

ONLY ONE ESCAPED.

Horrible Butchery by a Band of Cheyennes.

A Party of Surveyors Surprised and Four of them Killed.

The Renegades Pursued to the Mountains and Captured—Wholesale Lynching Likely to Take Place.

Special Dispatches to THE MORNING CALL.

DENVER, June 5.—The massacre by a band of renegade Cheyenne Indians of Chief Engineer William L. Crittenden, in charge of the third division of the Government survey in Wyoming, together with three of his men, was reported in this city late this afternoon by J. H. Holt, Purchasing Agent for the Importing Cattle Company, who has just arrived from the scene of the trouble.

The terrible butchery occurred in the Upper Green River country last Sunday and resulted in the death of Chief Engineer W. L. Crittenden, E. W. Timberlake, George Woods and Henry Everett, chainmen, and the serious illness of the remaining Assistant Engineer Jesse Lee.

On last Sunday morning eleven Cheyenne Indians rode into the surveying camp, but nothing was thought of such a common occurrence. It was soon discovered, however, that the Indians were intoxicated and disposed to be ugly.

They demanded liquor of the surveyors, which was at once refused. The Indians then commenced drinking from flasks which they brought with them, at the same time inviting the men to join them in their orgies.

The men acquiesced, and the Indians became more and more threatening, and finding that they could not get whiskey began to demand sugar, coffee, etc., and were again refused.

They began to complain of the lack of food, and the men refused to give them any. The Indians then suddenly attacked the surveying party with knives and spears, and the men fled in all directions.

After the butchery the Indians rifled the camp and then rode away into the mountains. A pursuing party was at once organized, and after a hard chase the Indians were captured and are now under guard.

It is not yet known how many of the Indians with whiskey are also under guard with the Indians.

GERMAN-LUTHERANS.

Exceptions Taken to the Criticisms of a Milwaukee Newspaper.

MILWAUKEE, June 5.—In the German-Lutheran Anti-Compulsory School Convention yesterday the following resolutions were offered by Frederick Haag and adopted:

Resolved, That this convention deeply regrets the course of the Milwaukee newspaper, according to reports in the organ of its own party, which have not been denied, openly attacking the Milwaukee newspaper, and charging with entering into such conspiracy of silence with the Milwaukee newspaper, and charging with entering into such conspiracy of silence with the Milwaukee newspaper.

CHARGED WITH EMBELLIZEMENT.

Arrest of an Old and Prominent Member of the Chicago Bar.

CHICAGO, June 5.—Judge Henry S. Austin, an old and respected member of the Chicago bar, and who was prominently connected with the founding of the city of Chicago, was yesterday arrested on a charge of embezzlement of $9000 from the funds of the estate of the late John W. Foster.

THROUGH A TRESTLE.

Accident to a Car Containing Baltimore and Ohio Railway Officials.

WHEELING, W. Va., June 5.—A report reached here to-night that a special train with Baltimore and Ohio officials went through a trestle between this city and Baltimore, and that the train was wrecked, and that the officials were killed.

BAR SILVER.

An Advance Caused by the Action of a Republican Party.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Bar silver is quoted to-day at 103. This advance is due to the action of the Republican party in the House, which has passed a resolution to purchase $4,500,000 worth of American silver bullion.

A PLEASANT TRIP.

Assistant Postmaster-General Clarkson to Visit San Francisco.

DENVER, June 5.—Assistant Postmaster-General Clarkson will visit San Francisco, and will be accompanied by his wife and a party of friends.

IBED FOR A MEETING.

Invitations Offered for a Meeting Between Sullivan and McCaffrey.

NEW YORK, June 5.—A letter telegraphed from Sullivan to McCaffrey, offering to meet him at New York, has been received.

THE FIGHT BEGUN.

The Silver Problem in Both Branches of Congress.

A lively tilt in the Senate Between Stewart and Sherman.

Free Coinage Advocates Receive a Setback In the House—A Weak-Kneed Member.

Special Dispatches to THE MORNING CALL.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Silver played an important part in national affairs at both wings of the Capitol building today. The great debate between Sherman and Stewart attracted general attention, and the House and Senate were filled with the excitement of the occasion.

Stewart had a great pile of books on the table before him and referred to them frequently. When Stewart alluded to the trickery of the gold men in surreptitiously increasing the value of the silver dollar, Sherman was very nervous and winked at Stewart's sharp thrusts and citations from the Congressional Globe.

STORMS AND TEMPESTS.

Railroad Bridges Washed Away and Tracks Submerged.

RED WING (Minn.), June 5.—A terrible storm has prevailed here all day. Railroad bridges have been carried away, and the tracks are submerged. The water is running high, and the wind is blowing hard.

MARSHALLTOWN, Iowa, June 5.—Reports have been received from Harlan County, near Harlan, yesterday, that a terrible storm had struck the region, and that the crops were completely destroyed.

ST. PAUL, June 5.—Reports of damages from the storm are coming in from all parts of the Northwest. In general the rain was a benefit, but the wind that accompanied it in some places did much damage.

St. Paul, June 5.—Reports of damages from the storm are coming in from all parts of the Northwest. In general the rain was a benefit, but the wind that accompanied it in some places did much damage.

St. Paul, June 5.—Reports of damages from the storm are coming in from all parts of the Northwest. In general the rain was a benefit, but the wind that accompanied it in some places did much damage.

PURE EVENTS.

Yesterday's Winners at Morris Park and Lotosia.

MORRIS PARK, June 5.—The weather was fair and the track in good condition today. The following were the winners of the races:

First race, Crawford won, Dyer second, Bonanza third. Time 1:04 1/2.

Second race, one mile and five furlongs, Tarzan won, Dyer second, Bonanza third. Time 1:02.

Third race, one mile and five furlongs, Tarzan won, Dyer second, Bonanza third. Time 1:02.

Fourth race, one mile and five furlongs, Tarzan won, Dyer second, Bonanza third. Time 1:02.

Fifth race, one mile and five furlongs, Tarzan won, Dyer second, Bonanza third. Time 1:02.

Sixth race, one mile and five furlongs, Tarzan won, Dyer second, Bonanza third. Time 1:02.

Seventh race, one mile and five furlongs, Tarzan won, Dyer second, Bonanza third. Time 1:02.

Eighth race, one mile and five furlongs, Tarzan won, Dyer second, Bonanza third. Time 1:02.

Ninth race, one mile and five furlongs, Tarzan won, Dyer second, Bonanza third. Time 1:02.

Tenth race, one mile and five furlongs, Tarzan won, Dyer second, Bonanza third. Time 1:02.

Eleventh race, one mile and five furlongs, Tarzan won, Dyer second, Bonanza third. Time 1:02.

Twelfth race, one mile and five furlongs, Tarzan won, Dyer second, Bonanza third. Time 1:02.

Thirteenth race, one mile and five furlongs, Tarzan won, Dyer second, Bonanza third. Time 1:02.

Fourteenth race, one mile and five furlongs, Tarzan won, Dyer second, Bonanza third. Time 1:02.

Fifteenth race, one mile and five furlongs, Tarzan won, Dyer second, Bonanza third. Time 1:02.

THE FIGHT BEGUN.

The Silver Problem in Both Branches of Congress.

A lively tilt in the Senate Between Stewart and Sherman.

Free Coinage Advocates Receive a Setback In the House—A Weak-Kneed Member.

Special Dispatches to THE MORNING CALL.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Silver played an important part in national affairs at both wings of the Capitol building today. The great debate between Sherman and Stewart attracted general attention, and the House and Senate were filled with the excitement of the occasion.

Stewart had a great pile of books on the table before him and referred to them frequently. When Stewart alluded to the trickery of the gold men in surreptitiously increasing the value of the silver dollar, Sherman was very nervous and winked at Stewart's sharp thrusts and citations from the Congressional Globe.

Stewart insisted in his assertion that the amendment had not been read, and argued the point for some time. He then read the amendment, and Sherman immediately moved for its adoption.

Stewart then moved for the adoption of the amendment, and Sherman immediately moved for its rejection. The House then adjourned until tomorrow.

Stewart then moved for the adoption of the amendment, and Sherman immediately moved for its rejection. The House then adjourned until tomorrow.

Stewart then moved for the adoption of the amendment, and Sherman immediately moved for its rejection. The House then adjourned until tomorrow.

Stewart then moved for the adoption of the amendment, and Sherman immediately moved for its rejection. The House then adjourned until tomorrow.

Stewart then moved for the adoption of the amendment, and Sherman immediately moved for its rejection. The House then adjourned until tomorrow.

Stewart then moved for the adoption of the amendment, and Sherman immediately moved for its rejection. The House then adjourned until tomorrow.

Stewart then moved for the adoption of the amendment, and Sherman immediately moved for its rejection. The House then adjourned until tomorrow.

Stewart then moved for the adoption of the amendment, and Sherman immediately moved for its rejection. The House then adjourned until tomorrow.

Stewart then moved for the adoption of the amendment, and Sherman immediately moved for its rejection. The House then adjourned until tomorrow.

Stewart then moved for the adoption of the amendment, and Sherman immediately moved for its rejection. The House then adjourned until tomorrow.

Stewart then moved for the adoption of the amendment, and Sherman immediately moved for its rejection. The House then adjourned until tomorrow.

Stewart then moved for the adoption of the amendment, and Sherman immediately moved for its rejection. The House then adjourned until tomorrow.

Stewart then moved for the adoption of the amendment, and Sherman immediately moved for its rejection. The House then adjourned until tomorrow.

Stewart then moved for the adoption of the amendment, and Sherman immediately moved for its rejection. The House then adjourned until tomorrow.

Stewart then moved for the adoption of the amendment, and Sherman immediately moved for its rejection. The House then adjourned until tomorrow.

Stewart then moved for the adoption of the amendment, and Sherman immediately moved for its rejection. The House then adjourned until tomorrow.

Stewart then moved for the adoption of the amendment, and Sherman immediately moved for its rejection. The House then adjourned until tomorrow.

Stewart then moved for the adoption of the amendment, and Sherman immediately moved for its rejection. The House then adjourned until tomorrow.

Stewart then moved for the adoption of the amendment, and Sherman immediately moved for its rejection. The House then adjourned until tomorrow.

CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW SPEAKS AT CHICAGO.

An Immense Gathering at the Press Club Exhibition.

The New York Orator Delivers an Eloquent Address on the Approaching Exhibition.

Special to THE CALL.

CHICAGO, June 5.—Eight thousand people gathered at the Auditorium to-night at the entertainment of the Chicago Press Club. Chauncey M. Depew delivered an oration on the World's Fair.

His remarks were appropriate for the occasion, and were received with rapt applause. He said:

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Chauncey M. Depew Speaks at Chicago.

An Immense Gathering at the Press Club Exhibition.

The New York Orator Delivers an Eloquent Address on the Approaching Exhibition.

Special to THE CALL.

CHICAGO, June 5.—Eight thousand people gathered at the Auditorium to-night at the entertainment of the Chicago Press Club. Chauncey M. Depew delivered an oration on the World's Fair.

His remarks were appropriate for the occasion, and were received with rapt applause. He said:

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable. It is a happy event that America should have rejected the appeal of Columbus as visionary and impracticable.

NEW ENGINE-HOUSE.

Design of the Home for the Chemical Company.

A Building Modeled After Black Rock Castle, Ireland—Work to Begin Some Time in July Next.

The accompanying cut is an excellent representation of the proposed engine-house to be located at the intersection of Bush, Battery and Market streets. It is made from the original draft of the design now in the possession of Shea & Shea, the Montgomery-street architects, and gives a clear idea of the building as it will appear when completed.

It is designed for the stowing of the new chemical and water tower engines, and it will be seen that there are two large arched doorways to allow for their passage into the street. The building will have a front on Bush street and of feet on Battery.

It will be constructed with a view of accommodating the crews of both engines. On the ground floor will be erected the stalls for housing the horses, and near by will stand the engines facing the arched doorways. The second story will be a corresponding compartment of the tower, which is three stories in height, will be utilized for office purposes.

The second story will be utilized for office purposes. The third story will be utilized for office purposes. The fourth story will be utilized for office purposes.

The fourth story will be utilized for office purposes. The fifth story will be utilized for office purposes. The sixth story will be utilized for office purposes.

The sixth story will be utilized for office purposes. The seventh story will be utilized for office purposes. The eighth story will be utilized for office purposes.

The eighth story will be utilized for office purposes. The ninth story will be utilized for office purposes. The tenth story will be utilized for office purposes.

The tenth story will be utilized for office purposes. The eleventh story will be utilized for office purposes. The twelfth story will be utilized for office purposes.

The twelfth story will be utilized for office purposes. The thirteenth story will be utilized for office purposes. The fourteenth story will be utilized for office purposes.

The fourteenth story will be utilized for office purposes. The fifteenth story will be utilized for office purposes. The sixteenth story will be utilized for office purposes.

The sixteenth story will be utilized for office purposes. The seventeenth story will be utilized for office purposes. The eighteenth story will be utilized for office purposes.

The eighteenth story will be utilized for office purposes. The nineteenth story will be utilized for office purposes. The twentieth story will be utilized for office purposes.

The twentieth story will be utilized for office purposes. The twenty-first story will be utilized for office purposes. The twenty-second story will be utilized for office purposes.

The twenty-second story will be utilized for office purposes. The twenty-third story will be utilized for office purposes. The twenty-fourth story will be utilized for office purposes.

The twenty-fourth story will be utilized for office purposes. The twenty-fifth story will be utilized for office purposes. The twenty-sixth story will be utilized for office purposes.

The twenty-sixth story will be utilized for office purposes. The twenty-seventh story will be utilized for office purposes. The twenty-eighth story will be utilized for office purposes.

The twenty-eighth story will be utilized for office purposes. The twenty-ninth story will be utilized for office purposes. The thirtieth story will be utilized for office purposes.

The thirtieth story will be utilized for office purposes. The thirty-first story will be utilized for office purposes. The thirty-second story will be utilized for office purposes.

The thirty-second story will be utilized for office purposes. The thirty-third story will be utilized for office purposes. The thirty-fourth story will be utilized for office purposes.

The thirty-fourth story will be utilized for office purposes. The thirty-fifth story will be utilized for office purposes. The thirty-sixth story will be utilized for office purposes.

The thirty-sixth story will be utilized for office purposes. The thirty-seventh story will be utilized for office purposes. The thirty-eighth story will be utilized for office purposes.

The thirty-eighth story will be utilized for office purposes. The thirty-ninth story will be utilized for office purposes. The fortieth story will be utilized for office purposes.

The fortieth story will be utilized for office purposes. The forty-first story will be utilized for office purposes. The forty-second story will be utilized for office purposes.

The forty-second story will be utilized for office purposes. The forty-third story will be utilized for office purposes. The forty-fourth story will be utilized for office purposes.

THE BRADSHAW DISASTER.

Pitiable Condition of the Residents of the Stricken Village.

Californians in Frisco.

CHICAGO, June 5.—A company of Californians in Frisco.

CHICAGO, June