Meeting of Sportsmen Who Favor Game Protection.

Jack Dempsey Tires of Portland and Will Go to New York-Jimmy Carroll Leaves for the East-Tennis Notes.

The Sportmen's Protective Association met last night at K. R. B. Hall, on Mason and O'Far-rell streets. President Levi S. Peck in the chair. One hundred silver badges were ordered made. These will be worn by the members of the association in good standing. Messrs. Campbell, Gorham and Ohm were appointed a committee

Two thousand copies of an address to the sportsmen of California, explaining the objects of the association and inviting the formation and co-operation of country clubs, have been printed and were distributed to the members, who will forward them to their friends in the rural districts. The country journals will also be sup-

Branch Glubs Needed.

Owing to the manner in which the game laws are at present violated by hunters in the interior who persist in killing game birds and animals at all seasons of the year, it is deemed imperative that branches of the present association, with a membership of 450 in this city, be formed in every town and city of the State.

With sportsmen's clubs established in every town throughout the State the vandalism which is now being carried on by bide and game hunters in direct defiance of the game laws, would very soon come to an end, as the large rewards which would be offered by the association for the arrest and conviction of the violators would encourage sportsmen to go in pursuit of the poachers and bring them to justice. As matters stand at present there are no inducements offered by the State, or any sportsmen's club, for that matter, that would influence any man to arrest hunters found with game in their possession killéd during the close season.

VIEWS OF MEMBERS.

Mr. Stackpool spoke at length on the game question, and criticized severely the hunters who are now engaged in kiting mallard ducks in the marshes of Suisun and Alvarado. At this season of the year the birds are mating and breeding, and it is a very easy matter for hunters to kill the parent birds, which hover around their nests when disturbed by man or dog.

Messrs. Morgan, Locher, Kennedy and Ohm addressed the members on matters pertaining to fish and game. fish and game.

Messrs. Allen, Precht and Stackpool were appointed a committee on the distribution of cir-he names of all delinquent members will be read at the next meeting.

Members can now be accommodated with hunters' tickets at the ferry by showing their creden-tials at the ticket office. Several new members were admitted and the Secretary reported that the receipts of the evening amounted to $47 50.

A WRESTLER'S CHALLENGE.

Charles Green, the English heavy-weight wrestler, is now in Buffalo and is ready to meet any man in a match as catch-as-catch-can for $500 a side. New York paper dated April 29th says: George F. Slosson outdid all his recent practice records yesterday at the Columbia rooms by running out a game of 500 points in seven inning, averaging over 70. His closing run was a spiendid break of 360 points. Jacob Schaefer and Frank C. Ives started for the Pacific Coast. and Frank C. Ives started for the Pacific Coast on April 25th. On the way they will play exhibition games at various points, beginning at St. Paul. In San Francisco Schaefer will play the Coast champion, McCleery, at straight tail billiards for $2000 a side, Schaefer giving McCleery odds at discount. After the match the players will return by the northern route, arriving here in June. Soon after his return Ives intends to challenge Maggioli for another match.

Johnny, known as "Spider" Miller, the New York bantam, has issued a challenge to fight any 110-pound man in America for $500 a side and $500 purse money. This challenge ought to bring a reply from Danny Mahoney, who has an idea that he can whip any bantam fighter that lives.

Billy Murphy is now happy. He called at the office of the Police Gazette a few days ago and eccived the championship belt in the 118-pound class, so long held by Ike O'Neil Weir. Murphy eft a deposit to guarantee the safety of the emplem, and issued a formal challenge to and 118 or 120 pound man in the world for a purse of 12500.

ENGLISH OPINION OF PETTIT.

The London Field, in a long review of the tennis player Pettit and his style of play, concludes by saying: "Wherever the ball may chance to come Pettit's racket is there. With great rapidity he determines on his course of action, and instantly drives the ball over the net with great violence, so that none but the most active and waterful adversary can get near the ball before it falls. To a player with Pettit's certainty and swittness of return it matters little whether he makes one close or another. If he misjudges a ball he returns it behind his back, between his legs or tuder his arm. If a ball is anywhere within reach (for he is all over the court) it goes, over the net somehow or other, and when returned it goes over the net again, generally in a way that puzzles his adversary."

Jack Dempsey writes from Portland to a member of the California Club that he has made up his mind to visit New York, and will leave for the East about the middle of this month.

ATHLETIC TRAINING.

Malcolm W. Ford, the celebrated amateur athlete, has written several very interesting articles for a New York journal on athletic training, which have been of great value to beginners. Ford has had probably more experience in fooiracing thau any of the amateur athletes of America, and his advice is always sought after by representatives of the New York athletic clubs. As to the best way to train for a two-mile race, Ford says:

If there is no track in your town, go to a piece of ATHLETIC TRAINING.

As to the best way to train for a two-mile race, Ford says:

If there is no track in your town, go to a piece of road which may be level and practice running anywhere from one mile to three miles every day, being careful not to run too much. You might find a convenient place to stop, say about one mile from your starting place. You can rest there anywhere from fifteen minutes to half an hour, and then you can run back to your home and take a bath. The latter is not necessary, though, and should be indulged in only when you feel like it. A fiannel shirt and a light pair of trousers, with suitable shoes, should do for a costume for running on the road. A track would be a better place to practice on, but if you have perseverance the road would do almost as well. Vary your distance every day and run fast very seldom. It is the slow runs which build one up, while a fast pace continually used wears one out. Your own judgment must be used in determining how much work to do or how fast to run in practice. If a friend will go with you simply for the sake of his company and occasionally time you, your work will be more agreeable than if you went alone. If you find a feeling of lassitude coming over you caused by hot weather or too much running, you must go very easy. Ease up in your work during the last week and regulate your thirst as well as you can so as not to drink too much, for a distance runner should have rather a dry diet. Get plenty of sieep and engage in nothing which tends to excitement and worriment. You should run every day, but vary distance and speed in accordance with your feelings. ment. You should run every day, but vary dis-meet and speed in accordance with your feelings.

A CHANCE FOR SULLIVAN. In case Sullivan should fail to meet Peter Jackson or Joe McAuliffe in the ring, a man has been discovered in Russia who offers to tackle the great John L. in an eating contest for any amount of money the American may name. Only a few days ago the Russian, for a wager, consumed the hind custer of a large or in twenty. sumed the hind quarter of a large ox in twenty-four-hours, together with 24 pounds of fat and a porportionate quantity of metted butter. Later on he ate a mixture of boiled rice and butter, weighing together 28 pounds.

It is prefly evident O'Connor was getting impatient at the dodging around of the Australian scullers. On April 8th he announced that the claimed the championship, and if his challenge to row for the title was not accepted he would sail on the 22d inst. for America. This eviden'ly brought Stansbury's backers to terms and a race was arranged for June 23d.

The Clasper-built boat and the sculls used by Searle in his race with O'Connor on the Thames arrived at Sydney, New South Wales, on February 15th, and were taken to the Mercantile Club's shed. It is said the boat and sculls will be presented by Messrs. Spencer to the Government of the colony, to be placed in the museum as a lasting memento to the young champion, whose practice boat, the James Yates, has been presented to Mr. Searle Sr. by the Spencers.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Prince of Wales will be present at the great tennis match which will be played at Dublin, Ireland, on the 26th lnst. between Pettit of on and Saunders of England for the world's Boston and Saunders of England for the world's championship.

In an athletic club meeting held at a suburban brandy-shop, the owner, William Tuerk, aged 33, proved himself to be the strongest man in Vienna. He used a pair of dumb-bells weighing 136 pounds apiece, lifted an iron bar weighing 160 pounds with one hand and swung it over his head, and raised above his head an Iron bar weighing 300 pounds. He also raised a cask of water and sand weighing 177 pounds, taking it at the narrow edge round the bottom. Similar feats have never before been accomplished in Vienna.

its way across town it attracted the attention of people on the streets, and was quite a curiosity at police headquarters. THE POLITICAL PUDDLE. Temporary Organization of Democratic Precent Clubs.

The Democratic County Committee met last night at the rooms on Market street, with Max Popper in the chair and J. H. Long as Secretary, to complete arrangements for to-day's enrollment and tempo rary organization of the precinct clubs. The roll-call showed thirty-one delegates present out of a total of sixty-one on the list. The resignation of John J. Tyrrell of the Forty-first District was accepted. F. J. McDermott of the Forty-sixth District complained that the 200 good sound Democratic votes in his district had not been properly recognized in the representation on the Enrolling Committee. The location of the public places in sales heat rooms was polling-places in saloon back rooms was also objected to by the speaker.

C. A. Buckley's motion that each precinct in each district be given representation, if not already represented, was carried, and Mr. McDermott was made correspondingly happy.

Changes in the location of polling-places in several districts were made. The Secretary was instructed, on motion by C. A. suckley, to issue supplementary enrolling lists to all precincts applying for them.

After representatives from the Fortyeighth District had had a lively discussion as to where certain precincts should be polled, the meeting adjourned.

LIBRARY GUARANTORS.

The Trustees Will Force Them to Pav for Lost Books. At the meeting of the Free Library Trustees last evening, Librarian Cheney explained that since November, 1887, when he assumed charge, the loss of books in two sections of the library had been found, by investigation, to aggregate eighty-six volumes, or a possible loss in the entire library of 600 books.

There were formerly three methods by which loss of books was entailed: First, those taken out on cards and unreturned; second, those taken out on duplicate doorchecks, made by splitting the pasteboard check used, and third, those stolen by employes. The latter cause Mr. Cheney regarded as very slight indeed. Since the introduction of brass checks, the second cause has been overcome. The main difficulty still remains, viz., the loss by cards.

Of the eighty-six volumes lost, fifty-eight were by this means, and Mr. Cheney suggested to the board that it take measures to compel guarantors to pay the value of lost books. The three lawyers on the board thought it might be well to enforce the thought it might be well to enforce the library's claims through the courts, and besides recovering the money due the library force the guarantors to pay more money as costs. With this idea in view, the matter was referred to the Book Committee, with power to act.

The branch librarians were directed to prepare complete lists of the books under their charge for use in the main library.

A set of rules regulating the forfeiture of pay by employes for absence and the compensation of substitutes was reported by Trustee Joseph O'Connor, and, after considerable discussion, was easily referred to siderable discussion, was again referred to the special committee having it in charge.

Augustus Laver was allowed $150 for services as architect in fitting up the new library, and demands amounting to $3033 90 were audited.

The speaker maintained that civilized men were justifiable in taking the country from these savages, to extend the influence of civilization and Christianity, and to make room for the teeming millions of Christendom. The "bush-rangers," who for long after the arrival of Captain Phillips made the country dangerous with their bloody robberies, had now disappeared entirely. Next were described by

A DIAMOND TRANSACTION.

Suit to Recover Money Paid for Some of the Precious Stones. Suit was begun in the Superior Court yesterday by George M. Perine against A. W. Stott to recover $2000 and to cancel an agreement between the parties. It is alleged that on August 27, 1889, it was agreed that the defendant would sell to the plain-tiff two diamond ear-rings for which $3000 would be paid in installments of $500, it bediamonds should be submitted to him for his opinion as to their value. If the father gave it as his opinion that the diamonds were of less value than $3000 the plaintiff should have the option within a reasonable time thereafter to cancel said agreement, and defendant would upon the delivery of the diamonds return all sums that had been Perine's father upon his return said that the diamonds were not worth over $1400. At this time plaintiff had paid $2000. On the 29th of last month he visited Stott and expressed his dissatisfaction with the bargain and requested the return of the $2000 in exchange for the diamonds. Stott re-fused to pay over the money, hence the suit.

Awful Blood Humor

I contracted a terrible blood-poisoning a year ago. I doctored with two good physicians, neither of whom did me any good. I suffered all a man can suffer and live. Hearing of your CUTICURA REME-DIES I concluded to try them, knowing if they did me no good they could make me no worse. I have been using them about ten weeks, and am most happy to say that I am almost rid of the awful sores that covered my face and body. My face was as bad if not worse, than that of Miss Boynton, spoken of n your book, and I would say to any one in the same ondition, to use CUTICURA, and they will surely be cured. A Grateful Mother

I thank you for your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and eel that in doing so I might be able to save some person from a heavy doctor's bill, which I know it has done for me. My baby was seven weeks old when I began to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES for a ease which had spread itself all over its head and face. I was nearly distracted; had been to the doctor's, but got no satisfaction. Before two days' use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES the scabs began to osen, and in three weeks I could hardly believe that it was the baby I used to dread people seeing. He is perfectly cured, and has a beautiful growth of hair coming. I am very grateful to you. MRS. GEO. MOREMAN.

It spread all over my head, and my hair him to the Massena Sulphur Springs, but he did not the other, and I was in a hopeless condition. After all fell out, until I was entirely bald-headed; it then broke out on my arms and shoulders, until my arms of dollars, from which I got no relief whatever, I was were just one sore. It covered my entire body, my face, head and shoulders being the worst. The white scabs fell constantly from my head, shoulders and arms; the skin would thicken and be red and very itchy, and would crack and bleed if scratched After spending many hundreds of dollars, I was pronounced incurable. I heard of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using two bottles CUTICURA RESOLVENT, I could see a change; and after I had taken four bottles, I was almost cured; and when I had used six bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT and one box of Cuticura, and one cake of Cuticura Soap, I was cured of the dreadful disease from which I had suffered for five years. I thought the disease would leave a very deep scar, but the CUTICUBA REMEDIES cured it without any scars. I cannot express with a pen what I suffered before using the CUTICURA REMEDIES. They saved my life, and I feel it my duty to recommend them. My hair is restored as good as ever, and so is my eyesight. I know of others who have received great benefit

MRS. ROSA KELLY, Rockwell City, Iowa.

Almost a Solid Scab I used two bottles of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, three boxes of CUTICURA, and one cake of CUTI CURA SOAP, and am cured of a terrible skin and scalp disease known as psoriasis. I had it for eight years. It would get better and worse at times. Sometimes my head would be a solid scab, and was at the time I began the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. My arms were covered with scabs from my elbows to shoulders, my breast was almost one solid scab, and my back covered with sores varying in size from a penny to a dollar. I had doctored with all the best doctors with no relief, and used many different medicines without effect. My case was hereditary, and I began to think incurable, but it began to heal from the first application.

Raw with Eczema

I am cured of a loathsome disease, eczema, in its vorst stage. I tried different doctors and hear through the hospital, but all to no purpose. The disease covered my whole body from the top of my head to the soles of my feet. My hair all came out, leaving me a complete raw sore. After trying everything I heard of your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using three bottles of CUTICURA RESOLV-ENT, with CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP, I find myself cured at the cost of about $6. I would not be without the CUTICURA REMEDIES in my house. ISAAC H. GERMAN, Wurtsboro, N. Y.

One Mass of Sores

I have been afflicted with a sore limb, which the doctors called eczema. My limb from the knee to the foot was one mass of running sores. The doctors bandaged it every day for a week, and every time the bandage was removed a large scab would come off, and the blood pour down. I got one bottle of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, one box CUTICURA, and one cake Cuticura Soap, and they cured me. I told a lady who was similarly afflicted to use it, and it cured her also. I gratefully acknowledge that it was Cuticura that cured me MRS. KATE BEARD, Orange Valley, N. J.

Unbearable Itching

I have been afflicted since last March with a skin lisease the doctors called Eczema. My face was covered with scabs and sores, and the itching and urning were almost unbearable. I call myself cured, in gratitude for which I make this public statement. MRS. C. A. FREDERICK, Broad Brook, Conn.
