

A CAUSE FOR REMORSE
Favoritism in Advertising for Supplies
Waterman Pours His Wrath on the Heads of the Asylum Directors.

Conviction of a Murderer on Circumstantial Evidence—Trouble Between Washington Farmers—Fired His House.

Special by the California Associated Press.
STOCKTON, May 9.—At a meeting of the Board of Asylum Directors to-day the Secretary read the following letter from Governor Waterman:

My attention has been called to the manner in which advertisements are framed and issued in relation to furnishing supplies for the institution for which you are Secretary. It seems you request competition in bidding for supplies, but when the market on general sale, but which are in the individual possession of a certain house against which there is no competition, the system is wrong, pernicious, by no means honorable, and is certainly unjust and unfair, and must no longer be practiced. I can't afford to have discredit upon my administration by such an unwarrantable act of the character of the advertisement in question. You have an opportunity of bidding for the supplies of the asylum or any other public institution, but must be extracted from the hands of those who happen to be possessed of a particular brand of merchandise, let the character be what it may. Yours, respectfully, R. W. WATERMAN, GOVERNOR.

THE WAR NOT OVER.
Highlanders in Los Angeles Threaten to Sack the City with Death.

LOS ANGELES, May 9.—The Chinaman announced to be fatally shot in the riot last night died this morning. The other wounded man is in a critical condition. The coroner's jury brought in a verdict of death from a gunshot wound fired by a person or persons unknown. Even more than usual quiet prevailed in the city this morning, but it was not without the fact that the Chinese theater was not running. Ah Mo, the proprietor of this institution, had signed his intention of keeping open as usual, but certain movements on the part of the enemy, a faction under Wong Chee, caused him to alter his determination and the theater remained closed.

The first move on the part of the Wong Chee faction was signaled by the hoisting of a large triangular crimson-colored flag of a peculiar design on the mast over the two-story building in the city. This was done at 10 o'clock this morning. The flag was hoisted by a person or persons unknown. The flag was a large triangular crimson-colored flag of a peculiar design on the mast over the two-story building in the city. This was done at 10 o'clock this morning. The flag was hoisted by a person or persons unknown.

The society number of about 230 Chinamen, many of them highlanders. Letters received from San Diego state that more than a week ago a case containing two dozen of 45-caliber revolvers and a number of cartridges was manufactured after the Oriental custom, by many layers of paper, were shipped from San Diego to Los Angeles. It was also reported that a dozen or more highlanders might be expected to arrive in the city.

Acting on this information, Ah Mo withdrew his place and sent spies into the camp of the enemy. The spies reported that a meeting was in progress, and that July 12th was the day for the attack. Wong Chee cannot be found to-night, but the members of the opposing faction claim to have seen him in the city. He is believed to be in the city. He is believed to be in the city. LOCAL POLITICS.
More Rows in Democratic Precinct Clubs.

The Republicans Beginning to Move—Nationalists in the Field—Labor's Rights.

The usual rows characterized the proceedings in the Forty-eighth District. In this section Arthur Nagle and John Collins were the principal contestants for supremacy, a victory meaning recognition as a local boss and controller of patronage.

The first disturbance occurred early in the evening in the Seventh Precinct, at Dolores and Twenty-ninth streets. Here as elsewhere a large number of hoodlums, rounders and ruffians were imported from the four quarters of the city to do the dirty work of the Collins crowd. Eugene O'Donnell, one of the number, attempted to head the mob, but was opposed by Michael Cullin, an old man, and a resident of the neighborhood.

The latter refused to be bullied by the mob and attempted to denounce them. In the instant the two factions started to fight, and a healthy row ensued. It was becoming very serious when Police Officers T. W. Tompkins and Thomas Leroux appeared on the scene, and by a liberal application of the locust as well as by ejecting the ring leaders, stopped the fight.

IMPORTATIONS ON HAND.
The election then proceeded, but was several times interrupted by the arrival of State and Municipal Conventions. There were 109 votes cast, of which 70 were for the following ticket put up by Collins: President, P. J. Anrock; Vice-President, J. J. Anrock; Secretary, J. J. Anrock; Treasurer, J. J. Anrock.

FIRE AT LOS GATOS.
The absence of a Heavy Wind Saves a Business Block.

LOS GATOS, May 9.—Last night, about 9 o'clock, a fire was directed in the neighborhood of the Women's Christian Temperance Union in the Gibson Block. The fire started in a room on the second floor, and spread rapidly, but was extinguished by the fire department.

SACRAMENTO.
A Change in the Dove Season—Forgot to Change Cards.

SACRAMENTO, May 9.—General Bidwell and Colonel Dickie addressed 150 people here to-night on behalf of the Prohibition League. The meeting was held in the city hall, and was attended by a large number of people.

LABORER'S FIELD.
One Deserter Has Returned to the Rison Iron Works.

An Interesting Meeting Between Captain Taylor and President Valentine—Five Molders Sent East.

The six molders who left the Rison Iron Works on Thursday and joined the strikers were recaptured in number five yesterday, owing to the fact that one, George Schneider, had returned to the shop and had convinced the others to do so.

His return was a source of congratulation on the part of the strikers, and the moral effect it would have upon the men working in the shops, in the same degree as it caused the strikers to feel that they were not alone in their struggle.
