

A HURRICANE'S FURY

Buildings Wrecked and Lives Lost at Sofia.

The Czar Promises to Investigate the Siberian Outrages.

Vandalism That Excited the Indignation of Venice—The Plot of the Nihilists.

Special Dispatches to THE MORNING CALL. SOFIA, June 1.—The northern part of this city has been wrecked by a hurricane. The loss of life is considerable. The soldiers killed and wounded numbered eleven. The loss among the inhabitants has not yet been ascertained. The damage to the palace amounts to $30,000.

Nihilist Plot. Discovery of a Conspiracy for a General Uprising in Russia.

PARIS, June 1.—In connection with the case of the arrested nihilists, it is reported that several of the conspirators were to-day to provide for a concerted attempt on the life of the Czar and a simultaneous uprising in all the provinces. It is said that several of the conspirators cannot be convicted on the charge of manufacturing explosives, but will be expelled from the country.

VENICE AROUSED. Popular Indignation Excited Against the Authorities.

LONDON, June 1.—The Syndicate of Venice aroused popular indignation by modernizing and consequently vandalizing, the square of San Marco, in front of the cathedral of that name, by the erection of a few feet of iron and steel. The improvements necessitate the removal of many objects of interest because their ancient origin and historic associations.

CAPE COLONY LEPEERS. Legislation Demanded to Check the Rapid Spread of the Disease.

LONDON, June 1.—Leprosy has increased to such an extent at Cape Colony that a hospital for lepers has been founded. Other hospitals will be needed to deal with the evil. Legislation is also demanded for the suppression of leprosy. Six lepers were lately arrested for begging in the streets of the Cape Colony.

MONOPOLIES FOR THE GERMANS. Dr. Peters Secures Valuable Treaties With King Mwanga.

ZANZIBAR, June 1.—Advices from French missionaries in Zanzibar date of March 6, to the effect that Mwanga had been defeated and had fled, and that Mwanga was in complete possession of the whole kingdom. Dr. Peters has secured valuable treaties and monopolies in favor of the Germans.

PANAMA CANAL. Instructions to Negotiate for a Continuance of the Colombian Government Concessions.

PARIS, June 1.—M. Wye has started from Southampton on a mission connected with the Panama Canal. Mouchout, the liquidator of the Panama Canal Company, is instructed to proceed to Cartagena to negotiate for a prolongation of the canal concession.

NICARAGUA. Senior Moderate Parties Resign as Minister of the Interior and Go to London.

MANAGUA (Nicaragua), June 1.—Senior Moderate Davies has resigned his post as minister of the interior and has returned to London. The government has appointed the former as minister for Nicaragua in London.

THE SIBERIAN SCANDALS. A Strict Inquiry and Measures of Reform Promoted by the Czar.

LONDON, June 1.—A letter from the Czar, written in reply to one from the Queen of Denmark, is published. In his letter the Czar promises to make a strict inquiry into the Siberian scandals and to refer the matter to the Ministers to draft measures for amelioration.

COFFEE-DRINKERS' TAX. It All Goes for the Erection of a Magnificent Theater.

SAN JOSE (Costa Rica), June 1.—Congress has established an export duty on coffee of 20 cents per kilo to defray the expenses of building a national theater in this city. The estimated cost of the structure is $500,000.

FRENCH DERBY. The Jockey Club Prize Won by Rothschild's Colt Hamsa.

PARIS, June 1.—The jockey club prize (the French Derby) to-day at Chantilly was won by Baron Rothschild's chestnut colt Hamsa, by Hermit, dam Bella.

Another Mexican Railroad Opened. City of Mexico Celebrates the Inter-oceanic Railroad Branch from Puebla to Matamoros and Izuel was opened to traffic, with appropriate ceremonies yesterday.

Ensempment of Count Herbert Bismarck. Countess of the Crown Prince and her correspondent says Count Herbert Bismarck is engaged to the eldest daughter of Lady Dudley.

Fatal Fight With Smugglers. London, June 1.—Six smugglers and one officer have been killed in a conflict at Povo de Varzim.

McAuliffe Challenged by Slavin. London, June 1.—Slavin has challenged McAuliffe to fight for a purse of $5000.

Aerostat Drowned. Stockholm, June 1.—Rolla, the para-chute, was drowned at sea.

PIERCE'S WAR SECRETARY. The Quarrel and Adequacy That Marked Mr. Davis' Departure.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The Chronicle says that the details seem more fitted for the pages of a romance than of history. The quarrel was about the staff organization, always something of a "fad" with Mr. Davis. The United States system was then, and substantially is now, that of the French. It had worked remarkably well in the Mexican War, and its superiority over the British system had just been completely demonstrated in the Crimea. Yet Secretary Davis vehemently urged a complete change to a system somewhat like that of the British, but Congress refused to consent. In his appointments which Confederate President Jefferson Davis had made, Davis had been very liberal in his appointments, and his appointments were very liberal in their appointments. The staff officers of the

PAINTED THE TOWN.

Outrageous Doings of Harvard Students.

Murder of an Acrobat Named Murdoch at Chicago.

A Pugilist Who Had to Be Carried From the Ring—A Policeman's Desperate Encounter With Rogues.

THE SUGAR TRAFFIC.

An Expert's Exceptions to the Provisions of the House Bill.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Henry A. Brown of Massachusetts, a well-known sugar expert and political economist, has addressed an open letter to the members of the Finance Committee, taking strong grounds against House Trade Bill sugar schedule. Brown fortifies his statements with official data, facts and deductions, which he presents concisely and with great force. He shows that instead of out of 10 per cent of sugar annually consumed in this country being produced here, as some have claimed, only one per cent is produced in the United States last year, and that the proportion of American sugar to the total consumption is less than that of the United States last year, and that the proportion of American sugar to the total consumption is less than that of the United States last year, and that the proportion of American sugar to the total consumption is less than that of the United States last year.

Special Dispatches to THE MORNING CALL. BOSTON, June 1.—Harvard University today witnessed the crowning outrage, at the hands of its untamed students, yesterday's victories over Yale at New York and Mott Haven having turned the boys' heads.

After wild hurrahing and a carousal last night, a band of unknown vandals started out to deface the college and neighboring portions of the city crimson. They procured a large amount of red paint and smeared it all over everything. Private houses had windows, doors, walls and stone steps marked in huge red letters "Harvard 9, Yale 8." The base-ball race yesterday. The handsome bronze statue of John Harvard was painted red and its beautiful granite base ruined. The sacred precincts of Appleton Chapel were invaded and desecrated. On the beautiful mosaic arch in Memorial Hall "To — with Yale" was daubed, and the stone work in all the numerous halls was similarly treated. The damage will reach thousands of dollars.

He says that not less than 1,000,000 wage-earners depend on our sugar industries for the support of four times that number of men, women and children. There are 250,000 negroes, who will be driven to starve or seek life in the streets of New York, if the industry is destroyed. A large body of consumers of sugar in this country are dependent on the sugar industry for their daily bread. The sugar industry is the life of the nation, and it is the duty of the government to protect it.

RAILROADS IN CHINA. The Emperor Said to Have Favorably Considered Proposed Schemes.

NEW YORK, June 1.—J. Hellens Ferguson, Minister from the Netherlands to China, while talking about the projected railroads in China, said the plan of a great railway system, now being considered by the Emperor, is a very favorable consideration. The central idea of the proposed scheme is the connection of Peking with the capitals of the provinces. The first step will be to extend the line from Peking to Tientsin, and then to Peking to Hankow, and then to Peking to Shanghai. The Emperor is very much interested in the project, and it is believed that he will soon give his sanction to it.

IDENTIFIED BEYOND DOUBT. Mansfield Klieg, the Denver Bank-Robber, Recognized in Jail.

ST. LOUIS, June 1.—Mansfield Klieg, the Denver bank-robber, was identified beyond doubt yesterday at Clayton by President Moffat. To-day King has been very silent, refusing to talk of his case, or to give any explanation of his conduct. He is now in the jail at Clayton, and it is believed that he will soon be sent to the penitentiary.

DUNKARDS ROBBED. A Railroad Train Raided by a Gang of Pickpockets.

KANSAS CITY, June 1.—Pickpockets raided a Missouri Pacific train from Warrensburg, Mo., crowded with Dunkards, returning home. A Dunkard named J. H. Smith was robbed of $100 in money, another of $80 and a gold watch. Different members of the party lost watches and other valuables.

MAD DOGS. More Patients From Illinois for Treatment in New York.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Seven boys bitten by mad dogs in Illinois, and one girl, arrived from that city today. They were taken to the New York Pasteur Institute, where they received prompt attention from Dr. Gibber.

STRIKE THREATENED. Cincinnati Carpenters Demand Nine Hours for a Day's Work.

CINCINNATI, June 1.—This afternoon the Carpenters' Union at a mass meeting resolved to strike to-morrow if the bosses did not agree to nine hours for a day's work. Nine hundred carpenters are affected.

ORDERED DISCHARGED. An Iowa Grand Jury Ignores Murders of Now or Against Charles Marx and N. J. Rice.

DES MOINES, Iowa, June 1.—It is now over six weeks since Charles Marx and N. J. Rice were brought here from California charged with the murder of Henry Charles (Donato) Johnson. The grand jury of Hardin County has been in session investigating the matter. Yesterday it came into court, rejected the charges against Marx and Rice, and ordered them discharged.

A MURDEROUS ASSAULT. A Peleasant's Desperate Encounter With a New York Heedlum.

NEW YORK, June 1.—James Foley, a driver, aged 25 years, and leader of the "Village Gang," assaulted and probably fatally injured a peasant, John McKeen, Saturday night. When caught by the officer, Foley struck him and slipped his knife into his pocket. The peasant, who was taken to the hospital, is now in a critical condition.

VESSEL WRECKED. Arrival at New York of the Crew of the Norwegian Bark Lulus.

NEW YORK, June 1.—The crew of the Norwegian bark Lulus arrived here today. The bark was struck by a great wave May 15th and the hold flooded. The captain's life was in danger, and several sailors were injured. For three days the vessel was kept afloat through the heroic efforts of the crew. On the morning of the 19th, as the crew were about to abandon the bark, the Exeter City hoisted its flag and the Lulus was rescued.

MURDERED MAN FOUND. His Partner Suspected of Having Committed the Deed.

CHICAGO, June 1.—The body of an acrobat named Murdoch, who has been missing since Friday, was found floating in the river today. Five ugly wounds on the head indicate a murder. Murdoch's watch and a large sum of money, said to have been in his possession, are missing. The police are now making a search for Murdoch's partner, who is suspected of having committed the deed.

STEWART'S REPLY.

The Record on the Bill Demoralizing Silver.

Facts Furnished for the Information of Senator Sherman.

The House to Consider the Caucus Bill During the Week—The Census. Election Contests.

Special Dispatches to THE MORNING CALL. WASHINGTON, June 1.—Senator Sherman appears very sensitive about the passage of the bill demoralizing silver, and whenever the subject is called up in the Senate jumps to his feet in a most excited manner and declares that the matter was thoroughly discussed and understood.

When Senator Daniels was speaking several days ago Sherman interrupted him and declared that the question of demoralizing silver was thoroughly discussed at that time and understood by every member of Congress. He alluded to Senator Stewart as having stated in the Senate that he would show from the record, at the first opportunity, that the matter was not discussed. Sherman took an inopportune time to bring up the subject, and when he did so, he was interrupted by Senator Stewart, who declared that the matter was not discussed, and that he would show from the record, at the first opportunity, that the matter was not discussed.

Difficulties Encountered by a Young Man Who Acted as Escort to a Woman Issued From the Use of Morphine.

REDDING, June 1.—This evening about 7:30 o'clock, as William Mead of the firm of Menzel Brothers, blacksmiths and butchers, was returning from a ride to a friend's house, he was attacked by a young man named W. H. Yarnell. He had in charge an insane woman who he stated was Mrs. T. J. Compton of Potter Valley, Mendocino County.

The young man had brought her all the way from Seary, Ariz., and the trip across the continent was one he will never forget. The woman was very much excited and Yarnell said that he was a result of a morphine habit.

During her sickness the physicians prescribed morphine to ease her pains. Her principal complaint was rheumatism. The drug soon exercised its fascination over her, and she became a victim to its hypodermic medication.

Last month she became possessed of an idea that she must see her brother's grave in Arkansas, and told her husband that she would go. He was very much alarmed at the change of climate would do her good, and consented to her taking the trip. The rest of the story is best told in her own words.

When she arrived at Seary, Ariz., she was only of a mild type. I consented to come with her as she was not in a condition to travel alone. She had a trunk full of morphine, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

FILLED HIM WITH SHOT.

A Deputy Sheriff Riddled While Attempting to Arrest a Thief.

KANSAS CITY, June 1.—A grandson and a nephew of L. M. Simms, in his lifetime a Congressman from Tennessee and Missouri, and a State Senator in Arkansas, was shot and killed by a deputy sheriff.

Special Dispatches to THE MORNING CALL. NEW YORK, June 1.—The House of Representatives today considered the caucus bill during the week. The census bill was also discussed. Election contests were also mentioned.

Special Dispatches to THE MORNING CALL. WASHINGTON, June 1.—Senator Sherman appears very sensitive about the passage of the bill demoralizing silver, and whenever the subject is called up in the Senate jumps to his feet in a most excited manner.

When Senator Daniels was speaking several days ago Sherman interrupted him and declared that the question of demoralizing silver was thoroughly discussed at that time and understood by every member of Congress. He alluded to Senator Stewart as having stated in the Senate that he would show from the record, at the first opportunity, that the matter was not discussed.

Difficulties Encountered by a Young Man Who Acted as Escort to a Woman Issued From the Use of Morphine.

REDDING, June 1.—This evening about 7:30 o'clock, as William Mead of the firm of Menzel Brothers, blacksmiths and butchers, was returning from a ride to a friend's house, he was attacked by a young man named W. H. Yarnell.

During her sickness the physicians prescribed morphine to ease her pains. Her principal complaint was rheumatism. The drug soon exercised its fascination over her, and she became a victim to its hypodermic medication.

Last month she became possessed of an idea that she must see her brother's grave in Arkansas, and told her husband that she would go. He was very much alarmed at the change of climate would do her good, and consented to her taking the trip.

When she arrived at Seary, Ariz., she was only of a mild type. I consented to come with her as she was not in a condition to travel alone. She had a trunk full of morphine, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

STEWART'S REPLY.

The Record on the Bill Demoralizing Silver.

Facts Furnished for the Information of Senator Sherman.

The House to Consider the Caucus Bill During the Week—The Census. Election Contests.

Special Dispatches to THE MORNING CALL. WASHINGTON, June 1.—Senator Sherman appears very sensitive about the passage of the bill demoralizing silver, and whenever the subject is called up in the Senate jumps to his feet in a most excited manner.

When Senator Daniels was speaking several days ago Sherman interrupted him and declared that the question of demoralizing silver was thoroughly discussed at that time and understood by every member of Congress. He alluded to Senator Stewart as having stated in the Senate that he would show from the record, at the first opportunity, that the matter was not discussed.

Difficulties Encountered by a Young Man Who Acted as Escort to a Woman Issued From the Use of Morphine.

REDDING, June 1.—This evening about 7:30 o'clock, as William Mead of the firm of Menzel Brothers, blacksmiths and butchers, was returning from a ride to a friend's house, he was attacked by a young man named W. H. Yarnell.

During her sickness the physicians prescribed morphine to ease her pains. Her principal complaint was rheumatism. The drug soon exercised its fascination over her, and she became a victim to its hypodermic medication.

Last month she became possessed of an idea that she must see her brother's grave in Arkansas, and told her husband that she would go. He was very much alarmed at the change of climate would do her good, and consented to her taking the trip.

When she arrived at Seary, Ariz., she was only of a mild type. I consented to come with her as she was not in a condition to travel alone. She had a trunk full of morphine, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

A MANIAC'S KEEPER.

Thrilling Experiences of a Railway Journey.

Difficulties Encountered by a Young Man Who Acted as Escort to a Woman Issued From the Use of Morphine.

REDDING, June 1.—This evening about 7:30 o'clock, as William Mead of the firm of Menzel Brothers, blacksmiths and butchers, was returning from a ride to a friend's house, he was attacked by a young man named W. H. Yarnell.

During her sickness the physicians prescribed morphine to ease her pains. Her principal complaint was rheumatism. The drug soon exercised its fascination over her, and she became a victim to its hypodermic medication.

Last month she became possessed of an idea that she must see her brother's grave in Arkansas, and told her husband that she would go. He was very much alarmed at the change of climate would do her good, and consented to her taking the trip.

When she arrived at Seary, Ariz., she was only of a mild type. I consented to come with her as she was not in a condition to travel alone. She had a trunk full of morphine, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.

She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited. She was very much excited, and she was very much excited.