

DRY GOODS.

THE ONLY DEPARTMENT STORE IN SAN FRANCISCO!

SILKS AND DRESS GOODS!

Our Specialties for the Week!

SILKS. BLACK INDIA, 22 inches wide, special price and quality, for this week only, former price 75c a yard.

49c A YARD.

FANCY PRINTED INDIA SILKS, high art novelties, we offer them as a special leader this week, you'll never buy them again under 50c a yard.

59c A YARD.

CREPE DE CHINE. Black only, a rich, soft finish, full 22 inches wide, pure silk, and our $1.10 quality.

75c A YARD.

CHANGABLE SURAH SILKS, a very high cost material, and one of the latest novelties, new effects, a stunning value.

75c A YARD.

FIGURED INDIA SILKS. Just received—Myrtle, navy and black grounds, with colored designs. This value would be remarkably low at $1 a yard.

75c A YARD.

India, China and Surah Figured silks, all grounds, colored designs, patterns confined to the Maze and can only be had of us.

$1.23 A YARD.

SILKS AND DRESS GOODS!

Our Specialties for the Week!

SILKS. BLACK INDIA, 22 inches wide, special price and quality, for this week only, former price 75c a yard.

49c A YARD.

FANCY PRINTED INDIA SILKS, high art novelties, we offer them as a special leader this week, you'll never buy them again under 50c a yard.

59c A YARD.

CREPE DE CHINE. Black only, a rich, soft finish, full 22 inches wide, pure silk, and our $1.10 quality.

75c A YARD.

CHANGABLE SURAH SILKS, a very high cost material, and one of the latest novelties, new effects, a stunning value.

75c A YARD.

FIGURED INDIA SILKS. Just received—Myrtle, navy and black grounds, with colored designs. This value would be remarkably low at $1 a yard.

75c A YARD.

India, China and Surah Figured silks, all grounds, colored designs, patterns confined to the Maze and can only be had of us.

$1.23 A YARD.

DRESS GOODS. EVENING SHADES WOOL ALBATROS. New evening shades, full 22 inches wide, strictly all wool, also a full line of nun's veils, lings, at

25c A YARD.

Chevron and wall effect new spring suitings, mixture of effects, the largest assortment of fashionable materials at one price ever shown.

49c A YARD.

TORM SERGES. The latest all-wool popular heavy tulle, rough weave, spring shades, regular price, $1 a yard.

75c A YARD.

FRENCH SURAH SERGE. 22-inch wide all-wool black surah serge, extra width, this quality is well worth $2 a yard.

$1.95 A YARD.

HER MAJESTY'S CORSETS! We have been appointed sole agents for this celebrated corset, and guarantee every pair. They create a more perfect figure and will reduce the size and increase the length of ladies' waists without injurious tight lacing. They give comfort and ease to the wearer. They are especially adapted to all sizes, and they modify their growing figures to perfection.

$2.75 EACH.

Upward. Try them.

ANGORA RUGS! To-morrow we'll offer 200 extra fine WHIPPED ANGORA RUGS, they are of rare quality. They are made in the United States on receipt of price.

$2.50 EACH.

CREAM CANTON CREPE. A beautiful quality, full 27 inches wide, pure silk, splendid value at $1.25.

98c A YARD.

OPEN EVERY SATURDAY NIGHT UNTIL 10.

MARKET, TAYLOR AND GOLDEN GATE AVE.

OCCIDENTAL HOTEL, SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA. A QUIET HOUSE WHOSE CHIEF CHARACTERISTIC IS COURTEOUS ATTENTION.

WM. B. HOOPER, Manager.

ART AUCTION! LOTS FOR SALE ON EASY TERMS IN THE NEW CITY ON THE BAY!

THE FAMOUS GUMP COLLECTION

MODERN EUROPEAN PAINTINGS

BUCKINGHAM & CO., 415 Montgomery St., AGENTS FOR THE COMPANY.

THE COSTIKYAN COLLECTION

IRVING HALL, 139 POST STREET, EVERY AFTERNOON NOW ON FREE EXHIBITION DAY AND EVENING

REAL ESTATE EXCHANGE, 16 POST STREET.

DR. LIEBIG & CO., 400 GEARY ST. San Francisco's Oldest and Most Reliable

COAL! COAL! Brightest Luster. Most Durable. Quick Working. Sold by Dealers. Mfg. at 630 Castro Street.

DR. LIEBIG & CO., 400 GEARY ST. San Francisco's Oldest and Most Reliable

COAL! COAL! Brightest Luster. Most Durable. Quick Working. Sold by Dealers. Mfg. at 630 Castro Street.

DR. LIEBIG & CO., 400 GEARY ST. San Francisco's Oldest and Most Reliable

COAL! COAL! Brightest Luster. Most Durable. Quick Working. Sold by Dealers. Mfg. at 630 Castro Street.

DR. LIEBIG & CO., 400 GEARY ST. San Francisco's Oldest and Most Reliable

COAL! COAL! Brightest Luster. Most Durable. Quick Working. Sold by Dealers. Mfg. at 630 Castro Street.

THE STANFORD KICKERS.

An Exciting Football Game at the Haight-Street Grounds.

Ten Thousand People Witnessed the Rushes of the Stanford and Berkeley Students. Scenes in the City by Day and Night.

The corridors of the Palace Hotel and Lick House were taken possession of yesterday morning by a swarm of college students from Berkeley and Palo Alto. The Lick House was the headquarters of the Stanford University boys and the Palace became the rallying point for the State University crowd.

The game was a hot one, and the students were in ribbons around their headgear and sleeves and in buttonholes. Each student carried a little flag and a tin horn, or some other instrument of aeriform torture. The Berkeley boys did their best, but the Stanford boys, who were better equipped, transferred, wagons and band-wagons, and, creating their own music, drove up and down the street all the morning, tooting horns, ringing cowbells, rattling rattles and making other noises that indicated their hearty approval of the game.

Stanford University boys. All the best coaches and vehicles had been forestalled by the Stanford University boys and they marched capably to the Lick House, the headquarters of the Palo Alto boys, where they made an imposing appearance. In the Berkeley division, which was not left in the cold, and the combination of all sorts of teams and vehicles filled with the crowd decorated with the red and yellow and blue created quite a sensation with the gay and busy crowds which thronged the streets.

The following is the makeup of the Stanford team: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The Berkeley team was made up of the following: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The game was a hot one, and the students were in ribbons around their headgear and sleeves and in buttonholes. Each student carried a little flag and a tin horn, or some other instrument of aeriform torture. The Berkeley boys did their best, but the Stanford boys, who were better equipped, transferred, wagons and band-wagons, and, creating their own music, drove up and down the street all the morning, tooting horns, ringing cowbells, rattling rattles and making other noises that indicated their hearty approval of the game.

Stanford University boys. All the best coaches and vehicles had been forestalled by the Stanford University boys and they marched capably to the Lick House, the headquarters of the Palo Alto boys, where they made an imposing appearance. In the Berkeley division, which was not left in the cold, and the combination of all sorts of teams and vehicles filled with the crowd decorated with the red and yellow and blue created quite a sensation with the gay and busy crowds which thronged the streets.

The following is the makeup of the Stanford team: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The Berkeley team was made up of the following: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The game was a hot one, and the students were in ribbons around their headgear and sleeves and in buttonholes. Each student carried a little flag and a tin horn, or some other instrument of aeriform torture. The Berkeley boys did their best, but the Stanford boys, who were better equipped, transferred, wagons and band-wagons, and, creating their own music, drove up and down the street all the morning, tooting horns, ringing cowbells, rattling rattles and making other noises that indicated their hearty approval of the game.

Stanford University boys. All the best coaches and vehicles had been forestalled by the Stanford University boys and they marched capably to the Lick House, the headquarters of the Palo Alto boys, where they made an imposing appearance. In the Berkeley division, which was not left in the cold, and the combination of all sorts of teams and vehicles filled with the crowd decorated with the red and yellow and blue created quite a sensation with the gay and busy crowds which thronged the streets.

The following is the makeup of the Stanford team: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The Berkeley team was made up of the following: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The game was a hot one, and the students were in ribbons around their headgear and sleeves and in buttonholes. Each student carried a little flag and a tin horn, or some other instrument of aeriform torture. The Berkeley boys did their best, but the Stanford boys, who were better equipped, transferred, wagons and band-wagons, and, creating their own music, drove up and down the street all the morning, tooting horns, ringing cowbells, rattling rattles and making other noises that indicated their hearty approval of the game.

Stanford University boys. All the best coaches and vehicles had been forestalled by the Stanford University boys and they marched capably to the Lick House, the headquarters of the Palo Alto boys, where they made an imposing appearance. In the Berkeley division, which was not left in the cold, and the combination of all sorts of teams and vehicles filled with the crowd decorated with the red and yellow and blue created quite a sensation with the gay and busy crowds which thronged the streets.

The following is the makeup of the Stanford team: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The Berkeley team was made up of the following: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The game was a hot one, and the students were in ribbons around their headgear and sleeves and in buttonholes. Each student carried a little flag and a tin horn, or some other instrument of aeriform torture. The Berkeley boys did their best, but the Stanford boys, who were better equipped, transferred, wagons and band-wagons, and, creating their own music, drove up and down the street all the morning, tooting horns, ringing cowbells, rattling rattles and making other noises that indicated their hearty approval of the game.

Stanford University boys. All the best coaches and vehicles had been forestalled by the Stanford University boys and they marched capably to the Lick House, the headquarters of the Palo Alto boys, where they made an imposing appearance. In the Berkeley division, which was not left in the cold, and the combination of all sorts of teams and vehicles filled with the crowd decorated with the red and yellow and blue created quite a sensation with the gay and busy crowds which thronged the streets.

The following is the makeup of the Stanford team: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The Berkeley team was made up of the following: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The game was a hot one, and the students were in ribbons around their headgear and sleeves and in buttonholes. Each student carried a little flag and a tin horn, or some other instrument of aeriform torture. The Berkeley boys did their best, but the Stanford boys, who were better equipped, transferred, wagons and band-wagons, and, creating their own music, drove up and down the street all the morning, tooting horns, ringing cowbells, rattling rattles and making other noises that indicated their hearty approval of the game.

Stanford University boys. All the best coaches and vehicles had been forestalled by the Stanford University boys and they marched capably to the Lick House, the headquarters of the Palo Alto boys, where they made an imposing appearance. In the Berkeley division, which was not left in the cold, and the combination of all sorts of teams and vehicles filled with the crowd decorated with the red and yellow and blue created quite a sensation with the gay and busy crowds which thronged the streets.

The following is the makeup of the Stanford team: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The Berkeley team was made up of the following: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The game was a hot one, and the students were in ribbons around their headgear and sleeves and in buttonholes. Each student carried a little flag and a tin horn, or some other instrument of aeriform torture. The Berkeley boys did their best, but the Stanford boys, who were better equipped, transferred, wagons and band-wagons, and, creating their own music, drove up and down the street all the morning, tooting horns, ringing cowbells, rattling rattles and making other noises that indicated their hearty approval of the game.

Stanford University boys. All the best coaches and vehicles had been forestalled by the Stanford University boys and they marched capably to the Lick House, the headquarters of the Palo Alto boys, where they made an imposing appearance. In the Berkeley division, which was not left in the cold, and the combination of all sorts of teams and vehicles filled with the crowd decorated with the red and yellow and blue created quite a sensation with the gay and busy crowds which thronged the streets.

The following is the makeup of the Stanford team: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The Berkeley team was made up of the following: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The game was a hot one, and the students were in ribbons around their headgear and sleeves and in buttonholes. Each student carried a little flag and a tin horn, or some other instrument of aeriform torture. The Berkeley boys did their best, but the Stanford boys, who were better equipped, transferred, wagons and band-wagons, and, creating their own music, drove up and down the street all the morning, tooting horns, ringing cowbells, rattling rattles and making other noises that indicated their hearty approval of the game.

FROM ACROSS THE BAY.

Some New Phases in the Hanlon-Miller Imbroglia.

An Elopement Coupled in Seattle—A Jewish Temple to Be Dedicated to Day-Petty Criminals.

The whereabouts of Arthur Tompkins of East Oakland, who suddenly and mysteriously disappeared about four weeks ago, has just come to light. He is in Seattle, and he has been found in the most unexpected manner. He is now in the custody of the police.

As the result of a hotly contested, progressed it was noticed that the repeated rushing tactics displayed by the Berkeley team were somewhat ineffectual, and as a consequence the Stanford, by cunning and clever maneuvering, were getting closer to the prospective goal.

After the ball had gone outside of the touchline and was brought back, Clemons, the Stanford's halfback, got hold of the leather, and through a burst of speed, and finally scored a touchdown, which brought the score to 8 points in favor of the Stanford.

Whitmore made the kick, but owing, possibly, to the long grass he failed to send the ball into the goal.

It was, however, a difficult kick to make. The ball was then brought back twenty-five yards and put into play again. The result of the first half was a tie, 8 points each.

The Stanford boys were better equipped, transferred, wagons and band-wagons, and, creating their own music, drove up and down the street all the morning, tooting horns, ringing cowbells, rattling rattles and making other noises that indicated their hearty approval of the game.

Stanford University boys. All the best coaches and vehicles had been forestalled by the Stanford University boys and they marched capably to the Lick House, the headquarters of the Palo Alto boys, where they made an imposing appearance. In the Berkeley division, which was not left in the cold, and the combination of all sorts of teams and vehicles filled with the crowd decorated with the red and yellow and blue created quite a sensation with the gay and busy crowds which thronged the streets.

The following is the makeup of the Stanford team: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The Berkeley team was made up of the following: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The game was a hot one, and the students were in ribbons around their headgear and sleeves and in buttonholes. Each student carried a little flag and a tin horn, or some other instrument of aeriform torture. The Berkeley boys did their best, but the Stanford boys, who were better equipped, transferred, wagons and band-wagons, and, creating their own music, drove up and down the street all the morning, tooting horns, ringing cowbells, rattling rattles and making other noises that indicated their hearty approval of the game.

Stanford University boys. All the best coaches and vehicles had been forestalled by the Stanford University boys and they marched capably to the Lick House, the headquarters of the Palo Alto boys, where they made an imposing appearance. In the Berkeley division, which was not left in the cold, and the combination of all sorts of teams and vehicles filled with the crowd decorated with the red and yellow and blue created quite a sensation with the gay and busy crowds which thronged the streets.

The following is the makeup of the Stanford team: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The Berkeley team was made up of the following: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The game was a hot one, and the students were in ribbons around their headgear and sleeves and in buttonholes. Each student carried a little flag and a tin horn, or some other instrument of aeriform torture. The Berkeley boys did their best, but the Stanford boys, who were better equipped, transferred, wagons and band-wagons, and, creating their own music, drove up and down the street all the morning, tooting horns, ringing cowbells, rattling rattles and making other noises that indicated their hearty approval of the game.

Stanford University boys. All the best coaches and vehicles had been forestalled by the Stanford University boys and they marched capably to the Lick House, the headquarters of the Palo Alto boys, where they made an imposing appearance. In the Berkeley division, which was not left in the cold, and the combination of all sorts of teams and vehicles filled with the crowd decorated with the red and yellow and blue created quite a sensation with the gay and busy crowds which thronged the streets.

The following is the makeup of the Stanford team: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The Berkeley team was made up of the following: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The game was a hot one, and the students were in ribbons around their headgear and sleeves and in buttonholes. Each student carried a little flag and a tin horn, or some other instrument of aeriform torture. The Berkeley boys did their best, but the Stanford boys, who were better equipped, transferred, wagons and band-wagons, and, creating their own music, drove up and down the street all the morning, tooting horns, ringing cowbells, rattling rattles and making other noises that indicated their hearty approval of the game.

Stanford University boys. All the best coaches and vehicles had been forestalled by the Stanford University boys and they marched capably to the Lick House, the headquarters of the Palo Alto boys, where they made an imposing appearance. In the Berkeley division, which was not left in the cold, and the combination of all sorts of teams and vehicles filled with the crowd decorated with the red and yellow and blue created quite a sensation with the gay and busy crowds which thronged the streets.

The following is the makeup of the Stanford team: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The Berkeley team was made up of the following: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The game was a hot one, and the students were in ribbons around their headgear and sleeves and in buttonholes. Each student carried a little flag and a tin horn, or some other instrument of aeriform torture. The Berkeley boys did their best, but the Stanford boys, who were better equipped, transferred, wagons and band-wagons, and, creating their own music, drove up and down the street all the morning, tooting horns, ringing cowbells, rattling rattles and making other noises that indicated their hearty approval of the game.

Stanford University boys. All the best coaches and vehicles had been forestalled by the Stanford University boys and they marched capably to the Lick House, the headquarters of the Palo Alto boys, where they made an imposing appearance. In the Berkeley division, which was not left in the cold, and the combination of all sorts of teams and vehicles filled with the crowd decorated with the red and yellow and blue created quite a sensation with the gay and busy crowds which thronged the streets.

The following is the makeup of the Stanford team: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The Berkeley team was made up of the following: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The game was a hot one, and the students were in ribbons around their headgear and sleeves and in buttonholes. Each student carried a little flag and a tin horn, or some other instrument of aeriform torture. The Berkeley boys did their best, but the Stanford boys, who were better equipped, transferred, wagons and band-wagons, and, creating their own music, drove up and down the street all the morning, tooting horns, ringing cowbells, rattling rattles and making other noises that indicated their hearty approval of the game.

Stanford University boys. All the best coaches and vehicles had been forestalled by the Stanford University boys and they marched capably to the Lick House, the headquarters of the Palo Alto boys, where they made an imposing appearance. In the Berkeley division, which was not left in the cold, and the combination of all sorts of teams and vehicles filled with the crowd decorated with the red and yellow and blue created quite a sensation with the gay and busy crowds which thronged the streets.

The following is the makeup of the Stanford team: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The Berkeley team was made up of the following: Captain, J. B. Whitmore; Manager, J. B. Whitmore; Quarterback, J. B. Whitmore; Fullback, J. B. Whitmore; Halfback, J. B. Whitmore; Tackle, J. B. Whitmore; Guard, J. B. Whitmore; End, J. B. Whitmore; Linebacker, J. B. Whitmore; Defensive Back, J. B. Whitmore; Punter, J. B. Whitmore; Kicker, J. B. Whitmore.

The game was a hot one, and the students were in ribbons around their headgear and sleeves and in buttonholes. Each student carried a little flag and a tin horn, or some other instrument of aeriform torture. The Berkeley boys did their best, but the Stanford boys, who were better equipped, transferred, wagons and band-wagons, and, creating their own music, drove up and down the street all the morning, tooting horns, ringing cowbells, rattling rattles and making other noises that indicated their hearty approval of the game.

DRY GOODS.

SPRING NOVELTIES Season 1892.

In Black and Mourning Woolen Dress Fabrics we are exhibiting nearly a hundred new designs and selected weaves. Black Crepons in all wool, all silk, and wool mixed, in plain and embroidered effects. All-Black Grenadines of pure silk in over twenty exceptionally elegant designs; new Zebelines, also many English Novelties in Black Woolen stuffs. In Dress Trimmings, passementeries in new and chaste styles are exhibited in silk, jet, steel, tinsel and applique effects, new shapes in silk and jet and silk girdles, bead aprons in silk, jet and iridescent effects. In our Silk Department the most attractive specimens of "Swivel" and Illuminated Surahs are exhibited in many beautiful and exclusive designs. Particular attention is directed to our 24-inch Black Surahs, better than the usual dollar grade, at 75 cents per yard. Samples forwarded free to any address.

MAIL ORDERS promptly and carefully executed. Packages Delivered Free in San Rafael, Sausalito, Elthdale, Mill Valley, Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley.

O'Connor's No-Fat's

111, 113, 115, 117, 119, 121 POST STREET. SAN FRANCISCO.

SPHINX

COOK & CO., IMPORTERS, Decorated Chamber Sets ASSORTED COLORS. $2.25 Set!

NEWMAN & LEVINSON 123 Kearny St. 125 to 131 Kearny Street and 209 Sutter Street.

THE CALIFORNIA SAVINGS & LOAN SOCIETY. Corner of Powell and Eddy Streets. (ESTABLISHED 1873.)

WILL & TRICK, The Leading Outlets and Bazaar, 818 and 820 Market St., PHILADELPHIA.

EPPS'S COCOA BREAKFAST. "By a thorough knowledge of the natural