DAY LABOR.

A Day Devoted to the Interests of the Workingmen.

Generally Observed in Business Centers From Maine to California.

Suspension of Business, Imposing Parades, Interesting Literary Exercises, Picnics, Music and Dancing.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—The city today presented the usual Sunday aspect of a metropolitan holiday, with the stores and public buildings closed and the streets upon which visitors and sightseers. Downtown everything looked deserted and very few people were on the streets, except apparently excursionists on the way to the ferries or the steamboats.

The labor people were much elated over the sudden favorable change in the weather. It had been raining almost incessantly ever since Saturday afternoon, but this morning the sun shined brightly, the air was cool, and there was nothing but muddy streets to interfere with the comfort of thousands of holiday seekers.

Though the Central Labor Union and Federation held separate parades it was not from a spirit of hostility, but of a friendly rivalry.

The parade made an excellent appearance, the topographical chapels of the local newspapers being a prominent and interesting feature.

BRUNSWICK, Sept. 7.—Labor day was celebrated here on a scale of grandeur and magnificence. Governor Hill was present and viewed the parade, after which he held a reception.

ROCHESTER (N. Y.), Sept. 7.—Labor day was observed here today more generally than ever before. Business was generally suspended, and parades and picnics were the order of the day.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 7.—Labor day is generally observed here by the closing of the financial institutions, the Federal offices and the suspension of business generally.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 7.—Labor day was not observed as formerly. There was no demonstration, and the streets were empty.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 7.—Labor day was observed today by a procession of workingmen. After the parade addresses were given by the various labor organizations.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Labor day was very generally observed here. The banks, the Board of Trade, business houses, courts and municipal offices were closed.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 7.—The first general observance of Labor day in this city took place today. Twenty thousand men formed in procession and marched through the streets.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 7.—Labor day was observed here by the closing of the financial institutions and the suspension of business generally.

ST. PAUL, Sept. 7.—Labor day was observed as usual today, many houses being closed.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 7.—A parade and speech-making were the order of the day's exercises for the celebration of the labor holiday.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 7.—Labor day was generally observed here by the closing of the financial institutions and the suspension of business generally.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 7.—Specials from a number of cities in Kansas indicate that the day was very generally observed as a holiday.

DETROIT, Sept. 7.—Labor day was celebrated quietly here today with a parade and picnic.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 7.—Labor day today was celebrated in the usual way.

DENVER, Sept. 7.—Labor day was generally observed here and throughout the State today. In this city the business houses, banks and public houses were closed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Labor day was observed here by a parade of the labor organizations.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 7.—Labor day was fitly observed today. Business generally was suspended at noon. Delegations of labor organizations and a large number of workers in the city, and included the general assembly of laborers in the Southern Pacific Railroad strike.

FAIR COMMITTEES.

Reports Presented to the National Commission.

Measures Proposed to Meet the Threatened Deficit in Funds.

A Cut in Salaries or a Loan—The Whole Matter Finally Referred to a Board of Reference and Control.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—The National Columbian Commission assembled this morning. The report of the Committee on Awards, recommending the appointment of a committee of eight to have charge of the award of premiums, was adopted, after being amended to make the number twelve, and referred to the Judiciary Committee to frame the rules and by-laws for its government.

Commissioner Mercer of Wyoming introduced a resolution setting forth that the Bureau of Publicity and Promotion had sent out a statement that there would be a cut in salaries, and that the World's Fair grounds, to which separate charges of admission would be made, and declaring it to be the sense of the commission that only one price for admission should be charged for everything on the grounds. Referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

A committee of four was appointed to prepare a suitable resolution touching the death of Commissioner Bingham of Washington.

A request from the Board of Lady Managers for permission to extend their session for one or two days was accepted.

The Committee on Resolutions touching the death of Commissioner Bingham made a suitable report, and after adopting it the committee adjourned until 12 o'clock.

At the afternoon session a resolution was adopted instructing the members of the executive committee to secure the necessary Congress in their respective States to secure their vote for the proposed movement for a loan of $5,000,000 to the fair.

The Committee on Tariffs and Transportation reported that low rates for visitors to the fair would be granted, and that the rate of the country,
