Renewal of the Discussion Regarding William's Attitude Toward the Question.

BERLIN, Oct. 4.-The lapse of the anti-Socialist laws has led to the renewal of the discussion regarding Emperor William's attitude toward the Socialist question. The Cologne Gazette repeats that the Emperor and all his Ministers, with the exception of Bismarck, desired the continuance of the special act and were ready to accept a permanent act in the form offered by the National Liberals, namely, without the power of expulsion, but Bismarck disagreed and the Reichstag in consequence was dissolved. The Emperor himself, says the Gazette, would never have voluntarily dispensed with the act. At the same time the Emperor views the death of the laws without regret, confident of his ability to solve the social problem without them by means of remedial egislation, depriving the party of discontent a d of its most serious grievances.

SOCIALIST MEETINGS. The tone of most of the Socialist meetings in the past few days was one of elation, but all were perfectly orderly. A great m eling was held at Bockbrauerel. The men present appeared to belong to the intelgent working classes. They were accompanie i by their wives and families. Several speeches were made. A sheet entitled "Farewell to the Socialist Law," explaining how Christianity might have been destroyed in its inception if the Jewish and Roman anthorities had only imitated the Russian police and dissolved every meeting of its founders, met with a large sale.

BEBEL'S STATEMENT. Herr Bebel declared in an interview that his party would meet the Government's remedial bills on their merits. It is nota ble that at the Berlin election for delegates to the coming Socialist Congress all the men A large restaurant has been pur sed at Erfurt, and another, with a large hall for the meetings attached, will b hought shortly to assist the propaganda Knowing that the law's repeal is only an experiment, the party will be careful to avoid giving occasion for a renewal of the

THE EMPEROR AT VIENNA. The North German Gazette in commenting upon the Kalser's reception in Austria gives a lint which appears to confirm the renewed mors concerning a new commercial treaty with Austria. The fact that the Austrian Mis sters were not present at the railway section in Vienna to meet Emperor William is much commented on, but it is officially de-clared that it has no political significance. Emperor William having ignored him last r, Count von Taafe purposely absented

THE COMTE DE PARIS.

His American Reception Likely to Be Misunderstood in France.

London, Oct. 4.—The reception of Comte de Paris in America, and the extraordinary civilities shown him are likely to produce a bad impression in France. Even the most intelligent Frenchmen may fail to understand the distinction between the Comte de Paris who was on General McClellan's staff and the Courte de Paris who is an enemy of the French Republic, and a pretender to the French throne. His letter on the Bonlangerist conspiracy, his cynical avowal of his readiness to use all means against the republic and his confession of complicity in that vulgar adventurer's vulgar intrigues have disgusted many of his own adherents scandalized Europe and discredited the monarchy even in monarchial eyes. Not less scandalized is Europe to see the author of that letter the guest of America, wel-comed by the President of the republic and covered with honor by the American people. New York, Oct. 4.—The Comte de Paris by a distinguished representative gathering of about thirty gentlemen. Among those who assembled to do honor to the guest was Arthur Belmont, Assistant Secretary of Treasury Batcheller; General O. O. Howard, Severnor Wetmore of Rhode Island, Bishop Potter, Archoistop Corrigan, Warner Miller. The governors of the club extended to the Count the privileges of the club for sixty days—a privilege seldom extended.

THEY WERE ALL SHOT.

Why Barrilas Is Unable to Fu fill His Agree ment to Exchange Frisoners. GUATEMALA, Oct. 4 .- A new and very serious trouble exists between Guatemala and Salvador, which may lead to the renewal of war. It was agreed, when the preliminary treaty of peace was signed that the prisoners captured in battle should be exchanged. A short time ago Salvador re quested Barrilas to fulfill this condition, bu Barrilas was unable to comply with this request, because all the Salvadorian prisoners had been shot during the war. One hundred and eighteen had been shot on one occasion Exete was aware of the fact, but in a polite note insists on the exchange. This trouble has afforded Mixner a new opportunity to intervene, and it is stated on good authority that he has left for Salvador, taking with him the Spanish Charge d'Affaires.

How the Prosecution of Dillon and O'Brien Is Regarded in England.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Official statements will proving that there is no famine in Ireland and no chance of any. These will come from the heads of the Ministry, who hold themselves responsible for their accuracy. The prosecution of Dillon and others is pretty certain to lead the and others is pretty certain to lead the Ministry into great difficulties. It is now generally regarded as a mistake. One inevitable result must be the ruin of the November session of Parliament for all purposes of business.

TIPPERARY, Oct. 4.—Upon the reassembling of the court this morning Redmond, counsel for Dillon and O'Brien, asked an adjournment until Tuesday. He stated that he and his fellow counsel, Timothy Healy, had an important engagement on Monday. Ronan, prosecutor for the Crown, opposed delay, and charged the defendants with creating every possible obstacle to prolong the case.

Redmond declared that one of the defendants, O'Mahoney, was ill and it was impossible for him to attend the trial at present. The Presiding Magistrate announced that the court would adjourn until the physician attending O'Mahomey could be heard from.

CANADA'S FUTURE.

Many Public Men in England Willing to Let the Dominion Secede.

HALIFAX, Oct. 4.- The speeches of Sir John Macdonald and Sir John Thompson aroused less enthusiasm here than their authors probably expected. Canadian loy-alty is appreciated in England in pretty strict proportion of its moderation. English Ministers are keenly aware of the difficulties in which the Canadian policy so frequently involves them. Many public men would view the gravitation of Canada toward the United States with perfect equanimity.

An Assassin Captured. LONDON, Oct. 4. - Castioni, the Radical, who shot and killed Councilor Rossi at Bellinzoma, Switzerland, during the recent revolt, was arrested to-day in Chelsea. An application for his extradition will be made. Castieni was found in a shed in a garden attached to the house. He was surrounded by a number of friends, all of whom were armed. The police seized 200 rounds of ammunition. When Castioni was taken before the magistrate his counsel stated that the question was raised as to whether the act of the prisoner was of a political nature, and, therefore, an act for which he could be extradited. The prisoner was remanded. A Treaty of Peace. PARIS, Oct. 4 .- Admiral Cuverville has elegraphed to the Government that he has oncluded a treaty of peace with the King of Dahomey, and has raised the blockade.

elected belong to the moderate section of the Significance of the Purchase of the Colorade Midland by the Atchison.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4 .- The Tribune says:

The purchase of the Colorado Midland by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe appears to have greater significance than has been the general impression. It becomes more hat it was not the object of the Santa Fe, or rather the bankers who control that road, to crowd out the Rock Island or any other road which now termistrength that the deal was consummated with the view of bringing about the formation of a gigantic railway trust or combination of all reads between Chicago and the Pacific Coast. The railroad situation in the West is in a more demoralized condi-tion than ever before, and unless a pool or combine is specially formed that will insure the maintenance of high rates, many roads will be pushed to the wall to save themselves from serious losses, and bankers who invested heavily in Western roads shortly after the formation of the "G ntle-man's" Association will be compelled to in-vest still more heavily. With this end in vest still more heavily. With this end in view the St. Louis and San Francisco and Colorado Midland have lately been acquired by the Santa Fe. The principal obstacle in the way of the consummation of the bankers' scheme is the Union Pacific and Northwestern combination. Against the latter the arrows of the bankers will be directed. All other Western roads are sufficiently subju-gated to enter into any arrangement the bankers may propose, Jay Gould appears to be in full ac old with them, but the Northto be in full ac old with them, but the North-western-Union Pacific combination stands out. The backing of the Vanderbilts gives the latter combination such strength it can-not be dish dged without a serious conflict. The Union Pacific, since its alliance with the Northwestern, or rather the Vanderbilt combine, has been encroaching upon the territory of the Santa Fe and Gould lines in territory of the Santa Fe and Gould lines in all directions. It has obtained outlets into Texas both from Denver and Omaha, and is now extending the Utah Southern from Frisco, Utah, to Mojave at the connection of the Santa Fe with the Southern Pacific. Tapping the latter at Ogden and Mojave, the Union Pacific and Northwestern combination would stand invincible and be able to control nearly all California traffic by en-compassing an alliance with the Southern Pacific. To spoil such a game seems to have been the object of the Santa Fe people when they secured control of the Colorado Midland. If they secure the Denver and Rio france. If they secure the Deaver and the Grande Western also, they will have a line through to Sait Lake City and Ogden, where they can retaliate against the Union Pacific and Northwestern combination if the latter attempts to show fight at Mojave when they get there, or try to engineer an exclusive arrangement with the Southern Pacific. The issue is nothing more nor less than a test of strength between the bankers, aided by Jay Gould and nearly all the other Western reads, against the Union Pacific and Vanderbilt combination, and whichever side comes out ahead will be master of the situation. Until this issue is decided improvenent in Western railroad affairs is not to be "Nothing but assumption, and the most absurd assumption at that," is what Fresident Manyell of the Santa Fe said to-day when questioned. Manyell would not say, Union Pacific or other alliances. The published runiors of the three-headed article in the Tribune, stating that the Senta Fe, Missouri Pacific and Southern Pacific were com-bining to control the transcontinental busi-ness, are entirely without foundation. The santa Fe has already a transcontinental line, and is well enough satisfied with it not to e trying to secure another. I have nothing to say regarding all these flying reports, ex-cept they are, as I said before, mere assumptions on the part of some one whose imagination reaches beyond the limits of legiti Another official of the Santa Fe declared that no effort had been made to get control of the Rio Grande Western, but it would be perfectly natural, he thought, for that con-cern to want to make a satisfactory agreement for the interchange of Dusiness with its strongest connection. DENVER, Oct. 4.- The stormy season on the Rocky Mountains commenced last night and quite an amount of snow fell in different places. Reports received show that snow is falling from Salida to Ouray, and it is also snowing at Silverton, Leadville, Glenwood Springs and Aspen.

The Last Day for Admitting Goods Under the Old Tariff Law-Treasury Officials Hard at Work.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.- The most intense excitement prevailed in and about the Customhouse all day, while troops of importers and brokers kept coming and going. As 3 o'clock approached the numbers increased until the rotunda was filled with a solid mass of humanity, which jostled, pushed and yelled. All wished to get their entries in under the old law, and stood ready to make entries the moment vessels were sighted at Fire Island. By a decision of yesterday the Custom-house was to have closed at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The mass of importers and brokers in the Custom-house was so great at 3 o'clock that Collecter Erhard announced the time extended until 4 o'clock. Each moment after 3 o'clock the excitement became greater and those in the rotunda appeared to be going crazy. They shouted, yelled and made futile efforts to move about. Clerks in various divisions were swamped with business. Not for years has such a scene been enacted in the Custom-house, The Collector was in a quandary. His office was jammed with importers, who waved rolls in their hands and shouted to him not to close. The pressure on the Collector became so great that finally he telegraphed Secretary Windom for advice. The Secretary soon replied for the Collector to use his discretion in the matter. Accordingly the Collector decided to keep the Custom-house open until 12 o'clock to-night. The steamships Regnals, City of Chicago, Vandam and City of Columbia, the latter from Havana with a cargo of tobacco, were due to-night.

At 5:30 o'clock the City of Chicago was entered, and a great part of the waiting crowd was relieved. At 6:05 o'clock the steamer Regulus, with a cargo of laces, silks and velvets, was entered. There was still due the Etraria. Thingwalls and Zandam. and vervess, was emercial. There was some due the Etruria, Thingvalla and Zandam, and news of them was anxiously awaited. At 10:30 o'clock it became known that the Etruria had been sighted off the outer bar at 9:34 o'clock. At one minute of 12 the captain of the Etruria had not arrived. Ten nds later, when half the lights were out a carriage came on a rush to the door and a great shout went up. From it jumped Captain Hains, who was immediately behind the counter and entered his vessel just before the clock struck midnight. Three cheers and a tiger were given for him. captain had come in a special tug and was driven at breakneck pace from the dock to

WASHINGTON, Oct 5.—Secretary Windom, Assistant Secretaries Spaulding and Nettleton and General Appraiser Tichenor spent to-day over questions that have arisen regarding the execution of the new tariff law, which to kee effect Monday morning. Several importers, desirous of receiving the full benefit of existing tariff rates, applied to the Treasury Department for permission to enter their goods at the Custom-houses up to midnight Sunday. Assistant Secretary Spaulding has informed them that this is a partier activaly within the discretizing of the matter entirely within the discretion of the Collectors of Customs at the various ports, and that the department is not dis-posed to interfere in the matter. General Spaulding said to-day that he did not anticipate trouble with regard to the execution of the new law on the Pacific Coast by reason of the failure of customs officers to receive official copies of the law at the date it goes into operation, as entries made on and after Monday under the present law can be readily liquidated under the new rates with readily inducted under the new lates with very little extra labor.

Boston, Oct. 4.-The eagerness of the Democracy of Massachusetts to defeat Henry Cabot Lodge for Congress in response to the cry from all over New England to down the author of the Force Bill and a lieutenant of Speaker Reed resulted and a neutenant of Speaker Reed resulted in a curious complication to-night. Mr. Lodge has been so actively at work strengthening himself in his district during the past six menths that not a soul could be found in the same district to accept the nomination against him. President Woodruff then came forward and said the Lord wouldn't reveal the time, but he had talked twice recently with Joseph Smith in of the defeat of the bill it is possible that talked twice recently with Joseph Smith in the spirit, and the purport of it was the bridegroom was about to mate the bride. CINCINNATI, Oct. 4.—The base-ball deal has been consummated and the Cincinnati team transferred to the Player's League. I is understood the consideration was $38,000 cash. Alleged Reasons for the Recent Order of the New York Central. New York, Oct. 4.—It is reported that the management of the New York Central Railroad was asked by other labor organizations to drive the Knights of Labor from the service of the company. A correspondent writes; It is not generally known, but it is a fact, that this latest order not only has the approval of some other organizations, but the Central management has been actually requested by representatives of the Lecomotive and Firemer's brotherhoods to drive the Knights of Labor from the system. Members of the brotherhoods, as in the Switchmen's Union, have been complaining ever since the strike that they were mo-lested, threatened, abused and were at times in a state of terror on account of intimidation practiced by walking delegates and other acts of the Knights. A committee of the Locomotive Engineers' Brotherhood went so far as to tell Webb that the company would have to choose between the engineers' organization and that of the Knights of Labor. There is no opposition on the part of the Central management to any labor organization whatever excepting the Knights. Special to THE MORNING CALL

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Rumor has it that General Clarkson is to be appointed Minister to China, vice Denby of Indiana, an appointee of President Cleveland. It is thought the appointment will not be made until after the November elections. John Russell Young is a candidate for the same position. Minister Denby might have been removed long ago but for his personal relations with President Harrison, who regards him as a very competent diplomate and by no means an aggressive politician.

This pamphlet shows how this administra-$51,000,000 in its redemption of the bonded debt. Another is entitled "Fair Elections or Foul-Choose," the significance of which s apparent. Another is entitled "Better Days for Farmers," and relates to the effect of the McKinley bill upon all agricultural products and supplies. The Silver Bill, Pension Bill and various other issues are also treated. These documents have been circulated by the million, and a force of about 100 men and women is employed night and day in sending them off. The scene that is presented by all this activity is unique and interesting.

SPEAKERS ENGAGED.

SPEAKERS ENGAGED. Speakers also have been engaged by the committee. Those orators who have been intimately connected with the passage and discussion of any measure are employed to explain it to the people. Congressmen Lodge and Rowell, who conducted the battle in the House in behalf of the Federal Election Bill, are relied upon to present the arguments made in Congress from as many platforms as possible. General Grosvenor of Ohio, Cengressmen Dolliver of Iowa, and Cannon, Burrows and Lafollette of Wisconsin are the greatest difficulties to be encountered, but where there is still a chance of victory. The committee is confident of carrying the next House. A MODOC HEROINE.

Winemah Riddell, the heroine of the Modoc massacre, has been granted a pension of $25 per month for life. In 1873 General Canby and a force of United States troops Agree engaged in the campaign to subdue the Modocs. These Indians, led by Captail Jack, had taken up an almost impregnable position in the lava beds. A commission was sent out by the Government to negotiate peace. At the head of the commission was Colonel A. B. Meacham. The interpreter Colonel A. B. Meacham. The interpreter for the commission was a man named Riddell. His wife was a Modoc woman, Winemah Riddell. The Commissioners offered amnesty, and the Modocs sent back fair promises. Several overtures were made, and each time Winemah warned the Commissioners that the Indians meant treachery. Later came a proposition from the Modocs for a council, at which half a ozen on each side should appear unarmed

It was refused. THE MASSACRE. The Modocs repeated the request for the Modocs repeated the request for a council the next day, and said that if the talk was satisfactory they would all come into camp and surrender. He said to the Com-missioners that if the meeting must be held he wanted to be free from the responsibility. ne wanted to be free from the responsibility out General Canby and Dr. Thomas of th commission refused to believe there was any danger. They insisted on keeping the ap-pointment and going unamed. A confer-ence with the Indians was held, and General Canby was asked to withdraw his troops His refusal was the signal for the massacre Canby and Thomas were shot dead, Colonel Meacham fell with two bullets in his body, and a brave had torn a portion of his scalp off, when Wineman rescued him and car ried him back to camp, where he recovered

AN ABRUPT END. The Investigation of the Office of General Dumont Likely to Be Dropped. WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.- The proposed in estigation of the office of General Dumont, Supervising Inspector of Steam Vessels, appears to have come to an abrupt end. The reference of the resolution introduced by Flower back to the Committee on Rules is probably the last of it. Last Monday when General Dumont, the Supervising Inspector-General, was before the Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries, which had been given charge of the investigation, it was disovered that the charges were not signed. Flower was sent for and asked by the com mittee if he wanted to take the responsibilit for the charges.

He replied that he did not: that he knew nothing about them except that a Mr. Husted came to him with a letter of recommendation and introduction from George L. Norton, editor of the Marine Journal, and claimed to represent the Grand Harbor of the Brotherhood of Pilots, comprising 33,000 licensed pilots, who claimed to be persecuted by General Dumont. General Dumont disputed the authority of either Husted or Norton, and wrote to Cap-tain Tuthill, Grand Captain of the Grand Harbor. A reply was received from Tut-hill, in which he said Husted was not known to him, and did not represent the Grand Harbor at all. He said, further, that there were no complaints from the Grand Harbor, but there was some grumbling among probably a half dozen disgruntled men in Harbor No. 1.

Department to the Commandant of the Navy-vard at Mare Island, to accept Cruiser No. 5, known as the San Francisco.

Orders were issued from the Navy Department to-day to the Commandant of the navy-yard at Mare Island to accept the craiser No. 5, known as the San Francisco. The report of the trial board, of which Commodore John Irwin was President, gave the ship on her trial trip an average speed of 19.663 knots per hour. This speed was based on a run of four hours, an allowance of one minute forty-two seconds being made on account of the necessity of stopping the forced draught to the two lower furnace air-ducts to the boiler in the second fire-room forward during the latter part of the run, and to all of the furnaces in the forward fire-room fer fifteen minutes. This was necessary, for water was discovered coming into the forward fire-room, where it had been used for circulating through the guide-sprays on the bearing and crank pins and the extra water supply of all of the eccentrics. It had drained into the bilge wells and risen to a point higher than the drain valve in the forward boiler compartment, which opens into the main drain that connects with the bilge well, and as this valve was accidentally open, the water from the bilge pump backed up and as this valve was accidentally open, the water from the bilge pump backed up through the drain pipe valve on to the fire-room floor, and partially filled the two lower furnaces and ducts of the boilers in the furnaces and ducts of the boilers in the second fire-room forward. Without this allowance of one minute forty-two seconds the speed of the vessel was 19.518 knots. The board states the cause for closing down was entirely outside of the working of the engines and boilers, as required by contract. The vessel's speed during the last fifteen minutes of the run was 20.115 knots; per hour and by the patent log she averaged, for the four hours, 20.604 knots.

Professor James Corbett of the Olympic Club and John D. Spreckels, the millionaire, met last Friday evening at the Olympic Club and had a nice little scrap in the presence of about thirty members. The first round was pleasant and agreeable; the second caused a bit of seusation. Big Jim second caused a bit of sensation. Big Jim had, accidentally, of course, tapped Mr. Spreckels' nasal appendage and drew a flush. Full of determination and pluck Spreckels continued to play his hand, but failing to draw on the turn he became rattled and ran his snuff-box a second time against Big Jim's mitten. RESOLUTIONS PRESENTED. The Committee on Resolutions, by its Chairman, Cary Howard, presented the following:

Resolved, That we reaffirm our unbounded

Resolved, That we reafirm our unbounded confidence in the principles of Democracy, as they are set forth in the national platform of 1888 and the platform of the last State Convention held at San Jose, and we believe that only by the domination of those principles can the highest and best welfare of this noble land of ours be attained.

Resolved, That we especially indorse that plank of the Democratic State platform pledging the candidates of the party to do all in their power to procure the adoption of the Australian ballot system, and we have that pledge as an earnest of the overthrow of those fraudulent and corrupt means that have held the Republican party in power.

State platform which favors free text-books to the pupils of our public schools.

Resolved, That we are in favor of liberal appropriations for school purposes, and that we are in favor of industrial education as a part of our common school course.

Resolved, That we recognize the value to justice and equity of a pure and unprejudiced judiciary, and, therefore, are in favor of indorsing the non-partisan judicial ticket, represented by the Hon. A. M. Rosborough and Hon. E. M. Gibson.

The last resolution was about to raise a wrangle when L.T. Fleming announced that he had a minority report, which he was allowed to read from the platform as follows: Resolved, That this convention will not nominate nor indorse any man for office who is not a believer in the political principles of the Democratic party or who will not publicly pledge himself to vote for and endeavor to secure the election of the Democratic ticket nominated by the Democratic Convention at San Jose in August,

Fleming moved the adotion of the minority report and made a sharp speech. The de-bate over the question lasted until nearly 4 o'clock in the afternoon and was pretty warm. The minority report was finally voted down by 124 votes against to 62 in favor and the majority report was adopted. The following ticket was then nominated: NOMINATIONS MADE.

I do not believe that we should in-ult the Democratic lawyers and go out of the party and nominate a man without learning, without capacity, the laughing stock of his profession, and taking up the defeated candidate for a Republican nomination.

When some one suggested that the Demo crats of Sacramento County had indersed the Republican judicial nominees Mr. Reid retorted if that precedent is followed the Democrats of Alameda County will indorse Democrats of Alameda County will indorse Judges Henshaw and Greene.

W. D. English and Senator Moffitt were on hand to see that their programme with reference to the Judges was carried out. They hope by the arrangement to elect a Democratic Judge, but there are many Democrats who will treat Gibson as they did Horace Greeley, and refuse to vote for
