social entertainment given by Florence Lodge No. 4, A. O. U. W., was held at the Court House last Tuesday evening. All the seating capacity of the room, supplemented with many dozens of chairs, was inadequate to fully accommodate the vast audience. The excitement of the election greatly interfered with the original plans of this evening's entertainment.

The ladies came to the rescue and the committee was thereby enabled to present a very attractive and highly enjoyable programme—the first, let it be hoped, of many pleasant affairs of the kind.

A substantial staging was provided and some attempt at decoration was made. Mrs. M. E. Bailey kindly loaned her piano for the occasion, and others rendered every possible assistance in their power to contribute to the success of the affair.

The following programme was followed and each performer exhibited an unexpected degree of excellence and received the plaudits of the audience:

PROGRAMME. Welcome, by the Master Workman, Cornet Polka, by Prof. Hoffmeister and Miss Eugenie Bartleson.

Recitation, "The Devil and the Lawyers," by Miss Flora Ruggles.

Piano Solo, "Lullaby of the Fountain," by Miss Ella White.

Song, "Our Baby," by Miss May Bartleson.

Recitation, "Annet Tabitha," by Miss Lizzie Douglas.

Piano Solo, "Old Hundred," by Miss Ella White.

Recitation, "The King's Picture," by Miss Nellie Bartleson.

Song, "La Paloma," by Miss Mollie Bailey.

Recitation, "The New Church Organ," by Miss Ella Nesbitt.

Piano Solo, "Maryland My Maryland," by Miss Ella White.

Recitation, "Vassar College Tragedy," by Geo. W. Brown.

Recitation, "The Bandit Robber," by Miss Julia DeArmitt.

Recitation, "A Woman's Courage," by Mrs. Wm. E. Guild.

Concert Solo, by Prof. Hoffmeister. Reading, "The Cheat Race," from Ben Hur, by John W. Rannels.

Closing Ode, in which all present joined in singing.

The seats were then removed and Olivas' string band called in and about forty couples enjoyed themselves in merry dance until almost dawn, when they dispersed feeling they had indeed enjoyed a happy evening.

A Temperance Movement.

Col. J. J. Hickman, the famous temperance orator of Kentucky, held a public meeting at the Court House last Thursday night and delivered a lecture on Temperance. The room was well filled with ladies and gentlemen and the orator worked up an enthusiasm that yielded good results when the time came for signatures to the charter roll of a lodge of Good Templars, and fifty-six persons took the pledge and became members thereof.

The election of officers for the new lodge immediately followed with the following result:

Chief Templar—A. T. Colton. Vice Templar—Mrs. M. A. Whittemore.

Secretary—Eugene S. Browne. Financial Secretary—John W. Rannels.

Treasurer—Miss Angie Doran. Chaplain—W. H. Griffin. Marshal—M. M. Rice.

Guard—Miss Nellie Bley. Sentinel—Wm. Cleary. Past Chief Templar—Mrs. E. M. Wratton.

Lodge Deputy—Mrs. A. T. Colton. Supt. Juvenile Work—Mrs. Annie Lanigan.

Assistant Secretary—Miss Gertrude Rodgers. Deputy Marshal—G. O. Eaton.

The lodge was named Florence Lodge No. 4, A. O. U. W., and will hold its next meeting on Tuesday night at the Court House unless a suitable hall can be secured.

The new lodge starts out under the most favorable auspices and that it may be an instrument of great good in a moral way is the earnest wish of all people.

Hotel Arrivals.

The following are among the recent arrivals at the Florence Hotel: N. W. Willoughby, Ed. Willoughby, Phenix; E. B. Moden, Mrs. Poppelwell, Jas. Woodley, Final; J. B. Allen, Montezuma; A. Hittinger, Tucson; Irvine Moore, Phoenix; Stan Francisco; King; Mrs. J. C. Berryman; G. W. Cleaveland, El Paso; Guy, G. W. San Francisco; C. H. Hoffman, Final; Jas. Hotcomb, Owl Heads; Chas. Ewing, Casa Grande; Frank Campbell, San Francisco; Mrs. D. W. Cummings and child, Silver King; John Knight and children, Silver King; Chas. Wilson, Casa Grande; Chas. Sablin, Miss May Sablin, Sacaton; Al. Mess, Casa Grande; Stephen Williams, Mrs. J. M. Williams, Globe; M. M. Hickey, Tucson; R. Foreman, Butte; Jack Cole, Casa Grande; Paul Hillon, Prescott; Wm. Stewart, Silver King; Mrs. H. C. Berryman; M. W. Harter, Franc. Williams, De Noon; John Knight, Sier King; Jas. Brash, Round Valley; James Finley, Harshaw; Jas. Carr, Mexico.

Death of David R. Foreman.

Mr. David R. Foreman died at his ranch four miles east of Florence, last Monday evening after a long illness, at the age of twenty-six years. He was born in Pennsylvania, and went to California in 1849, where he resided continuously until 1880, when he came to Arizona. He was buried on Wednesday, just fifty-six years from the day of his marriage. He leaves a widow and six children: Mrs. C. G. Lewis, and Mr. M. H. Hickey, of Florence; Mrs. J. H. Hopkins, of Crittendon, Arizona; Mrs. E. H. Hubbard, of San Francisco; Mrs. J. C. Berryman, of Santa Rosa, Cal.; Mrs. Wm. Meredith, and Jacob Freeman, of Smartsville, Cal.; Chas. L. Foreman, of Tombstone, and Messrs. Wm. D. and Richard Foreman, of this place.

Messrs. G. Schornick and W. J. LeBaron have completed the clearing of Dr. J. M. Lutzley's section of land about eight miles southwest of Florence, under the Florence canal, and have done a very excellent piece of work. They started for Phoenix last Monday to purchase Messrs. H. E. Kemp & Co.'s necessary farming implements—putting in a crop of alfalfa. The fourth of the section will be planted to alfalfa and the remainder will be devoted to fruits. After seeding the land Messrs. Schornick and LeBaron will dig a well, build a house and fence the land for Dr. Lutzley.

OLIVIANE BLOSSOMS.

The Marriage of Mr. E. B. Moden and Miss Lulu Drais Daily Celebrated.

A quiet wedding was celebrated in this place Sunday; the contracting parties being Mr. Eric B. Moden, a much respected young gentleman of Final, and one of Florence's most popular belles, Miss Lulu Drais, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Drais, of this place.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. I. T. Whittemore, in the presence of a few of the most intimate friends of the family. The rooms were tastefully decorated and presented quite a festive appearance; over the doors were placed wreaths of evergreen and yellow chrysanthemums, whilst pictures and bric-a-brac were almost hidden in green foliage, out of which peeped roses, oleanders and many dozens of chrysanthemums.

At half past one o'clock the bridal party entered; the bride supported by her father, followed by the groom and Mrs. R. H. Martin, the bride and groom taking their places beneath an umbrella of white chrysanthemums, with wreaths of similar upon either side, where the ceremony was performed and the newly wedded pair received the hearty congratulations of their friends.

The bride, who is a pretty brunette, wore a rich costume of cream satin, made in the "Princess" style, cut V shaped at the neck; the drapery was of flacy silk lace, caught upon the side with orange blossom, a wreath of these blossoms formed a semi circle from the V shaped neck to the left side of the skirt, a bunch of the same nestled in the dark hair, which was worn pompadour; white slippers and long undressed kid gloves completed the simple and becoming costume.

After an interval had been spent in viewing the many handsome presents, the guests, preceded by the bride and groom proceeded to the Florence Hotel, where a most tempting array of delicacies was spread. Upon each end of the long table stood immense bouquets of smilax, the bridal cake, a marvel of the confectioner's art, stood in the center of the table.

At four o'clock the carriage which was to convey the happy couple to their home in Final arrived, and they drove off amid a shower of rice, good wishes and old shoes, immediately followed by a number of their friends in carriages, who seemed loath to part, until they had seen the pair about three miles out on life's journey "together."

Mr. and Mrs. Moden have the best wishes of the people of Florence for their future happiness, and in traveling hand in hand over the thorny path, that they may gather only sunshine and roses.

Those present were Miss Angie Doran, Miss Jessie Drais, Miss Genevieve Oury, Miss Hattie Ellbell, Miss Gustie Hildebrandt, Misses Fannie and Nellie Bartleson, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ochoa, Mrs. K. French, J. W. Rannels, H. V. Jackson, W. Wood Porter, F. E. White, F. C. Calderon, F. B. Maldonado, J. H. Hull, L. K. Drais.

The following are a few of the presents received: The Groom to the Bride, a Diamond Ring, Solid Silver and Gold Fruit Stand, Bride's Parents, Elegant Hanging Lamp, Messrs. F. C. Calderon and J. H. Hull; Push Rocker, Mr. Chris. Petersen (Final), Dinner Set, Mr. John Lueike, (Final); Set Silver Knives and Forks, Mrs. K. French; Toilet Set, Messrs. W. Wood Porter, H. V. Jackson and F. B. Maldonado; Hand Painted Perfume Set, Miss Genevieve Oury; Cage and Two Canaries, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Martin; Silver Cake Stand, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Marshall (Final); Plush Picture Frames, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ochoa; Pair Handsome Vases, Misses Drais; Serim Tidy and Satchel, Miss Gustie Hildebrandt; Silver Cake, Miss Doran; Silver Pepper and Salt Stand, Mrs. Louisa Rose (Nevada); Beautiful Pin Cushion, Miss Hattie Ellbell; Handsome Fruit Dish, Miss Florence Pryor, San Francisco; Set Painted Fruit Plates, Misses Fannie and Nellie Bartleson; Silver Vinegar and Olive Oil Stand, Frank M. Drais; Bronze Clock, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Starr; Carving Knife and Fork, Mr. Van Courtlandt (Final); Box of Grapes and Pomegranates Mr. J. Remy.

The Election at Yuma.

The following are the newly elected officers of Yuma county, with returns missing from two precinct that cannot materially change the result:

Council, J. W. Dorrington. House, Samuel Purdy.

Probate Judge, C. H. Brinley. District Attorney, Samuel Purdy.

Sheriff, M. J. Nugent. Treasurer, W. L. Hopkins.

Recorder, F. A. Hicks. Assessor, W. Werninger.

County Supervisors, C. V. Meeden, and F. S. Ingalls.

Ira Mabbett was elected Justice of the Peace of Yuma precinct.

T. D. Lockwood was elected Constable.

For Congress, Mark Smith received a majority of 162, and Lin Orme for Joint-Councilman 80 majority.

A Herd Law.

Few, perhaps, are aware of the fact that this Territory has a herd law, but such is the case nevertheless. Let one get a copy of the laws passed at last session, turn to page 3209, and read as follows: "It being impracticable to properly enclose the fields in this Territory, all animals must be kept under a shepherd, so that no injury may result to the fields; and if any damage should result, it shall be paid by the owners of the animals causing the same, to be assessed by the justice of the peace in the precinct in a summary manner, and paid to the person or persons whose fields may have been damaged."

Turning over to page 561, paragraph 3226, he will find that "all laws conflicting with the provisions of this chapter are hereby repealed." Then he can exercise his own judgment as to whether there is not a herd law in every county of Arizona.—Nogales Herald.

At Crittendon a ticket was voted that had every name scratched. On the back was written the following: "A voter is a human being endowed with the privilege of casting a ballot. Sometimes he knows enough to vote without assistance but generally he is used as a peg by skillful politicians in the great game of politics. F. A. Lamont." The same man two years ago scratched every name off till he came to justice of the peace, and he wrote, "my burro, Blue Dick."—Nogales Herald.

SILVER KING NOTES.

The election continues to furnish abundant means of conversation. The news concerning results has been very slow in coming and those of our citizens who had their money here have been waiting for some time.

The water between Charles Smith and Tom Doyle will not be carried out. Mr. Smith is desirous of fulfilling his part but Mr. Doyle will not accept it, preferring to manifest his gratification of the republican success in some other manner. This being the case Silver King will be one of the towns where the great victory will not be celebrated by any except individuals.

It was currently reported here that Mr. W. C. Truman would probably contest the election of Mr. E. B. Moden. The contest has been mentioned concerning a contest during the past few days so that probably better count has prevailed and Mr. Truman will submit to his defeat.

Early Thursday morning a small dwelling house opposite the Silver King Hotel was destroyed by fire. After quite severe efforts the fire was subdued and an investigation showed that the interior was badly damaged, the lining and paper being destroyed and the furniture badly damaged. The house was the property of Harry Jones and the furniture belonged to Chas. Bennett. The occupants were not in the house at the time but had left a lamp burning and it is supposed that the fire resulted from the explosion of this lamp. The total damage will not exceed $100. It is fortunate that the fire was discovered in its infancy, for if it had gained any headway a disastrous conflagration would have resulted.

Sunday night, last, Richard Armstrong, one of the bosses in the mine, was quite severely injured by a falling rock. Examination revealed no broken bones, though his ankle and leg were quite severely bruised. He is rapidly recovering under the care of Dr. Kinnaird.

Several new men have been put on at the mine recently which would indicate an improvement for the better. Still their number is more than counterbalanced by the number of those leaving.

William Stewart, for some time past employed in the mine, has left for Florence for a short visit, after which he will take up his residence at the Reymert Camp.

Mr. John Knight, one of our merchants, has just returned on a short trip to Tucson. While there he had arrangements for sending his children to school in the east. He arrived in Tucson in time to witness the republican jollification of last Monday evening and states that it was an "im-mense affair" for Tucson.

According to a notice that has been posted at the post-office, there will be a dance at the school house on Friday evening the 16th inst with Dennis Sullivan as Master of ceremonies. An enjoyable time is anticipated. H. A. C.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

TERRITORY OF ARIZONA. EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT. OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR.

Whereas, The President of the United States has designated and set apart Thursday, the 29th day of November, A. D. 1888, as a day of public thanksgiving and prayer;

Now, therefore, I, C. Meyer Zulick, Governor of the Territory of Arizona, recognizing the time honored custom, and at the request of the President, do hereby proclaim and set apart the said 29th day of November as a day of special thanksgiving, inviting all the people of Arizona to lay aside business and assemble at their respective places of worship and return thanks to Almighty God for the continued prosperity of the people.

Done at the City of Prescott, this 8th day of November, A. D. 1888. (SEAL) C. MEYER ZULICK, By the Governor, JAS. A. BAYARD, Secretary of Territory

Western Addition.

Parties desiring lots in the Western Addition of Florence can secure them by applying to County Recorder B. J. Whiteside, or to Mrs. E. T. Thomas, owner of the property.

Stock-growing in Arizona has a larger margin of profit than in any of the grazing regions of the north-west or on the plains east of the Rockies. No shelter is necessary for the protection of cattle in Arizona during the winter season, and it is not necessary to put up feed for their sustenance. Even in the mountains our ranges are comparatively free from snow, and browse affords all the feed necessary during the short periods when the ground is covered by it. The grass is green and succulent during the spring time, and when the summer rains come it starts up in such profusion that even on the heavily stocked ranges it is not consumed. Nevertheless it is not lost. The sun cures it and it becomes as nutritious as hay, and affords good feed into the middle of winter. Then the Arizona stockman has the best of markets for his beef. In winter, when on the northern ranges fat beef cannot be secured his cattle are feeding on the alfalfa pastures of our valleys, basking in sunshine and as fat as swine. The farmer, therefore, has his choice and pays the top-notch prices, at the time when the northern stockman is exerting every effort to save his herd, and calculating upon a loss of from twenty-five to sixty per cent. through cold weather and starvation. No infectious diseases therefore get a foothold on our ranges, we have no winter loss, and the increase is as rapid as any place in the world. Stock-raising is not the only industry in which Arizona can assert superiority, and in the breeding place for blooded stock southern Arizona is bound to become famous in the course of time.—Arizonan.

Which Was It? Bacon or Shakespeare.

The authorship of the dramatic productions attributed to the last of the above named is agitating circles to the very core, but effects the practical masses for less than the momentary question, how to regain or preserve health, that essential of bodily and mental activity, business and the "pursuit of happiness." We can throw far more light on this latter subject than the most profound Shakespearean on the question first propounded. If the system is depleted, the nerves shaky; if indigestion or constipation bother one at times, or constantly; if the skin is yellow and tongue furred as in biliousness; if there are premature twinges of oncoming rheumatism or neuralgia; if the kidneys are inactive—Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the finest recuperant of an age prolific in beneficial and successful remedies. Remember, if malaria threatens or afflicts, that it neutralizes the poison and fortifies the system.

ARIZONA NEWS.

The only letter received from Eugene Esbrook since he departed for Africa two years ago, was written from the gold field and stated that he was making more money by making dry-washers than he could earn in the placers.

Few visitors to Arizona awakened the interest of the people in the same degree as Slater, and the eyes of the people are turned on him with more interest than ever, since Harrison's election. There are anxious to note the expression of his bland, ask-me-to-take-a-drink countenance as he goes "kiting down the tides of time."

After this issue the Epitaph will cease to appear, for the present, as a daily, and again take its place among the leading weeklies on the Pacific coast. There isn't much amusement in running a nonpareil paper in a long primer town.

A few days ago Geo. L. Compton brought to the News office a fine lot of peaches, known in this section as Bagley's December peach. They were all of good size and most delicious flavor. Mr. Compton has on his ranch south of town, some twenty trees laden with the fruit, most of which is still quite green, but will ripen in December. Last year he picked from these trees the twenty-third day of December. Green ripe peaches from a tree on Christmas is a luxury of which few countries can boast, and yet this is but one among the many delightful features of life in the Salt River valley.

The Chiricahua Cattle Company shipped 6 cars—127 head—of prime beef cattle to San Diego on Monday. J. H. McClure was in charge of the shipment.

Jesus Para, a Mexican freighter on the Globe road, died here on Saturday last of quick consumption. The deceased was held in high esteem by his countrymen, and the funeral, which took place on Sunday, was attended by almost the entire Mexican population as well as by a number of Americans.

The "Kid" and four Apache Indians who were engaged in the outbreak a year ago last spring, during which Grace and Diehl were killed, and who were tried by Court-Martial at Fort Huachuca, were sentenced to imprisonment at Alcatraz, have been pardoned by the President and arrived here from Alcatraz Monday night in charge of Lieutenant Straub, and left for San Carlos Tuesday, in charge of a military escort. Why a pardon has been granted these red-handed devils is beyond our (silver belt).

S. Klein & Co. shipped a bar of silver (670 ounces), on Monday, for S. Tidwell.

The first heavy frost of the season occurred here Thursday night. Ice formed on water in exposed places.

Grass has made a good growth since the late rains, and in some places will be pretty fair. Stockmen are all right in this country.

Good cattle are lower in price than ever before in this country. We are informed of a sale of 100 head of the San Pedro at $10 per head, and of an offer to sell by auction, partly at $15 for cow and calf. At such prices cattle should certainly be an investment.

Cleveland has pardoned the San Carlos Apaches who were convicted of the murder of Billy Diehl and Mike Grace and sentenced to a term of imprisonment at Alcatraz. Cleveland is the chap who, as President of
