

THE WOMAN'S COLUMN

Matters Affecting the Rights of Women Discussed.

The Political Status of Women—A Report on Franchise—Women as Reporters—The Subject of Co-Education.

The Woman's Column of THE MORNING CALL is open to correspondents for the discussion of subjects of general interest to women. All communications should be brief. Those which will reflect only the views of the writers.

CONGRESSIONAL NOTES.

Matters That Have Engaged the Attention of Our Representatives.

Editor Woman's Column, Morning Call: A cursory glance over the doings of the first session of the Fifty-first Congress, for the first two weeks of its session, suggests that women have a direct interest in nearly every bill discussed by Congress. The President's message was received soon after the opening of Congress, before bills were introduced, and it says: "I earnestly invoke the attention of Congress to the consideration of such measures within its constitutional powers as will secure to all our people a free exercise of the right of suffrage and every other civil right under the Constitution and laws of the United States." Either that sentence is a "glittering generality" or else "all our people" includes the female half. On December 15th the Senate passed the following bills, all of which deeply concern women: An educational bill; one providing for the appointment of a commission on the liquor traffic; and a joint resolution providing an amendment to the Constitution prohibiting the disenfranchisement of women on account of sex. All these bills were referred to appropriate committees. Senator Blair also introduced a resolution for a prohibition amendment to the Constitution.

And Senator Delph another resolution giving Congress power to legislate upon the subject of marriage and divorce. Senator Stanford a bill to encourage co-operation and to provide for the formation of co-operative associations in the District of Columbia. This bill provides for one day for one day, and in every one woman are just as much interested as men. No one has a personal interest in every bill, but as many women as men will be affected by the passage or failure of each; for education, for the liquor traffic, for marriage and divorce are questions of common interest, as are all important issues, and human beings are interested not only in their decision, but in the selection of those who shall decide them. December 15th in Congress, the second bill forbidding the carrying of mail of letters, advertisements or papers containing obscene matter, and a joint resolution to organize a bureau of information relating to the needs of the industrial classes. These are all of great importance, and the moral and industrial atmosphere of our country is being improved. The bill for the amendment of the Constitution, which introduced a resolution for a prohibition amendment to the Constitution.

THE CONSTITUTION.

And Senator Delph another resolution giving Congress power to legislate upon the subject of marriage and divorce. Senator Stanford a bill to encourage co-operation and to provide for the formation of co-operative associations in the District of Columbia. This bill provides for one day for one day, and in every one woman are just as much interested as men. No one has a personal interest in every bill, but as many women as men will be affected by the passage or failure of each; for education, for the liquor traffic, for marriage and divorce are questions of common interest, as are all important issues, and human beings are interested not only in their decision, but in the selection of those who shall decide them. December 15th in Congress, the second bill forbidding the carrying of mail of letters, advertisements or papers containing obscene matter, and a joint resolution to organize a bureau of information relating to the needs of the industrial classes. These are all of great importance, and the moral and industrial atmosphere of our country is being improved. The bill for the amendment of the Constitution, which introduced a resolution for a prohibition amendment to the Constitution.

MANY A WIFE AND DAUGHTER.

Will find her pin money limited in consequence, and thus become interested in the efforts of the Illinois legislature. Senator Manderson introduced two bills, one to enable women to vote for Representatives in Congress, the second to amend the word "sex" immediately preceding "race, color, or previous condition of servitude" in the act of 1870; the same Senator also introduced a joint resolution to print 100,000 copies of the report of the commission on marriage and divorce statistics relating to the United States. The bill for the amendment of the Constitution, which introduced a resolution for a prohibition amendment to the Constitution.

INCOMPETENCY OR UNWORTHINESS.

Duly ascertained according to law." When the admission of this true republic had been referred to its committee, Senator Morgan advocated warmly its resolution to recognize the Republic of Brazil. Many petitions were presented to the committee. Mrs. Della Stewart Farnell, mother of the famous Irish humorist, Member of Parliament, a petition signed by the Women of New Jersey and many eminent people. Mrs. Farnell's father, Commodore Stewart of the United States Navy, has never been fully paid for his services by our Government. She has petitioned Congress to prize money for the capture of the English man-of-war Levant. The petition also claims that Mr. Farnell was a man of woman, influenced Lord Carlisle and Palmerston in preventing a coalition between Great Britain and France, and that Louis Napoleon sent Maximilian to Mexico. Mrs. Farnell is an energetic, able woman, and her petition is an important influence over friends. When Congress discusses appropriations for our little Republic of Hawaii, our labor helps produce the revenue appropriated, our little Republic of Hawaii, our labor helps produce the revenue appropriated, our little Republic of Hawaii, our labor helps produce the revenue appropriated.

CO-EDUCATION.

How a Boy's Many Qualities Become Strengthened. Writing on the subject of co-education, a writer for the Woman's Illustrated World says: "It is the most natural thing in the world for the little boy to lead his little sister or girl friend—knowing no difference between them, save that of their disposition or qualities. He will go first, though with beating heart, perhaps that he may protect her from the terrible gander, which with unwatched and unaided hands, and affrightening cries is advancing toward them; he will give her the nicest cherries, and carry her books, and will, when he crosses the brook or to climb the fence, and he will love her truly and tenderly, and all without fear or shame. The little girl will as naturally seek his companionship, she will admire his prowess in facing dangers, and gratefully accept all the tokens of his care, while she feels her superiority in the matters of daintiness, taste and refinement. As the children grow, these qualities are cultivated, and the boy's many qualities become strengthened by the use to which they are put. As sense of his responsibility as a protector and helper develops his powers. At the same time that he becomes more truly gentle and refined in his ways, he finds that cowardice, laziness and impurity are held in great contempt by his fair associates as courage, honesty and purity are highly esteemed, and he becomes brave and true, and his pure, true a gentleman. The girl, as associate, is learning to be kind, as co-educator, deceit, vanity and petty spite are not cultivated. Her attractions by her boy friends, and becoming ashamed of them, she seeks to cultivate the opposing virtues. She learns, too, to take broader views of things and of life; to outgrow the narrowness of her stock in trade; to be more interested in the welfare of women educated without male companionship. She is more inclined to look out for each other as in a game, and be-

REDEEMER IDEAS

To Meet the Growing Predilection of Young Women.

A Pedestrian Costume That Is Neat—A Habit for the Bicycle Girl—A Very Pretty and Distigue Cape-Wrap.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

NEW YORK, April 28, 1890.—The growing predilection of young women for all manner of outdoor sports and occupations necessitates special costumes for different pursuits; and we present to our readers this week two novelties of this kind, which have just been perfected by Redfern from his own artistic designs. The first of these is a pedestrian costume suitable for the day's tramp on country road, or a stiff bit of mountain climbing, or even for a fishing trip. It is of English tweed, in a dark blue and tan, and is made with a straight pleated skirt and a full waist, finished with a leather belt. Redfern makes the skirt so that its length may be varied on occasion; and it has a wide facing on both sides of tan-colored leather, which prevents the skirt from becoming dragged and dampening the ankles. The latter, however, are still further protected by leather leggings. This is a soft, dark blue felt, in a plain shape, with a deep crown and a peacock feather on the side.

THE SOMERS DIVORCE.

A Motion to Dismiss the Appeal Denied by the Supreme Court. The suit of Isabel M. Somers against Calvin Somers for divorce was up on the Supreme Court yesterday, on appeal from the judgment of the District Court in San Francisco. The motion to dismiss the appeal was denied. It appears that the appellant is moving for a new trial, and that she has served a statement to be used on that motion in due time, but that it was never settled owing to the fact that the husband refused to sign the statement. The motion to dismiss was denied because it was a material part of the record of the appeal. The motion to dismiss was denied because it was a material part of the record of the appeal. The motion to dismiss was denied because it was a material part of the record of the appeal.

"FIXING" THE JUDGE.

George H. Maloney Testifies in His Own Defense. An investigation into the case of Frederick Hulse, the carpenter arrested for beating a woman, is being conducted by Judge Hulse. Maloney was present upon an attachment. He is a painter at 430 Seventh Street. He testified that he saw Hulse beating a woman, and that he was present upon an attachment. He is a painter at 430 Seventh Street. He testified that he saw Hulse beating a woman, and that he was present upon an attachment.

THE CHINATOWN POLICE.

Sergeant Price and his Chinatown squad were relieved yesterday by Sergeant Kelly and Officers Shanahan, Green, Law, Dunne and P. L. Brown. As a result of Sergeant Kelly's work among the Chinese in Chinatown, the Chinatown police were relieved yesterday by Sergeant Kelly and Officers Shanahan, Green, Law, Dunne and P. L. Brown.

A RICH BROWN.

It is divided, but the pleats are so lapped that it is not perceptible, except in the increased ease and grace of the wearer. The body is fitted, and the waist is cut to the waist over an unbrocaded jupon waistcoat, above which appears a small black and white striped necktie. A Cape-Wrap. The last illustration is a very distinctive cape-wrap, whose braided points are finished by a deep fall of silk fringe. The pointed cape-leave is set into the armhole with high, melon-puffs, and is braided with a braided design. The color is a deep ecru-plant purple, and the braiding is in black, gold and silver.

MARSHALL'S STATUE.

The Ceremony of Unveiling Will Take Place at the State Capitol. Secretary A. Cammelt of the State Board of Trade and one of the Commissioners appointed by the Governor in the erection of the monument to James W. Marshall took for Sacramento last night where he will meet the delegates to the Grand Parlor, N. S. G. W. The others who will be present at the unveiling to-morrow will leave for Sacramento

REDEEMER IDEAS

To Meet the Growing Predilection of Young Women.

A Pedestrian Costume That Is Neat—A Habit for the Bicycle Girl—A Very Pretty and Distigue Cape-Wrap.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

NEW YORK, April 28, 1890.—The growing predilection of young women for all manner of outdoor sports and occupations necessitates special costumes for different pursuits; and we present to our readers this week two novelties of this kind, which have just been perfected by Redfern from his own artistic designs. The first of these is a pedestrian costume suitable for the day's tramp on country road, or a stiff bit of mountain climbing, or even for a fishing trip. It is of English tweed, in a dark blue and tan, and is made with a straight pleated skirt and a full waist, finished with a leather belt. Redfern makes the skirt so that its length may be varied on occasion; and it has a wide facing on both sides of tan-colored leather, which prevents the skirt from becoming dragged and dampening the ankles. The latter, however, are still further protected by leather leggings. This is a soft, dark blue felt, in a plain shape, with a deep crown and a peacock feather on the side.

THE SOMERS DIVORCE.

A Motion to Dismiss the Appeal Denied by the Supreme Court. The suit of Isabel M. Somers against Calvin Somers for divorce was up on the Supreme Court yesterday, on appeal from the judgment of the District Court in San Francisco. The motion to dismiss the appeal was denied. It appears that the appellant is moving for a new trial, and that she has served a statement to be used on that motion in due time, but that it was never settled owing to the fact that the husband refused to sign the statement. The motion to dismiss was denied because it was a material part of the record of the appeal. The motion to dismiss was denied because it was a material part of the record of the appeal. The motion to dismiss was denied because it was a material part of the record of the appeal.

"FIXING" THE JUDGE.

George H. Maloney Testifies in His Own Defense. An investigation into the case of Frederick Hulse, the carpenter arrested for beating a woman, is being conducted by Judge Hulse. Maloney was present upon an attachment. He is a painter at 430 Seventh Street. He testified that he saw Hulse beating a woman, and that he was present upon an attachment.

THE CHINATOWN POLICE.

Sergeant Price and his Chinatown squad were relieved yesterday by Sergeant Kelly and Officers Shanahan, Green, Law, Dunne and P. L. Brown. As a result of Sergeant Kelly's work among the Chinese in Chinatown, the Chinatown police were relieved yesterday by Sergeant Kelly and Officers Shanahan, Green, Law, Dunne and P. L. Brown.

A RICH BROWN.

It is divided, but the pleats are so lapped that it is not perceptible, except in the increased ease and grace of the wearer. The body is fitted, and the waist is cut to the waist over an unbrocaded jupon waistcoat, above which appears a small black and white striped necktie. A Cape-Wrap. The last illustration is a very distinctive cape-wrap, whose braided points are finished by a deep fall of silk fringe. The pointed cape-leave is set into the armhole with high, melon-puffs, and is braided with a braided design. The color is a deep ecru-plant purple, and the braiding is in black, gold and silver.

MARSHALL'S STATUE.

The Ceremony of Unveiling Will Take Place at the State Capitol. Secretary A. Cammelt of the State Board of Trade and one of the Commissioners appointed by the Governor in the erection of the monument to James W. Marshall took for Sacramento last night where he will meet the delegates to the Grand Parlor, N. S. G. W. The others who will be present at the unveiling to-morrow will leave for Sacramento

REDEEMER IDEAS

To Meet the Growing Predilection of Young Women.

A Pedestrian Costume That Is Neat—A Habit for the Bicycle Girl—A Very Pretty and Distigue Cape-Wrap.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

NEW YORK, April 28, 1890.—The growing predilection of young women for all manner of outdoor sports and occupations necessitates special costumes for different pursuits; and we present to our readers this week two novelties of this kind, which have just been perfected by Redfern from his own artistic designs. The first of these is a pedestrian costume suitable for the day's tramp on country road, or a stiff bit of mountain climbing, or even for a fishing trip. It is of English tweed, in a dark blue and tan, and is made with a straight pleated skirt and a full waist, finished with a leather belt. Redfern makes the skirt so that its length may be varied on occasion; and it has a wide facing on both sides of tan-colored leather, which prevents the skirt from becoming dragged and dampening the ankles. The latter, however, are still further protected by leather leggings. This is a soft, dark blue felt, in a plain shape, with a deep crown and a peacock feather on the side.

THE SOMERS DIVORCE.

A Motion to Dismiss the Appeal Denied by the Supreme Court. The suit of Isabel M. Somers against Calvin Somers for divorce was up on the Supreme Court yesterday, on appeal from the judgment of the District Court in San Francisco. The motion to dismiss the appeal was denied. It appears that the appellant is moving for a new trial, and that she has served a statement to be used on that motion in due time, but that it was never settled owing to the fact that the husband refused to sign the statement. The motion to dismiss was denied because it was a material part of the record of the appeal. The motion to dismiss was denied because it was a material part of the record of the appeal. The motion to dismiss was denied because it was a material part of the record of the appeal.

"FIXING" THE JUDGE.

George H. Maloney Testifies in His Own Defense. An investigation into the case of Frederick Hulse, the carpenter arrested for beating a woman, is being conducted by Judge Hulse. Maloney was present upon an attachment. He is a painter at 430 Seventh Street. He testified that he saw Hulse beating a woman, and that he was present upon an attachment.

THE CHINATOWN POLICE.

Sergeant Price and his Chinatown squad were relieved yesterday by Sergeant Kelly and Officers Shanahan, Green, Law, Dunne and P. L. Brown. As a result of Sergeant Kelly's work among the Chinese in Chinatown, the Chinatown police were relieved yesterday by Sergeant Kelly and Officers Shanahan, Green, Law, Dunne and P. L. Brown.

A RICH BROWN.

It is divided, but the pleats are so lapped that it is not perceptible, except in the increased ease and grace of the wearer. The body is fitted, and the waist is cut to the waist over an unbrocaded jupon waistcoat, above which appears a small black and white striped necktie. A Cape-Wrap. The last illustration is a very distinctive cape-wrap, whose braided points are finished by a deep fall of silk fringe. The pointed cape-leave is set into the armhole with high, melon-puffs, and is braided with a braided design. The color is a deep ecru-plant purple, and the braiding is in black, gold and silver.

MARSHALL'S STATUE.

The Ceremony of Unveiling Will Take Place at the State Capitol. Secretary A. Cammelt of the State Board of Trade and one of the Commissioners appointed by the Governor in the erection of the monument to James W. Marshall took for Sacramento last night where he will meet the delegates to the Grand Parlor, N. S. G. W. The others who will be present at the unveiling to-morrow will leave for Sacramento

REDEEMER IDEAS

To Meet the Growing Predilection of Young Women.

A Pedestrian Costume That Is Neat—A Habit for the Bicycle Girl—A Very Pretty and Distigue Cape-Wrap.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

NEW YORK, April 28, 1890.—The growing predilection of young women for all manner of outdoor sports and occupations necessitates special costumes for different pursuits; and we present to our readers this week two novelties of this kind, which have just been perfected by Redfern from his own artistic designs. The first of these is a pedestrian costume suitable for the day's tramp on country road, or a stiff bit of mountain climbing, or even for a fishing trip. It is of English tweed, in a dark blue and tan, and is made with a straight pleated skirt and a full waist, finished with a leather belt. Redfern makes the skirt so that its length may be varied on occasion; and it has a wide facing on both sides of tan-colored leather, which prevents the skirt from becoming dragged and dampening the ankles. The latter, however, are still further protected by leather leggings. This is a soft, dark blue felt, in a plain shape, with a deep crown and a peacock feather on the side.

THE SOMERS DIVORCE.

A Motion to Dismiss the Appeal Denied by the Supreme Court. The suit of Isabel M. Somers against Calvin Somers for divorce was up on the Supreme Court yesterday, on appeal from the judgment of the District Court in San Francisco. The motion to dismiss the appeal was denied. It appears that the appellant is moving for a new trial, and that she has served a statement to be used on that motion in due time, but that it was never settled owing to the fact that the husband refused to sign the statement. The motion to dismiss was denied because it was a material part of the record of the appeal. The motion to dismiss was denied because it was a material part of the record of the appeal. The motion to dismiss was denied because it was a material part of the record of the appeal.

"FIXING" THE JUDGE.

George H. Maloney Testifies in His Own Defense. An investigation into the case of Frederick Hulse, the carpenter arrested for beating a woman, is being conducted by Judge Hulse. Maloney was present upon an attachment. He is a painter at 430 Seventh Street. He testified that he saw Hulse beating a woman, and that he was present upon an attachment.

THE CHINATOWN POLICE.

Sergeant Price and his Chinatown squad were relieved yesterday by Sergeant Kelly and Officers Shanahan, Green, Law, Dunne and P. L. Brown. As a result of Sergeant Kelly's work among the Chinese in Chinatown, the Chinatown police were relieved yesterday by Sergeant Kelly and Officers Shanahan, Green, Law, Dunne and P. L. Brown.

A RICH BROWN.

It is divided, but the pleats are so lapped that it is not perceptible, except in the increased ease and grace of the wearer. The body is fitted, and the waist is cut to the waist over an unbrocaded jupon waistcoat, above which appears a small black and white striped necktie. A Cape-Wrap. The last illustration is a very distinctive cape-wrap, whose braided points are finished by a deep fall of silk fringe. The pointed cape-leave is set into the armhole with high, melon-puffs, and is braided with a braided design. The color is a deep ecru-plant purple, and the braiding is in black, gold and silver.

MARSHALL'S STATUE.

The Ceremony of Unveiling Will Take Place at the State Capitol. Secretary A. Cammelt of the State Board of Trade and one of the Commissioners appointed by the Governor in the erection of the monument to James W. Marshall took for Sacramento last night where he will meet the delegates to the Grand Parlor, N. S. G. W. The others who will be present at the unveiling to-morrow will leave for Sacramento

REDEEMER IDEAS

To Meet the Growing Predilection of Young Women.

A Pedestrian Costume That Is Neat—A Habit for the Bicycle Girl—A Very Pretty and Distigue Cape-Wrap.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

NEW YORK, April 28, 1890.—The growing predilection of young women for all manner of outdoor sports and occupations necessitates special costumes for different pursuits; and we present to our readers this week two novelties of this kind, which have just been perfected by Redfern from his own artistic designs. The first of these is a pedestrian costume suitable for the day's tramp on country road, or a stiff bit of mountain climbing, or even for a fishing trip. It is of English tweed, in a dark blue and tan, and is made with a straight pleated skirt and a full waist, finished with a leather belt. Redfern makes the skirt so that its length may be varied on occasion; and it has a wide facing on both sides of tan-colored leather, which prevents the skirt from becoming dragged and dampening the ankles. The latter, however, are still further protected by leather leggings. This is a soft, dark blue felt, in a plain shape, with a deep crown and a peacock feather on the side.

THE SOMERS DIVORCE.

A Motion to Dismiss the Appeal Denied by the Supreme Court. The suit of Isabel M. Somers against Calvin Somers for divorce was up on the Supreme Court yesterday, on appeal from the judgment of the District Court in San Francisco. The motion to dismiss the appeal was denied. It appears that the appellant is moving for a new trial, and that she has served a statement to be used on that motion in due time, but that it was never settled owing to the fact that the husband refused to sign the statement. The motion to dismiss was denied because it was a material part of the record of the appeal. The motion to dismiss was denied because it was a material part of the record of the appeal. The motion to dismiss was denied because it was a material part of the record of the appeal.

"FIXING" THE JUDGE.

George H. Maloney Testifies in His Own Defense. An investigation into the case of Frederick Hulse, the carpenter arrested for beating a woman, is being conducted by Judge Hulse. Maloney was present upon an attachment. He is a painter at 430 Seventh Street. He testified that he saw Hulse beating a woman, and that he was present upon an attachment.

THE CHINATOWN POLICE.

Sergeant Price and his Chinatown squad were relieved yesterday by Sergeant Kelly and Officers Shanahan, Green, Law, Dunne and P. L. Brown. As a result of Sergeant Kelly's work among the Chinese in Chinatown, the Chinatown police were relieved yesterday by Sergeant Kelly and Officers Shanahan, Green, Law, Dunne and P. L. Brown.

A RICH BROWN.

It is divided, but the pleats are so lapped that it is not perceptible, except in the increased ease and grace of the wearer. The body is fitted, and the waist is cut to the waist over an unbrocaded jupon waistcoat, above which appears a small black and white striped necktie. A Cape-Wrap. The last illustration is a very distinctive cape-wrap, whose braided points are finished by a deep fall of silk fringe. The pointed cape-leave is set into the armhole with high, melon-puffs, and is braided with a braided design. The color is a deep ecru-plant purple, and the braiding is in black, gold and silver.

MARSHALL'S STATUE.

The Ceremony of Unveiling Will Take Place at the State Capitol. Secretary A. Cammelt of the State Board of Trade and one of the Commissioners appointed by the Governor in the erection of the monument to James W. Marshall took for Sacramento last night where he will meet the delegates to the Grand Parlor, N. S. G. W. The others who will be present at the unveiling to-morrow will leave for Sacramento

REDEEMER IDEAS

To Meet the Growing Predilection of Young Women.

A Pedestrian Costume That Is Neat—A Habit for the Bicycle Girl—A Very Pretty and Distigue Cape-Wrap.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

NEW YORK, April 28, 1890.—The growing predilection of young women for all manner of outdoor sports and occupations necessitates special costumes for different pursuits; and we present to our readers this week two novelties of this kind, which have just been perfected by Redfern from his own artistic designs. The first of these is a pedestrian costume suitable for the day's tramp on country road, or a stiff bit of mountain climbing, or even for a fishing trip. It is of English tweed, in a dark blue and tan, and is made with a straight pleated skirt and a full waist, finished with a leather belt. Redfern makes the skirt so that its length may be varied on occasion; and it has a wide facing on both sides of tan-colored leather, which prevents the skirt from becoming dragged and dampening the ankles. The latter, however, are still further protected by leather leggings. This is a soft, dark blue felt, in a plain shape, with a deep crown and a peacock feather on the side.

THE SOMERS DIVORCE.

A Motion to Dismiss the Appeal Denied by the Supreme Court. The suit of Isabel M. Somers against Calvin Somers for divorce was up on the Supreme Court yesterday, on appeal from the judgment of the District Court in San Francisco. The motion to dismiss the appeal was denied. It appears that the appellant is moving for a new trial, and that she has served a statement to be used on that motion in due time, but that it was never settled owing to the fact that the husband refused to sign the statement. The motion to dismiss was denied because it was a material part of the record of the appeal. The motion to dismiss was denied because it was a material part of the record of the appeal. The motion to dismiss was denied because it was a material part of the record of the appeal.

"FIXING" THE JUDGE.

George H. Maloney Testifies in His Own Defense. An investigation into the case of Frederick Hulse, the carpenter arrested for beating a woman, is being conducted by Judge Hulse. Maloney was present upon an attachment. He is a painter at 430 Seventh Street. He testified that he saw Hulse beating a woman, and that he was present upon an attachment.

THE CHINATOWN POLICE.

Sergeant Price and his Chinatown squad were relieved yesterday by Sergeant Kelly and Officers Shanahan, Green, Law, Dunne and P. L. Brown. As a result of Sergeant Kelly's work among the Chinese in Chinatown, the Chinatown police were relieved yesterday by Sergeant Kelly and Officers Shanahan, Green, Law, Dunne and P. L. Brown.

A RICH BROWN.

It is divided, but the pleats are so lapped that it is not perceptible, except in the increased ease and grace of the wearer. The body is fitted, and the waist is cut to the waist over an unbrocaded jupon waistcoat, above which appears a small black and white striped necktie. A Cape-Wrap. The last illustration is a very distinctive cape-wrap, whose braided points are finished by a deep fall of silk fringe. The pointed cape-leave is set into the armhole with high, melon-puffs, and is braided with a braided design. The color is a deep ecru-plant purple, and the braiding is in black, gold and silver.

MARSHALL'S STATUE.

The Ceremony of Unveiling Will Take Place at the State Capitol. Secretary A. Cammelt of the State Board of Trade and one of the Commissioners appointed by the Governor in the erection of the monument to James W. Marshall took for Sacramento last night where he will meet the delegates to the Grand Parlor, N. S. G. W. The others who will be present at the unveiling to-morrow will leave for Sacramento

REDEEMER IDEAS

To Meet the Growing Predilection of Young Women.

A Pedestrian Costume That Is Neat—A Habit for the Bicycle Girl—A Very Pretty and Distigue Cape-Wrap.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

NEW YORK, April 28, 1890.—The growing predilection of young women for all manner of outdoor sports and occupations necessitates special costumes for different pursuits; and we present to our readers this week two novelties of this kind, which have just been perfected by Redfern from his own artistic designs. The first of these is a pedestrian costume suitable for the day's tramp on country road, or a stiff bit of mountain climbing, or even for a fishing trip. It is of English tweed, in a dark blue and tan, and is made with a straight pleated skirt and a full waist, finished with a leather belt. Redfern makes the skirt so that its length may be varied on occasion; and it has a wide facing on both sides of tan-colored leather, which prevents the skirt from becoming dragged and dampening the ankles. The latter, however, are still further protected by leather leggings. This is a soft, dark blue felt, in a plain shape, with a deep crown and a peacock feather on the side.

THE SOMERS DIVORCE.

A Motion to Dismiss the Appeal Denied by the Supreme Court. The suit of Isabel M. Somers against Calvin Somers for divorce was up on the Supreme Court yesterday, on appeal from the judgment of the District Court in San Francisco. The motion to dismiss the appeal was denied. It appears that the appellant is moving for a new trial, and that she has served a statement to be used on that motion in due time, but that it was never settled owing to the fact that the husband refused to sign the statement. The motion to dismiss was denied because it was a material part of the record of the appeal. The motion to dismiss was denied because it was a material part of the record of the appeal. The motion to dismiss was denied because it was a material part of the record of the appeal.

"FIXING" THE JUDGE.

George H. Maloney Testifies in His Own Defense. An investigation into the case of Frederick Hulse, the carpenter arrested for beating a woman, is being conducted by Judge Hulse. Maloney was present upon an attachment. He is a painter at 430 Seventh Street. He testified that he saw Hulse beating a woman, and that he was present upon an attachment.

THE CHINATOWN POLICE.

Sergeant Price and his Chinatown squad were relieved yesterday by Sergeant Kelly and Officers Shanahan, Green, Law, Dunne and P. L. Brown. As a result of Sergeant Kelly's work among the Chinese in Chinatown, the Chinatown police were relieved yesterday by Sergeant Kelly and Officers Shanahan, Green, Law, Dunne and P. L. Brown.

A RICH BROWN.

It is divided, but the pleats are so lapped that it is not perceptible, except in the increased ease and grace of the wearer. The body is fitted, and the waist is cut to the waist over an unbrocaded jupon waistcoat, above which appears a small black and white striped necktie. A Cape-Wrap. The last illustration is a very distinctive cape-wrap, whose braided points are finished by a deep fall of silk fringe. The pointed cape-leave is set into the armhole with high, melon-puffs, and is braided with a braided design. The color is a deep ecru-plant purple, and the braiding is in black, gold and silver.

MARSHALL'S STATUE.

The Ceremony of Unveiling Will Take Place at the State Capitol. Secretary A. Cammelt of the State Board of Trade and one of the Commissioners appointed by the Governor in the erection of the monument to James W. Marshall took for Sacramento last night where he will meet the delegates to the Grand Parlor, N. S. G. W. The others who will be present at the unveiling to-morrow will leave for Sacramento

LADIES' COLORED KID GLOVES! LADIES' BLACK KID GLOVES! LADIES' COLORED TAFFETA GLOVES! LADIES' BLACK TAFFETA GLOVES! LADIES' PARASOLS AND RIBBONS! SPECIALLY LOW PRICES TO-DAY!

PARASOLS! 60 FANCY FIGURED SATIN PARASOLS, large size, trimmed with lace, regular value $1.25, will be offered at 50c. 40 LARGE SIZE LACE PARASOLS with steel frames, natural handles, good value for $1.25, will be offered at 75c. 50 EXTRA LARGE SIZE GLORIA SILK PARASOLS with agate handles, steel frames, value $1.50, will be offered at 75c.

RIBBONS. 300 pieces GROS-GRAIN, SATIN-EDGE AND MOIRE CROWN-EDGE ALL SILK RIBBON, all new shades, No. 9, will be offered at 12 1/2c. 400 pieces GROS-GRAIN AND CROWN-EDGE RIBBON, No. 12, in all new shades, will be offered at 15c. 200 pieces FANCY FLOWERED RIBBONS, all silk, regular value 50c, will be offered at 25c. 100 pieces WATERED AND STRIPED AND COMBINATION RIBBONS in all the latest