

MAKING A CABINET.

Mr. Cleveland and His Advisers.

IT IS RATHER WEARY WORK.

There are Many Rumors, but It is Known Only That Gray Has Refused to Serve.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—A local paper will say this morning: "The belief is growing that Mr. C. Carter of this city is now the choice of Cleveland for Secretary of State, and in the event of his appointment it is said that Judge W. Gresham is likely to have his place as attorney in the Behring Sea controversy. There is a good deal of discussion over Judge Gresham, whose appointment to a Cabinet office would be received with disfavor by many Democrats. It is limited that Cleveland has already offered Judge Gresham the post, and that whatever was offered he declined. "Henry Villard may also be in the Cabinet as Secretary of the Interior, but the appointment would create considerable talk because of his railroad connections. "The Hon. M. Dickinson, secretary of Mr. C. Whitney, is no longer spoken of for a Cabinet portfolio. If Mr. Whitney accepts any office it will probably be the mission to England, or France. "The Hon. M. Dickinson will probably be New England's representative in the Cabinet. "NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—President-elect Cleveland was closeted during the greater part of the afternoon with ex-Secretary of State M. Dickinson, and the latter arrived and joined them. The others who dropped in during the afternoon, Colonel Joseph Keller, Colonel Pepper and Brown, E. W. Marland and James T. M. McKim. Mr. Dickinson, Mr. Peck and O'Connell, and Mr. Dickinson, with the President-elect and ex-Secretary Fairchild for about three-quarters of an hour, and Colonel Daniel Lamont and Senator McClellan were also among Cleveland's afternoon callers. "The Herald's Washington special says: Senator Gray of Delaware has declined the offer of the Secretaryship of State, which was tendered him by Cleveland through Mr. Dickinson on Thursday, and preferring to remain in the Senate. He had already declined the offer of Attorney-General.

It is said that Dickinson and Judge Gresham have both declined portfolios. "WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—A remarkable and unprecedented scene was enacted in the House. It was a tribute to Blount of Georgia, who retires from Congress at this session. When consideration of the diplomatic bill had been completed, the Democratic father of the House, arose and expressed sincere regret that an association of twenty years had to be severed. "O'Neill of Pennsylvania, the Republican leader, endorsed every word of the high eulogium which Blount had uttered, and Pitt, Hand, Springer and McCree added their need of praise to the ability and patriotism of the retiring member, and then the speaker, in a few words, in the direction of Blount's promotion to the Cabinet. "Blount was profoundly moved. In a few words he responded to the remarks, and declared that whatever the future had in store for him he would ever look back on this hour as the brightest hour in his life. "Senator Carlisle of Kentucky leaves the Upper House of Congress to-day, this being the date on which his resignation goes into effect.

MASON CITY, Iowa, Feb. 4.—Colonel McClellan has received a letter from the Democratic National Committee W. F. Harris, saying: "I will not hold any position in the present Administration. My official duties are at Harrisburg, Pa., and my professional and business engagements here are of such a character that it would be a great mistake for me to think of leaving them to be engaged in politics. "LAKWOOD, N. J., Feb. 4.—The visits of statesmen to Cleveland will cease to-day. At his special request he will be left severely alone from now until inauguration, giving him a breathing spell and ample time in which to prepare his inaugural address. "BOSTON, Feb. 4.—Charles S. Hamlin was asked to-day if he had heard anything official regarding a dispatch stating that he was to be appointed Assistant Secretary of the Treasury. He said that Cleveland had not offered him a position in the Treasury Department.

CLARKSON DOES NOT LIKE THE APPOINTMENT OF JACKSON. "DES MOINES, Iowa, Feb. 4.—The State Register prints a long telegram from General J. S. Clarkson, criticizing the President for his appointment of Judge Jackson to the Supreme bench. Clarkson calls it a "betrayal of the people's confidence," and says that the President's action is called execrable and indefensible, and should not only be condemned by Republicans, but opposed by the Republicans in the Senate. "BOSTON, Feb. 4.—The Boston Herald telegraphed the Senators from Iowa to vote against the confirmation of Jackson.

POPULISTS WILL GATHER.

An Effort to Be Made to Influence Beckton, Mass. "There is to be an important gathering of the Populists at Washington February 22. Four organizations will assemble at that time: the Bi-metallics, Industrial Alliance, Reformers, and the National Farmers' Alliance. An effort will be made to amalgamate these branches of the People's party with the view to effective work in the way of securing desired legislation during Cleveland's term of office. "The Populists are in the strongest shape in the last campaign, they can make both the old parties recognize their demands; if not, it will clear the way for an effective campaign in 1896. "The Populists will meet every State and Territory in the Union.

NO SETTLEMENT YET.

Casey's Withdrawal Was of No Avail in North Dakota. "BISMARCK, N. D., Feb. 4.—On account of the withdrawal of Senator Casey from the Republican hold a caucus to-day, but adjourned. The thirty-first joint ballot was: Shortridge, 37; Ordway, 12; Horst, 5; Palmer, 6; Kingman, 6; Anderson, 10; Horst, 5; the rest scattering.

Business Troubles Killed Him.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—John Jacob Astor, in a letter to Commodore Gerry, dated February 2, offered two cups, valued at $600 each, to be competed for at Newport on July 25 and 27.

Two Cups From Astor.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—John Jacob Astor, in a letter to Commodore Gerry, dated February 2, offered two cups, valued at $600 each, to be competed for at Newport on July 25 and 27.

Business Troubles Killed Him.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—John Jacob Astor, in a letter to Commodore Gerry, dated February 2, offered two cups, valued at $600 each, to be competed for at Newport on July 25 and 27.

Two Cups From Astor.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—John Jacob Astor, in a letter to Commodore Gerry, dated February 2, offered two cups, valued at $600 each, to be competed for at Newport on July 25 and 27.

Business Troubles Killed Him.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—John Jacob Astor, in a letter to Commodore Gerry, dated February 2, offered two cups, valued at $600 each, to be competed for at Newport on July 25 and 27.

Two Cups From Astor.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—John Jacob Astor, in a letter to Commodore Gerry, dated February 2, offered two cups, valued at $600 each, to be competed for at Newport on July 25 and 27.

Business Troubles Killed Him.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—John Jacob Astor, in a letter to Commodore Gerry, dated February 2, offered two cups, valued at $600 each, to be competed for at Newport on July 25 and 27.

Two Cups From Astor.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—John Jacob Astor, in a letter to Commodore Gerry, dated February 2, offered two cups, valued at $600 each, to be competed for at Newport on July 25 and 27.

Business Troubles Killed Him.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—John Jacob Astor, in a letter to Commodore Gerry, dated February 2, offered two cups, valued at $600 each, to be competed for at Newport on July 25 and 27.

Two Cups From Astor.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—John Jacob Astor, in a letter to Commodore Gerry, dated February 2, offered two cups, valued at $600 each, to be competed for at Newport on July 25 and 27.

Business Troubles Killed Him.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—John Jacob Astor, in a letter to Commodore Gerry, dated February 2, offered two cups, valued at $600 each, to be competed for at Newport on July 25 and 27.

HER LIFE ENDED.

Mrs. William C. Whitney Dead.

HEART DISEASE THE CAUSE.

Account of the Life of a Woman Who Figured Prominently in American Society.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—Mrs. William C. Whitney died at 3 o'clock this morning. Death was not unexpected. Her attending physician pronounced her condition critical in the extreme last night, but they said there was a chance for recovery. They did not, however, give the family much hope, for the illness was due to heart trouble and a fatal change might come at any moment. "At about midnight the family retired, but toward 2 o'clock the suffering woman began to show alarming symptoms and the family was called. Physicians were hastily summoned, but the patient was beyond medical aid, and at 3 o'clock she ended.

TO HELP ZANTE.

The King and Queen of Greece Are on the Scene.

ATHENS, Feb. 4.—The King and Queen of Greece and the Duke of Sparta have started for Zante, in search of the relief of the suffering people. Since yesterday the shocks have been fewer, and the result damage has been diminished in proportion. The loss of property caused by the calamity is estimated at $500,000 drachmas.

Protecting Their Toes.

They Are on the Alert.

RIO JANEIRO, Feb. 4.—The Argentinians are reading upon Brazil's toes on the Mission frontier, as they express their intention of dropping the Martin Garcia Channel. The Brazilians accordingly are laying torpedoes along the channel.

A Mexican Holiday.

City of Mexico, Feb. 4.—Tomorrow and Monday will be public holidays in honor of the anniversary of the promulgation of the constitution of 1857.

Was in Bad Company.

GUATEMALA, Feb. 4.—The recent flogging of the British Minister's son has been investigated, and the evidence, it is said, shows that the affair grew out of a low class dance.

Spread of the Grippe.

COPENHAGEN, Feb. 4.—The grippe from Sweden has the influenza is spreading rapidly, over one hundred patients being under treatment at the hospital at Carlsborg.

They Stole Young Girls.

MARACAIBO, Feb. 4.—The Guajira Indians have stolen alive three traders who were caught roasting young Indian girls for the purpose of selling them into servitude.

Ireland Honored.

ST. JOSEPH, Feb. 4.—Archbishop Ireland was banqueted to-night by the leading citizens of the city.

BARELY IN TIME.

Another Attempt to Dig Out of Jail.

The Old County Building on Broadway Considered Insecure—Special Precautions.

But for the fact that Chief Jailer Fitzpatrick had adopted the precaution of changing all the prisoners in the County Jail from one cell to another every three or four days there would have been at least four less inmates of the shabby old building yesterday morning than there were when roll was called.

Friday night all the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

TURNED THE TABLES.

The Conservatives Win a Victory on the Home-Rule Issue.

PACIFIC MAIL MEN ANXIOUS.

The S. N. Castle From Honolulu Met No Trace of the Overdue Steamer. Her Valuable Cargo.

There is no use disguising the fact that there is considerable anxiety on the part of the Pacific Mail officials regarding the continued delay of the China steamer City of Peking.

UP TO YESTERDAY THE LEADING OFFICERS OF THE COMPANY, IN RESPONSE TO HUNDREDS OF DAILY INQUIRIES, EXPRESSED THE GREATEST CONFIDENCE IN THE FAMILIARITY OF THE CAPTAIN, WHO ANXIOUSLY ASKED QUESTIONS WERE TOLD TO HAVE NO APPREHENSION ABOUT THE STEAMER'S SAFETY, THAT PROBABLY THE MACHINERY HAD BECOME DISABLED THROUGH THE BREAKING OF A CRANK-OR-AXLE, AND THAT HE HAD DECLARED THAT HE HAD BEEN COMPELLED TO RESORT TO THE USE OF SAIS IN ORDER TO PROCEED.

TO HELP ZANTE.

Only Two of the Crew of the Louisiana Survived.

HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 5.—The brigantine Vestal has arrived at Harbor Grace with two of the crew of the Danish brig Louisiana, Captain Erickson, from San Domingo for Havre. The Louisiana was wrecked January 1 in midocean. Two of the crew were washed overboard. The captain died from injuries two days after, and a colored sailor died of cholera on the 15th. The bodies of the two men were recovered from the wreck with scarcely anything to eat or drink.

TO HELP ZANTE.

The King and Queen of Greece Are on the Scene.

ATHENS, Feb. 4.—The King and Queen of Greece and the Duke of Sparta have started for Zante, in search of the relief of the suffering people. Since yesterday the shocks have been fewer, and the result damage has been diminished in proportion. The loss of property caused by the calamity is estimated at $500,000 drachmas.

Protecting Their Toes.

They Are on the Alert.

RIO JANEIRO, Feb. 4.—The Argentinians are reading upon Brazil's toes on the Mission frontier, as they express their intention of dropping the Martin Garcia Channel. The Brazilians accordingly are laying torpedoes along the channel.

A Mexican Holiday.

City of Mexico, Feb. 4.—Tomorrow and Monday will be public holidays in honor of the anniversary of the promulgation of the constitution of 1857.

Was in Bad Company.

GUATEMALA, Feb. 4.—The recent flogging of the British Minister's son has been investigated, and the evidence, it is said, shows that the affair grew out of a low class dance.

Spread of the Grippe.

COPENHAGEN, Feb. 4.—The grippe from Sweden has the influenza is spreading rapidly, over one hundred patients being under treatment at the hospital at Carlsborg.

They Stole Young Girls.

MARACAIBO, Feb. 4.—The Guajira Indians have stolen alive three traders who were caught roasting young Indian girls for the purpose of selling them into servitude.

Ireland Honored.

ST. JOSEPH, Feb. 4.—Archbishop Ireland was banqueted to-night by the leading citizens of the city.

BARELY IN TIME.

Another Attempt to Dig Out of Jail.

The Old County Building on Broadway Considered Insecure—Special Precautions.

But for the fact that Chief Jailer Fitzpatrick had adopted the precaution of changing all the prisoners in the County Jail from one cell to another every three or four days there would have been at least four less inmates of the shabby old building yesterday morning than there were when roll was called.

Friday night all the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton and another man were confined, the quarters were so much growing about having to move that the officers began to be suspicious.

Besides, the four had been unusually noisy and mean for a week or more. They would start in raising a racket and keep it up until the night guard had been summoned up, and even then would stink and whoop.

After a while the prisoners were changed around, and when the jailers came to cell 43, in which George Thompson, Joe Collins, a man named Barton