CRUEL PARENTS Refuse to Sanction the Marriage

of a Young Couple.

" Where can we find a Justice of the Peace?" hurriedly asked a slim young man, dressed in a suit of blue corduroy, and accompanied by a bewitching young lady, of Constable Haley this " Right this way," waved the obliging officer.

Justice Gass' court-room was entered, the Judge called from his chambers, and to his Honor the young gentleman explained that he was in need of a marriage ceremony, and that in a very short time, as the train left for San Francisco in a few marter. The Judge's chambers were cleared and a happy little group left within the room. Happy because Judge Gass' countenance always wears a kind and fatherly smile when he is binding the legal ties for the young; the clerk is always happy, and the reporter was happy because he happy that the strength and the new that it was a runaway match and the undation of an item.
The license was produced and the little ceremony performed with unction. Then did the groom and bride take one long, lingering, delicious, soul-inspiring kiss. The reporter thought that they were not going to let up, and casually remarked after a few minutes that the train would leave for San Francisco to-day. The clasp was relaxed, the bride gave a sigh of reflef and congratulations followed.

The bride was diversed in an elegant costume.

was relaxed, the bride gave a sigh of relief and congratulations followed.

The bride was diessed in an elegant costume of bine satin, was prettily formed and had an inspiring face—not handsome, but open, free and pleasant. The groom gave his name as Henry William Little, and that of the bride as Maggie M. Gibson, stating also that they were from Westport, Menticelino County, where the relatives live, and where the strenuous objection to the marriage was raised which made it necessary to travel 250 miles to be married.

The sealette jacket was placed around the well-shaped shoulders of the fair young bride and a departure commenced. It was only commenced, however, for a gentie hint was dropped by a bystander that the court might just as well be paid for the trouble. The groom had no Intention of leaving the court unremunerated, however, we have the stream of the paid of the paid for the trouble. tention of leaving the court unremunerated, however, and a fee was dropped. Agrush was made for the San Francisco train and the happy couple left the city.— San Jose Herald, May 26th.

KILLED BY APACHES.

A Los Angeles Attorney Murdered in Arizona Territory.

The murder of Robert Hardie, the Los Angeles attorney, by a band of Apache Indians at Rucker Canyon, Ariz., was reported officially yesterday at army head quarters in this city.

The Indian murderers are the same who attempted the life of the San Carlos agent in June, 1887, and were tried by a military court and sentenced to ten years' imprisonment in the Fort Leavenworth peniten-tiary, but were removed to Alcatraz in January, 1888. They were released in the following October and sent back to Arizona, where the civil authorities sentenced them to death. White on their way to Yuma prison, last November, in charge of Sheriff Reynolds and a guard, they killed Reynolds and escaped to Mexico, where they have since committed numerous murders and depredations. There are only eight of them at large, and they managed to secure arms from their victims. Attorney Hardie is the first man killed by them in the United States since last November. Major-General Miles issued an order yes-terday to all the posts in Arizona to pursue and capture or destroy the Indians. An Green-Street Congregational Sunday School Festival. The thirty-first anniversary of the Greenstreet Congregational Sunday-school was commemorated Sunday evening. A very interesting programme, suited to the occa sion, was rendered by the Sunday-school. The church was beautifully decorated in celebration of the day, there being a great profusion of flowers and evergreens The master-piece consisted of an arch, above which was a banner, and underneath a cross. These were gradually uncovered during a pretty and well-prepared part taken by eleven young girls, revealing the words, "Work and Trust Our Leager, the Lord Jesus Christ." The sweet singing of the Sunday-school children contributed greatly to the success of the exercises which were closed by the distribution of prizes, reports of officers, and a short but interesting address by the pastor, Rev. H. H. Wikoff, in which he congratulated the Sunday-school on its prosperity during the past

ALL IN ORDER.

Mrs. Marie Peters Turns the Tables Upon Her Brother. Mrs. Marie Peters obtained from Judge Coffey on the 7th inst. an order on her brother, William C. Hildebrandt, executor of the will of their brother, Louis G. C. Hildebrandt, to pay to her at once her share of the estate of the deceased. Her portion is valued at about $3500. The estate is worth $16,000, and the greater part of it is in Germany, where the brother died in November, 1888. The executor then secured an order on her to show cause why the first order should not be va-cated, because notice had not been served This matter was heard yesterday, and Judge Coffey confirmed the order granted Mrs. Peters. That lady afterward secured an order requiring the executor to show cause why his indebtedness to the estate should not be determined.

CHARLES ROSS' ESTATE.

Claim Be Reduced. Mrs. Martha Ross, executrix of the will of Charles Ross, who died in October last, has informed Judge Coffey that a claim of Louis Hartter against the estate for $1467 99. and which she allowed in full, should have been only $679 05. She therefore has asked that Hartter be required to show cause why the figures should not be changed. Harter, who is a grocer at 50 Second street, held mining stocks of the Gould & Curry, Hale & Norcross, Savage and eight other companies as collateral security for allowances made to Ross thereon. The exact triveles are not to the there was the contract of the contract o ecutrix also reports that Hartter sold the stock for $1840, and has absolutely refused to turn over to her more than $373, holding the balance to secure his own demand. She asks that he be called on to render a full account of his transactions with the deceased. The matter will be heard on Mon-

Not Subject to Garnishment. Yesterday Judge Puterbaugh rendered a decision on a question of interest to attaching creditors. One Ehring was taken before Justice Sloane on a criminal charge, and released on depositing $50 cash to secure his appearance when wanted. Ehring's creditor garnisheed the money in the hands of Justice Sloane. Afterward Ehring tendered a bail bond, which Justice Sloane and satisfactions. tice Sloane accepted and returned Ehring the $50. An action was brought against Justice Sloane for the $50 before Justice Hayes, who found for Justice Sloane. An appeal was taken, and Judge Puterbaugh decided that a Justice of the Peace is authorized by law to take a deposit of money, and that when so taken it is in the hands of the law, and is not subject to garnishment.—San Diego Sun, May 24th.

A Young Girl Goes Astray. Alice Tobin was arrested last evening on the complaint of her father, G. J. Tobin of Petaluma, and locked up at the Central Station on a charge of vagrancy. About a year ago she ran away from her home and came to this city to earn her own living, which she did by serving beer in various dives. The father claims that the girl is under age, while she maintains that she is 19 years old. The girl is in a very delicate condition. The father is said to possess considerable means in Sonoma County.

THE BIG COUNT.

The Census Districts Completed. Commencing Work on Monday.

The new Census Supervisor, William H. Davis has issued a call to all the newly appointed census enumerators to meet in Room 44 of the Appraiser's Building on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The object of the meeting is to give them their final instructions for the work they are to do.

The work of taking the census will commence next Monday morning, and in San Francisco will all be completed within two weeks from the time of starting. In the country districts, however, the enumerators are allowed the full month of The Supervisorial District of San Francisc comprises this city and the counties of San Mateo, Santa Clara and Marin. This city is divided into 310 enumerator's districts, and the outside counties are divided into forty-eight districts. There is an enumerator appointed for each district. The number and character of questions to be asked are much greater and more vacted than those of the tenth census. An effort is being made this time to have the census provide statisics on many subjects that are really foreign to a mere count of the people. Considerable trouble and perhaps a good deal of prevarication is expected from the asking of questions that ply into the private affairs of people a good deal more than most people care about. It is expected that the enumerators will carry a Sunday-school temper with them in their work so as not to be disturbed when told to mind their own business a dozen or so times each day. However, the enumerator is obliged to ask the questions, and it anybody refuses to answer he is required to report the refusal and the stubborn person will at once be arrested and fined.

The maximum fine for refusing to answer the questions but by a census enumerator is $30. The enumerators receive from 2 cents to 3 cents for each name they take and additional compensation for the other questions asked and answered. The enumerators will make about $5 per day while at the work. Each enumerator in San Francisco is also furnished with a sort of certificate printed in Chinese characters and bearing the seal of the Chinese Consulate-General.

It is a notification from the Consul to his countrymen that the questions asked by the enumerators are "all right" and must be answered. The enumerators are supposed to The work of taking the census will be in a much shorter time this year than it was ten years ago.

THE SCHOOL CENSUS. Half the City Canvassed, With Only s Slight Loss. Already half of the city has been can vassed by the school census marshals, and out of 60,642 children returned last year 30,990 have been found. The total loss, as compared with last year, is 314 for the same From this fact Superintendent of Schools Anderson, who is Chief Census Marshal, believes that the same number of children as last year will be returned, with the prob abilities in favor of a slight increase. On the original returns for about half the city the total loss has been 784 children, which if continued in the same ratio, would have caused a falling off of 1500 children. The districts where the losses were more noteworthy have been recanvassed by ex-perts, with the result that up to Saturday night 470 of the lost children were recov ered, which means a gain of $4230 to the School Department at a cost of $150 for the experts. At the Presidio there was a loss of 32, caused by the recent departure of the officers and their families. At the Potrero there was a loss of 302, due to the cessation of ship-building. In the Superintendent hopes to regain some of the losses. This course is being pursued in the Eighth, Eleventh and Twelfth wards, where small losses occurred.

A contract of marriage was filed in the Recorder's office yesterday which unites F. K. Blue and Gertrude F. Michener in the bonds of matrimony as firmly under the law as if their union had been according to the usual custom. Blue is 24 years old and a resident of this city, while his bride has seen nineteen summers and resides in Ala-meda County. The document asserts that good and sufficient reasons exist for the contract form of marriage being resorted to. The witnesses were Mrs. M. C. Richardson and N. A. McKenzie.

Safely Through the Country.

Of the Chinese on the steamer Belgic, twenty-six were landed on Saturday and eight more yesterday, all having proper papers. Besides these, eighteen were landed who are in transit for Havana. These last were sent overland by rail to Key West, Fla., and from there will be transferred by steamer to Havana. The work of watching these and making sure that none stay in Uncle Sam's dominions is a matter of some moment. First, they were required to furnish bonds to the amount of $200 that they will traverse the country in good faith, and leave it at the country in good faith, and leave it at the other end. Then each was given a certificate that on its face contains a description of him in English, and on its back voluminous instructions printed in Chinese characters for his guidance on his travels.

Upon arrival at Key West the certificates are surrendered to the Customs official there after the dered to the Customs official there after the Chinese are on board the steamer for Ha-vana. This official compares each Chinaman with the description in his certificate, and if they tally he marks the certificate "O. K." and sends it back to San Francisco. Upon its return here the bonds are can-celed and the sureties released from further responsibility.

Ho Sie Chew, one of the Chinese released from the steamer China on habeas corpus, was yesterday remanded by Commissioner McAllister.

Four women, all told The first told how much easier it was to wash with Pearline. She saved half her labor, and the work was better done. The second told how much longer the clothes lasted, since she'd used Pearline. The rubbing that wore them out wasn't necessary. The next told how many things she did with it; she washed the kitchen floor, or the finest china-the most delicate lace, or the coarsest fabric. Whatever she did with it, she saved money by it.

The fourth told of the harmlessness of Pearline. She had used it for ten years, and she knew nothing that was washable could be hurt by it.

These are only four out of millions who use Pearline, but the others say the same things and more. Try it yourself; then you can tell about it.

Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, do the honest thing—send it back. 181 JAMES PYLE, New York.

WHAT IS SAPOLIO? It is a solid, handsome cake of scouring scap, which has no equal for all scouring purposes except the laundry. To use it is to value it.

What will SAPOLIO do? Why, it will clean paint, make cil-cloths bright, and give the floors, tables and shelves a new appearance. It will take the grease off the dishes and off pots and pans. You can scour the knives and forks with it, and make the tin things shine brightly. The wash-basin, the bath-tub, even the greasy kitchen sink will be as clean as a new pin if you use SAPOLIO.
