

A TERRIBLE NIGHT AT SEA.

Joseph Montet Writes of an Adventure Amid Storm and Fire.

Five Lives Settle Their Differences on a Fishing-Smack—The Diabolical Deed of a Desperate Man.

"HEARLY, boys!" shouted the master. "We must be hearing the coast. Hold hard the helm, Jean! Make fast the rope, Pierre!"

Over the raging sea the fishing-smack shot like a bird. The day had set out with a clear, bright sky. There was a stiff breeze, covering with light foam the waves, upon the surface of which were mirrored with bright silvery reflections.

That was why Pere Landure had set out with his two young men, Pierre and Jean. Were they his sons? No; Pere Landure had only a daughter, Marie, a beautiful girl, with eyes of velvet and skin like a ripe peach.

She would perhaps do better to delay too long about the matter. For to wait thus in impatience is not the best thing for two ladies equally suited. For about a week ago, Pere Landure had detected black looks between them, on Jean's side particularly, who were more than a little suspicious.

"What's the matter with you, Jean?" asked the master, looking toward the young man who was leaning over the side of the boat, his face pale as death.

"The master's eyes were fixed upon the young man, and he saw that he was not a little suspicious. He was a young man of about twenty years of age, with a face as pale as death.

"What's the matter with you, Jean?" asked the master, looking toward the young man who was leaning over the side of the boat, his face pale as death.

"The master's eyes were fixed upon the young man, and he saw that he was not a little suspicious. He was a young man of about twenty years of age, with a face as pale as death.

"What's the matter with you, Jean?" asked the master, looking toward the young man who was leaning over the side of the boat, his face pale as death.

THE CALL'S PORTRAITS.

Some Young Matrons Who Shine in San Francisco Society.

Portraits and Sketches of Mrs. Edgar F. Preston, Mrs. William J. Younger, Mrs. H. C. Tatum, Mrs. Theodore F. Payne.

This issue of THE CALL presents some of the younger matrons of San Francisco society. More than one of these is essentially a part of our social life by virtue of having been brought up in this city, entering upon an inheritance of social prestige.

Who was Miss Theodore Coleman, sister of the late William Coleman and niece of the late William O'Brien, the milliner, was married by Cardinal McCloskey to Theodore F. Payne, son of Theodore Payne, the old Californian, whose death occurred over twenty years since.

Not only because of their beauty, but because of the history and interesting nature of these stories, Mr. Payne prizes them. The young matrons who are mentioned in this issue are Mrs. Edgar F. Preston, Mrs. William J. Younger, Mrs. H. C. Tatum, Mrs. Theodore F. Payne.

Is one of our younger matrons. She is a San Francisco woman, educated in our best schools, and by her bright wit and sparkling conversation is a representative of the women we may be proud. She has spent many months in the East this year, and her friends have longed for her almost as sincerely as she has longed for them.

At Harvard College, his father being Rev. H. C. Tatum, formerly of our Unitarian minister who for many years was pastor of the church at Natick, Mass. When he was twelve he was sent to New York to study the languages, and he remained there until he was sixteen, when he returned to his native city.

She is the widow of the late Henry Edgerton. On Monday of Easter week, 1888, her marriage with Dr. William J. Younger was solemnized at Grace Church, the Rev. C. J. Ponte officiating. On this occasion the bride was particularly beautiful.

She is the widow of the late Henry Edgerton. On Monday of Easter week, 1888, her marriage with Dr. William J. Younger was solemnized at Grace Church, the Rev. C. J. Ponte officiating. On this occasion the bride was particularly beautiful.

She is the widow of the late Henry Edgerton. On Monday of Easter week, 1888, her marriage with Dr. William J. Younger was solemnized at Grace Church, the Rev. C. J. Ponte officiating. On this occasion the bride was particularly beautiful.

She is the widow of the late Henry Edgerton. On Monday of Easter week, 1888, her marriage with Dr. William J. Younger was solemnized at Grace Church, the Rev. C. J. Ponte officiating. On this occasion the bride was particularly beautiful.

FASHIONS FOR THE MEN.

The Latest Ideas in Regard to What is Most Appropriate.

Jewelry That Does Not Serve a Necessary Purpose and a Distinctive One Should Not Be Worn—Kettling.

THE well-dressed gentleman will wear no jewelry that does not serve a necessary and distinct purpose. The various ideas of crests, monograms, initials and other devices in embroidery, engraving or identification of the owner has reached a noticeable degree of popularity in a very short time.

The success of the high-backed turnover collar—than which a more sensible, comfortable and healthful collar has not yet been introduced—has been a great success. The reason of the high-backed turnover collar's success is that it is a simple in design. A plain old gold pattern of the circumference of the neck, or of the neck and turban—a revived pattern—is very effective.

The presence of a scarf-pin in the neck scarf or any other style of palpably made-up neckwear, when no fastening is required to hold it in place, is a fashion of the past. The scarf is now a simple in design. A plain old gold pattern of the circumference of the neck, or of the neck and turban—a revived pattern—is very effective.

The presence of a scarf-pin in the neck scarf or any other style of palpably made-up neckwear, when no fastening is required to hold it in place, is a fashion of the past. The scarf is now a simple in design. A plain old gold pattern of the circumference of the neck, or of the neck and turban—a revived pattern—is very effective.

The presence of a scarf-pin in the neck scarf or any other style of palpably made-up neckwear, when no fastening is required to hold it in place, is a fashion of the past. The scarf is now a simple in design. A plain old gold pattern of the circumference of the neck, or of the neck and turban—a revived pattern—is very effective.

The presence of a scarf-pin in the neck scarf or any other style of palpably made-up neckwear, when no fastening is required to hold it in place, is a fashion of the past. The scarf is now a simple in design. A plain old gold pattern of the circumference of the neck, or of the neck and turban—a revived pattern—is very effective.

The presence of a scarf-pin in the neck scarf or any other style of palpably made-up neckwear, when no fastening is required to hold it in place, is a fashion of the past. The scarf is now a simple in design. A plain old gold pattern of the circumference of the neck, or of the neck and turban—a revived pattern—is very effective.

The presence of a scarf-pin in the neck scarf or any other style of palpably made-up neckwear, when no fastening is required to hold it in place, is a fashion of the past. The scarf is now a simple in design. A plain old gold pattern of the circumference of the neck, or of the neck and turban—a revived pattern—is very effective.

The presence of a scarf-pin in the neck scarf or any other style of palpably made-up neckwear, when no fastening is required to hold it in place, is a fashion of the past. The scarf is now a simple in design. A plain old gold pattern of the circumference of the neck, or of the neck and turban—a revived pattern—is very effective.

NATURE'S WONDERS.

The Big Spring Near the Village of Palmyra, Wis.

The rare wonders of nature are sometimes met in quiet, unobtrusive spots, and in places where they are not expected.

The rare wonders of nature are sometimes met in quiet, unobtrusive spots, and in places where they are not expected. The Big Spring near the village of Palmyra, Wis., is one of the most wonderful of these.

The rare wonders of nature are sometimes met in quiet, unobtrusive spots, and in places where they are not expected. The Big Spring near the village of Palmyra, Wis., is one of the most wonderful of these.

The rare wonders of nature are sometimes met in quiet, unobtrusive spots, and in places where they are not expected. The Big Spring near the village of Palmyra, Wis., is one of the most wonderful of these.

The rare wonders of nature are sometimes met in quiet, unobtrusive spots, and in places where they are not expected. The Big Spring near the village of Palmyra, Wis., is one of the most wonderful of these.

The rare wonders of nature are sometimes met in quiet, unobtrusive spots, and in places where they are not expected. The Big Spring near the village of Palmyra, Wis., is one of the most wonderful of these.

The rare wonders of nature are sometimes met in quiet, unobtrusive spots, and in places where they are not expected. The Big Spring near the village of Palmyra, Wis., is one of the most wonderful of these.

The rare wonders of nature are sometimes met in quiet, unobtrusive spots, and in places where they are not expected. The Big Spring near the village of Palmyra, Wis., is one of the most wonderful of these.

The rare wonders of nature are sometimes met in quiet, unobtrusive spots, and in places where they are not expected. The Big Spring near the village of Palmyra, Wis., is one of the most wonderful of these.

The rare wonders of nature are sometimes met in quiet, unobtrusive spots, and in places where they are not expected. The Big Spring near the village of Palmyra, Wis., is one of the most wonderful of these.

MISCELLANEOUS.

TO SAVE LIVES. Noble Work of a Great Institution.

A LITTLE BROKEN TOY OR AN EMPTY CRADLE.

It sometimes tells of the departed little one. You never forget the grave when the grave is better far give the children, the attention they receive when alive. Mrs. Kolby, living at 2315, Wilcox street, San Francisco, is a mother who loves her child. Listen to what she says: "This is to certify that three weeks ago I took my child to the Metropolitan Dispensary. He was suffering from paralysis of the lower limbs and could not stand on his feet."

It sometimes tells of the departed little one. You never forget the grave when the grave is better far give the children, the attention they receive when alive. Mrs. Kolby, living at 2315, Wilcox street, San Francisco, is a mother who loves her child. Listen to what she says: "This is to certify that three weeks ago I took my child to the Metropolitan Dispensary. He was suffering from paralysis of the lower limbs and could not stand on his feet."

It sometimes tells of the departed little one. You never forget the grave when the grave is better far give the children, the attention they receive when alive. Mrs. Kolby, living at 2315, Wilcox street, San Francisco, is a mother who loves her child. Listen to what she says: "This is to certify that three weeks ago I took my child to the Metropolitan Dispensary. He was suffering from paralysis of the lower limbs and could not stand on his feet."

It sometimes tells of the departed little one. You never forget the grave when the grave is better far give the children, the attention they receive when alive. Mrs. Kolby, living at 2315, Wilcox street, San Francisco, is a mother who loves her child. Listen to what she says: "This is to certify that three weeks ago I took my child to the Metropolitan Dispensary. He was suffering from paralysis of the lower limbs and could not stand on his feet."

It sometimes tells of the departed little one. You never forget the grave when the grave is better far give the children, the attention they receive when alive. Mrs. Kolby, living at 2315, Wilcox street, San Francisco, is a mother who loves her child. Listen to what she says: "This is to certify that three weeks ago I took my child to the Metropolitan Dispensary. He was suffering from paralysis of the lower limbs and could not stand on his feet."

It sometimes tells of the departed little one. You never forget the grave when the grave is better far give the children, the attention they receive when alive. Mrs. Kolby, living at 2315, Wilcox street, San Francisco, is a mother who loves her child. Listen to what she says: "This is to certify that three weeks ago I took my child to the Metropolitan Dispensary. He was suffering from paralysis of the lower limbs and could not stand on his feet."

It sometimes tells of the departed little one. You never forget the grave when the grave is better far give the children, the attention they receive when alive. Mrs. Kolby, living at 2315, Wilcox street, San Francisco, is a mother who loves her child. Listen to what she says: "This is to certify that three weeks ago I took my child to the Metropolitan Dispensary. He was suffering from paralysis of the lower limbs and could not stand on his feet."

It sometimes tells of the departed little one. You never forget the grave when the grave is better far give the children, the attention they receive when alive. Mrs. Kolby, living at 2315, Wilcox street, San Francisco, is a mother who loves her child. Listen to what she says: "This is to certify that three weeks ago I took my child to the Metropolitan Dispensary. He was suffering from paralysis of the lower limbs and could not stand on his feet."

It sometimes tells of the departed little one. You never forget the grave when the grave is better far give the children, the attention they receive when alive. Mrs. Kolby, living at 2315, Wilcox street, San Francisco, is a mother who loves her child. Listen to what she says: "This is to certify that three weeks ago I took my child to the Metropolitan Dispensary. He was suffering from paralysis of the lower limbs and could not stand on his feet."

DRY GOODS.

RAIN COATS. CIRCULAR PLAIN GRAY AND BROWN RAIN COATS. PEASANT STRIPED AND PLAIN WHITE RAIN COATS.

WATERPROOFS. DOUSKA HUDSON NEUTRAL COLORED WATERPROOFS. VICTORIA PLAIN BLACK AND NAVY WATERPROOFS.

CLOTH GOSSAMERS. RAGLAN TAIL CHECKED CLOTH GOSSAMERS. NEWMARKET STRIPED CLOTH GOSSAMERS.

SILK MACKINTOSHES. LANGTRY SILK MIXED GRAY MACKINTOSHES. INVENSACK CAPED SILK PLAIN MACKINTOSHES.

IMPERMEABLES. MONGOLIFER LIGHT-WEIGHT SILK IMPERMEABLES. PRINCESSE DE SAGAN BLACK SILK IMPERMEABLES.

FRENCH UMBRELLAS. PARAGON STEEL-FRAMED SILK UMBRELLAS. $2.25, $2.50, $3.25, $3.75 and $4.10.

G. VERDIER & CO., VILLE DE PARIS. Southeast Corner Geary Street and Grant Avenue, S. F.

NEW FRENCH CLOTH JACKETS MONDAY.

ELY'S CREAM BALM FOR CHILBLAINS. THE POSITIVE CURE. APPLY BALM TO EACH NOSTRIL—ALL DRUGGISTS, 50 Cts.

MISCELLANEOUS. RAILROAD TRAVEL. SOUTHERN PACIFIC COMPANY. (PACIFIC SYSTEM.)

Trains Leave and Are Due to Arrive at... FROM NOVEMBER 2, 1890—ARRIVE... 7:30 A.M. Hayward, Niles and San Jose... 7:30 A.M. San Francisco, Niles and Hayward... 7:30 A.M. San Francisco, Niles and Hayward... 7:30 A.M. San Francisco, Niles and Hayward...

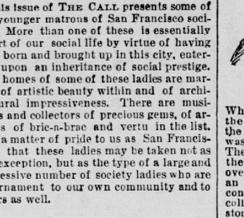

THE VERY LATEST IN FANCY WORK... COMPRISING... Toilet Sets, Music Holders, Portfolios, Boxes, Glove Cases, Afters, Satchels, Hair Brushes, Cigar Cases, Sewing Cases, Shaving Cases, W. & B. Cases, Programmes Holders, Photograph Albums, etc.

NEWMAN & LEVINSON. 125 to 131 Kearny Street and 209 Sutter Street. OCEAN STEAMSHIPS. PACIFIC COAST STEAMSHIP CO.

FOR PORTLAND & ASTORIA, OREGON. THE UNION PACIFIC RAILWAY. OCEANIC STEAMSHIP COMPANY. THE COMPANY'S STEAMERS WILL... FOR NEW YORK, VIA PANAMA.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT A CERTAIN copy of the... THE PALACE HOTEL. PANTS TO ORDER. $3.50 AND UPWARD.

TO WEAK MEN. Suffering from the effects of youthful errors, early decay, wasting weakness, loss of vitality, etc., send a valuable treatise containing full particulars for some cure. FREE OF CHARGE. Write to Geo. W. F. P. Co., 112 Broadway, New York.

MRS. EDGAR F. PRESTON. Is one of our younger matrons. She is a San Francisco woman, educated in our best schools, and by her bright wit and sparkling conversation is a representative of the women we may be proud.

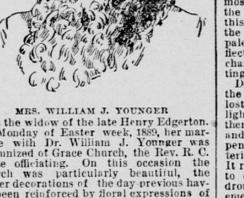

MRS. WILLIAM J. YOUNGER. She is the widow of the late Henry Edgerton. On Monday of Easter week, 1888, her marriage with Dr. William J. Younger was solemnized at Grace Church, the Rev. C. J. Ponte officiating.

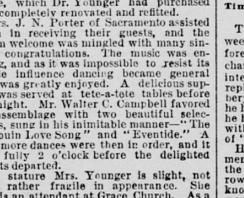

MRS. H. C. TATUM. Is a lady of fine presence and great popularity. She is the presiding genius of an elegant artistic home on the southeast corner of Pacific and Pierce streets.

MRS. THEODORE F. PAYNE. Who was Miss Theodore Coleman, sister of the late William Coleman and niece of the late William O'Brien, the milliner, was married by Cardinal McCloskey to Theodore F. Payne, son of Theodore Payne, the old Californian.

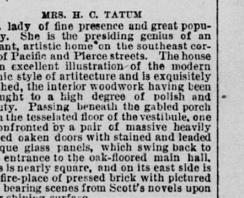

MRS. WILLIAM J. YOUNGER. She is the widow of the late Henry Edgerton. On Monday of Easter week, 1888, her marriage with Dr. William J. Younger was solemnized at Grace Church, the Rev. C. J. Ponte officiating.

MRS. H. C. TATUM. Is a lady of fine presence and great popularity. She is the presiding genius of an elegant artistic home on the southeast corner of Pacific and Pierce streets.

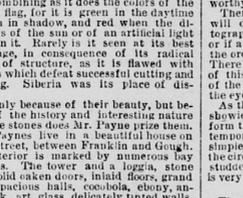

MRS. THEODORE F. PAYNE. Who was Miss Theodore Coleman, sister of the late William Coleman and niece of the late William O'Brien, the milliner, was married by Cardinal McCloskey to Theodore F. Payne, son of Theodore Payne, the old Californian.

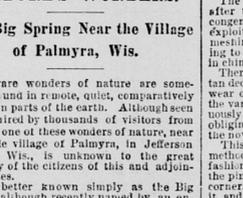

MRS. WILLIAM J. YOUNGER. She is the widow of the late Henry Edgerton. On Monday of Easter week, 1888, her marriage with Dr. William J. Younger was solemnized at Grace Church, the Rev. C. J. Ponte officiating.

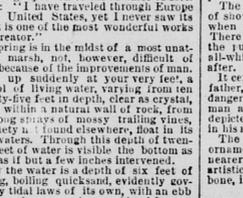

MRS. WILLIAM J. YOUNGER. She is the widow of the late Henry Edgerton. On Monday of Easter week, 1888, her marriage with Dr. William J. Younger was solemnized at Grace Church, the Rev. C. J. Ponte officiating.

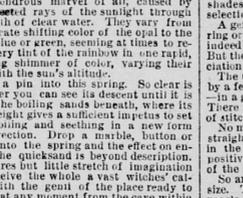

MRS. H. C. TATUM. Is a lady of fine presence and great popularity. She is the presiding genius of an elegant artistic home on the southeast corner of Pacific and Pierce streets.

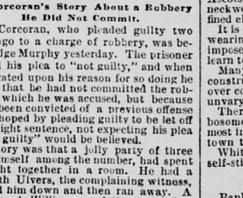

MRS. THEODORE F. PAYNE. Who was Miss Theodore Coleman, sister of the late William Coleman and niece of the late William O'Brien, the milliner, was married by Cardinal McCloskey to Theodore F. Payne, son of Theodore Payne, the old Californian.

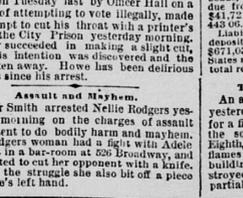

MRS. WILLIAM J. YOUNGER. She is the widow of the late Henry Edgerton. On Monday of Easter week, 1888, her marriage with Dr. William J. Younger was solemnized at Grace Church, the Rev. C. J. Ponte officiating.

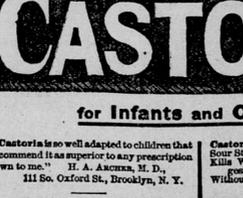

MRS. H. C. TATUM. Is a lady of fine presence and great popularity. She is the presiding genius of an elegant artistic home on the southeast corner of Pacific and Pierce streets.

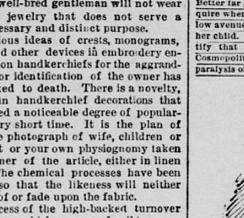

MRS. THEODORE F. PAYNE. Who was Miss Theodore Coleman, sister of the late William Coleman and niece of the late William O'Brien, the milliner, was married by Cardinal McCloskey to Theodore F. Payne, son of Theodore Payne, the old Californian.

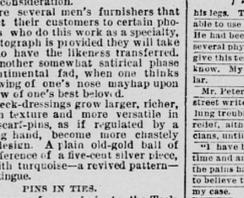

MRS. WILLIAM J. YOUNGER. She is the widow of the late Henry Edgerton. On Monday of Easter week, 1888, her marriage with Dr. William J. Younger was solemnized at Grace Church, the Rev. C. J. Ponte officiating.

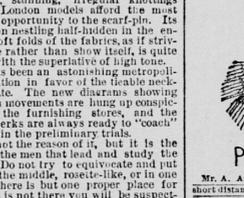

MRS. H. C. TATUM. Is a lady of fine presence and great popularity. She is the presiding genius of an elegant artistic home on the southeast corner of Pacific and Pierce streets.

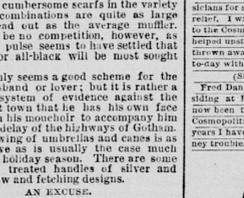

Master Henry Kolby. It sometimes tells of the departed little one. You never forget the grave when the grave is better far give the children, the attention they receive when alive.

Peter A. Anderson. He is the father of the family, and when he came to the Metropolitan Dispensary, he was suffering from paralysis of the lower limbs and could not stand on his feet.

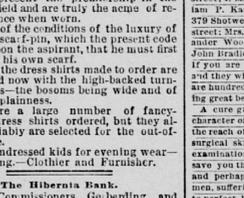

Fred Daniels. "I was so bad that I was compelled to stop my work, and I consulted several of the leading physicians of San Francisco. By the advice of a friend I went to the Metropolitan Dispensary, and after a few days I was cured of my ailment."

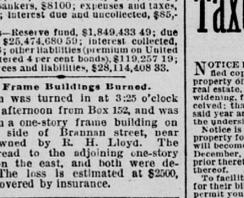

Fred Daniels. "I was so bad that I was compelled to stop my work, and I consulted several of the leading physicians of San Francisco. By the advice of a friend I went to the Metropolitan Dispensary, and after a few days I was cured of my ailment."

Fred Daniels. "I was so bad that I was compelled to stop my work, and I consulted several of the leading physicians of San Francisco. By the advice of a friend I went to the Metropolitan Dispensary, and after a few days I was cured of my ailment."

Fred Daniels. "I was so bad that I was compelled to stop my work, and I consulted several of the leading physicians of San Francisco. By the advice of a friend I went to the Metropolitan Dispensary, and after a few days I was cured of my ailment."

Fred Daniels. "I was so bad that I was compelled to stop my work, and I consulted several of the leading physicians of San Francisco. By the advice of a friend I went to the Metropolitan Dispensary, and after a few days I was cured of my ailment."

Fred Daniels. "I was so bad that I was compelled to stop my work, and I consulted several of the leading physicians of San Francisco. By the advice of a friend I went to the Metropolitan Dispensary, and after a few days I was cured of my ailment."