

IT IS ALL TALK.

The Cabinet Again in Consultation.

IT SEARCHES FOR FLAWS.

And the Farce of a Law That is Never Enforced Still Holds the Boards.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Colonel Reeve, solicitor of the treasury, said today: "There will be some trouble over the fact that the Chinese registration act does not expressly state who is to have charge of the deportation of the Chinese."

The cabinet has the Chinese question under consideration incidentally today. The exclusion laws and registration act were discussed, as well as the duties heretofore performed by the several department officers in executing the laws and the means to be adopted in the future.

RESTORED THE MONEY. But Nobody Knows How It Ever Came to Be Lost.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—United States Treasurer Neuberger today paid into the United States treasury $165,500, the amount having been stolen or lost from the treasury cash. The money was all lost in the redemption division of the Treasurer's office at three different times, and all since the 4th of last March.

INTO MORMON HANDS. President Cleveland Gives Utah to the Saints.

Or at Least That Seems to Be What He is Preparing to Do at Present.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—President Cleveland is considering the advisability of changing the personnel of the Utah Commission. Originally the Commissioners drew $5000 a year, approved by the people of Utah, and for some years a fight has been on. It resulted last winter in a reduction of the salaries to $2000 a year and a provision that in future all Commissioners named should come from the Territory.

CHOATE HAD AN OBJECT. He Wanted a Precedent to Head Off Western Judges.

New York, May 26.—The Tribune says in its morning issue: "The request of Maxwell Ervatt, who was associated with Joseph H. Choate as counsel for the Six Companies, Judge Lacombe has written an opinion in the case of Ng Look, the Chinaman who was arrested several days ago."

SPEAKING OF SILVER. Why No More Dollars Will Be Coined at Carson.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The order suspending the coinage of silver dollars at the United States mint at Carson City after the 1st of July has caused a number of inquiries to be made as to the policy intended by this stoppage. The reason given for the suspension is that these coins are not needed, there being no demand for the redemption of treasury notes in silver dollars.

COAST GOSSIP. Stephen Gage Goes Calling Upon President Cleveland.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Gage of California and their family are now in this city and are living aboard their own car at the Pennsylvania Depot and spending the day in seeing the sights. They have come on from the Pacific Coast by easy stages and spent three days in the Chicago Fair grounds.

CHOLERA COMING WEST. The Plague Marches Slowly, but It Moves Steadily.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Surgeon-General Wagoner of the Marine Hospital service received a cable dispatch today from Surgeon Irwin, who is stationed at Marseilles, announcing that cholera had appeared at Nîmes and Cete, in Southern France.

MAKING EMBASSADOR. King Humbert is Determined to Be in the Swim.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Secretary Gresham has received official notice of the purpose of the Italian Government to raise its diplomatic representation to the grade of an embassy. It is presumed that the present Italian Minister, Baron Fava, will succeed to the new office. The American Minister to Italy will now be made an ambassador.

BRIGGS A LOSER.

Waging a Bitter War of Words.

WRATH OF THE GODLY MEN.

Learned Leaders in Presbyterianism Seemed to Forget That They Constituted a Court.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—By a vote of 409 to 145 the Presbyterian General Assembly this afternoon decided to entertain the appeal in the case of Dr. Briggs, and will proceed with the trial to-morrow morning. The rollcall on the resolution was taken amidst almost painful silence, during which the defeated side weched with feverish anxiety the progress of the vote.

RESTORED THE MONEY. But Nobody Knows How It Ever Came to Be Lost.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—United States Treasurer Neuberger today paid into the United States treasury $165,500, the amount having been stolen or lost from the treasury cash. The money was all lost in the redemption division of the Treasurer's office at three different times, and all since the 4th of last March.

INTO MORMON HANDS. President Cleveland Gives Utah to the Saints.

Or at Least That Seems to Be What He is Preparing to Do at Present.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—President Cleveland is considering the advisability of changing the personnel of the Utah Commission. Originally the Commissioners drew $5000 a year, approved by the people of Utah, and for some years a fight has been on. It resulted last winter in a reduction of the salaries to $2000 a year and a provision that in future all Commissioners named should come from the Territory.

CHOATE HAD AN OBJECT. He Wanted a Precedent to Head Off Western Judges.

New York, May 26.—The Tribune says in its morning issue: "The request of Maxwell Ervatt, who was associated with Joseph H. Choate as counsel for the Six Companies, Judge Lacombe has written an opinion in the case of Ng Look, the Chinaman who was arrested several days ago."

SPEAKING OF SILVER. Why No More Dollars Will Be Coined at Carson.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The order suspending the coinage of silver dollars at the United States mint at Carson City after the 1st of July has caused a number of inquiries to be made as to the policy intended by this stoppage. The reason given for the suspension is that these coins are not needed, there being no demand for the redemption of treasury notes in silver dollars.

COAST GOSSIP. Stephen Gage Goes Calling Upon President Cleveland.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Gage of California and their family are now in this city and are living aboard their own car at the Pennsylvania Depot and spending the day in seeing the sights. They have come on from the Pacific Coast by easy stages and spent three days in the Chicago Fair grounds.

CHOLERA COMING WEST. The Plague Marches Slowly, but It Moves Steadily.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Surgeon-General Wagoner of the Marine Hospital service received a cable dispatch today from Surgeon Irwin, who is stationed at Marseilles, announcing that cholera had appeared at Nîmes and Cete, in Southern France.

MAKING EMBASSADOR. King Humbert is Determined to Be in the Swim.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Secretary Gresham has received official notice of the purpose of the Italian Government to raise its diplomatic representation to the grade of an embassy. It is presumed that the present Italian Minister, Baron Fava, will succeed to the new office. The American Minister to Italy will now be made an ambassador.

That Is a Sure Thing Anyway.

MILCHRIST TO SHOW FIGHT.

But He is in No Hurry, and the Directors Prepare to Coin Money.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

CHICAGO, May 26.—The World's Fair will be open on Sunday. The officials in charge are making extensive preparations to receive the immense crowds, and if the weather is pleasant they estimate that the attendance will be great. After bearing arguments all of today in the Clinegan case to prevent the directors closing the gates on Sunday, Judge Stein of the Superior Court took the matter under advisement until Monday.

RESTORED THE MONEY. But Nobody Knows How It Ever Came to Be Lost.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—United States Treasurer Neuberger today paid into the United States treasury $165,500, the amount having been stolen or lost from the treasury cash. The money was all lost in the redemption division of the Treasurer's office at three different times, and all since the 4th of last March.

INTO MORMON HANDS. President Cleveland Gives Utah to the Saints.

Or at Least That Seems to Be What He is Preparing to Do at Present.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—President Cleveland is considering the advisability of changing the personnel of the Utah Commission. Originally the Commissioners drew $5000 a year, approved by the people of Utah, and for some years a fight has been on. It resulted last winter in a reduction of the salaries to $2000 a year and a provision that in future all Commissioners named should come from the Territory.

CHOATE HAD AN OBJECT. He Wanted a Precedent to Head Off Western Judges.

New York, May 26.—The Tribune says in its morning issue: "The request of Maxwell Ervatt, who was associated with Joseph H. Choate as counsel for the Six Companies, Judge Lacombe has written an opinion in the case of Ng Look, the Chinaman who was arrested several days ago."

SPEAKING OF SILVER. Why No More Dollars Will Be Coined at Carson.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The order suspending the coinage of silver dollars at the United States mint at Carson City after the 1st of July has caused a number of inquiries to be made as to the policy intended by this stoppage. The reason given for the suspension is that these coins are not needed, there being no demand for the redemption of treasury notes in silver dollars.

COAST GOSSIP. Stephen Gage Goes Calling Upon President Cleveland.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Gage of California and their family are now in this city and are living aboard their own car at the Pennsylvania Depot and spending the day in seeing the sights. They have come on from the Pacific Coast by easy stages and spent three days in the Chicago Fair grounds.

CHOLERA COMING WEST. The Plague Marches Slowly, but It Moves Steadily.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Surgeon-General Wagoner of the Marine Hospital service received a cable dispatch today from Surgeon Irwin, who is stationed at Marseilles, announcing that cholera had appeared at Nîmes and Cete, in Southern France.

MAKING EMBASSADOR. King Humbert is Determined to Be in the Swim.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Secretary Gresham has received official notice of the purpose of the Italian Government to raise its diplomatic representation to the grade of an embassy. It is presumed that the present Italian Minister, Baron Fava, will succeed to the new office. The American Minister to Italy will now be made an ambassador.

OPEN ON SUNDAY.

That Is a Sure Thing Anyway.

MILCHRIST TO SHOW FIGHT.

But He is in No Hurry, and the Directors Prepare to Coin Money.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

CHICAGO, May 26.—The World's Fair will be open on Sunday. The officials in charge are making extensive preparations to receive the immense crowds, and if the weather is pleasant they estimate that the attendance will be great. After bearing arguments all of today in the Clinegan case to prevent the directors closing the gates on Sunday, Judge Stein of the Superior Court took the matter under advisement until Monday.

RESTORED THE MONEY. But Nobody Knows How It Ever Came to Be Lost.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—United States Treasurer Neuberger today paid into the United States treasury $165,500, the amount having been stolen or lost from the treasury cash. The money was all lost in the redemption division of the Treasurer's office at three different times, and all since the 4th of last March.

INTO MORMON HANDS. President Cleveland Gives Utah to the Saints.

Or at Least That Seems to Be What He is Preparing to Do at Present.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—President Cleveland is considering the advisability of changing the personnel of the Utah Commission. Originally the Commissioners drew $5000 a year, approved by the people of Utah, and for some years a fight has been on. It resulted last winter in a reduction of the salaries to $2000 a year and a provision that in future all Commissioners named should come from the Territory.

CHOATE HAD AN OBJECT. He Wanted a Precedent to Head Off Western Judges.

New York, May 26.—The Tribune says in its morning issue: "The request of Maxwell Ervatt, who was associated with Joseph H. Choate as counsel for the Six Companies, Judge Lacombe has written an opinion in the case of Ng Look, the Chinaman who was arrested several days ago."

SPEAKING OF SILVER. Why No More Dollars Will Be Coined at Carson.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The order suspending the coinage of silver dollars at the United States mint at Carson City after the 1st of July has caused a number of inquiries to be made as to the policy intended by this stoppage. The reason given for the suspension is that these coins are not needed, there being no demand for the redemption of treasury notes in silver dollars.

COAST GOSSIP. Stephen Gage Goes Calling Upon President Cleveland.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Gage of California and their family are now in this city and are living aboard their own car at the Pennsylvania Depot and spending the day in seeing the sights. They have come on from the Pacific Coast by easy stages and spent three days in the Chicago Fair grounds.

CHOLERA COMING WEST. The Plague Marches Slowly, but It Moves Steadily.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Surgeon-General Wagoner of the Marine Hospital service received a cable dispatch today from Surgeon Irwin, who is stationed at Marseilles, announcing that cholera had appeared at Nîmes and Cete, in Southern France.

MAKING EMBASSADOR. King Humbert is Determined to Be in the Swim.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Secretary Gresham has received official notice of the purpose of the Italian Government to raise its diplomatic representation to the grade of an embassy. It is presumed that the present Italian Minister, Baron Fava, will succeed to the new office. The American Minister to Italy will now be made an ambassador.

FEARFUL OF SILVER.

German Capital Waiting for the Repeal of the Sherman Law.

WRATH OF THE GODLY MEN.

Learned Leaders in Presbyterianism Seemed to Forget That They Constituted a Court.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—By a vote of 409 to 145 the Presbyterian General Assembly this afternoon decided to entertain the appeal in the case of Dr. Briggs, and will proceed with the trial to-morrow morning. The rollcall on the resolution was taken amidst almost painful silence, during which the defeated side weched with feverish anxiety the progress of the vote.

RESTORED THE MONEY. But Nobody Knows How It Ever Came to Be Lost.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—United States Treasurer Neuberger today paid into the United States treasury $165,500, the amount having been stolen or lost from the treasury cash. The money was all lost in the redemption division of the Treasurer's office at three different times, and all since the 4th of last March.

INTO MORMON HANDS. President Cleveland Gives Utah to the Saints.

Or at Least That Seems to Be What He is Preparing to Do at Present.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—President Cleveland is considering the advisability of changing the personnel of the Utah Commission. Originally the Commissioners drew $5000 a year, approved by the people of Utah, and for some years a fight has been on. It resulted last winter in a reduction of the salaries to $2000 a year and a provision that in future all Commissioners named should come from the Territory.

CHOATE HAD AN OBJECT. He Wanted a Precedent to Head Off Western Judges.

New York, May 26.—The Tribune says in its morning issue: "The request of Maxwell Ervatt, who was associated with Joseph H. Choate as counsel for the Six Companies, Judge Lacombe has written an opinion in the case of Ng Look, the Chinaman who was arrested several days ago."

SPEAKING OF SILVER. Why No More Dollars Will Be Coined at Carson.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The order suspending the coinage of silver dollars at the United States mint at Carson City after the 1st of July has caused a number of inquiries to be made as to the policy intended by this stoppage. The reason given for the suspension is that these coins are not needed, there being no demand for the redemption of treasury notes in silver dollars.

COAST GOSSIP. Stephen Gage Goes Calling Upon President Cleveland.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Gage of California and their family are now in this city and are living aboard their own car at the Pennsylvania Depot and spending the day in seeing the sights. They have come on from the Pacific Coast by easy stages and spent three days in the Chicago Fair grounds.

CHOLERA COMING WEST. The Plague Marches Slowly, but It Moves Steadily.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Surgeon-General Wagoner of the Marine Hospital service received a cable dispatch today from Surgeon Irwin, who is stationed at Marseilles, announcing that cholera had appeared at Nîmes and Cete, in Southern France.

MAKING EMBASSADOR. King Humbert is Determined to Be in the Swim.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Secretary Gresham has received official notice of the purpose of the Italian Government to raise its diplomatic representation to the grade of an embassy. It is presumed that the present Italian Minister, Baron Fava, will succeed to the new office. The American Minister to Italy will now be made an ambassador.

HER TRIAL TRIP.

Herbert Hears about the Monterey.

NOTHING SERIOUSLY WRONG.

The Ship's Boilers are Sound and She Will Strike for Deep Water To-Day.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Secretary Herbert has given his approval to the finding and recommendations made by Captain Matthews as a result of his inspection of the Mare Island (California) navy-yard. The Secretary is much gratified at the nature of the report, as it enables him to carry out a plan which he has cherished as in the line of economy and as calculated to build up important naval interests on the Pacific Coast.

RESTORED THE MONEY. But Nobody Knows How It Ever Came to Be Lost.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—United States Treasurer Neuberger today paid into the United States treasury $165,500, the amount having been stolen or lost from the treasury cash. The money was all lost in the redemption division of the Treasurer's office at three different times, and all since the 4th of last March.

INTO MORMON HANDS. President Cleveland Gives Utah to the Saints.

Or at Least That Seems to Be What He is Preparing to Do at Present.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—President Cleveland is considering the advisability of changing the personnel of the Utah Commission. Originally the Commissioners drew $5000 a year, approved by the people of Utah, and for some years a fight has been on. It resulted last winter in a reduction of the salaries to $2000 a year and a provision that in future all Commissioners named should come from the Territory.

CHOATE HAD AN OBJECT. He Wanted a Precedent to Head Off Western Judges.

New York, May 26.—The Tribune says in its morning issue: "The request of Maxwell Ervatt, who was associated with Joseph H. Choate as counsel for the Six Companies, Judge Lacombe has written an opinion in the case of Ng Look, the Chinaman who was arrested several days ago."

SPEAKING OF SILVER. Why No More Dollars Will Be Coined at Carson.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The order suspending the coinage of silver dollars at the United States mint at Carson City after the 1st of July has caused a number of inquiries to be made as to the policy intended by this stoppage. The reason given for the suspension is that these coins are not needed, there being no demand for the redemption of treasury notes in silver dollars.

COAST GOSSIP. Stephen Gage Goes Calling Upon President Cleveland.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Gage of California and their family are now in this city and are living aboard their own car at the Pennsylvania Depot and spending the day in seeing the sights. They have come on from the Pacific Coast by easy stages and spent three days in the Chicago Fair grounds.

CHOLERA COMING WEST. The Plague Marches Slowly, but It Moves Steadily.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Surgeon-General Wagoner of the Marine Hospital service received a cable dispatch today from Surgeon Irwin, who is stationed at Marseilles, announcing that cholera had appeared at Nîmes and Cete, in Southern France.

MAKING EMBASSADOR. King Humbert is Determined to Be in the Swim.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Secretary Gresham has received official notice of the purpose of the Italian Government to raise its diplomatic representation to the grade of an embassy. It is presumed that the present Italian Minister, Baron Fava, will succeed to the new office. The American Minister to Italy will now be made an ambassador.

ALL WORK FOR GOOD.

But the Sentiment Upon What is Best is Not Unanimous.

Religious Bodies in Session in Various Towns Pass Varied Sorts of Resolutions.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—At the session of the general conference of the Epworth League to-day the committee on resolutions submitted a report denouncing the Epworth League. The report was adopted, and notice of the action was telegraphed to the World's Fair authorities at Chicago.

RESTORED THE MONEY. But Nobody Knows How It Ever Came to Be Lost.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—United States Treasurer Neuberger today paid into the United States treasury $165,500, the amount having been stolen or lost from the treasury cash. The money was all lost in the redemption division of the Treasurer's office at three different times, and all since the 4th of last March.

INTO MORMON HANDS. President Cleveland Gives Utah to the Saints.

Or at Least That Seems to Be What He is Preparing to Do at Present.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—President Cleveland is considering the advisability of changing the personnel of the Utah Commission. Originally the Commissioners drew $5000 a year, approved by the people of Utah, and for some years a fight has been on. It resulted last winter in a reduction of the salaries to $2000 a year and a provision that in future all Commissioners named should come from the Territory.

CHOATE HAD AN OBJECT. He Wanted a Precedent to Head Off Western Judges.

New York, May 26.—The Tribune says in its morning issue: "The request of Maxwell Ervatt, who was associated with Joseph H. Choate as counsel for the Six Companies, Judge Lacombe has written an opinion in the case of Ng Look, the Chinaman who was arrested several days ago."

SPEAKING OF SILVER. Why No More Dollars Will Be Coined at Carson.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The order suspending the coinage of silver dollars at the United States mint at Carson City after the 1st of July has caused a number of inquiries to be made as to the policy intended by this stoppage. The reason given for the suspension is that these coins are not needed, there being no demand for the redemption of treasury notes in silver dollars.

COAST GOSSIP. Stephen Gage Goes Calling Upon President Cleveland.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Gage of California and their family are now in this city and are living aboard their own car at the Pennsylvania Depot and spending the day in seeing the sights. They have come on from the Pacific Coast by easy stages and spent three days in the Chicago Fair grounds.

CHOLERA COMING WEST. The Plague Marches Slowly, but It Moves Steadily.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Surgeon-General Wagoner of the Marine Hospital service received a cable dispatch today from Surgeon Irwin, who is stationed at Marseilles, announcing that cholera had appeared at Nîmes and Cete, in Southern France.

MAKING EMBASSADOR. King Humbert is Determined to Be in the Swim.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Secretary Gresham has received official notice of the purpose of the Italian Government to raise its diplomatic representation to the grade of an embassy. It is presumed that the present Italian Minister, Baron Fava, will succeed to the new office. The American Minister to Italy will now be made an ambassador.

HE SUES FOR PEACE.

Sacaza Sends More Envoys to the Revolutionists.

And He Has Also Solicited the Aid of Barrios to Uphold His Government.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, May 26.—President Sacaza has sent a second commission to treat with the revolutionary party and endeavor to make terms. It is believed, however, that this commission will be as unsuccessful as the first was. Sacaza has imposed as one of his principal conditions of peace that his adherents, if not himself personally, shall retain part control of the new government. The Government at Managua has information that aid is being extended to the revolutionists from Costa Rica.

HE SUES FOR PEACE.

Sacaza Sends More Envoys to the Revolutionists.

And He Has Also Solicited the Aid of Barrios to Uphold His Government.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, May 26.—President Sacaza has sent a second commission to treat with the revolutionary party and endeavor to make terms. It is believed, however, that this commission will be as unsuccessful as the first was. Sacaza has imposed as one of his principal conditions of peace that his adherents, if not himself personally, shall retain part control of the new government. The Government at Managua has information that aid is being extended to the revolutionists from Costa Rica.

HE SUES FOR PEACE.

Sacaza Sends More Envoys to the Revolutionists.

And He Has Also Solicited the Aid of Barrios to Uphold His Government.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, May 26.—President Sacaza has sent a second commission to treat with the revolutionary party and endeavor to make terms. It is believed, however, that this commission will be as unsuccessful as the first was. Sacaza has imposed as one of his principal conditions of peace that his adherents, if not himself personally, shall retain part control of the new government. The Government at Managua has information that aid is being extended to the revolutionists from Costa Rica.

HE SUES FOR PEACE.

Sacaza Sends More Envoys to the Revolutionists.

And He Has Also Solicited the Aid of Barrios to Uphold His Government.

Special to THE MORNING CALL.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, May 26.—President Sacaza has sent a second commission to treat with the revolutionary party and endeavor to make terms. It is believed, however, that this commission will be as unsuccessful as the first was. Sacaza has imposed as one of his principal conditions of peace that his adherents, if not himself personally, shall retain part control of the new government. The Government at Managua has information that aid is being extended to the revolutionists from Costa Rica.

ITCHING AND BURNING. Sore All Over Her Body. Suffering Endless. Doctor Useless. Cured in 4 Weeks by Cuticura.

Why Suffer One Moment From Itching and Burning? A single application of Cuticura... BABY'S SKIN AND SCALP purified and beautified by CUTICURA SOAP. PAWS AND WEAKNESSES